Wenda Johnson & MacGyver Moonflash Win $20,900 at San Angelo Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Nurse practitioner and National Finals Rodeo qualifier Wenda Johnson from Pawhuska, Oklahoma, to a major jump in the WPRA World Standings thanks to a $20,856 win aboard the fleet-footed MacGyver Moonflash at the San Angelo, Texas, Rodeo.

The $35,000-added rodeo was rescheduled from its typical February date to April due to COVID. While the date changed, the rodeo did bring back its access to all members of the WPRA, accepting the entries of both card members and permit holders with no limits.

“San Angelo is a great rodeo because it’s open to everyone to compete,” said Johnson. “The rodeo committee is friendly and helpful, and they work toward the success of the competitors. The win is icing on the cake, and I’m grateful for this type of opportunity.”

The entire first round of the rodeo was held in early April in a jackpot-style atmosphere in the 1st Community Credit Union Spur Arena. The ground was worked every five runners with a big drag every 50 for the 276 entries. The top 120 advanced to the performances held throughout the month in the Foster Communications Coliseum.

In the first round, Johnson and Mac took second to Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Ima Famous Babe (“Katniss”) with a 15.81. By virtue of their first round finish, Johnson and Flash were out in the last performance before the short round, so Mac went home to Fort Worth, Texas, and the care of his trainer Luis Hernandez, the barn manager for the gelding’s owner Tres Mesas Horses. Johnson, on the other hand, finished up her Doctorate of Nursing Practice and helped her sister Wylene Wilson-Davis at the colt-starting contest, Road To The Horse.

“The Road To The Horse was an amazing experience,” she said. Her sister finished second in the wild card competition but didn’t advance to the finals. “It was an honor to help support my sister just as she supports me. As her ‘Pen Wrangler,’ I was allowed 10 minutes, per day, the first two days to provide direct assistance with her and her colt without touching him. It also included taking the tools, obstacles, saddle, etc., in and out of the pen. The final day, the competitor’s pen wranglers were not involved, therefore, we watched and cheered her on.”

Back in San Angelo, Dona Kay Rule and High Valor had taken the lead in the second round and aggregate until that final performance when Johnson and Mac set the pace at 14.11.

In the short round, Rule and Valor along with Carly Taylor and Diva Dinero split the win with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 14.07. All Johnson and Mac needed was a 14.09 to secure the title and they were right on time.

“During a race, sometimes I can hear how others do, but sometimes not,” Johnson explained. “Ultimately, it doesn’t affect my game plan, and I’m excited to cheer on each competitor or express concern if their run didn’t go as planned or if there is worry for an injury. We are all in this together, doing what we love.”

Johnson burst on to the barrel racing scene in 2016 after many years away from the sport to pursue her nursing studies and start a family. Her return came courtesy of the friendship between her sister and Singletary, who owned the freakishly fast Dreams First Flash, who is currently recovering from an injury. Johnson and the First Moonflash gelding won two futurities before dominating most of the open races they entered.

After the success with Flash, Johnson campaigned another Tres Mesa-owned First Moonflash futurity horse trained by Hernandez—Mac. The now 8-year-old gelding, out of Black Moon Rising, Dash Ta Fame mare Touched By The Moon, was Johnson’s main money earner for her first trip to the NFR last year.

“Mac is amazing,” said Johnson, who is also mother to two young girls. "He is so kind and willing. He is the easiest horse to be around. I'm so proud of him and those he has developed into. He loves to run and loves to open up and sprint."

Much like she did in 2020, Johnson plans on being picky about her rodeo schedule.

"The biggest thing I learned about rodeos is the inconsistent ground conditions and potential risk to the horses and riders," she said. "There were far too many horses that went down and riders that came off because of ill-prepared ground conditions. It's concerning and definitely plays a role on the rodeos I will be attending. Some factors such as weather patterns are understandable and out of anyone's hands, but lack of preparation is closer to neglect."

For now, Johnson says she has no set plan, but has her eye on entering a rodeo in June.

"With five months left of the rodeo season left—if I choose to go to some rodeos—I will continue to compete at rodeos that make sense and have good ground," she said.

History Made - Otto and Sixappeal Win Biggest BBR World Finals Ever

The 2021 edition of the Better Barrel Races World Finals at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma held April 21-25 was the largest in BBR history with 2,059 entries in the World Finals alone! Through all the classes there were 6,292 total entries and a whopping 6,397 runs total through the week running in three arenas; the Coliseum, Barn 6, and Barn 8. Each of the contestants in the World Finals made one run in Coliseum and one run in Barn 6 attempting to qualify to Sunday's Finals Short Go.

Each year the best 50 1D Open horses in the country are highlighted in the crowd & web watchers favorite The Fast Fifty during Sunday's Short Go, it's always an action packed hour of watching and this year was no exception.

When the dust settled it was Sixappeal and Molly Otto's smoking 15.208 which squeaked past Aint Seen Famous Yet and Amelia McCumber's 15.299 to claim the World Finals Champion Title. Between their Short Go win and 1D placing in Race 1 the team won $12,566 at the BBR World Finals.

Over the past couple years anyone familiar with barrel racing has seen Molly Otto's name in the headlines but it has mostly been with the futurity phenom filly, Teasin Dat Guy, but a few years back Otto and Sixappeal (aka Jimmy) were in the headlines racking up the earnings across the north country and wherever they went. This weekend was Jimmy's weekend to take back the spotlight!

Sixappeal is a 2013 sorrel gelding by the Corona Cartel son More Nachos and out of the Tres Seis/On A High mare, Six It Up. He was bred by Steven Pribyl in Minnesota and is owned by Dustin & Katie Lindahl, who also own Teasin Dat Guy (who placed 4th in Race 2 and was also in the Fast Fifty for Otto).

Otto has been running Jimmy since his futurity year in 2018, Otto and Jimmy have a very special bond, “I know all the things he likes and doesn’t like. After his run he likes to push me around with his head and wants his face scratched. when he’s feeling anxious he likes when I talk to him and rub his neck. He also kind of likes to make sure everyone can see him and tells him he’s handsome! Lol!” said Otto.

Katie Lindahl dropped the tall long legged colt off with Otto the fall of his 4 year old year expecting him to be a fun mounted shooting or barrel horse project. After riding him for 60 days, Otto asked if she could keep him to futurity. Otto could tell he was special the first time she loped around a barrel. “He had so much ability. It just felt easy for him”, Otto said. After taking Jimmy home for the winter Lindahl brought him back to Otto in March the next spring and he won his second Futurity in May. Otto has had him off and on ever since. Together they have now won at futurities, derbies and Winning the biggest BBR World Finals over the very best 2,059 open horses in the country on perfect, fast ground is a tough task, but Jimmy & Otto made it look easy. do it but to think that it would all fall into place in that one moment and actually happen to me...I was sort of doubtful. I was just thrilled to have made it back to the finals, and then to go out there and actually win it. Unbelievable. So grateful.”

Although there is no way to verify, it is believed the 2,059 entries that Otto topped for this win may be the biggest win in barrel racing history from an entry number perspective.

Otto is not only a top, winning barrel racer and trainer, but like so many in the barrel racing industry, she balances being a trainer and mom. “As a futurity trainer, there isn’t a day that you aren’t working. Finding balance between horses and family is so hard. People have a lot of expectations of you to be successful with their horses because they are paying for a service but sometimes they also forget that we can’t make horses be something they aren’t or aren’t ready for. They all progress differently and some take longer while others are easier.” she continues. “As a trainer I have had to make a lot of sacrifices like being a way from my family a lot and missing sporting events, etc. which has probably been the hardest thing for me especially as my kids grow older. One thing that I hope I can show my children is with hard work, perseverance, and dedication that they can accomplish anything.”

Otto spent the winter in Texas for her first time so she could keep hauling and progressing her colts. It looks like that was a move that paid off for both Sixappeal and Teasin Dat Guy as they have both been winning along all winter and now into the spring. “One thing that’s been really difficult being down here is to not compare my colts to everyone else’s. When I first got down here I struggled with that and put so much pressure on myself to have them ready right now but I had to remember that my training program is different than others and that every horse progresses at their own speed/time. After I took some of that pressure off of myself I felt like things started moving forward positively!” commented Otto.

With two top horses in her trailer Otto plans to rodeo some and see where it leads in 2021. Otto sits #31 in the World right now just about $10,000 behind the coveted #15 position. “We are going to enter up and see where the road takes us!” she said. With both Sixappeal and Teasin Dat Guy in the trailer, Otto is likely to become a regular in the rodeo results.

For years barrel racers have debated which are better, futurities or rodeos. For Otto who is living in both worlds, she can’t choose! “I really love both the futurities and rodeos. They are so different though it’s hard to pick which one I like more.” she continued. “I think the thing I like about the futurities is that it is a lot more of a controlled environment as far as the ground is even and safe for everyone. There is a lot of opportunity to win money with each go round and average. I love the atmosphere at the rodeos and maybe the thrill of knowing you drove all the way there with only one shot to go out there and be the fastest.”

Winning over 2,000 plus entries is always amazing but riding a horse that makes you smile is the ultimate win. As Otto says, “Jimmy is the horse that when you get on his back you can’t help but smile.”

The smiles those amazing barrel horses bring is the reason 2,059 entries ran down the alleys in OKC last week!

Hall & Hello Stella Sweep Vitalize Futurity at BBR World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Sharin Hall and her homebred 4-year-old mare Hello Stella swept the $15,000 added, 191-entry Vitalize Futurity at the BBR World Finals Futurity, held April 20-26 in Oklahoma City. Hall and Stella collected $11,073 for the futurity championship plus $895 for winning the AQHA futurity sidepot.

"This futurity is a little bit sentimental to me," said the Pilot Point, Texas, based trainer. In 2017, I did the exact same thing Dreaming Of Foose," whom Hall sadly lost to a tragic competition injury at the AQHA World Show that fall.

The Vitalize Futurity was the first major event for Hall and Stella since the mare got sick at the Royal Crown Futurity in Bryan, Texas, following the incredible winter storm.

"I've had some setbacks with her," said Hall. The mare debuted with a third-place showing at the BFA Super Stakes before a series of mishaps outside the arena. "She had a vein abscess on me right before Oklahoma City. She got really sick at Bryan and was in the hospital for a week after that. After that I gave her a break. I'm just now feeling like she's back to herself."

Hall took the mare to one jackpot before the Vitalize Futurity just to "figure things out." "I was hitting the first barrel leaving it," she said. "I'm like, 'Ok, I've got to fix this.' I did a few little training tactics and it worked out thankfully. The mare's just dialed in right now. I'm literally just along for the ride."

At the BBR World Finals, Hall and the mare took the first round with a 15.654 even with a little slip leaving the second barrel. The mare surprised Hall with an even faster winning time, a 15.593, in the second round.

Hall said she didn't really have a game plan for her second run other than enjoying her horse.

"I knew I needed to have a clean run, but at this point, if I would have sat there and worried and focused on not hitting a barrel—I would have been more anticipating and probably would have hit a barrel," she explained. of those horses that's like 'I've got this mom! Stay out of my way and I'll do it.' I just went in there with confidence in my horse, the training and my ability—all the work I put into it before I even got to the event. There's no training when you get there. It was all about jockeying. I looked like a sack of potatoes, but I sat in the middle and let my horse work. I didn't overthink or overanalyze. I thought, 'Sit in the middle and let her work,' and that's what I did."

Hall bred Stella, who is out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Go Go Fame, an earner of more than $40,000 in the barrel pen herself. She paired her with The Goodbye Lane the very year his offspring took the national stage.

She had stumbled across The Goodbye Lane while attending the Glen Wood Memorial in Heber City, Utah. The event was produced by Mike and Linda Jarvis and their family, who just happened to own the Lanes Leinster, Dash Ta Fame stallion.

A former full time horse trainer, Hall now sells real estate as well. Her focus has shifted from outside horses to her own for the most part.

"I do have Rocket Fire Ta Fame that I'm campaigning for a really good friend and client," she said. "I really like him, but I'm really getting to where I'm riding my own. If someone wanted to send me something it would have to be my style and they'd have to pay my price. I'm just happy to ride my own. I am selling real estate. I'm really just working my sphere. I've been busy. I'm not complaining. Life is good right now."

THE RUNDOWN w/Sharin Hall

Hello Stella, "Stella" 15 hands

BIT: SH 03. "I did do a bit change. All year I've run her in my SH 02, which is like a little lifter bit. She runs with her head so low I'm always having to keep her head and shoulder up a little bit. I was having trouble hitting that first barrel, like she was just snapping back so hard. I did a bit adjustment and a few little training techniques that fixed her first barrel. She's taking a little extra step, but she's getting around it."

SADDLE: SH Pro Series Lightweight

SADDLE PAD: SH Pro Series

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice 2xCool on all four

SHOEING: Aluminum on front, regular on back. "Jarrod Morris is my farrier. He's done a fantastic job."

FEED: ReNew Gold Senior with Bluebonnet

HAY: All the grass hay she wants 24//7; Alfalfa morning and night.

SUPPLEMENTS: Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals Gastro Plex, Exceed 6-Way, In Sync, Vitamin E-Se; Breathe O2 Paste pre-run

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PEMF, PHT, Hidez, and Theraplate

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She always gets a day off after I run. She'll get rode the next two days and then another day off. She'll probably get rode two to three times a week if I run on the weekends."

SPONSORS: Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals, Complete PEMF, PHT, Dream Hidez, Theraplate by Rene Audsley

Prolific Race & NFR Barrel Sire Smoke N Sparks Passes On

Smoke N Sparks, a nationally-ranked barrel horse sire of over $1.3 million in Equi-Stat progeny earnings, passed away due to colic complications at the age of 29 on April 18, 2021. He is laid to rest under the cottonwood tree at the end of the paddock that he called home for 24 years at Gerald "Jerry" and Iva Korell's home in Riverton, WY; it was by this tree that he watched expectantly each spring to see new mares arriving. The Korells imagine he is still gazing at his ladies in heaven.

"Sparks" was more than just a horse to the Korells. He was a sire. A livelihood. A comrade. A legacy. Sparks put them on the map on a national scale. Bar Three Stables was a small, homegrown breeding operation that focused on racetrack and barrel horses. They had already been in business for decades and were creating exceptional equine athletes, but they blossomed into a countrywide known premier breeding facility. All of this was because of Sparks and some exceptional mares that produced hundreds of performers, including two-time WNFR qualifier, WNFR Go-Round winner, and Rookie of the Year RF Firefly "Cleo" (with Kelli Tolbert Thouvenell) and Better Barrel Races World Champion and Run for the Bonus World Champion Smoke N Sunshine "Shine" (with Kathy Korell-Rach). His progeny have won countless futurities, derbies, rodeos, high school championships, and college championships; they have set an abundance of arena records in the process.

Sparks' colts were also performers in other events. On the racetrack, he had 28 starters that earned almost $157,000 with 22 wins, one stakes winner, and one stakes placed horse. One of his best performers on the track was WY All Breed Futurity Champion Chloes Smoke N Fame (bred by the Korells and owned by Richard Dolbow). Sparks also had offspring win in the roping pen, including two-time PRCA Big Sky Head Horse of the Year and three-time CNFR head horse competitor Smokin Grits (owned by Janet and Sid Erickson).

"Sparks was such a blessing. Our everyday lives revolved around him," explained Iva. "We loved him, and our place will never feel the same without him. We watched him through our front window year-round, and it's so gut-wrenching to look out and see an empty pen."

The Korells' acquisition of Sparks was like a story out of a NY Times Best-Selling novel; certainly, God had His hands all over it. The Korells lost their stallion Barjo Twist, who also produced countless top-notch barrel horses, at age 27 and were looking for a replacement. Gerald saw that Sparks was for sale in the October 1997 Heritage Place Sale in Oklahoma, and was interested primarily due to the Shawne Bug on his bottom side.

Sparks was a performer in his own right. Born March 11, 1992, the leading money-earning son of Dash For Perks was a Grade 1 Stakes Winner of $96,101. He won the Kansas Futurity, was second in the Easy Jet Handicap, and fourth at Remington Park Futurity. The Korells figured that big, handsome, black five-year-old stallion would most certainly be out of their price range, but they set out to Oklahoma with prayers said and fingers crossed they could come home with him. At that time, first-time purchasers at the Heritage Place Sale had to bring cash. Iva secured a cashier's check for everything they had in savings, which amounted to $16,000. Gerald's father, Jake Korell, thought Sparks was a good gamble and sent them with an additional $14,000 in cash, which was anxiously stuffed in Gerald's boot tops.

The Korells were shocked and elated when the final gavel drop resulted in them buying Sparks for $14,000 from then owner James Martin III. They made a treacherous journey home in one of the worst snow storms of the decade. They were unable to stop because all of the exits and frontage roads were snowed under and closed, so they just kept trucking. Sparks, who previously made his home in Louisiana, was not too keen on his new frosty accommodations that first winter. But he came to love the snow and played in it like a colt annually.

In the coming weeks, the Korells received several phone calls from people who were planning to bid on Sparks but were sidetracked or otherwise preoccupied when he went through the ring. No doubt, it was a heavenly intervention. Callers made multiple offers, including paying three times the purchase price just to be a half owner. But the Korells declined and Sparks became a fixture on the place for over two decades. Taking that risk was one of the best decisions they could have ever made.

"Sparks made our livelihood. He made our lives," reminisced Gerald. "He earned his keep and our keep too by bringing in our full income for 24 years. We were devoted to him and he was invested in us. Partnership fails to describe it. Sparks was family."

Sparks proved himself to be a lively, fun-loving horse. The halter was a toy rather than a piece of tack, and he amused himself by trying to grab it each time before someone could put it on. He was often found racing around his pasture, bucking, running and spinning like a colt even until a few weeks ago. His favorite game was to wait patiently in his shed until someone rode a green colt by his pasture. Then he would ambush them from the shed, bolting out like he was leaving a starting gate and boiling up behind them to produce some entertainment. If a colt could stick with him, you knew it could make AAA on the track. Sparks kept his playful attitude until just hours before he was euthanized. He passed his high-spirited, gritty, loveable demeanor and raw talent to most of his offspring.

Sparks was in the top 10 on the Equi-Stat Leading Futurity, Derby, 5-Year, and All-Time Barrel Sire lists for over a decade. He is also the grandsire of over $168,000 in Equi-Stat performer earnings. At the time of his death, he was Five-Year Leading Barrel Sire #31, Five-Year Leading Futurity Sire #37, and Five-Year Leading Derby Sire #33. He will continue to live on in the pedigrees of performers for years to come. A limited supply of frozen semen is still available at Sage Veterinary Services.

The Korells have been breeding horses for over 60 years, and have stood a stallion to the public all of that time. Their names have become synonymous with Smoke N Sparks, so this loss is profound on multiple levels. While they will not be standing another stallion, they will continue to breed some of the finest performing Sparks daughters to the best racetrack and barrel sires available. The Bar Three Stables legacy that was catapulted with Smoke N Sparks will endure timelessly.

- Thank you to the Korell family for sending this to us. We are sincerely sorry for their loss of Smoke N Sparks.

If you really

WPRO Names Darla Lindt New Chief Operating Officer and Board Executive Secretary

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association recently named Darla Lindt as the new Chief Operating Officer and Board Executive Secretary, replacing Janet Cropper, who retired on April 15, 2021.

The WPRO Chief Operating Officer (COO) is responsible for all the hands on operational aspects of the WPRO activities and is a critical partner to the WPRO President in terms of growing and ensuring a healthy and viable not for profit membership based business. In addition, the COO leads the office team, headquartered in Colorado Springs, handling the day-to-day operations to be efficient, productive, and effective. As the Board Executive Secretary, in conjunction with the President, will help facilitate special teleconference and in-person board meetings as well as help facilitate other duties of the WPRO Board of Directors including but not limited to what is set forth in the official rulebook.

"The WPRO is excited to have Darla Lindt join our team," said Heidi Schmidt, WPRO Vice President. "Darla brings to the table a vast knowledge of business from many diverse areas and we cannot wait to see what contributions she is able to make.

"The hiring process, when replacing a trusted and valued employee such as Janet Cropper, was a long and very well thought out one. Again, we are excited to welcome Darla to the WPRO team, and look forward to working with her to help the association flourish."

Lindt is a resident of Colorado Springs and prior to joining the WPRO was a branch owner of an insurance agency specializing in cyber insurance and farm/ranch policies. She served as the Executive Director at the National Cyber Exchange (NCX), a non-profit member organization. Her other background includes being one of the first employees of a Nutri-System franchise owner, who opened the Colorado Springs market in the late 80s and early 90s, building the business from the ground up. This position led to a Director position with the Jenny Craig Corporation.

"I have such an advantage coming to an association with such strong operations, that is financially sound, has a very hard-working Board of Directors and a stellar staff in the office who operate like a well oiled machine," said Lindt. "As the association launches from this strong foundation, I believe great things are ahead for the members, sponsors and partnerships of the WPRO."

Reno Rodeo Committed to Full Capacity for 2021

The Reno (Nev.) Rodeo said last week it is committed to holding its annual event at full capacity this year. The rodeo, which runs June 17-26 at the Livestock Events Center, made its announcement after Nevada Gov. Steve Sisolak recently said his goal is to have every county in the state reopen to 100 percent capacity by the start of June. The rodeo said it has had productive meetings with city of Reno and Washoe County officials. "We remain fully committed to holding a safe rodeo, first and foremost," Reno Rodeo general manager George Combs said in a news release. "We have all been hard at work planning for the 2021 rodeo with some uncertainty around social distancing requirements. With these recent developments, we are confident that we can put on a safe event at full capacity while providing fans the exhilarating experience the Reno Rodeo is known for." The 2020 Reno Rodeo was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, its first cancellation since 1944 due to World War II.

WCRA Announces #1 Seeded Athletes Heading to $1 Million Triple Crown

Ahead of the first-ever $1 million WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) Triple Crown of Rodeo event held in tandem with the iconic Buc Days in Corpus Christi, Texas, the alliance has announced those athletes advancing to the showdown round of Rodeo Corpus Christi, presented by Miller Lite, courtesy of their No. 1 standing on the leaderboard.

Marking WCRA's first event of 2021, Rodeo Corpus Christi will be held from May 3-9, paying out more than $545,000 to top western sports athletes in ten disciplines: bareback riding, women's breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, steer roping, team roping (heading and heeling), tie-down roping, barrel racing, and bull riding.

Launched in 2019, the Triple Crown of Rodeo is an annual bonus that will pay $1 million to any one athlete, or collection of athletes, who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos. The most recent Triple Crown of Rodeo event was held in Guthrie, Oklahoma, Aug. 11-15, 2020.

Those athletes that earned an automatic berth to the showdown round for Rodeo Corpus Christi are:

Bareback: Richmond Champion (Stevensville, Montana)

Saddle Bronc: Kody Rinehart (Rienzi, Mississippi)

Bull Riding: Joao Ricardo Vieira (Itatinga, Brazil)

Steer Wrestling: Scott Guenther (Provost, Alberta, Canada)

Team Roping: Erich Rogers (Header | Round Rock, Arizona) and Paden Bray (Heeler | Stephenville, Texas)

Tie-Down Roping: Riley Webb (Denton, Texas)*

Barrel Racing: Maggie Poloncic (Gillette, Wyoming)

Breakaway Roping: Josie Conner (Iowa, Louisiana)

*Denotes an athlete looking to remain Triple Crown eligible by winning their second WCRA Major.

These athletes secured their berths by securing the No. 1 seed on the WCRA's Segment 7 leaderboard, which included nominated competition efforts at events held from July 2020 to April 2021. On May 9 at Rodeo Corpus Christi held at American Bank Center, these athletes will be joined by the Top 8 athletes from the qualifying and progressive rounds of action in the showdown round.

From there, the Top 3 scores, or times, will advance to the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round where they will compete for their share of the more than $500,000 event purse.

Of the athletes that advanced via their ranking on the leaderboard, tie-down roper

Webb is the lone contender that remains in contention for the $1 million Triple Crown of Rodeo bonus.

At the most recent WCRA Major held in August 2020 in Oklahoma, then 17-year-old Webb was the undeniable star of the discipline, delivering what would be the most groundbreaking performance of the event.

As the only athlete to deliver a qualified run in the showdown round, his 8.5-second effort elevated him to a $16,500 payday. For Webb, who was then fresh off his win at the National High School Rodeo Finals, the event marked his career-first WCRA Major, advancing to the showdown round through the DY (youth) Pool. Not only did Webb emerge victorious but did so by defeating WCRA Royal City Roundup Champion and the world's then No. 1-ranked tie down roper Shad Mayfield (Clovis, New Mexico) and 2013 PRCA World Champion Shane Hanchey (Carmine, Texas).

Tickets for Rodeo Corpus Christi, presented by Miller Lite, are on-sale now and can be purchased at Ticketmaster.com or the American Bank Center Box Office.

The 2021 Buc Days will begin on Thursday, April 29 with the launch of the Stripes Carnival at American Bank Center, which will remain in operation for the entirety of the festival, followed by the annual Dunking of the Mayor. Other festivities scheduled to be held at American Bank Center for the 2021 Buc Days include the Wings Over South Texas Air Show May 1-2, and the Navy Army Night Parade at the Parade Pachanga May 2.

The bull riding action for the PBR Pendleton Whisky Velocity Tour's Buc Days PBR Chute Out, presented by Coastal Bend Chevy Dealers begins at 7:30 p.m. CT on Friday, April 30 and Saturday, May 1 at American Bank Center.

On Friday night, all 45 competing riders will attempt one bull each in Round 1. The Top 30 riders from Round 1 will then return for Round 2 on Saturday evening. Following Round 2, the Top 15 will then advance to the championship round where they will attempt one final bull, all in an effort to be crowned the event champion.

For more information on the 2021 Buc Days visit BucDays.com, and for more on the Buc Days PBR Chute Out, presented by Coastal Bend Chevy Dealers, visit PBR.com. Tickets for the PBR Pendleton Whisky Velocity Tour event are on sale now and start at $15. They can be purchased online at Ticketmaster.com or PBR.com, at American Bank Center Box Office, charge by phone at (800) 653-8000, or by calling PBR Customer Service at 1-800-732-1727.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A hhhh spring! When all things become new! A sure sign of spring in Wyoming is.....more snow! LOL!
No, seriously, it's meadowlarks! When I go out in the morning and I hear one, I have been known to yell, "THANKS FOR SINGING!" Seems like no matter what happens after that, when you hear them singing, spring is officially here. It can look like winter, smell like winter and FEEL like winter, but it's spring.

Did you know that that's what happens when we ask Jesus to be our Lord and we get 'born again'? 2 Corin. 5:17 tells us, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."

Sometimes we don't feel new, but according to the Word of God, we are. If we fall short and sin, all we need to do is ask God for forgiveness and move on! We might have looked, acted, and smelled like sin, but we are a NEW CREATION!

God made a way for us to always be new, just like spring. 1 Jn. 1:9 promises us that if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Go ahead, run outside and yell, "THANKS FOR FORGIVENESS!"
