Amberleigh Moore & Lion In Jules Sweep Sand Cup Futurity, Takes Reserve on A French Silhouette

By Tanya Randall

"Holy smokes! What a weekend!" said multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Amberleigh Moore of Kiser, Oregon. "It's when you least expect it, it happens. I wasn't even going to enter the one that won it! All of a sudden she came into her own and figured it out!"

Moore swept the $10,000-added Sand Cup Futurity, held March 31 to April 1 in Moses Lake, Washington, aboard Lion In Jules ("Shelby") and took second on her homebred A French Silhouette ("Stella") for a $12,241 weekend.

"They're polar opposites," said Moore, "but I don't have a problem riding either one of them. They're fun!"

Her champion Shelby, a 5-year-old daughter of Lions Share Of Fame out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Frenchmans Jule, came from her breeder World Champion Saddle Bronc Rider Wade Sundell and Shelby Janssen as a 2-year-old.

"I got her in May of 2020," chuckled Moore, recalling the horrible COVID shutdown that was particularly stringent in her home state. "What do you do when you're stuck at home? Buy another horse!"

Her reserve champion Stella, a 4-year-old Guys Pocket Coin, is the oldest foal out of her million dollar winning, multiple NFR qualifying mare CP Dark Moon ("Paige"), by Darkelly.

Both mares were sent to longtime family friend and horsewoman Pam White to be started under saddle.

"She's been starting horses for my family for years," Moore said of White. "She rides them for six months and sends them back to me where I want them to be to start them on the barrels."

Stella, who is as precocious as her mother, made her futurity debut at the Royal Crown in Buckeye, Arizona, in February. Although she'd never been run on a standard pattern, Stella finished reserve champion and took home nearly $30,000.

"Like her mother, she's just going out there and doing it," said Moore. "I figured I could at least win money in the 2D (at the Royal Crown). She comes in there and runs a 17.3 and then backs it up with a 17.1. Paige didn't even do that at that age!"

Shelby, on the other hand, was kind of running in no man's land—not quite a second off, but not fast enough to place in the 1D—so Moore opted to run her in the open at the Royal Crown. "With futurity horses, you know where they have to be (time wise)," said Moore. "She was kind of playing in the middle of nowhere. With the one-second split, she wasn't a 2D horse but she hadn't stepped up to be that 1D horse yet. She was right in the middle." The trip to Arizona was good seasoning for Shelby.

"When I got home from Arizona, she started turning it on," said Moore. "She grew up and got more focused."

At the Southwest Washington Futurity in Salkum, the weekend prior to the Sand Cup, Shelby jumped up and showed that she wanted to be a player. Stella placed in the first round, but tipped in the second, while Shelby jumped up and won second in the round and finished second in the average.

"Stella's been the one stepping it up, and Shelby's like, 'Nopel! You're not getting me this weekend!'" laughed Moore.

The similarities between the Salkum pen and Moses Lake also gave Moore confidence in Shelby going into the Sand Cup. The mare delivered with futurity times that also placed her fifth in the Open 1D average.

"She's got a really good work ethic and is very consistent," Moore said of Shelby. "She free rolls, so I've had to learn how to ride her. I've had to adapt and change my style and not change hers."

Stella is more like her mother – "She floats just like Paige," said Moore. "She's always listening to everything you do."

Moore said she's going to concentrate more on the bigger barrel races and futurities with "her kids" and run her older gelding Blue Duck Down, who placed in the slot race at the Sand Cup, at a few rodeos that she thinks both of them will enjoy. Her great mare, Paige, is scheduled to go back to the breeding shed here shortly, will run at the bigger races too.

"She doesn't owe me anything," said Moore of Paige. "She doesn't have to run at the rodeos anymore. There's too much big money at these big races not to run at them instead."

Kathy Grimes & KG Jukebox Hero Rock In Sand Cup Derby

By Tanya Randall

Last year's Futurity Reserve Champions Kathy Grimes and KG Jukebox Hero ("Tillman") took top honors in the $2,000-added Sand Cup Derby, held March 31-April 2 in Moses Lake, Washington.

"He has a lot of confidence in that pen and it fits us," said Grimes, a veterinarian and National Finals Rodeo qualifier who lives an hour and half away in Medical Lake, Washington. "I was so pleased with the consistency. That's the hardest thing with the young ones for me—having those consistent runs. The competition these days is so tough you can't make any mistakes. I was just super excited!"

Grimes and Tillman won $6,110 for winning the Derby, taking second in the Open 1D average and placing in The Breeders Challenge's West Coast Challenge.

A third-generation product of Grimes' breeding program, Tillman, a 6-year-old stallion, is by the late 6.7 million dollar sire Blazin Jetolena out of her NFR mare KG Justiceweexpected ("Issy"), by Judge Cash out of Do It For Beau. The colt is a three-quarter brother to Grimes' other NFR mount, KG Blazin Nine Oh ("Ruby"), by Blazin Jetolena out of Do It For Beau.

"I think Blazin Jetolena was a great cross on my mare line," said Grimes. "I've had several of that cross and they were all easy and super smart."

She said that Tillman has been no different.

"He took to the barrel pattern super easy," she said. "He's a breeding stallion and he's beginning to know a little bit more about that job now. He meets you at the gate. Loves his job. He's such a good boy. His second barrel reminds me so much of Issy. He just whips on around there. He's just fun."

Tillman was the WPRA's World Champion Futurity Horse in 2022 and Blazin Jetolena's second richest futurity horse. His career earnings, according to QData, stand at $62,052 prior to the Sand Cup.

Grimes also placed in the Sand Cup Futurity aboard another Issy baby—Streakin Justice. They finished sixth in the aggregate to win $1,990. The 5-year-old mare is owned by Lisa Fulton and by her family's 7.5 million dollar sire A Streak Of Fling.

"We had done some embryo, stud fee swapping back in 2017," Grimes explained. "She got this beautiful roan filly and I got a couple of boys. I ended up selling the boys. I tried to get this little mare, but Lisa wanted to hold on to her."

After visiting with Fulton at the Royal Crown Futurity in Rock Springs, Wyoming, last August, Grimes casually mentioned that she'd be willing to ride the mare.

"I don't ride outside horses but it was a chance to ride an Issy baby when I didn't have a futurity horse for this year," Grimes explained. "I picked her up at the Pink Buckle in October, but then 10 days later I broke two ribs (in a trailer unloading incident). I didn't really get to do anything until December and then winter up here was brutal."

After she healed, Grimes spent most of her winter making a two-hour round trip every day to work her horses in the closest indoor arena. So, she said that the mare is still a little green.

"These were our first smooth competition runs, like I know she can do," she said. "We just finally showed it. I'm so excited because I feel all the cool moves. We've just got to get them going and get them consistent."

Grimes said its tough not having her two superstars Issy and Ruby on the trailer anymore. Both mares were retired at the end of 2021. However, getting to run their offspring isn't so bad.

"It's so hard not to have them in the trailer and just have young ones," she said. "I've always had young ones—a futurity horse or something—but when you have that great open horse in the trailer you don't mind if your futurity horse isn't great or messes up. I miss getting to run them, but I'm getting to run their babies, so that's Grimes has the Valley Girls Barrel Daze this coming weekend plus the Redmond, Oregon, pro rodeo.

"I'm going to try some of the circuit rodeos with my boys," said Grimes, referring to Tillman and KG Juststealingcash ("Phoenix"), Issy's full brother and last year's WPRA Derby World Champion.

"We're going to try that out before breeding season hits and I can't do anything," she laughed. Grimes stands the two young stallions as well as KG Azure Winnin Chex and KG Do It For Fame. "These are my last few days of barrel racing before I'm stuck at home, so we're going to enjoy it while we can!

"We have a lot of big races up here in April and May, but I just can't get to them. Mares don't read the rules or the book and aren't 8-to-5!"

DaCota Monk & TNR WannaSeeMeCanCan Top I'm Eggstraspecial Too Big Stakes Race for $13,348

By Tanya Randall

Leading futurity rider DaCota Monk and his Kinder Cup Futurity Champion TNR WannaSeeMeCanCan, owned by Billy and Suzonne Franks, topped the I'm Eggstraspecial Too High Stakes Open Slot Race for $13,348. The Emory, Texas, based trainer and the 4-year-old mare also won the Open for an additional $1,108!

"It was a good race," Monk said of the event, held March 31-April 2 at the Marshall, Texas, City Arena. "It's really fun to run locally and have a payday like that on one run."

The Open 3D Slot Race was limited to 200 entries and had an entry fee of $600. Monk initially missed out on entering the event. "I saw it and wanted to go but didn't think it was going to fill that fast," Monk chuckled. "As soon as I got back (online) and saw that it was full, I asked to please be put on the list."

There was no question that Can Can would be running in the spot. The fleet-footed daughter of 6 million dollar sire Eddie Stinson, out of the proven barrel racing producing Ivory James mare Chase This Ivory, had $81,100 in career earnings, according to QData, prior to the Marshall race.

After winning the Kinder Cup Futurity and Breeders Challenge Futurity Qualifier there, Monk and Can Can have placed at The Patriot Futurity, took second at the Elite HHA Futurity and tipped to do well in the aggregate at the Select Stallion Stakes Futurity.

Monk has spent the past few events building Can Can's confidence at the first barrel, especially after she got by the first at The Patriot.

"Ever since then I've been easing her first barrel, letting her pick her speed, and she's been nailing her first barrel and doing good," he explained. "I've been working with her trying to find that perfect spot because I know she'll wrap it."

At Marshall, Monk knew he couldn't cruise to the first barrel and win.

"I just trusted what I had been working on," he said. "I kind of let her pick her speed, but I did smooch at her. I didn't really kick her. I usually just sit there. She usually looks like she's loping to the first barrel."

"She went to her spot so soft and perfect. I don't think she did anything wrong. I knew she was going to be tight at her second because a lot of horses are there because of that wall. She's usually tight at her second anyway so I knew I needed to ride her aggressively. It was pretty scary at her second. I didn't even look at it because I knew if I did it was going to go down! Her third...she buried up there. I knew as soon as I got my leg past I needed to get out of there because she was laying down a run."

"She's still a little bit of a scaredy cat at times about the different alleyways and such. Sometimes she'll put her ears up and start slowing down a little so I got three exhibitions there. She ran really great all the way out. I was really proud of her for that."

Monk has another high-stakes open slot race this weekend in Wills Point, Texas, and then will have both the BBR World Finals and Ruby Buckle at the end of the month. He plans on splitting his horses between the two latter events with his main focus on Ruby Buckle and the BBR Futurity.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

HAPPY EASTER!

It's happy because Jesus died on the cross for our sins. He paid the whole sin debt so we wouldn't have to. I'm ever so thankful He was willing to do that, aren't you? I hope you said yes... and meant it.

Luke 19:28-40 is the account of Jesus coming down from the Mount of Olives on the unriden donkey colt. And the disciples began to rejoice and praise God. Some of the Pharisees didn't like that and wanted Jesus to rebuke them and tell them to be silent (just like our government today). Jesus' response? "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would immediately cry out." I don't know about you, but I don't want some dumb rocks out rejoicing me!

I heard a statement a few days ago. "Churches are shrinking/empty because people think what the world is doing on Sunday is better than church." Yikes! If you think that, then you need to get there. If you STILL think that, you aren't using the gifts God gave YOU to be a blessing to others on Sunday!

Friends, this week let's remember just how important Jesus dying on the cross is for YOU AND ME. What can we do for HIM?
