Devine Finish For Chloe Gray & Heavenly Red at Better Barrel Races World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Chloe Gray and Heavenly Red ("Karma") topped the 319-head short go at the Better Barrel Races World Finals, held April 22-27 at the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds in Oklahoma City, to claim a $12,406 1D Championship. The Yatesville, Georgia, barrel racer and 9-year-old mare pocketed a total of $16,089 from the $100,000-added, 2017-entry event.

"I love this mare!" said Gray. "She's so fun and so gritty and tries every time."

Gray said that Karma reminds her a lot of Sixums Lady Luck, the great horse of her youth that carried her to an NBHA World title.

"She's really similar," she said. "She's really wrappy and really honest. She wants to snake around them. I've tried to train all my young ones in that kind of style, but that typically doesn't work out. They all kind of pick their own style and I just roll with it. When I got another one that matched that style... Oh! It's heaven! It's actually heaven running her!"

Gray and Karma placed in both qualifying races. A 15.380 in the Jim Norick Coliseum was eighth and their 15.444 in Barn 6 was 13th. They topped the Short Go with a 15.059, the fastest time of the event.

"I don't know what kind of feeling this is, but every time I've won something big, I feel it when I wake up that morning," she said. "I knew she ran a .3 in the coliseum when I qualified and I knew I lost a few tenths. I was confident in her going into the Finals. I knew she was working solid. I just had to get around my first barrel and come across straight to the second. That was my plan—sharpen up leaving my first and just get around them. I knew she'd be really running by the third day."

"That run was just really smooth, really sharp. I really couldn't fault her any step of the run. She was really firing and really turning."

Gray's biggest threat was Rande Prindle and Red Man Jones ("Scooby"), who posted the fastest qualifying time in the coliseum at 15.071. Both Jud Little-bred horses, Karma and Scooby share the same tail female line. Karma, by JL Dash Ta Heaven, is out of Reneoni, a daughter of Rene Dan Jet out of Regally Royally Red, by Dinky's Red Man. Scooby, by Brownie Jones, is out of Dinky's Purple Rain, Regally Royally Red's full sister.

Karma, who is owned by Rob Bondurant's Godspeed Performances Horses, was trained and futuriated as a 5-year-old by Craig Brooks. Gray started riding the mare as a derby horse.

"I took over when she was ready to hit the big shows," said Gray. "I got to derby her and now we're hitting the big opens and the rodeos."

In 2023, Karma carried Gray to the Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship. Together with Guys On Firewater ("Cross"), the tandem of horses have Gray currently sitting with the WPRA's Top 20. They finished in the Top 30 in 2024.

"They'll really go back and forth," said Gray. "When I need one, it will show up. When I need the other one, it will show up."

"I actually sat Cross out for the BBR because he was getting a little bit of vet work after making most of the runs in the winter buildings. I ran her (at BBR) just to get her a few more runs because she has been sitting a bit. She really toted the weight at the BBR!"

Just before BBR, Karma placed third at the Clark Co. Fair Rodeo in Logandale, Nevada, to earn $5,256. The mare has also won checks this season at Rodeo Austin's qualifier, Fort Worth as well as Okeechobee, Florida, and Waxahachie, Texas.

"She likes the big outdoor pens, so she'll tote the weight during the summertime," Gray noted. "We've just been taking her to the bigger stuff and giving her a lot of rest."

Gray crisscrossed the country in all winter and spring. She started off April at the Diamond Classic in Abilene, Texas, and ducked over Logandale, Nevada, for the pro rodeo before heading home to Georgia for a week.

"I was home for about six days, but I got a lot done," said Gray, who operates High Hopes Farms & Repro with her sister Abby. "I got a lot of breeding done. Flushed some embryos, something I love doing. I'm very passionate about breeding. I do all my own breeding work, so that was a lot of fun to come home and flush some babies and do some transfers and try to get the next crew on the ground."

Last Tuesday morning, she left with eight head of horses for the BBR World Finals and the Ruby Buckle in Guthrie, Oklahoma, the following week.

"I'm just showing up," she laughed. "That's our new motto, 'Just keep showing up,' and that's what I'm doing!"

At the BBR, Gray ran five horses in the open and one in the futurity. She got three head back to the finals including Late Nite Soiree, a 6-year-old daughter of Tres Seis out of Webb Ranch's Popular Resortfigure, Firewater Fiesta daughter Mightypopularfiesta, and Stinsons Flyin Hawk, a 7-year-old daughter of Eddie Stinson, out of the Victory Farms' Thoroughbred mare Bag The Hawk, by Track Rebel. All but two of the horses are owned by Godspeed Performance Horses.

Gray, who at the time of this interview was in between derby runs at the Ruby Buckle, said she's going to try to sneak off to Guymon Pioneer Days rodeo on Friday.

"I've been trying to stay after the pro rodeos that have the Play-off series points," she noted. The Pro Rodeo Tour Playoff series concludes with the lucrative events in Puyallup, Washington and Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

After the Ruby Buckle, she'll head home to run some of her younger horses at the Spring Showdown in Perry, Georgia.

"I'll be off hitting the rodeos after that," she said. "These two are my last barrel races, pretty much."

A Little Legacy in a Grand Old Building

The BBR World Finals was the last barrel race in the Jim Norick Coliseum, which is scheduled for demolition in August. The grand old building holds a lot of history.

One of the greats to have passed through the "Gateway of Champions" is Jud Little's greatest equine creation JL Dash Ta Heaven. The 10.3 million dollar sire, now owned by Lainie Whitmire, was the 2011 BBR World Finals Champion, after setting an arena record of 14.881 with Ashley (Nelson) Schafer.

Little and JL Dash Ta Heaven's legacy ran strong until the end of the BBR World Finals run in the grand old building.

In addition to event champion Heavenly Red, Little also raised Im So Sway (JL Dash Ta Heaven x Smooth My Credit x Cash Not Credit) and Red Man Jones (Brownie Jones x Dinkys Purple Rain), who finished third and fourth respectively.

JL Dash Ta Heaven was also the sire of 1D earners Heaven Help Me Fly (out of Gin N Firewater, by Fire Water Flit), Ta Heavens Gift (out of CS Limelight by Corona Cartel), Starrin Baby Rose (out of Buggin Me Baby, by Bugemforcash), Smooth N Heavenly (out of Smooth My Credit) and RSL Heavenly Chick (out of Hy Talented Chick, by Flaming Talent). All were raised by Little except Starrin Baby Rose, who was bred by Sheryl Gamboa, and RSL Heavenly Chick, who was bred by his wife Benette.

Little also bred 1D money earner Credit Me Valiant (Valiant Hero x Little Extra Credit x Cash Not Credit).

Seis Martinis Gives DaCota Monk Third BBR World Finals Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Seis Martinis ("Marti Jane") more than doubled her lifetime earnings with a championship performance in the $20,000-added, 116-entry Better Barrel Races World Finals Futurity, held April 22-27 in Barn 8 at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City.

The victory also gave leading trainer DaCota Monk of Point, Texas, his third futurity title at the event.

"It's always kind of been my favorite, but it's really my favorite now!" Monk said. "I really like Barn 8. I like the setup, the atmosphere and all the people that work there. They make the show really fun even though it's stressful with all those people there."

Monk's first BBR title came aboard the late, great Famous Lemon Drop in 2020. He won in 2023 aboard TNR Wannaseemecancan.

"She reminds me so much of Famous Lemon Drop," Monk said of Marti Jane. "It's easy for her and she runs on top of the ground. She's kind of free but turns hard. She ran nearly the exact same times as Famous Lemon Drop did in that arena for both runs." Monk and Marti Jane were fourth in the first round with a 15.649 and topped the second with a 15.479. The victory was worth $10,703. They also won $1,310 for first in the AQHA Futurity Incentive and $1,750 in Select Stallion Stakes bonus money for total earnings of $13,763.

Bred by Michelle Darling, Marti Jane is by 10.1 million dollar sire Tres Seis out of Darlings' two-time World Champion Rodeo Alliance winner Morning Traffic ("Martini"), a daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of the great producer Evening Traffic by Dash Thru Traffic.

Marti Jane, who was purchased by Chad Beus as a yearling, was started under saddle by Logon Jensen before joining the Monk barn as a 3-year-old. Her initial barrel training came under the saddle of Monk's sister Brittanny Hill.

"We started bouncing her back and forth at the end of her 3-year-old year," said Monk. "Chad is really good about letting them run as 5-year-olds, so we just took our time with her and got her ready."

"She was a little bit different to train. I had to put some thinking to how she was wanting to work and how I wanted her to work. All of a sudden it clicked for both of us, and she was pretty much easy ever since."

He said having watched her mother run for many years and conversations with Darling aided in the mare's training.

"She acts so much like her momma," Monk said. "It was fun watching her and then training this one with her in mind. Martini has a different style. It did help me. I wouldn't have trained her the same if I hadn't taken into consideration how her mom runs. "When you slow work them, they want to kick their hip out and be really sloppy. They don't really like slow work, and it feels really bad, but as soon as you let them go, they lock their hip in and come around and it's got a really cool style to it. And you better stay two hands all the way up into the turn because she's going to turn!" Marti Jane also has her mother's mannerisms in the alleyway.

"She started acting like her mom in the alleyway and I didn't really know how to handle it," he chuckled. "She acted like a full-fledged barrel horse, really hot, popping up. It caught me off guard. I didn't know how to keep her calm. She wasn't good just keeping her moving and she wasn't good just keeping her standing. She finally let me figure out some tricks. As long as I'm petting her and talking to her, she'll stand there and wait. As soon as I put two hands on the reins, she's hopping the whole way to the alleyway. "I don't know where that came from. She started doing that in exhibitions. I thought it was crazy because I've never had a baby start doing that in the alley that soon, so it's like genetics for sure!"

Marti Jane made her debut at the OKC Futurity in the slot race.

"She did well, but she was timid and nervous," he said. "I took her back home and started to take her to some jackpots. She started clocking really good at the jackpots, like arenas where Can Can has the record and she was right there at it. I would take back to a futucity, and she would be timid again.”

By the Select Stallion Stakes Futurity in late March, Marti Jane had learned to feed off the pressure and atmosphere of the bigger events. Although they hit a barrel in the first round, they were second in the second round of the futurity as well as open.

Her performance was good enough that Beus was fielding offers, and Monk was able to place the mare with Missy Jean Etheridge, whom he knew from his days working with cutting horses. Having placed Marti Jane also put the mare in the same category as Lemon Drop and Can Can.

“All three fillies that won (the BBR Futurity) were horses that I had to find owners for, and they were all three fillies that I got really attached to,” he said. “I thought that was cool that all three won it.”

Summer Kosel & Firewaterfrenchfame Capitalize at Clovis Pro Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

2023 National Finals Rodeo qualifier Summer Kosel and her superstar Firewaterfrenchfame ("Apollo") had a successful jaunt to California for the Spring Run. After earning nearly $3,000 at the Red Bluff Roundup in Northern California, they picked up a $9,396 victory at the Clovis Rodeo, held April 24-27, in the Central Valley.

"He's glad to be back outside," Kosel quipped.

The Glenham, South Dakota barrel racer said she had to thank her husband Kevin for his support as well as her traveling partner for the trip, Hailey Kinsel, who talked her into making the California run.

"We didn't want to make that long drive alone," said Kosel, who now has a winter residence in Stephenville, Texas. "I wasn't going to go unless she was. Hailey wasn't going to go if I didn't."

"I took my mom and little boy with me the last time I came out here in 2023. I said, 'I'm not doing this again.' My mom doesn't drive a rig or have anything to do with horses.

Then at Houston, Hailey's like, 'Do you want to go to California?'

It was kind of a last minute decision when entries opened during Houston."

In Clovis, Kosel and Apollo had their first run in a progressive round of slack on Thursday. They finished second in the round and drew the performance on Friday night for their second run. Their 16.66 took second in the round and gave them the lead on two going into Sunday's short go.

Although there were three other California rodeos that weekend, the Kosel, Kinsel rig opted to run at Springville, the one closest to Clovis, and skip the two on the state's southern border.

"We were entered in Lakeside and Thermal, but we turned out of those when I made the short go at Clovis," said Kosel. "After he had that smoking run in the second round, the 16.6, Hailey made the executive call that we weren't bouncing Apollo all the way to Lakeside before the short round (in Clovis)."

The 10-year-old gelding is one of two NFR qualifiers for 5 million dollar sire Aint Seen Nothin Yet. He's the second NFR qualifier produced for Carol Warren out of her Fire Water Flit daughter Fire Water Flyer. His lifetime earnings prior to Clovis, per QData, are $464,233.

Not too shabby for a horse that started his career as a calf horse.

"He only had 50 days on the pattern when I bought him," said Kosel. "I bought him after his first time being entered and we've just kind of grown together. I put my little spin on him, and he just took to it. My friend (Emilee Pauley) that trained him rides very similar to me, so it worked out really well."

Kosel and Apollo finished out Clovis with a 16.81 to tie for third in the short to win the aggregate. Her total California haul of $12,265 bumped her into the Top 30 in the WPRA World Standings.

At the time of this interview, she and Kinsel were driving back to Texas to split the rig before going to the Guymon Pioneer Days, now a one-header rodeo, in Oklahoma.

"From Guymon I'm going back to South Dakota to start my kids' rodeos," she explained. She and husband Kevin, a ranch and stock contractor, have four children with the oldest being a freshman in college and the youngest in fourth grade. During the winter the youngest three, who are homeschooled, were in Texas with her. They returned to South Dakota when she headed to California.

Kosel, who finished 19th in the WPRA World Standings in 2024 with less than 50 rodeos, has much of the same strategy as she did last year.

"I'll stay home until the end of June," she said. "I plan on hitting most of the big Playoff (Tour) rodeos."

A good position in the Pro Rodeo Tour Playoff standings will allow entry into the pivotal lucrative Finales in Puyallup, Washington, and Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

2024 NFR Qualifier Vf Expensive Taste out for 6 months

Abby Phillips recently announced on her "Abby Phillips Professional Barrel Racer" Facebook page that Vf Expensive Taste (aka Andi Anderson) had a small fracture in her hock and would be off for 6 months. The 8 yr old daughter of Eddie Stinson helped Phillips qualify to her 1st NFR in 2024 and has LTE of $182,425.

Here is Phillips Facebook post:

"I'm sad to share the news that Andi Anderson will be out for the next 6 months. She has a small fracture in her hock. I'm thankful to my wonderful vet, Dr. Don Lee, for helping me figure out what was wrong with my girl. I'm also grateful that he connected me with Dr. Honnas, who has taken incredible care of Andi during her stay with him. Surgery went great and my girl is back home and on the mend.

We feel incredibly grateful that Andi Anderson will be back doing what she loves. Of course, I will allow her all the time she needs for complete healing! Until then she will be enjoying love and cookies at home.

We will appreciate your prayers for comfort and healing."

"We are honored to have them as our presenting sponsor of the only Official WPRA ProRodeo Barrel Racing World Standings that are updated weekly."

In addition, as part of the partnership, a one-year lease of a Hart Trailer will be awarded later this year. The trailer will be a Solution Four Horse Gooseneck complete with Smart Tack II Package. Additional information on this lease and how it will be awarded will be released in the coming months.

Womens Rodeo Championships and NBHA Announce Sidepots at 2025-26 Races

The Women's Rodeo Championships (WRC), in partnership with the National Barrel Horse Association (NBHA), proudly announces the inclusion of Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC) Sidepots at five prestigious NBHA barrel racing events in 2025 and 2026. These sidepots offer athletes a chance to compete for added money and secure direct qualifications to the 2026 WRWC.

"At NBHA, we are always striving for new ways to elevate opportunities for our members," said Bailey Nahrgang, Executive Director of NBHA. "Partnering with the Women's Rodeo World Championship to bring sidepots to our premier events opens new distinct pathways for our riders to excel to the highest of levels of competition. We are proud to continue championing the growth of women's rodeo and can't wait to see our athletes shine on the WRWC stage."

Participating Events Offering WRWC Sidepots:

Ariat Summer Run Super Show - Perry, GA - July 4-6, 2025
 Youth and Teen World Championships - Perry, GA - July 19-26, 2025
 The Myrna (WCBRA) - Tulare, CA - Sept. 25, 2025
 Circle Y Saddles Open/Senior World Championships - Perry, GA - Oct. 25 - Nov. 1, 2025
 Ariat Asheville Super Show - Fletcher, NC - March 2026

The highest placing Pro and the highest placing Challenger will receive automatic qualifications, along with up to eight Limited athletes, consisting of the top two highest placing entries in each division (D). To be eligible, NBHA members will have the option to enter the two WRWC packages in SaddleBook.

Additionally, Pro and Challenger athletes who wish to earn points toward the 2025 WRWC Leaderboard must nominate these events through the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). Nominating an event with WRWC means the VRQ Team will track your results for the event. Nominations for the 2026 event are now open.

Entry Options / Cost / Includes

WRC ID Card + WRWC Sidepot Entry / $250 / WRC ID Card and WRWC $ 100 Sidepot Entry (90% payback)

WRWC Sidepot Entry (with existing WRC ID Card) / $100 / WRWC Sidepot Entry only (90% payback)

"The Women's Rodeo World Championship is committed to creating more opportunities for women athletes to compete at the highest level," said Lindsay Rosser-Sumpter, WRC Commissioner. "Partnering with the NBHA to offer WRWC Sidepots at these major events gives our athletes not only the chance to earn added money, but also a direct path to the 2026 WRWC. It's an exciting step forward in expanding access, recognizing talent across divisions, and continuing to grow the future of women's rodeo."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's spring in Wyoming. If you are south of us, you are probably enjoying summer... Did you know there is a surefire way to tell when spring arrives up north? Red faces! I think red faces come out even before some of the birds get here.

If it's 40 degrees and the sun is shining, we are outside. You will see shorts and flip flops usually accompanied with a sweatshirt or jacket. But hey, it's spring. It's been months and we are by golly going to get some sunshine on us! LOL!

How can you tell you're a Christian no matter where you're from?

Glad you asked. Your love walk should be a telltale sign. Your joy level should be evident. Your peace. Your ability to remain cool, calm and steady in the face of diversity. How quickly you forgive. How slow you are to be offended. Your heart for all the things of God. Your attendance in church. Your giving. Your honesty and character. Repenting quickly when you sin and turning away from it.

Let your love for God shine for all to see, no matter the time of year!
