Mark Bugni & JL Twisted Roc Roll To A Better Barrel Races World Finals Championship

By Tanya Randall

Mark Bugni and his talented 5-year-old JL Twisted Roc (“Elroy”) turned in the fastest time of the $50,000-added Better Barrel Races World Finals, held April 24-28 in Oklahoma City, to top the Sunday Short Go and leave the 16th Annual event $14,686 richer.

“It was super thrilling,” said the Okemah, Oklahoma-based barrel horse trainer. The short go win was worth $10,089 alone. “This is a tremendous accomplishment. All the superstar horses in the country are there, and if you can come out on top, you know you’ve got something really special.”

Bugni purchased Elroy from his breeder Jill Lane of Fort Benton, Montana, as an unbroke 2-year-old. The gelding is by Lane’s homebred stallion, JL Sirocco, an Equi-Stat leading barrel horse sire, and out of the Shawne Bug mare Miss Twist Bug.

“We sent him to Dave Stinson to be broke,” Bugni said. “He had three or four weeks, and he’s been under me ever since. We futuritied him and he won about $70,000 last year.”

After the Barrel Futurities of America’s World Championship in December, Elroy didn’t see much action. Right before Christmas, Bugni was kicked in the jaw by a colt. Although he started riding again shortly after surgery, it took him a while to get back up to full speed.

He had a breakthrough at the Kim Landry Benefit Futurity in Abilene, Texas, where he won the event on All About Xs N Os and he picked up 1D and 2D money in the open on Elroy.

For the BBR World Finals, Bugni chose not to enter the Futurity, which was held in Barn 8. Instead, he just ran two horses in the 1,670-entry Open, which had two qualifying rounds—one in the Coliseum and one in Barn 6. The top 30 in each division from each race advance to the Short Go.

“I haven’t entered the futurity in two or three years,” he explained. “I’ve won that futurity before and the slot race. I’ve had a lot of success at it, but I like the venue of Barn 6 and the Coliseum better, so I’ve always ran my colt in the Open. Plus, with the divisions, if you stumble or make a mistake, you still have a chance at some money. In the Futurity, if you make a mistake, you’re out.”

Bugni and Elroy made their first run in the Coliseum. They ended up placing 27th overall for $449 behind Lisa Nicholas and Stoli’s My Guy’s (Traffic Guy x Sixes Fortunes x Stoli) victorious 15.196.

“He had a good run,” Bugni said. “It was early when I ran, within the first four hours, so the ground was a little wetter and heavier. What really cost us was I had switched to a non-gag lifter. I’d been having trouble with my first barrel with him leaving a bit of a space on the backside. I put that bit on him and he smoked the first, but when I got to the second barrel, it got me into trouble. He put his nose in the air going to the third and I was struggling to get him back in position. So, I had a hang up where I really should have been pushing. Thankfully, it didn’t take us completely out.”

Elroy was back in a JD Morrow bit for the second run. Even though, Elroy still left a little space behind the first barrel, he clocked a triumphant 15.301 to win $4,418.

In the short round, Bugni and Elroy ended up a repeat battle from Barn 6 with Randee Prindle and Red Man Jones (Brownie Jones x Dinkys Purple Rain x Dinkys Red Man). In Barn 6, it was a difference of 15.301 to 15.436. In the short round, the difference between first and second was dramatically tighter, 15.165 to 15.174.

“She and that horse are superstars,” said Bugni. “She had an amazing week. She was leading in Barn 6 and I took the lead from her. In the short go, she had the lead again. I thought I could get a piece of it with a 15.3, but I never thought I could catch the .1.”

Elroy’s run in the short round also showed Bugni that the gelding...

Leading 2019 Sire EPIC LEADER Booked Full

Brazos Valley Stallion Station announced today that Schiller Ranch’s leading sire Epic Leader is booked full for 2019.

“On behalf of the Schiller family and BVSS, we could not be more pleased with the reception that Epic Leader received in his first breeding season at Brazos Valley Stallion Station. Thank you to everyone who has lent their continued support to this phenomenal stallion. We look forward to seeing his babies keep winning and making headlines. We will consider International contracts in August of 2019 and Epic Leader’s 2020 books will open October 1, 2019.” said Jeremy Barkwick, owner of Brazos Valley Stallion Station.

2019 was Epic Leader’s first year of full performance crop and less than half way through the season his progeny have surpassed $330,000 in earnings. Average earnings per starter exceeds $28,000.

His 2019 top performers include Epic Guy ($127,000+), CP He Will Be Epic ($81,000+), Wicked Little Leader (2019 $34,000+), Mean Cheerleader ($28,000+) Back The Blue ($23,000+) and Epic Bit of Fame ($20,000+)

Epic Leader is the son of leading sire Confederate Leader, the 1998 Barrel Futurities of America Derby Champion and College National Rodeo Finals Champion. Epic Leader is out of Kelly Yates’ famous mount, AQHA and WPRA Champion mare Firewater Fiesta ($850,000+), by Firewater Flit.

Considering his royal pedigree, his sire and dam have combined progeny earnings of over $1.3 million. It was not surprising that Epic Leader was Leading Futurity Stallion in 2012 with over $170,000 in earnings. Bred by Karma Loftin and Kassie Mowry, he was also trained and campaigned by Mowry.

“We appreciate each person that bred to Epic Leader and believed in his abilities. Those magic crosses are producing champions.” said owner Kristi Schiller, of Schiller Ranch ing has more to give.

“He took off from the top of the alley,” he recalled. “I normally like to walk them closer, but with him, when he took off, I had to go with him. He nailed the first barrel. I had so many compliments on my first barrel. That’s the fastest he’s ever run to and turned the first, which shows me there’s a whole other level he can go to. It’s pretty impressive.”

Bugni wanted to thank the BBR crew for putting on such a great event and complimented Chuck Dunn’s ground crew.

“That show is proof that you can still put the right ground in the arena,” he said. “The ground was the best it’s been in years. It’s so nice to be in there and know you can put down a run and the ground is going to hold you. I didn’t see any slips or falls. That’s what’s going to keep people coming back.”

He was also very grateful for Jill Lane’s support and was happy for her program to get some recognition.

The next big race for Bugni is the Old Fort Days Futurity with All About Xs N Os. Elroy isn’t entered in the derby, but Bugni will find races for the gelding until he’s sold.

“He’s quirky as heck,” he laughed. “They say the best ones have a lot of quirks. Well, he’s the poster child for that, but he’ll dang sure make your dreams come true too. It’s going to take someone special to put up with his quirks, but when they get wins like that, you don’t mind keeping them. He can stay in my barn until the right forever home comes along.”

If you even think about starting to double a loop a barrel, he’ll sull up. He gets a lot of long trotting. If you hope him, he just starts getting faster and faster and if you try to slow him down, he just building up anxiety. He’s his own individual.”

Taking Two -- Jordon Briggs Wins BBR & Select Stallion Stakes Futurities With Busby-Bred Duo

By Tanya Randall

Multiple aged event champion and former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jordon Briggs took home two futurity championships and $17,371 from the Better Barrel Races World Finals, held April 24-28 in Oklahoma City.

The Chilton, Texas, trainer won the 90-entry, $15,000-added BBRWF Futurity aboard a 4-year-old mare One First Class Lady (“Lola”) for $7,069. She swept the Select Stallion Stakes Futurity, earning $5,898, with the 5-year-old gelding Famous Lil Jet (“Rolo”), who also finished third in the BBRWF Futurity average for an additional $4,404.

“I hadn’t run them anywhere since Diamonds & Dirt, but they had both done so well that I felt pretty confident going into BBR that they had come into their own,” said Briggs. “I cruised them through the exhibitions on Thursday, and they felt great.”

Rolo got things started, taking second the first go of the BBRWF Futurity with a 15.771, which also gave him the carryover victory in the 32-entry, $10,000-added Select Stallion Stakes Futurity. Lola was fourth with a 15.848.

“Rolo had a really good run,” Briggs noted. “Lola had just a nice smooth run. I ended up winning $6,500 just the first day. The Stallion Stakes paid amazing, nearly $3,000 to win the round.”

On their second run, Lola turned in a spectacular 15.354 to win the round by nearly 3/10ths. Although Rolo didn’t place in the second round of the regular futurity, he did top the Stallion Stakes for a sweep.

“Lola just had one of those runs where as a trainer you know that they can if they nailed every barrel perfectly and the timing was just right,” Briggs said. “She had a beautiful run. She ended up running the fastest time of that arena.”

“Rolo had just another smooth run. I kind of overrode him just a hair and ran him by the second barrel, but he ran another .8 and won the Stallion Stakes again for another $3,000 and finished third in the average overall.”

Both horses were bred by Busby Quarter Horses of Brock, Texas, and are basically full siblings as far as blood. Lola is by Blazin Jetolena, an Equi-Stat All-Time Leading Sire, out of GL Famous First Lady, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Lady Perks, by Dash For Perks. Incidentally, GL Famous First Lady is a full sister to Isabella Quarter Horses Futurity Champion Famous Ladies Man, ridden by Kassie Mowry for Michael Boone. Busby-bred Famous Ladies Man also placed eighth in the BBRWF Futurity average and placed in both rounds of the Stallion Stakes to earn $6,009.

Briggs, who was pregnant with she and husband Justin’s daughter Bexley at the time, had purchased Lola in March of her third year from Jolene Montgomery. Rolo came from the Busby’s as a yearling. He is by Dash Ta Fame, Equi-Stat’s All-Time Leading Barrel Horse Sire, out of Blazin Black Beauty, a daughter of Blazin Jetolena and Lady Perks. He went to the competitive roping arena with Justin while they awaited the arrival of Bexley.

Even though they are so closely related, physically, they are two completely different horses. Lola is a 15.2 hand, statuesque mare, while Rolo is built more like a calf’ horse at 15 hands.

“They’re nearly full brother and sister,” noted Briggs, who wanted to thank the Busbys for raising two amazing horses. “They have a lot of the same style and they’re both really honest. The only difference is with Rolo being so short bodied, it makes him have a hair different style.”

The two horses will get a break from the futurities until June. With only one 4-year-old to run, Briggs elected not to enter the Old BBRWF Futurity Continued on Page 31
Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Arkansas. Instead, she’s thinking about making an escape to cooler temperatures in June. “It gets so dang hot Texas, so we were thinking about driving to Bozeman, Montana, for the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity, the first of June,” she said. “All of my family lives in Colorado, so we’d go there the week between Bozeman and the Colorado Classic (Futurity in Colorado Springs). Just take a little vacation with horses. We bought a bigger trailer for Bexley, so we might as well use it!”

Telford and Famous Cool Whip Take Full Advantage in Clovis

By Amy Wilson

When the pressure was on at the end of the 2018 ProRodeo season, Jessie Telford delivered, earning her first trip to the NFR. It was that experience of being 16th in the WPRA standings and having seven rodeos left, that changed her mindset. She typically thought to herself, there’s always another rodeo. “This year I’ve changed that thought. There’s not always another rodeo – every rodeo I run him at counts, I have to make those runs count,” Telford said. “There’s a definite deadline and there’s not always another rodeo – there were seven for me to get it done.”

Getting to compete in Las Vegas not only gave her extra incentive to want to quality again this year, but it also solidified that she has one of the top horses out there with her home-raised and trained gelding, Famous Cool Whip. But that reassurance also comes with the added pressure of expecting herself to be successful since she’s riding that caliber of horse. “It’s like, you have that horse, now take care of business and enter properly and take full advantage of every run you have on him,” Telford admits.

She started her California run by placing in both rounds and the average at Red Bluff to win over $5800, and she was able to trade to Horizontally and placed in the first and following Thursday, Telford went back to California for Clovis, a rodeo she knew Cool Whip liked as she had placed in the first and second rounds and finished fifth in the average last year. “I went down there with all the confidence in the world that it’s this pen and setup because from the previous years I knew he liked it,” she commented. “They always have really good, fast ground there.”

BARREL RACING REPORT

April 30, 2019 49
Famous Cool Whip, “Cool Whip” 17 hands, 1,300 lbs.

BIT: Ed Wright locked dog-bone, medium shank

HEADDRESS: Bonnet that Jake made

SADDLE: Roohide

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine poles

SHOEING: Aluminum wedges

FEED: Nutrena Pro Force Senior and Nutrena Full Oats mixed in

HAY: Alfalfa they raise

SUPPLEMENTS: Platinum Performance CJ and Platinum Healthy Oil

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: “He gets rode whether it’s out on the hay field or I turn back for Jake quite a bit, so he gets to work cattle quite often. So he probably gets rode 5-6 days a week, just to keep him busy. Not everyday is harsh endurance training or anything like that. He likes people and he likes to be rode. He’s a busy horse and likes to be around people.”

SPONSORS: Nutrena, Platinum, Kimes Ranch, Western Legacy Company, Classic Equine, Roohide Saddles, Rios of Mercedes boots.

Telford went to college at Cal Poly so she has a lot of longtime friends who still live around Southern California, including Megan McGill, where she and several other contestants stay while at Clovis.

She and Cool Whip ran a 17.0 in slack Friday to place second in the first round. “When it’s a really long run to the first, he’s kind of tricky. It’s like he sees that barrel coming and he’ll lean on me. He kind of felt like he did that on my first run. When he does that, he doesn’t always cross over to the second barrel soon enough and when he makes that move at the last minute, he will front-end pop me out of the saddle. So I definitely had some air time up there — took me a minute to come back down,” she said with a laugh.

“But he was running really hard. He’s one of those that can make mistakes but still clock.”

For their second round run on Saturday afternoon, Telford changed her approach. “I sent him in the lead to make him stand up and not lean. It definitely worked — he stood up phenomenally,” she said. They were 16.73 to win the second round. “In my book it was a pretty flawless run for him. I didn’t feel like there was anything I would have done differently in that run,” she added.

In the short round on Sunday, Telford kept the same game-plan. “He really is pretty easy to ride if I can nail my first barrel,” she said. They were 16.94 to place second in the short round and win Clovis! All totaled, Telford won $8248 which moved her into the top 10 in the WPRA World Standings.

On her Facebook page, she posted, “Clovis just might be my new favorite rodeo!” In addition to the “awesome” atmosphere, Clovis is now at the top of Telford’s list because Cool Whip loves it so much. Not only does the 8 year old gelding have a huge stride which is a fit for the big setup there, but he lets her move him over in the arena and send him from wherever she wants in whatever wind she wants, which is definitely an advantage at Clovis. “You have to have a horse that’s broke enough because you can’t really leave from the gate there. You come through the heater box — a little bitty gate, and it’s not centered at all. You have to get in the arena and then move over to the left,” she explained.

According to Telford, Cool Whip is part of their family and he especially loves kids, “When kids come walking by his pen, if I have the hot wire up, he’ll walk right to the edge hoping that they’ll pet him.” She plans to give him time off until Reno. The mare, Shu Fire, that she ran at the finals last year, is still out for a few months after having surgery for navicular bursitis, so Telford will be running Guys Dash, a 6 year old that she futurited last year. “That colt is going to get it pretty consistently through the rest of May and the first half of June. And I’ll reevaluate then as far as how much I’ll continue to haul him,” she said.

The Telford family always has a lot going on with Jake being a professional cowhorse trainer and their daughters jr high rodeoing.

BARREL RACING REPORT

April 30, 2019
Headin’ For Home

By Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Why is it so easy to complain and find fault with everything and anything? Because it’s EASY. We are just going with the flow of the world. But those actions will hurt us. It’s a crummy, negative way to live and look at life. God wants the best for us! To HAVE the best, we have to BE the best. It’s called discipline and self-control. One of the fruits of the Spirit is self-control. Gal. 5:22.

So here’s our homework for the week. Let’s start simple. Don’t ask anything of your horse that you won’t do yourself! If we’ll do that, we’ll be at the pay window of our Christian life!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor “Church at the Barn” in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
