Third Times a Charm - Chouest & RLJ High Intedsity Win BBR World Finals

By Hope Sickler

Allie Chouest and her 7 year old chestnut gelding RLJ High Intedsity "Slick" left Oklahoma City and the BBR World Finals as this year's 1D World Champions with winnings of $15,392, while outrunning over 1650 entries in the open.

RLJ High Intedsity has been a part of Chouest's life since 2012 when her family bought Slick from Homer Beasley after Beasley sent the gelding to Brett Munroe to finish his training as a futurity horse. Prior to Monroe, Bunt Kitchens had started the chestnut gelding.

"We bought Slick in November of 2012, right before he ran at the BFA Futurity in OKC, and he ended up winning that futurity as a 4 year old," explained Chouest.

Going into the Finals, Chouest and Slick had made it back in the first go with a time of 15.382 and in the second go with a time of 15.544.

"I was feeling pretty nervous prior to Sunday. I was number 6 in the top 50 on Slick and when I was going down the alley, I kept telling Talmadge Green (my trainer) how nervous I was but knew that I would fair alright. I had gone through my run two times in my head leading up to my actual run with Destri Devenport, so I had a pretty good game plan," explained Chouest.

Chouest knows her mount so well that she knew if she went in there and guided him and stayed two handed to every barrel, he would go and do the rest.

"When I took off from the alley, I just went for it! When we turned the first, I got a little excited but knew I had to focus on the task at hand and the remainder of my run. After he turned all three, and had three good turns, I knew we had to get out of there fast if I wanted to win."

Running home from the third barrel and hitting the alleyway, seeing everyone screaming and jumping up and down, Chouest knew she and Slick had done well.

"Immediately when I saw everyone freaking out with excitement I started screaming and shaking! Considering I had been so close to winning the past two years, I was so shocked but so blessed to have made a great run in hopes of finally winning it this year," Chouest said.

Although the run was over, Chouest still had to wait out the top five to find out if she was going to walk away with the championship.

"When the last horse ran and didn't outrun my time, I jumped on Destri and hugged my dad and everyone around me! I don't really remember much because I was so excited but I do remember crying tears of joy."

Chouest proved that third time was a charm when she and Slick left with the championship. Having gone to the BBR World Finals

CPRA Season Kicking Off

The 2015 Pro Rodeo Canada season couldn't come fast enough for Big Valley, AB, barrel racer, Kirsty White. Now that it's begun, she's taking full advantage of a new start.

"I feel really fresh and excited right now," beams White, who won $4,025 on the CPRA trail this past weekend. "I was just happy getting into the Grassroots Finals (now Pro Rodeo Canada Series Finals) last year. I wasn't one bit upset about not making the CFR."

A rodeo-winning time of 13.466 seconds during the final performance of the Camrose, AB, Spring Classic Rodeo capped off a three-cheque weekend for White, who also won the Kananaskis Pro Rodeo in Coleman, AB, and finished 9th at the Spring Break-Up Pro Rodeo in Dawson Creek, BC.

"She was exceptional today," said a proud White of her nine-year-old mare, Racey after her run Sunday afternoon at the Camrose Regional Exhibition. "Up to this point, I felt I had to not let her expose herself too much to keep her healthy. She's a horse that tries too hard. You have to re-train yourself to step on the gas."

White describes her 2014 campaign as a "tough" year. Others may use a different set of adjectives to properly paint the picture of a season that started off on the wrong foot from the beginning.

"She (Racey) got kicked at Coleman and I had to vet out of 4 rodeos," begins White, who qualified for her first CFR in 2013 and missed the 2012 Finals by just $19. "Then I missed five rodeos during Calgary (Stampede) and I couldn't use her the first two days there because she got kicked just before. I broke my ribs in July, knocked a barrel in Williams Lake to win thirty-four hundred and had a premature colt die that I felt responsible for."

But the determined former Cowgirl of the Year clearly put all the bad karma behind her in getting 2015 off to the best start of her career. Courtesy of www.rodeocanada.com.

Draw It Out now at tack & feed stores worldwide

A new topical liniment is now hitting the shelves, Draw It Out Veterinary Strength Liniment. Draw It Out is intended to help all horse owners deal with swelling and soreness that accompany horse ownership without the mess and danger of traditional liniments & poultices.

Draw it Out is an all natural topical liniment that reduces swelling and soreness. It utilizes over 170 different minerals to achieve its goal. Being all natural you don't have to worry about any "blister factor" or "burning" your horse. It can be left on indefinitely without issue. It is also completely safe if accidentally ingested by you or the animal. It has proven effective as a leg wrap (poultice), body brace, general liniment (Spray), a hoof soak or as a neck sweat.

Draw It Out can be used before, during & after events.

It is available in both 32oz and 128oz bottles from dealers worldwide. If you can't find it near you be sure to request it at a local tack or feed store. A high potency G.E.L. version of Draw It Out will also be available in June.

You can find more from their website www.DrawItOutUSA.com or call (817) 382-1529 or email Admin@drawitoutusa.com.

Nesmith Among 2015 Hall of Fame Inductees

World Champion Cowboys Tom Nesmith, Mark Garrett, Bob Wegner and Harry Charters, along with rodeo notable Jack Han-num, the Hendricks Brothers specialty act and four-time team roping head horse of the year Precious Speck (Walt) head the 2015 induction class for the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

They will be enshrined Aug. 8 during ceremonies in the sculpture garden adjacent to the Hall, along with the rodeo committees from the Red Bluff (Calif.) Round-Up, the Guymon (Okla.) Pioneer Days Rodeo and Iowa's Championship Rodeo (Sidney).

Nesmith, of Bethel, Okla., was a soft-spoken cowboy whose best events were steer wrestling and calf roping, and he captured the 1962 all-around and steer wrestling world championships.

"This is just great, and I'm flattered on behalf of my dad for him to honored," said Janette Nesmith, Tom's daughter.

In Nesmith's double gold buckle season, he won $32,611 to claim the all-around title and $16,789 to win top steer wrestling honors.

"He was an even better horseman than he was a cowboy," Janette Nesmith said. "For him to be recognized with the best cowboys ever is a very good feeling."

Nesmith also finished fourth and third in the 1958 and 1961 calf roping world standings. The 5-foot-10, 180-pounder's first PRCA rodeo was in 1953 at Fort Smith, Ark., and he credited Dick Truitt and Everett Shaw with teaching him the respective skills of steer wrestling and roping.

Including this year's inductees, 243 people, 29 animals and 25 rodeo committees have been selected for enshrinement in Colorado Springs since the Hall opened in 1979.

"I still can't believe it. I guess the word you could use to explain how I am feeling is shocked. I knew we had it in us and I am so happy and blessed that it finally came together this year," Chouest explained.

Chouest was quick to thank the team of supporters that she has that have helped every step of the way.

"I want to thank my parents for always supporting me on whatever it is that I want to do and helping me accomplish my dreams and goals. I also want to send out a huge thank you to Talmadge and Destri for making those dreams come true and being a huge part of my family. Lastly, a huge thank you to Mr. Jimmy, Mr. Glenn and Sergio. Without these people, I would not be where I am as a person or as a rider today."

Couch Conquers

Kim Couch credits a lot of people for her recent success with her extraordinary mare, Easy French Alibi aka Fancy.

"Fancy" was raised and trained by Monica McClung and was purchased from McClung two years ago.

"Monica did a great job with her and just recently, 93 Ranch LLC was fortunate enough to have Kyle LeLeux climb aboard our program and he is certainly due the credit for having Fancy ready to rock and roll," explained Couch.

As for Couch, she exclaimed that she is in the best shape of her life-physically, mentally and spiritually. She definitely let it show when she walked away from the BBR Finals with a boat load of money, prizes and great memories that she will forever cherish.

"We had a great night on Thursday when we took the lead in the Gold Card Race and the qualifier and it didn't stop there. The next morning, Friday morning, we ran in barn 6 and she did it again! She did it with ease and we left leading that barn as well."

That's when things got real, Couch commented.

"We rested until Saturday night, knowing that we would be in the last 10 horses to run out of the 1600+ runners in the coliseum. She (Fancy) did it again, winning that final round as well.

Couch went into the BBR Finals with three goals- Win the Gold Card Race, qualify for the semi-finals of The American, and make the short go of the Final, it is safe to say she obtained those three goals and then some!

"This was my third BBR World Finals and wow, what an organization! It is filled with an amazing group of talented people that continue to push the limits in the barrel horse industry," Couch said.

Couch plans to enter some rodeos in the WPR Prairie Circuit this year but will remain closer to home.

"Having 8 year old twins and a 15 year old daughter at home and being a single mom, my priorities will remain there. We will run at the Prairie circuit rodeos and local rodeos this summer along with the larger barrel races. This young mare has a huge future ahead of her and her first foal will hit the ground anytime. We are beyond excited about the combination between her and A Streak Of Fling!"

Willis & Brookestone Forever Bank $20,000

By Hope Sickler

When Leslie Willis and her 4 year old talented daughter of Brookestone Bay, out of Bit Happens by Feature Mr Jess, Brookestone Forever, were en route to Oklahoma City for the BBR Finals, a lot of emotions were running through their heads. Willis and her mare had been having a case of bad luck prior to OKC and Willis wasn't sure what was going to happen when her name was called down the alleyway.

"We were pretty down and out on the way to Oklahoma City. We had been hitting barrels and not having the best luck prior to heading to the finals. I knew she had what it took so I just went in there with confidence and let her do her job and she did," explained Willis.

Willis and "Brooke," as Willis affectionately calls her, ran in the number 6 spot in the slot race but had awhile to wait after they made their run to see if their time of 15.802 held for the win and a large check for $20,000.00.

"We got by the first a bit and slipped leaving it but I knew that when we turned the first that we were going to be fast. With the slip, I wasn't sure if our time would hold. I mean there were several nice horses left to run so it was a nail-biter for sure!"

Willis' time held for the win and that giant check for $20,000.00 in addition to a beautiful buckle, picture frame for the buckle and a custom saddle from Martin Saddlery.

"The finals were outstanding and we had a great time! We are home recuperating and she is getting the week off before we start prepping for Ft. Smith the end of May. After Ft. Smith, we will hit a few futurities this summer on the east coast and head back to OKC in December for the BFA," Willis said.

Montgomery and KN Born This Way Win BBR Futurity

By Hope Sickler

When Jolene Montgomery pulls up to a barrel race, you had better be ready to make the run of your lifetime because that is just what Montgomery plans on doing. She and KN Born This Way showed up the BBR World Finals in Oklahoma City and did just that, sealing the deal on the futurity championship.

KN Born This Way is a 4 year old daughter of Born Ta Be Famous and out of Kczartessa by Streakin Dash, owned by Kimi Nichols. She is a 3/4 sister to Montgomery's futurity standout from 2014, KN Famous Czar.

"We had two great runs in OKC. We were a 16.091 in the first round, which was good. We got by the first and she got pretty buried up which cost us some time, but all in all I was very happy with how she worked," said Montgomery.

After the first round was over, Montgomery decided she was going to make a different game plan for her second run on the little powerhouse mare.

"I didn't warm her up much prior to our second run. I let her pull on the bridle and didn't back her off before I sent her down the alley. I wanted to make sure she did the same thing as our first run but faster and she did just that. I went straighter to the first to shave a tenth off our time and she worked fabulous. She is so honest and we were so pleased with how she worked."

With a time of 15.681 in the finals round, Montgomery outran the rest of the field by 2 tenths to take home the BBR Futurity World Championship on the little mare that could. They collected a check for $6,380.00, along with a custom Martin Saddle and a bunch of other goodies.

"I am so happy that it has finally come together for us. This mare has had a bout of bad luck since this winter, between tripping and knocking barrels, and I am very grateful that it came together here. I have loved this mare since day 1," Montgomery explained.

Nicholas and Stoli My Guy Nail It

By Hope Sickler

Lisa Nicholas and her incredible mare Stoli My Guy are absolutely no strangers to the winners circle in their short years of competition and they proved, once again, that they are a force to reckon with!

Nicholas and 6 year old mare by Traffic Guy, out of Sixes Future by Stoli scorched the elite field of horses and riders entered at the qualifier for The American at the BBR Finals in Oklahoma City when they stopped the clock with a 15.142.

"When I was warming her up for the qualifier, she was acting super broncy, which is always a great sign," laughed Nicholas.

She was feeling so good that Nicholas had to take her out back to the round-pen and lunge some of the excessive energy out of her!

"She was very powerful during our run and never let up until the run was over. She gave everything she had and stayed low on the ground and kept driving every second of the run. I knew she was going to clock and couldn't wait to see what our time was."

Nicholas explained that one of her goals coming into the finals was to get qualified so when she saw her time, she was ecstatic.

"Winning the qualifier was huge because this was my fourth time to try and I really wanted to get that qualifier monkey off of my back! And having the fastest time of the entire week was icing on the cake and great to add to our resume. She is such an incredible mare and I knew she deserved to be running with that elite crop of horses so each time that I didn't get her in there, I felt like I let her down," explained Nicholas.

Nicholas and her husband bought "Stoli" as a 2 year old with about 30 days on her in hopes of entering the futurity industry with the "right" horse and boy, did they do just that!

"She wound up being a serious handful- and still is to this day. We never dreamed that she'd open the doors that she has and we are eternally grateful to own her. She has earnings of close to $120,000 now- none of which was won in any major slot races- just from good, solid runs."

Stoli has given the Nicholas a platform to raise some very well bred babies and will be a focal point of their breeding/training program.

"She just had her first baby a week ago, via embryo transfer, by the phenomenal Darkelly, which we couldn't be more excited for. She is going to get some vacation time and we will flush some more embryos. We are flushing her to Shawnee Bug Leo and Royal and Famous, with plans of Dash Ta Fame on the horizon," Nicholas said.

Called Home Too Soon—Chasin Firewater, 2001-2015

Leading barrel horse sire Chasin Firewater was laid to rest on April 25, 2015, after a lengthy battle with complications from a re-injured stifle. He was just 14.

"I am broken hearted like I've never felt," said his owner Dee Braman of JB Quarter Horses in Refugio, Texas. "I'm so proud to have even lucked into owning him. He was a blessing."

The striking 2001 palomino stallion was bred by Vickie Adams. Like his sire the great Fire Water Flit, Chasin was born for greatness. His dam, Has The Touch, was a futurity, derby, sweepstakes and pro rodeo money earner by the all-time leading barrel horse broodmare sire Bugs Alive In 75.

"That's one of the things that set him apart from other sons of Fire Water Flit," Braman once said. "He looked like Bugs Alive." The pairing of Fire Water Flit and Has The Touch was magical. He got his blazing speed from his dam and his turning style and demeanor from his sire.

As a performer, Chasin Firewater was a 1D winner, pro rodeo money earner and multiple open rodeo winner. He won Palomino World Championships with Tammy Miller and Janna Bean. He won the United Professional Rodeo Association Finals—a tough amateur circuit in Texas and Oklahoma—with Sharin Hall. He won for Dee at the big open barrel races. With Kassie Mowry in the saddle, Chasin won money at Rodeo Houston and had numerous 1D wins. The great stallion initially injured his stifle while competing at the 2011 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo and was retired to fulltime stud duty in 2012.

When his performance career ended, his legacy in the breeding shed had already begun. Both parents were from long lines of great producers, and it was no surprise that Chasin was able to pass his greatness along as well.

Chasin's very first foal to enter a barrel race won when Miss

JB 0842 won the 2011 Barrel Futurities of America's Juvenile. "Scooter" as she's affectionately known was one of the top futurity horses in 2012 and finished her competitive career with more than $100,000 in earnings.

In 2013, Chasin had his second $100,000 earner start his career—the incredible DTF Way Ta Fire. Bred by Randy and Vauna Walker when Chasin was yet an unknown entity as a sire, DTF Way Ta Fire would carry Vauna to championships at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic and UBRA Futurity before being sold to Dino Chouest. With Talmadge Green in the saddle, DTF Way Ta Fire won the 2013 NBHA Open 1D World Championship and set an arena record at the Elite Extravaganza during the first round of the JB Quarter Horses Futurity. DTF Way Ta Fire also has an arena record in Starkville, Miss., with Max Chouest.

With Firewater Ellie, Chasin had his first pro rodeo money earner in 2014. Several others like Chasin Easy Money and Mr JB 0829 became open rodeo winners.

This year Chasin had his first $100,000 slot race winner Babe On The Chase, the LG Pro Classic Champion. Just a few short weeks later, Babe On The Chase made her pro rodeo debut at the San Antonio Rodeo.

Even more remarkable is the variety of riders and trainers that have won on the back of Chasin get, from junior rodeo horses to 1D senior winners. They're family horses, winning for children in the youth and winning for adults and senior riders—sometimes in the same day.

All totaled, Chasin Firewater had sired money earners of nearly $500,000 from just four crops of performers. Some of his best-bred offspring are yet to come of age.

THE RUNDOWN with Darby Fox

Always On The Go, 10 yr. Old Chestnut Gelding
2010 Palomino Mare, 14.3 hands, 1,050 pounds

ABOUT YOUR HORSE: Sam is very special to me. He is literally like my dog that follows me around everywhere. Every time he sees me, he knows full and well I'm his mom. I've never had such a strong attachment to a horse. Sometimes I wonder if it's a little unhealthy. I often tell him, "it's your world and I just live in it." I bought Sam from Felicia Miller (who trained him) when he was 7. Felicia bought Sam off the track when he was 3.

ABOUT YOUR RUN: My first run at Clovis, Friday morning, was just a little choppy. He didn't really fire and I didn't ride him very well. But it was just enough to get us back into the performances. It was supposed to rain Saturday so I was actually kind of grateful that we got to run my second run Friday night. He really fired hard Friday night and was 7 tenths faster than that morning. Sure enough it rained all morning on Saturday and we got to come back Sunday for the short go.

BIT: I run him in a sherry cervi short shank twisted wire dog bone

SADDLE: Double J Wide Fit Pozzi Pro Racer

HEADGEAR: I warm Sam up in a tie down and un clip it before I run him.

SADDLE PAD: Wade Pad

LEG GEAR: RES Boots, Iconoclast front and hind spint boots

FEED: Renew Gold

HAY: Grass Alfalfa Mix

SUPPLEMENTS: Four Flex, OmegaLina, FI Noni

ADDITIONAL HORES CARE & SHOING: Paul Parker shoes my horses.

SPONSORS: Thank you to my sponsors, Ag Technologies, Soil Works, GSR Calcium

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Are you a procrastinator? Do you often "put things off?" This is an easy habit to fall into especially if it involves tasks you dislike.

One lady I know slightly is a master at procrastination. She said she judges the importance of an issue by thinking, "Is anyone going to die if I don't do this right now?" If it isn't a life or death situation (few are), she goes merrily on her way and probably never does the thing. You can barely kick your way into her house or her yard because of the clutter but she'll be the first one to rush to your aid if you need help.

This woman I mentioned works tirelessly at her church, gives large amounts of money to worthwhile causes, evangelizes when the opportunity presents itself and usually brings guests along with her to my meetings in her area. She is concerned about the salvation of people in her little corner of the world.

This lady knows there is one thing you can't put off and that's insuring your place in eternity. Don't wait! Make sure you'll be united with Jesus and your loved ones when you leave this world. This is a life or death situation.

Jesus made it easy for us to have a guaranteed future in heaven when Romans 10 says if we confess with our mouth and believe in our heart that God raised Jesus from the dead, we will be saved. Read that chapter for yourself and know that God wants everyone to be saved.

Don't put your passport to heaven off another day. Right now, say aloud, "Lord, I'm sorry for all my sins. I ask you to come into my heart and wash me clean in Your blood. Jesus, I make you my Lord and Savior." Or say something similar. It doesn't have to be long or complicated. God is good and He'll help you if you ask Him. Have peace in knowing that God loves you with an unconditional love and now you're a member of His family!
