Jordan Bassett Banks at Sand Cup Futurity

By Hope Sickler

Dewey, Arizona futurity trainer Jordan Bassett started out the 2017 futurity year on a roll and she was only getting started. The 27-year-old stole the show in Washington this past weekend at the coveted Sand Cup Futurity aboard the incredibly talented, royally bred palomino mare, Mimis On Firewater.

The 5-year-old standout "Honey" is by Dash Ta Fame and out of Fire Water Fanny by Fire Water Flit. A blue-hen producer of two standout futurity horses in 2016, FeelintheFirewater & Heavenly Firewater; Fire Water Fanny, was also a force to be reckoned with on the cloverleaf pattern. In fact, she helped qualify Amanda Clayman to the NFR. "Honey" is owned by Butch and Stephanie Webb and was purchased from Vickie Adams as a 3-year-old.

The Sand Cup Futurity which is held in beautiful Moses Lake, Washington is considered one of the toughest futurities of the year. The trek to Washington doesn't stop some of the best in the industry from attending the first leg of the two big Northwestern futurities.

In the first round of the futurity, it was veteran futurity trainer Pete Oen who stopped the clock the fastest, posting a 15.231 aboard Guys Dashing Jet owned by Cathy Geary. Bassett finished second with a 15.291.

"I felt like my first run at the Sand Cup was my prettier run! She didn't leave much room around them, so I was holding my breath and my toes in," laughed Bassett.

Going into the second round, Bassett knew that she was going to have to ride aggressive to make a clean run aboard the 15.3+ mare on a small pattern!

"Before coming to Washington, we were having some difficulties getting around all three barrels. We actually knocked at a couple different races to break arena records, so I knew that I needed to go back to the practice pen and work on our slow work."

Bassett worked on reminding "Honey" that she needed a little more room and one extra step on the back side to ensure a clean run.

In the second round of the Sand Cup Futurity, first round winner Pete Oen made another smooth, efficient run, clocking a 15.307. Bassett was after Oen in the second round and watched as he rounded all three barrels clean and fast.

"I watched Pete make another beautiful run and knew that I was going to have to ride hard and not weaken. I did some quick math in my head and knew that we needed to be a 15.24 to win the average. I knew that if we left the barrels standing, Honey would shut the clock off," said Bassett.

Determined to do so, Bassett repeatedly thought to herself in the holding pen to ride tough and not weaken.

Contestants Compete for $1 million at RNCFR

When the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo (RNCFR) gets underway at the Silver Spurs Arena on April 6, more than 200 rodeo athletes from 36 states, plus Canada, New Zealand, Australia and four states in Mexico, will gather to compete for national championships as well as $1 million in prize money and awards.

The circuit system divides the United States into 12 geographical regions where Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) members compete for points in their designated area to advance to their circuit finals. The winners of the 12 circuit finals as well as the year-end champions in each rodeo event are then invited to the RNCFR. This year, for the first time, the field also includes two contestants in each event from the PRCA's Mexican Rodeo Tour.

With over $1 million in cash and prizes, the RNCFR one of the richest rodeos in the United States. Winning contestants will get substantial paychecks which for the first time will count in the PRCA and WPRA world standings. Champions in each event as well as the all-around category will also get a $20,000 certificate towards the purchase of a RAM vehicle, a new Polaris RANGER UTV a champion buckle, saddle and new pair of boots.

WPRA History on Display at ProRodeo Hall of Fame By Ann Bleiker, courtesy of www.WPRA.com

In anticipation of the 2017 ProRodeo Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony on August 5, the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and the Women's Professional Rodeo Association opened a historical exhibit on Friday, March 31.

This exhibit will be housed in the 101 Gallery at the front of the Hall until September 1. Visitors can learn the history of the Association from when 38 women met in a hotel room in San Angelo, Texas, in 1948 to start the Association called the Girls Rodeo Association (GRA) through the historic 2017 ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductions, that will include barrel racers for the first time ever. In addition, there is a flair for fashion clothing display showing the clothing trends through the years, a look back at the 1988 and 2002 Olympic Command Performance Rodeos held during the Olympic Games in Calgary and Salt Lake City, respectively and a Horsepower section honoring the horses that have been awarded with honors such as AQHA Horse of the Year, Horse With the Most Heart and Rising Star Award.

"I am thrilled with the new partnership between the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and the WPRA," said Kent Sturman, Director ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy. "Not only will we now honor the women who excel in the sport of barrel racing, but with this exhibit, we can educate our guests and fans about the history of the WPRA and promote this important segment of the sport of professional rodeo. These outstanding women have been instrumental in advancing this event and they deserve to be celebrated."

As announced on March 28, the two individuals and one equine partner that will be honored in the inaugural WPRA Hall of Fame class include Wanda Harper Bush, Charmayne James and a joint PRCA/WPRA equine inductee Star Plaudit "Red." They will be joined by the PRCA inductees which include Buck Rutherford (All-Around), Enoch Walker (Saddle Bronc), Cody Custer (Bull Riding), Tommy Puryear (Steer Wrestling), Mike Beers (Team Roping), Randy Corley (Contract Personnel), Bob Ragsdale (Notable), Smith & Velvet (Livestock) and Ogden Pioneer Days Rodeo (Committee).

Wanda Harper Bush was multitalented, becoming the most decorated cowgirl in the history of the WPRA (formerly the Girls Rodeo Association). When the GRA first formed in 1948, Bush was one of the first to sign-up. All totaled she won 32 world titles - nine all-around (1952, 1957-58, 1962-65, 1968 and 1969), two barrel racing titles (1952-53), two cutting world titles (1966, 1969), one flag race world title (1969), 11 calf roping titles (1951-56, 1960, 1962, 1964, 1966-67) and seven ribbon roping titles (1951, 1953-54, 1956-59). She finished as reserve world champion in the barrel racing three different times. While Bush's barrel racing world titles came before the NFR began, she qualified seven times (1959-60, '62-65, and '74) for the NFR during her career.

Bush will be inducted posthumously having passed away on Dec. 29, 2015.

Charmayne James, who grew up in Clayton, N.M., the home of the very first barrel racing National Finals Rodeo in 1959, won the first of 10 consecutive world titles at the young age of 14 in 1984. James was the first WPRA member to wear the coveted No. 1 back number in 1987 and became the first barrel racer to cross the $1 million record in career earnings. In addition to the 10 consecutive world titles (1984-1993), James and Scamper won the NFR average title six times (1984, 1986-87, 1989-90 and 1993). In 1996, Scamper became the first barrel horse and only barrel horse (until 2017) to be inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

James would add a cherry on top of her illustrious career returning to the top of the sport aboard Cruiser (Cruisin on Six) in 2002, winning her 11th world title and seventh NFR average title.

Bringing symbolism to this new chapter in the history of the PRCA and WPRA is best summed up with the induction the horse known as Star Plaudit "Red."

Star Plaudit holds a very unique record in the world of professional rodeo, one that is not likely to ever be duplicated. The bay gelding won two World Championships in the sport in a single year and contributed to a third, at the age of 12. Red, as he was affectionately known, carried his owner Sherry (Combs) Johnson to the GRA World title in the barrel racing and close family friend Tom Nesmith to the RCA world title in the steer wrestling and helped the Oklahoman also claim the RCA All Around championship, all in 1962.

The 2017 ProRodeo Hall of Fame Inductions will take place at 10 a.m. MT on Aug. 5, 2017 in Colorado Springs, Colo. More information can be found at www.prorodeohalloffame.com.

A lot of horses wouldn't have been able to make that first corner in the position she was in, but she did it effortlessly. She simply amazes me!"

Having to lift her right leg for a little extra room, Bassett got around the first barrel and stayed two-handed around the second and third barrel to keep the mare in forward motion. The aggressive, sharp riding worked as the dynamic duo shut the clock off with the fastest run of the futurity, a 15.220. With a total time of 30.511 on two, Bassett claimed her first Washington futurity title.

"I am so proud of Honey and very fortunate and grateful to be able to be her jockey. I am just trying to enjoy every run that I make on her. She is the first horse that I have campaigned for someone other than myself and I will soon have to hand over the reins so I am trying to make every run count!"

Many would agree that the young mare is a once-in-a-lifetime horse and Bassett hopes that she gets to watch her go far beyond her futurity year. A happy, sound horse is ultimately Bassett's end goal for the season.

"My dad has really preached to me that it is not necessarily the amount of runs that you make, it is the hours in the trailer, so I try to get my horses out as much as I can. I also try to keep them in bigger pens at our destinations, rather than stalls. Honey is a lot more comfortable not in a stall so I have worked very hard at making sure I keep her as comfortable as possible when we go to a futurity."

$9,960 Payday for Adrian Bolin & Dont Judge My Socks at Jackson Hall Memorial

By Tanya Randall

Adrian Bolin, a 25-year-old barrel horse trainer from Sallisaw, Okla., picked up her first futurity championship at the Jackson Hall Memorial. Bolin and the 4-year-old gelding Dont Judge My Socks ("Wheezy") pocketed an impressive $9,690 at the Shawnee, Okla., event.

"It was a lot of fun and exciting, but we had a few other horses there, so I went right back to work," said Bolin. "It was really more of a proud moment for the horse. When you've been a part of their training along the way, it makes it extra special."

Bolin and her boyfriend Cody Bauserman purchased the gelding in the fall of his second year from his breeder Beverly Weekly of Dayton, Texas. Wheezy is by leading sire BHR Frenchies Socks out of the Judge Cash mare Judge Dixie.

"Cody and I both wanted to try a Frenchies Socks," said Bolin. "I saw an ad for him on Facebook that someone had shared."

The gelding became known as Wheezy around the barn because of the noises he makes while breathing. The gelding had run into a pipe fence when he was baby. Surgery to his nasal passage left him with one big opening rather than two separate ones, thus causing the peculiar sound. Bolin said, although it sounds odd, it not performance limiting.

True to his breeding, Wheezy was very easy to train.

"He was very trainable, really willing," Bolin said. "At first, he was very 'looky.' When we first started taking him places, he would look at everything. Then, overnight, he grew up on us and got over it. Now, he's pretty solid to ride around. He's very level headed and nothing bothers him."

After Bolin ran him at the BFA Juvenile Futurity in Oklahoma City, Bauserman stepped on the gelding to get him through a speed jam.

"This horse has got a gas pedal," said Bauserman. "He got a little revved up, so I got on him and ran him a few times to line him back out."

The multiple futurity champion thought it was time to Bolin to ride him again at Shawnee.

"I just thought it was time for someone a little lighter and better at it than me get back on him," he chuckled. "She's done all the work and done a super job. She deserves to run him."

In the first round, Bolin and Wheezy posted a 15.530 that won the futurity and the Open 1D with a carryover.

"That was the first time I had run him in a few months," said Bolin. "I was just trying to make a smooth run. I totally wasn't expecting him to go in and run THAT kind of time. I was thrilled."

They were second in the second round of both the futurity and Open 1D with a 15.620.

"The second go, I really didn't think about times," she said. "I just tried to go in and make another smooth run. I think with most horses, smoother is faster, and that's how he operates."

The futurity victory was worth $7,766, while the open checks were worth $1,924. Bolin also picked up the $842 2D victory on Saturday aboard Pale Face Wagon, also owned by Bauserman.

Bolin was 11 when she started barrel racing at 4H events around her Rutland, Ohio, home. She graduated from a pony to a Standard-bred that her grandfather bought her.

"She was a safe horse for me to start on," recalled Bolin. "I trained her and ran her in the barrels and poles at 4H shows. Then I graduated on to a Quarter horse that was already trained. He was a lot of fun and taught me a lot."

After graduating college with a degree in medical assisting, Bolin moved to Oklahoma because she wanted to further her barrel racing career.

"I've always had a passion for horses and once I realized I could pursue (barrel racing) as an actual career, I took full advantage of that opportunity."

She met Bauserman, ironically an Ohio native as well, through horses. Now, the two are in business together, although most of Bauserman's time is devoted to his Thoroughbred racehorses.

"We have close to a full barn at both places (at the track and at home)," said Bolin. "He and I are definitely Yin and Yang as far as personalities. He goes to the track and does his thing and I stay here with the barrel horses. I'll go help him when he needs me to and he's still involved with the barrel horses to a degree."

Bauserman isn't likely to let go of his barrel racing roots either.

"I'm just trying to keep my hands in both worlds," he said. "Barrel racing has been good to me. If I can compete every now and then, I'll still be a part of it."

Bolin is grateful for Bauserman's help and support. "Balancing a relationship and business is hard, but he's been the biggest help," she said. "He's been a great teacher. He's the one that wanted to invest in the 4-year-olds that we have now. He was the one that wanted to look at 2-year-olds and start this venture together."

Bolin is also appreciative to her grandparents, Joe and Janet Bolin, who got her started with horses.

"They sort of fed this hunger at a young age," she said. "They went above and beyond, probably beyond our means, to keep me on a horse and take me down the road when we could."

IT PAYS TO OWN A BBI HORSE, HURRY UP AND JOIN US!

ADVERTISING HAS ALREADY STARTED FOR 2017. Don't be left out. The earlier you nominate, the more exposure your stallion receives prior to the 2017 breeding season with regional and national advertising.

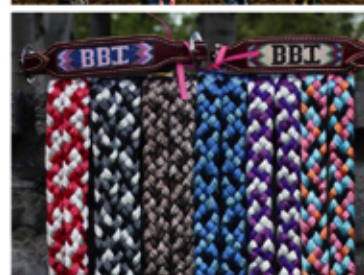

BBI was formed for stallion owners as an incentive program to breed barrel horses and sell barrel prospects. Now barrel racers are looking specifically for BBI horses.

BBI is set apart from other barrel breeders' programs as we promote an Open Barrel race as well as Futurity & Derby events. Horses 4-7 years old by nominated stallions (or sire if of age) are eligible to run in BBI sidepots. Pictured are some of our 2016 BBI winners: Just Look Quix (JD Look) with Emily and Adi Keefer ("Q" won all 3 BBI futurity events), TS Mrsunpeppy Dash (PC Mr Sun Peppy) and Monica Gruel (Barrel of Gold Derby champs), Margaret Jones (Midnight Corona), Monica Gruel, Emily Keefer and Shelley Murphy (As Good As Nick Gets). 2016 handcrafted awards from JoBeth Hutchison, Gale Beebe and Sammy Jo Hall.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Galatians 5:22 tells us that the fruit of the Spirit on the inside of us is: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. All these traits are very admirable. And they do need to be practiced before they will produce the fruit we need in our everyday lives. Mike was ministering on prayer the other night and he said something that really struck my heart. AND it stepped on my toes.

He asked us if God had ever answered one of our prayers immediately. About ¼ of the hands went up. Next question was, had God answered our prayer but it took some time. Half the hands went up. Last question, had we prayed a prayer that still hadn't come about or seemed to be taking a long time, and so we were thinking about giving up on that request.....I'd say about 90% of our hands were in the air. He said, "None of us have run out of Bible on whatever subject we are praying about. We have run out of patience."

Judging myself on those nine gifts, I'd say that faithfulness is the easiest for me. Ah, but patience. I wish it wasn't on that list....LOL! But if I have learned anything in my walk with God, it's that even when I don't feel like it, if I do what He says, all will be well with me.....and it will be well with you. I'm headin' for the practice field!
