Wantedya Gotchya – Better Barrel Races World Finals Championship For Joy Brunson

By Tanya Randall

Joy Brunson made history at the Better Barrel Races World Finals, winning first and second at the 23rd annual event, held April 21-26 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City.

The Terry, Mississippi, barrel horse trainer took first in the short round of $100,000-added, 2,221-entry Open aboard Wantedya Gotchya (“Cam”), a 5-year-old former calf roping prospect owned by Rhea Hawkins. She was second aboard her own 4-year-old gelding, Famous Faddy Daddy.

“I knew both of them had the ability,” said Brunson, “but never would I have thought in my wildest dreams that they would have gone one, two with that set of horses.”

Brunson pocketed $28,193 when the dust all settled. Cam was her biggest winner, earning $16,137 with $12,951 coming from the 1D Championship run.

“He’s been pretty spectacular this year,” she said of the gelding. “He’s been spectacular since I started running him. I’m glad he’s finally doing it everywhere.”

Bred by 2013 World Champion Calf Roper Shane Hanchey, Cam is by 2019 National Cutting Horse Association Open World Champion CR Gotcha Covered, who earned $302,000 in the arena before siring earners of more than $2.5 million. Cam’s dam is Lanas Little Dual, who carried Hanchey to the National Finals Rodeo and his wife Taylor (Jacobs) to the National Finals Breakaway Roping. Better known as Pam Pam, the daughter of Dual Banditos Gold, is a full sister to Banditos Bandana (“Bam Bam”), who took Hanchey to several NFRs.

Hawkins purchased Cam as a calf roping prospect for her son. After watching him running around as a yearling, she decided he should be a barrel horse.

“She said, ‘I think he’s going to be too fast to be a calf horse. He needs to go be a barrel horse.’ She wanted to watch him run barrels. She called me and said, ‘I know he’s just a cow horse, but would you be interested in riding him? I watched him move and said, ‘Yeah! Let me on him!’” recalled Brunson.

“After I rode him the first few times I said, ‘Look, if we can ever harness his energy and athleticism I know he can be amazing because I’ve never been on one that could buck, snort, fart and bolt so fast in my life!’”

The gelding caught on quickly.

“At the end of his 2-year-old year, I was like, he’s getting way ahead of the game. We need to back off.”

Brunson sent him to her brother-in-law, Bart, so he could rope calves on the gelding, just so he had something different to do.

“I said, ‘He’s going to get bored with just running barrels. I don’t want to push him any harder than what he’s going right now.’ So we roped calves on him for a month or two. He’d be a superstar in the calf roping, and his owner was like, ‘Nope. I want a barrel horse.’”

In March of his third year, Cam’s career was almost over before it started when he cut his superficial digital flexor tendon in a freak accident in the trailer on the way home from a jackpot.

“Somebody cut me off on the interstate,” she said. “I had to slam on the brakes, and somehow he severed his superficial digital flexor tendon, the big tendon that runs down the back of his leg. We had to sew it back together. There were six horses on the trailer, and he was the only one that got hurt. I was just sick to my stomach. I was crying, I was freaking out.

“We had to sew it back together. My vet was like well you could take him out to Texas or Rood & Riddle, and I was like, ‘No, you can do it.’ It was a God send for sure to have him there with the ability to fix him.”

Cam stood in a stall from March until October healing. By January 2025, Brunson had him back on the barrel pattern.

“By his third run, he ran a 10th of a second off the arena record in Brookhaven, Mississippi,” she said. “I was like, ‘OK, he’s coming on!’”

At last year’s BBR World Finals, Cam hit a barrel while turning in the fastest time run in Barn 8 during the event.

“I’ve hit a lot of barrels on him to win a lot of money,” she said. “With his style, he’s so droppy and turny, he’s hard to be clean on when he’s really trying to work hard. You almost need him to be a little bit free and thinking about running more than turning. He’s been figuring it out steadily for the past two months.”

At this year’s BBR, the barrel bug bit Brunson and Cam again. In fact, she hadn’t made a clean run in the OG&E Coliseum until the short round.

“I ran over the second barrel on Cam in the first round,” she said. “Faddy just pulled the first. On Cam, I would have won the 2D Shootout too but hit a barrel, so I was just praying to leave everything up. I hadn’t had good luck in there until yesterday!”

Brunson did qualify her 7-year-old gelding TC Shawne Showbiz out of Race 1 in the coliseum, but both Cam and Faddy qualified in the Performance Arena.

On Sunday, she took the lead with her futurity horse Faddy, a 4-year-old gelding by Proud To Be Famous out of Fame Little Bunny, by Cheyenne Fame.

“Just last month, he was starting to hit the 1D,” she said. “He should have placed in the first round of the futurity, and I hit a barrel on him. Then in the second round of the futurity, he won third. He didn’t have a very good run in the performance arena in the second go, but he still ran in the 2D.

“He finally got his life together yesterday. He still trotted out of the second barrel but still ran good enough for second. I was super proud of him.”

Afterward, Brunson texted Barbara Kelley, who raised Faddy, to tell her that Faddy was winning the BBR Finals, but she still had Cam to run and couldn’t back off on the turny gelding.

“He’s one that you can send him as hard as you want to the first, and then as soon as you shake that inside bridle rein, he’ll come to you,” she said. “Well, I shook it and he still got a stride by it. I was like, ‘it’s OK. He’s fast, so send him to the second barrel. All I was thinking is just stay wide, just think wide thoughts around the second. After I knew I was clear of that I knew I was just along for the ride, because he was flying to third and he smoked it and left in a hurry. I was just along for the ride, trying not to die!’”

Brunson said she “about lost her cookies” waiting to see if her 15.219 would hold off the runs of multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Emily Beisel and her two horses and Randee Prindle and her great horse Red Man Jones, who had swept both qualifying races and the Gold Card Race.

“Every time I step on him, I thank God for the opportunity to get back on him,” Brunson said of Cam. “I don’t ever want to take that for granted. And thanks to Spunky and Rhea Hawkins for believing me when I said he was going to be special. If there was ever one to try the surgery on it’d be him. They could have very well put him down at the moment because he was a 3-year-old gelding, so I’m just tickled that they decided to do the surgery.

MEET JOY BRUNSON

A Florida native, Joy Brunson grew up with leading futurity trainer and National Finals Rodeo qualifier Ryann Pedone. She credits the Pedone family with providing her with her barrel racing foundation.

“Had it not been for their influence I sure as heck wouldn’t be where I am today,” she said today. “They definitely showed me what it took and gave me a great step in the right direction. . . all my horsemanship and what it took to train a champion. I’ve always kind of idolized Ryann and her work ethic and how much effort she puts into her horses.”

Brunson attended Troy University, where she met her husband Wes. Both competed on the rodeo team. They later married and had two children, Wayne and Corah, so Brunson stepped away from the horses.

“I had sold all my horses and quit riding,” she said. “I hadn’t ridden in about seven years, when they got a barrel horse in on trade for a calf horse. They said, ‘Just go make some runs on him so we can get some videos to sell him.’”

“Corah was 18 months old at the time. We put her on a pony while I was at the barrel race. She was on it for three hours, and she screamed every time we tried to take her off. My husband told me, ‘You better get back to riding barrel horses, because that kid is going to want to ride.’”

Brunson did some horse trading with her friend Jennifer Kent to get a horse that would get her back into the swing of things. The next thing she knew, she was patterning the rope horses.

At 40, she made the decision to step away from her job of 10 years as a special accounts representative for a medical company to train horses full time.

“I had a corporate office job, and about three years ago, on my 40th birthday, I had an ‘Aha Moment.’ I just wanted to stay home and train horses for a living. I decided to take a leap of faith and start training horses fulltime, which to be fair, I was making more money at night training horses that I was at my corporate job.”

“We’ve got big dreams for him. I don’t know really where he’s all going but we’re going to keep chasing as much money as we can. With that surgery, we don’t know how long his career is going to be. I don’t think it’s going to ever give him any trouble. At least that’s what I’m choosing to believe, but a wrong hit or something. . . it’s just a very big question mark. But I have full faith and confidence that it’s going to be a long career.”

$9,842 Victory for Flinging Goodbys & Ceri Ward at BBR World Finals Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Flinging Goodbys (“Piper”) surpassed the $150,000-mark in career earnings with a $9,842 victory at the 160-entry, $20,000-added NTS Trailers Futurity at the Better Barrel Races World Finals, held April 23-26 at the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds in Oklahoma City.

“We had a little break for some good rest, and I think she’s ready to go,” said Ceri Ward, who trains and rides the mare for her owners and breeders Shawn and Rickki Moyer.

The Ardmore, Oklahoma-based trainer chose to use the BBR Futurity as warmup to the upcoming incentive races for the 5-year-old daughter of 18.2 million sire The Goodbye Lane, out of the A Streak Of Fling mare, Blue Moon Fling.

“We went a lot this winter to all the early futurities,” said Ward. “We had taken a break and the only other place I had ran these colts was the Select Stallion Stakes (at the end of March). I thought this would be good preparation for everything coming up.”

Ward and Piper chipped off the rust in the first round, finishing second with a 15.615.

“She spun the first, and then she actually slipped all the way down to her hip at the second, but she just kept trying through it and somehow managed to pull second in the round. She tries so hard and is so fast.”

They were a little longer in the second, clocking a 15.758 for ninth.

“I just got out into the ruts at the first barrel, and it wasn’t as fast a turn,” she said, “but she just kept trying.”

Ward and Piper got their fourth futurity title by .11 over CT Delight, a Traffic Guy, Dash Ta Fame mare ridden by DaCota Monk for Carlee Otero.

Piper has been in Wards barn for more than two years now. She was ready to run as a 4-year-old futurity horse, but Ward opted to hold her a year to let her grow in size and maturity.

The mare entered the history books on her debut run, winning the Barrel Futurities Of America’s inaugural running of the Freshman Slot Race, for 4-year-olds that will campaign as 5-year-olds. She won the juvenile slot race and rookie futurity at the Icebreaker, a December event to make up for the aged events cancelled due to the equine herpes virus outbreak.

This year, Piper has reserve championships from the Royal Crown Futurity and South Valley Equine Open Futurity in Buckeye, Arizona, and was third at the Barrel Bash Select Stallion Stakes Futurity.

“She’s kind of wild,” she said. “but she’s just a really good horse. She just wants to be good so that’s made my job a lot easier.”

No Doubts for Morgan Bagnell & Couldawoodashoulda at Clovis Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

WPROA Rookie of the Year Contender Morgan Bagnell and her 12-year-old gelding Couldawoodashoulda (“Iago”) inched closer to the WPROA’s Top 15 with an $8,962 victory at the $30,000-added Clovis Rodeo, held April 23-26 in California’s Central Valley. The sophomore business major at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Oklahoma, had an extremely busy weekend with the rodeos in California—she also competed at Springville but caught a barrel—and the final college rodeo of her season back in Guymon, Oklahoma.

All barrel racers at the limited entry rodeo had their first run in slack on Thursday morning. The top 36 qualified for one of three performances, while the remaining contestants got their second run after an hour break from the conclusion of the first. The top 12 on two runs qualified for a short round on Sunday.

Bagnell and Iago won the first round with a 16.91.

“The first round went way better than I would have thought,” said Bagnell, who hails from Heath, Texas, outside of Dallas. “I didn’t really think I was going to win it until I went up there to see about trades and found out that I had won the long go.”

Although the performances are drawn slowest to fastest, Bagnell had to trade to make her college rodeo in Oklahoma.

“I had my second run that same night. I wasn’t really sure how he was going to handle being ran twice in one day because I’d never done that with him. I’m also not a big fan of running them twice in one day, but I had to fly back to Guymon for my last college rodeo, and I had Springville on Saturday night, so that was my only option.”

She and Iago clocked a 16.85 that ultimately tied for seventh in the round and got them back to Sunday’s short.

“He gave me a faster run than he had that morning,” she said, “so I was super thrilled with him.”

Rains damped the ground for the short round, but Bagnell knew that Iago could handle a muddy track.

“I knew it was going to be a little muddy, especially after watching those first six girls go through,” she said. “It looked like it might be a little difficult, but he’s a pretty big horse, so I knew that if there was any horse that could handle that situation, it would be him. He just did what I needed him to do.”

They finished second in the short with a 17.31 to win the aggregate. Ironically, it was the first win of Iago’s journeyman rodeo career.

“I think everyone who’s been involved with him is very excited for him,” said Bagnell. “I was glad I could do that for him.”

Bagnell purchased Iago in January 2025 from Joe and Jenna Beaver. Bred and started by multiple NFR qualifier Danyelle Campbell, Iago is by Woodbridge out of Dashin For Pay Dirt, a daughter of Pritzi Dash out of her NFR qualifying mare Hittin Pay Dirt, who is also the dam of her great mare Repete Fame.

Campbell sold Iago to Emily Magione, who finished out the gelding and ran him for several years before selling him to the Beavers. The journeyman rodeo horse had placed many times but never got a win until Clovis.

Bagnell said Iago is pretty easy, too.

“He’s just the easiest going, kind horse to be around,” she said.

SPONSORS: Platinum Performance, Pete Carr Pro Rodeo, Delicious Horse Treats, Resistol, EquiTech Saddles

THANKS: “Huge thanks to Danyelle Campbell and Emily Mangione for everything they’ve done. Emily has been the biggest help with that horse and could answer any questions about him. I owe a lot of my success on him to her.”

“He has his moments—he’s quite opinionated—but in general he’s super fun running in those big, outdoor pens and just in daily life. He’s a really easy horse to deal with. He doesn’t have the mentality of a barrel horse. He’s kind of been everywhere and seen everything, so I've never really worried about taking him anywhere." Iago hadn't seen much action until recently.

He's had some time off for some stuff over the past few months," she said. "We knew that he was going to shine in those big pens, so it was a pretty easy decision for me to run him out there." Bagnell, who has been taking online classes only the past two semesters, so she has the freedom to rodeo both collegiately and professionally, has a powerful arsenal of horses including Sir Epic, who took Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi to the NFR last year and a pair of Blazin Jetolena geldings: Jet N For Karats ("Catfish") and Jet Fuel Only ("Axle").

"I'm more than grateful for the string of horses that I've got," she said.

Although her paternal grandmother got her into horses, it was her stepfather rodeo producer Pete Carr's connection to rodeo that turned Bagnell into a barrel racer.

"I knew I wanted something to do with horses," she said. "Barrel racing was my option at the time because that's what he was involved with and knew how to get me help. I started running barrels on his team roping horses that we still have kicked out in the pasture now. I got my first real barrel horse when I was 12." Now she's using Carr's connections to her advantage as a rookie. She said he's helped "tremendously."

"We say a lot, 'It's not what you know, it's who you know,'" she said. "More times than not, if I need something I can call Pete and he will have the answer or find someone who has the answer. That's made a huge difference, especially in the process of me learning and growing from the time I got started."

Bagnell currently has a commanding lead in the WPROA Rookie standings and unofficially just outside of the WPROA's Top 20.

NEW - The Lone Star Incentive

Our goal with starting this is to bring a very transparent program with larger added money to the Futurity, Derby and Open to Texas. All while giving back to the stallions who choose to support the incentive. This isn't a new format as there are several across the United States that are very successful already. We are just bringing it to the Lone Star State!

The Incentive will run in conjunction with the Lone Star Shootout held in January in Waco Tx. Funds will be raised through a stallion auction or stallions can pay a reference sire fee to join. How awesome would be if we reach our goal set and have the following added to the Incentive in January!

$90,000 Added Futurity; $40,000 Added Derby; $40,000 Added Stallion Owners Payout; $5,000 Stallion Bonus; $10,000 Open

How are we different?

-The stallion payout grows with each Futurity/Derby Incentive entry vs a set amount to be paid out.

-We will also offer a stallion bonus too!

-No foal nominations

-Rules and guidelines will be posted online for easy access

-Checks will be promptly mailed

This is a big step for us and we hope you are just as excited as we are! Being that we have held the Lone Star Shootout for 5 years we feel we have built a strong trust in the barrel racing community and hope you believe in us to bring this to life!

We have set some preliminary guidelines and rules that are posted on our website. Prior to any contracts being sent out or the auction starting we will have everything you need posted on our website.

Our auction will take place in October. If you are planning on breeding in 2027, buy your breedings through our auction! If you are a stallion owner and interested in joining us, we have set up a contact form on our website or below you can fill out and we will send out more details at a later date.

Please note, all figures below are on estimated money raised through the auction. Our goals are set high but we know they are attainable! Visit www.jandjrace.com for all the details!

PRCA Board of Directors, ProRodeo Hall of Fame Trustees vote in favor of relocation to Cheyenne, WY

Earlier this week, the PRCA Board of Directors and the ProRodeo Hall of Fame Trustees held a joint meeting to review the next step with Cheyenne LEADS and voted in favor of moving forward.

This step follows the January signing of a non-binding memorandum of understanding to explore relocating the PRCA offices and the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy to Cheyenne, Wyo.

This morning, Cheyenne LEADS, the PRCA Board of Directors and the Hall of Fame

GUYMON (OKLA.) PIONEER DAYS RODEO	MAY 1, 8:30 PM MAY 2, 3 PM; 8:30 PM MAY 3, 3 PM ET
CACTUS JACK XTREME BULLS UVALDE, TEXAS	MAY 1-2, 8:30 PM ET
STONYFORD (CALIF.) RODEO	MAY 1, 10 PM MAY 2, 4 PM ET

Trustees formalized the partnership with the signing of a Development Agreement between the parties on the project. The target for completion is still early 2029 and additional timeline details are being formed.

"As the PRCA celebrates our 90th year as the premier sanctioning body in Western sports, this is an exciting evolution that will give our membership the best chance at success for the next 50 years," PRCA CEO Tom Gause said.

Over the last three months, the Wyoming State Legislature, Cheyenne City Officials and Cheyenne LEADS have continued to codify funding for the project. The Wyoming legislative approval allowed the parties to move into the next phase of discussions.

In addition, this milestone allows project partners to begin pursuing additional fundraising efforts to support the overall development of the Hitching Post District.

"I'm incredibly excited about the next phases of this project and the opportunity to build on the strong foundation we've created," says Betsey Hale, CEO of Cheyenne LEADS. "There's great momentum, and I'm looking forward to what's ahead."

No matter how many mistakes you make or how slow you progress, you are still way ahead of everyone who isn't trying.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If our very best barrel horses decided to start running down the fence on first, what would we do? We'd do what any responsible person would do. We'd go through our checklist. Sore, training, fatigue, etc. And then, if nothing was found, we'd go back to the basics! That could work for us also.

In one week, I'VE come totally untrained. In three separate incidents, the bank, WalMart, and the Chevy dealership, I've lined people out! The Pastor's wife. Confronting people! And not in love!

At 3:00 A.M. in the morning when the Lord is convincing my heart, that though I was right, my delivery was wrong, I knew I needed to take action. What do we do when those times come? Back to the basics! I've repented for my delivery, but I believe the Lord gave me the action to take.

In 2 Cor. 3:16-18 tells us we are being transformed.

2 Cor. 5:9 tells us that we make it our aim to be well pleasing to Him.

2 Cor. 6:3 says we give no offense in anything. (Ohhhhh Jesus!).

2 Cor. 13:5 says to examine myself. (This is getting worse.).

The answer for me was in 2 Peter 1:5-8. He told me to practice each of these things for one week. Diligence, faith, virtue, knowledge, self control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness and love.

By my calculations, I have 6 weeks before I have to practice brotherly kindness... JUST KIDDING!!!!
