Pozzi & Pierce Battle at RNCFR

Although many of you may remember it as the DNCFR (Dodge National Circuit Finals Rodeo), don't worry the RNCFR (Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo) is the same great rodeo. It is a chance every year for the circuit cowboys and cowgirls to compete for big money. However, this year it may have been a preview for this year's NFR.

Nikki Steffes got the best of Carlee Pierce and Brittany Pozzi in the first round but after that the #1 & #2 barrel racers in the world took over the show. Pierce won the second round and the average with Pozzi just a step behind her. After that Pozzi stepped out of Pierce's shadow and won the semifinals and finals on her way to a $19,881 payday, while Pierce garnered a $18,578 check for the event.

In the Finals, only a measly hundredth of a second separated them with Pozzi turning in a 15.07 and Pierce turning in a 15.08. For most of this year, Pozzi has been leading the World Standings but in the last couple weeks Pierce used a strong showing at Houston to push into the #1 position, now at $68,045 and Pozzi sits at #2 at $64,640.

Ironically they both run Fire Water Flit grandsons; Pierce runs Rare Dillion (by Firecracker Fire by Fire Water Flit), Pozzi runs Yeah Hes Firen (by Alive N Firen by Fire Water Flit) and both horses are also out of dams with Jet Deck sire lines.

It was Pozzi's first experience at the RNCFR and she made the best of it winning close to $20k and adding yet another title to her impressive record.

Both Pierce and Pozzi are ready to head west to the spring rodeos. Pierce will be giving Rare Dillion a break and haul Blue Moon Fling and Kiss This Guy. It wouldn't be surprising for Pozzi to give Yeah Hes Firen a break with some of her young talent she has been seasoning like French Covergirl. It is early in the year but Pierce, Pozzi, Lindsay Sears, and Benette Little already have enough money won to all but ensure their NFR qualification. They are sitting at nearly double the earnings of #5 in the World Lisa Lockhart (Little has $53,364 while Lockhart sits at $27,618). They all have seasoned horses and are ready

Roper Futurity Moves to August in McCook

New Date, New Location, Same Event...Kohr Quarter Horses and the 5th Annual Roper Apparel and Footwear Barrel Futurity and Barrel Racing Report Open 4D moves to The Kiplinger Arena, McCook, NE on August 24-26, 2012. By joining the end of summer Northern Barrel Futurity circle, the 5th Annual Roper Apparel and Footwear Barrel Futurity will offer its high quality performance to a wider group of competitors. This end-of-summer venue will also allow riders to travel without fears of bitter winter snow and cold. By making a long term commitment to the end of August at the Kiplinger Arena in McCook, NE, KQH plan on growing their event; attracting new barrel racers from the front range of Colorado, Kansas, and Nebraska, while working to maintain their base support from the tri-state region of Wyoming, Montana, and South Dakota. FMI go to www.KohrQuarterHorses.com.

Horseman Ed Kyler Passes

Horseman and rancher Ed Kyler, 64, of Cascade, Montana, died March 26 of a heart attack.

Ed was born March 24, 1948, and met his wife, Mary, while attending the University of Montana, where they rodeoed together, Ed as a roper and bulldogger and Mary as a barrel racer. The Kyler's bred their first horse together in 1973, and continued breeding good horses for racing and rodeoing from their 2,700 acre ranch.

The 30-year cumulative breeders have from 70 starters bred 45 winners and nine stakes winners, including Canada Cup Futurity (RG3) winner KR American Girl ($46,334) and All Canadian Futurity of Alberta winner KR Montana Cartel ($52,783).

Since 1999, Ed trained the winners of 83 races from 328 starts and the earners of more than $540,000. Stakes winners he trained, in addition to the above two homebreds, are Platinum N Pearls, KR Montana Shake Em, JCPH Go Go Carly, KR Streakin Who, KR Profitability and Elfin Cove.

A funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. on Friday, March 30, at Hillcrest Lawn Memorial Chapel with burial to follow at St. Peter's Mission Cemetery. Schnider Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.

Ed is by his wife; sons Ryan Kyler of Seattle, Washington, and Will Kyler of Golden, Colorado; sisters Sharon Trott of Billings, Montana, Beverly Brown of Clovis, California, and Catherine West of Helena, Montana; a brother, Kenneth E. Kyler of Helena, Montana, and three grandchildren. Courtesy or www.aqha.com

Old Fort Days Futurity Barrel Horse Sale

The Old Fort Days Futurity Barrel Horse Sale will be held on May 23rd, 2012 at the Kay Rodgers Park in Fort Smith, AR. Catalog Consignments close April 20, 2012

Horse demonstrations are in catalog order at 11AM. The horse sale begins at 2pm. This annual sale offers top quality barrel horse prospects of all ages. The sale catalog will be available live on the internet at www.Visworks.com. Contact Becky Canaday at 316.204.5360 or bcanaday@visworks.com for more information.

AHP Launches Equine Survey

Take the 2012 AHP equine industry survey today.

The American Horse Publications, AHP, is launching its second Equine Industry Survey to gauge trends in the U.S. equine industry. The AHP Equine Industry Survey is being sponsored by Kentucky Equine Research, Merck Animal Health, and Pfizer Animal Health.

As in the previous survey, the purpose of the 2012 survey is threefold. The first objective is to obtain information regarding past, present, and expected future participation in the equine industry. The second objective is to identify which issues currently facing the equine industry are perceived as being most critical to those who own, or manage horses. The third objective is to analyze issues pertaining to horse health. In addition to questions on vaccines and deworming, the 2012 survey includes questions relating to nutrition, feed, and nutritional supplements.

To download the results of the 2009 AHP Results Discipline by Region Table, go to <http://www.americanhorsepubs.org/resources/2009-AHP-Results-Discipline-By-Region-Table.xls>

The general equine industry may request a copy of this new information by contacting the AHP office at ahorsepubs@aol.com after April 1, 2012. Data will be available online at www.americanhorsepubs.org at that time.

NW Futurity Run Kicks off at Rocky Top Arena

By Tanya Randall

Holly Schoenberg and Bogies Famous Too ("Famey") started the annual Northwest Futurity Run on fabulous footing, winning the Sixth Annual Southwest Washington Futurity, held March 31-April 1 at the Rocky Top Arena in Salkum, Wash.

Schoenberg, who hails from Kennewick, Wash., was riding the 5-year-old daughter of multiple Columbia River Circuit Champion and Wrangler National Rodeo Finals Average money earner Bogie Biankus out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Fameanita, for the mare's owners and breeders Sid and Randi Rae Britt of Echo, Ore. The Britts own Bogie Biankus.

Schoenberg and Famey placed third in the first go and won the second go en route to the average win and $1,219 of the $6,276 total purse of which $2,000 was added.

"I'm very proud of her," said Schoenberg, a stay-at-home mom and barrel horse trainer. "She had three weeks off because she had a little cold. I hadn't made any practice runs on her at all before the futurity." The Britts started Famey before sending her to Schoenberg last August.

"She's a pretty neat horse and very easy to ride," said Schoenberg. "She goes to her spots every time and gives you 100 percent. She's all business."

Training and running futurity horses is a business that allows Schoenberg to be a stay-at-home Mom to her and husband, Deken's daughter Cali, 4.

"This is what I do on the side," she said. "I like the challenge of it, bringing these futurity colts along and then I usually sell them. That's how I afford to stay at home."

Famey is rare, she belongs to her longtime friends the Britts.

"I have to thank Randi Rae and Sid for the opportunity to ride such a nice mare," she said. "They did such a great job with her."

After the Northwest futurity run, Famey will go home.

"I wish I could keep her," said Schoenberg. "I love her like she was my own."

The Salkum event at Viki Friedrich's Rocky Top Arena is the first of four Washington State futurities in April.

"We had a great turnout," said Friedrich of her futurity. "This is the first year we brought everything all here. It used to be in two different places. We hope to keep it growing."

Next on tap is the Sand Cup Futurity, held April 6-8 at the TRAC in Pasco. Last year, Friedrich won the Sand Cup Futurity on Knoxville Bank, a Dash Ta Fame owned by Mary Geiger.

The grand dame of all the Northwest futurities, the Valley Girls Barrel Dazes, which first held their futurity in 1981, follows the Sand Cup. The 2012 event is scheduled for April 13-15 at the Walla Walla Fairgrounds. The Barrel Daze Futurity, which was won by Danyelle Campbell's Dash Ta Fame KR Captain Jack last year, features one of the richest breeder's purses in the futurity, maturity and sweepstakes, thanks to their annual stallion auction. One of the richest futurities in the country, it also features $7,500 in Future Fortunes bonus money.

The Northwest run closes with the Appleatchee Spring Futurity, held April 20-22 in Wenatchee, Wash. Last year, Kelli Currin and Junos Caddy Biankus won the event.

Honoring A Great Barrel Racer in Helena

Joyce Arms Memorial Barrel Race
March 31-April 1, 2012, Helena, MT

The Thompson and Arms families produced the event to honor Joyce who died April 4, 2009, while barrel racing (her life's passion) in Bozeman, Montana. All proceeds are being donated to charity. Dee and Gary Hoovestall donated the use of their beautiful Hooves and Stalls Arena indoor arena for the weekend. Tom Whalen of Whalen Tires donated the custom trophy Cactus Saddle to the Open 1D Average winner, Ashley Ouzts. Other generous sponsors of added money, average and go-round winner prizes include Copper Spring Ranch, Summit Financial, AZ Butte, Steele's Furniture, Montana Bean & Cream, Garrett Family & Colleen Smith Family, Silver Bow Pizza, Bev and Archie Hill, Jori and Geno Liva, Ben Arms, Judy Archer, Safeway, Wingate by Wyndham, Town Pump, American Federal, Shirlee and Tim Kaczmarek, Novotny Land and Cattle, Casey and Ross Wagner, Murdoch's of Butte and Bozeman, Montana Club, Headwaters Country Jam, and Butte GM. Many thanks to all the contestants and Joyce's fellow WPRO members who turned out to honor our dear friend and have a fun weekend of barrel racing.

WINNING the 1st GO-ROUND at the 2009 5-STATE BREEDERS MATURITY
ridden by Kelly Schnauffer

An Epic Performance for Kassie Mowry

THE RUNDOWN: KASSIE MOWRY

HORSE: Epic Leader

Gray Stallion, 4 Years Old, 15.1 hands, 1200-1250 lbs.

OWNER: Karma Loftin & Kassie Mowry

HORSE HISTORY: Karma Loftin and I bought the embryo and decided to breed Fiesta (Firewater Fiesta) to Confederate Leader, so we raised him. Joe Butterfield broke him and put about 3 months on him here at the house, so Epic Leader never left the house. We bred him that year as a 2 year old so now we have 8 short yearlings out of him, and this year we have 2 babies on the way. With his training and everything we haven't really bred him last year and this year so we can focus on his training, since he only gets one futurity year. We just want to see what we can accomplish with him this year. As we haul him throughout the year people can see his style and see how quiet and friendly he is. So far, he has won the 4 Year Old PacWest Slot Race, won the second round of the Juvenile at the BFA & ended up 4th in the average, Reserve Champion in the LG Pro Classic Slot Race, won 3rd at the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity, and those are the only other runs he has made other than at Lone Star this weekend. He has won money at every event he has been to. We pick and choose where we go with him and keep him fresh and happy and so far that is working. His lifetime earnings at this point are already between $70-80k.

NOTE: His dam, De Streaker, is also the dam of one of the all-time leading barrel futurity horse's and multiple NFR round winner, Mulberry Canyon Moon.

BIT: O Ring Snaffle, 2 piece, with smooth copper mouthpiece, not twisted, just small ridges on the bit.

Bayou West Co.
PREMIER SADDLE PADS

Bayou West Co. has worked with Lynn McKenzie, well-known barrel racer and clinician, to develop a pad designed with the barrel racer in mind.

"This is by far and away the BEST pad I have ever used!" says Lynn.

It is made with Bayou West's top quality wool felt and neoprene in-set for protection where you need it. Designed for use with the Lynn McKenzie saddles, it also works great with other saddles as well. This custom-like pad form fits to your horse and allows the horse's shoulder blades to run up under the bars of the saddle. This freedom of movement gives you longer strides that mean faster horses!

WHAT QUALITIES DOES CONFEDERATE LEADER HAVE THAT MADE YOU WANT TO RAISE A STUD BY HIM? The reason we chose to breed Fiesta to him is because I watched Confederate Leader run week after week and he just dominated. He also won the BFA and on top of that I thought they would really complement each other. At the time, Dillon (Dashing Dillon who she won over $100k with) was a 3 year old and he was so easy and had so much natural talent I wanted another one like him. Confederate Leader has never had a crop of more than 10 in a year but about all his colts taken to barrels have become 1D barrel horses. When they first started breeding Confederate Leader, he was bred to random mares and he was still kicking up barrel horses. I figured the odds were good to get a really good barrel horse. They are pleasant horses, kind, very fast, and honest horses. They are also very trainable and I appreciate that about them. Finally, we thought breeding to Confederate Leader would give us an outcross to the Dash Ta Fame mares that were coming up at the time. In fact, this year Karma and I actually leased Confederate Leader for the breeding season and through word of mouth, we have got some great barrel mares booked such as Stingray (Mp Meter My Hay), Miss Jb 055, Kn Docs Grey Gold, Missjbrunninwithfire, Pass The Belle (Dashing Dillon's dam), and some of the best barrel mares in the country.

WHAT MADE YOU WANT TO STAND A STALLION OF YOUR OWN? Really it was for ourselves to use on our own mares. I knew I got along with these lines of horses and their style feels correct to me so I figured it would give me some great prospects that fit my program. As far as Fiesta, I have always loved Fire Water Flits and I liked the way Firewater Fiesta ran, and she worked on any type of ground. She wasn't a producer at the time we bred to her (colts weren't old enough at the time) but we knew she would be. She has good bone and good conformation as well. Karma and I sat down and thought of what would be the coolest mare and coolest stud and we came up with Fiesta and Confederate Leader. We asked Fiesta for a grey stud colt and that is exactly what we got. I told Karma I didn't care if he came out like his sire or dam, either way I would be happy! I can see a little of his sire and dam in him. His colts are very exciting to us because they are the product of this long process we have went through with Epic Leader from seeing him as a colt to now seeing his colts. He has just done what he was bred to do and it is just so easy for him. It has been a dream come true so far.

WHAT IS THE KEY TO RUNNING MULTIPLE HORSES IN THE 1D: Great horses! Chasin (Chasin Firewater) just wins and Honey (Missjbrunninwithfire) just wins too, they are all just great horses and like to do their jobs.

HOW DO YOU ADJUST BETWEEN DIFFERENT STYLES OF HORSE? Chasin and Honey I know really well and I know exactly how to ride them. I know with Chasin and Honey they are solid and do their job all the time. Epic Leader is very consistent for a 4 year old, usually 4 year olds aren't as mature as he is so we have been lucky so far. Later in the year there may be adjustments but so far he has been very consistent. Usually, during their 4 year old year you are working to help the colt but also let them work and trying to strike that balance which usually makes 4 year olds not as consistent. That is why we go to these barrel races between the futurities in order to get the colts consistent. It can get discouraging sometimes but it is necessary. Sometimes for the $40 entry fee you can try something new you have been wanting to try with out doing it for the $800 fee it might have been at a futurity. Maybe I want to change their bit or something and I can do that before we go to the big money futurity. Also, I may use the barrel race to take the pressure off and use the run as a confidence building run where I don't have to ask them for everything they have like at a futurity. I can just be happy with them making a pretty pattern. It was kind of fun to show Epic Leader off close to home since he trained here and exhibitioned here over the last year, so it was nice to let the people that had seen him work through his baby steps here over the last year see him actually run.

Introducing the Zone™ Series Pad

Made Exclusively by Classic Equine®

ZONE

NOW THE TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPED TO PROTECT PRO ATHLETES IS AVAILABLE TO PROTECT YOUR HORSE

Zoombang is scientifically tested and proven to protect against impact injury. Zoombang is a patented polymer material that provides truly intelligent protection. At rest, Zoombang acts as a liquid to assure perfect fit and malleability. But on impact, it immediately transforms to a solid state, reacting proportionally to the energy applied. As a result, Zoombang only becomes as rigid as necessary to absorb and dissipate incoming shock.

Zoombang is widely used for its protection against injury in contact sports, law enforcement, and military applications. The NFL, NHL, MLB and NASCAR rely on Zoombang to protect elite athletes. Now equine athletes can benefit from the same protection. After all, they deserve it.

HOW ZOOMBANG™ WORKS

SOFT AT REST
ZOOMBANG is soft and fluid-like to the touch

REACTS TO IMPACT
Upon impact ZOOMBANG molecules stiffen and lock to a solid-like state providing maximum protection

SOFT AT REST
After impact, ZOOMBANG returns to its fluid-like state

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A happy, cheerful person is easy to be around. Proverbs 17:22 is so true when it says, "A merry heart does good like medicine, but a broken spirit dries the bones."

We all know some unpleasant people who aren't pleased with anything. Many of them experience health problems because researchers have found that depression and negative emotion reduce the body's ability to fight off infections.

Laughter strengthens the immune system, researchers say, and decreases stress hormones in the body. They also say that laughter is a natural pain killer. Notice how someone who is "down and out" will suddenly perk up after a pleasant visit with someone they enjoy.

God wants us to be relaxed and at peace. Notice all the Scriptures that tell us to cast our cares over the Lord. There are many but, a good one to remember is Philippians 4:6-7 which tells us to be "anxious for nothing" and with prayer and thanksgiving make our requests know to God and then the "peace of God" will fill us. Matthew 11:28 tells us to come to Jesus for rest and peace.

God wants us to trust in Him and enjoy our lives. He is able to do far more than we can think, imagine or even ask for. See Ephesians 3:20. In Luke 12:25 it tells us that we can't change things by worrying about them so turn your cares over to the Lord and claim the peace He gives.

It makes us feel good to help others and there are many ways to do that besides physical acts or money gifts. It's good to cheer up a depressed person or put a smile on someone's face. And we will benefit from that action also. Proverbs 11:25 says "...he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed." (NIV) God is good and His mercy is new every morning! Say, "This is going to be a good day!"
