Schafer Shakes Things Up in Nampa

By Hope Sickler

Yoder, Wyoming barrel racer, Ashley Schafer, is one of the nations leading futurity trainers and she is also very quickly making a name for herself in the rodeo world. She completely dominated the field of barrel racers at the second stop on the ERA Premier Tour last weekend in Nampa, Idaho and I think we can safely say that she is just getting warmed up.

Schafer is riding 7-year-old stallion Freckles Ta Fame owned by Lamar, Colorado's Joe and Carla Spitz. The gorgeous stallion, "Can Man", as they affectionately call him, is a son of Dash Ta Fame and out of a daughter of Frenchmans Guy that has produced several other rodeo and 1D winners, including a full sister to "Can Man" that Ashley is running at the futurities this year.

When Schafer was asked to be a part of the ERA, she was very grateful and excited for such a great opportunity and couldn't hardly believe that she had been chosen.

"I am very honored to be a part of the ERA. The atmosphere and level of competition in all of the events is outstanding and it is a fun rodeo to watch and compete in. The opening ceremony is really like none other and I am very excited about what the ERA will do for the sport of rodeo. I have the upmost respect for the people that have put so much time and risk into making this happen and I truly believe that it will be a success," explained Schafer.

Schafer had a good showing at the first stop on the tour which was in Redmond, Oregon the week before. She placed in the second round and since then, that girl has been on fire!

"Can Man" is very consistent and such an honest horse. He pretty much makes the same run every trip. He is very smooth and strong in his turns, has a big stride and can really run. He seems to really like the rodeo atmosphere. I think the noise and the music makes him run even harder."

Schafer, who ran "Can Man" as a futurity horse as a 4-year-old, knows the stallion very well and says he hardly ever makes a mistake and gives him full credit for her success at Redmond and Nampa.

"Friday night we were a little tight coming into the second but we got around it and he never missed a beat. I am very blessed to get to ride him. He is such a great minded stallion and so easy to haul," said Schafer.

With two 13-second runs in both rounds in Nampa, you can't be any more consistent then the team of Schafer of "Can Man", cashed in over $7,000 during her time in the potato state and has moved her into the number one spot in the world in the ERA.

"One of the biggest highlights of the ERA thus far is being able to interact and meet the fans. From 6-7 before each performance

While futurities are Schafer's true passion, she is enjoying her time being able to rodeo and experiencing what could be the new era of rodeo.

Wright Remembered

Last Monday, March 28, 2016, the barrel racing world lost a cornerstone of the industry, Ed Wright. Ed amazed me with the clinic schedule he was able to keep up with year after year, and that amazingly busy schedule allowed him to reach so many in our barrel racing world.

Along the way, he blazed a trail for all the barrel clinicians of today. Our paths first crossed with Ed when we were right out of college at a clinic near Aladdin, WY. Dusti was starting to get more serious about barrel racing and that was the place to go. It was apparent right away that Ed was a true horseman, who not only understood horses and training but had a really good eye for horse flesh. If he slapped his /W brand on a horse, you can bet it was a good one.

Ed loved horses and he liked the people pretty good too! His clinics were fun and always entertaining. The days just flew by as you watched him work with all the different horses and riders in his blunt and straight forward way. Over the last week, it became apparent to me that everyone else had the Ed Wright clinic experience too.

He has given so many people in barrel racing their start or a tuneup along the way. His presence in the industry will be felt for many years to come, and he will be sorely missed as well.

There has been a movement started on Facebook to wear Lime Green ribbons in your horses' mane in honor of Ed Wright for Lyme Disease awareness. Here is the Facebook post below if you would like to join in:

"In honor of Ed Wright we are hoping people from across the nation will place a Lime Green ribbon in your horses mane when you run barrels. The Lime Green ribbon is the awareness ribbon for Lyme Disease. If you ever had the privilege and lucky enough to attend an Ed Wright Clinic you will probably remember Ed putting a band in the mane of different horses to help the rider have a focus point on where to keep their hands when learning to ride the WRIGHT way. Thanks to a parent and clinic participant thinking up this cool idea to honor such a great friend to many and true horseman! We would love to see a Sea of Lime Green ribbons across the country at barrel races everywhere and at the BBR World Finals it would be such a tribute to see everyone have one in their horses mane. Please LIKE and SHARE this post in Honor of Ed Wright!!! and put the Lime Green Ribbon on!"

In case you missed it, the Ed Wright obituary ran on page 2 of our March 29 Barrel Racing Report issue.

We would like to send our condolences to Martha and Casey and all his family and friends. You are all in our thoughts and prayers...

"I love going to the futurities because the young horses are my passion. It is very rewarding to take a horse from barely loping circles to competing at their best. However, I am really enjoying the ERA rodeos as well! The rodeo atmosphere is fun because there is such a variety of people and different events all competing at a high level of competition with good horsemanship and sportsmanship."

Sara Cheeney & Miss Mac N Fame Capture Sand Cup Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Sara Cheeney of Pinedale, Wyo., picked up her first futurity championship with Miss Mac N Fame at the Sand Cup Futurity, held in Pasco, Wash.

"It was a great futurity," said Cheeney, who pocketed $4,490 for the victory. "They did an awesome job. They gave away an awesome saddle. I really look forward to using it."

Cheeney had purchased the 5-year-old brown mare as a 2-year-old. Bred in South Dakota, by John G. Johnson, Mac is by the Dash Ta Fame, Lanes Leinster stallion Mac N Fame, and out of the No Compromises mare, Compromising Lady.

"Amy Lantis with Sital Livestock owned her," explained Cheeney, who owns and operates a landscaping business with her husband Scott. "I went to pick out 2-year-olds. She came trotting up, and I said, 'What's that one?' She's pretty flashy and I liked the way she moved. She wasn't by any of Amy's studs. She had bought her as a broodmare prospect.

The Cheeney's did all of Mac's training from the ground up. "She was a little bit squirrely," laughed Cheeney. "She still is a little bit squirrely."

Mac's first futurity was the BFA World Championships, where she finished in the Top 20 in the Finals. "That's when we knew we had a rock star on our hands," noted Cheeney. The Arizona futurities were okay. They finished out of the money in the Top 15 in the average at both the Greg Olson and BRN4D futurities, but Cheeney said the set up and ground didn't really suit Mac. At Diamonds & Dirt, they struggled with the ground too.

"We were home for a couple of weeks, just kind of getting things back in line and making sure everyone was ready to come up here," she said.

Cheeney said Mac really liked the setup at Pasco. "It was a really easy setup and the ground was great. She really excelled."

They clocked a 17.535 to place second in the first round and picked up the pace to a 17.457 to place fourth in the second. "The first run we were last out," she explained. "I knew she was going to have to have a good run to get in there. There were some tough horses. She felt like she never stopped running. "We were first out the next morning. She went in there and ran about the same pattern. She was little bit quicker. I didn't know if it was going to hold through the entire futurity for the average, but somehow it did!"

Cheeny grew up showing horses before switching to rodeo in junior high. She rodeoed through high school and college, although she didn't college rodeo. She went to her first futurity about four years ago.

"I bought a horse from Lynn Kohr and she said take her to the fall futurities," laughed Cheeny. "That's where it all started. She seems to have that effect on people."

Cheeny has been dabbling in the futurities ever since.

"We've built up quite the herd," she said.

Cheeny said she picked up a lot of her training techniques from Kohr, but she's also watched and picked up things as she's gone along.

"I rode a lot with Lynn when I started in the futurity world. She helped me develop a base. Then I've picked up things here and there from different people. I think it's great to listen to everyone's ideas. What doesn't work on one, might work on another years down the road, so I try to really absorb everything that I can."

Cheeny wanted to thank her husband for all his support. "He goes on the road with me everywhere. I wouldn't be where I am without him," she said. She also wanted to thank her parents Gary and Jenny Amerine for all their support throughout the years.

PUT SPEED, GOOD LOOKS AND "CHARM" IN YOUR NEXT BARREL HORSE

JL REDDY TO CHARM

2014 gray stallion by Red x BF Silver Charm, Takin On The Cash

INTRODUCTORY FEE $500 PLUS SHIPPING. I'm breeding several of my mares to him this spring and will book a limited number of outside mares. One of Red's last foals, "Reddy" reminds me so much of Red with his personality, that beautiful front end and the effortless way he moves. I started Reddy in November, then he spent the winter with me in Arizona, and he is already loping the pattern. His dam, BF Silver Charm (ROM racing), is out of Missy Yupon—dam of BF Shenanigan, a top barrel futurity colt ridden by Cody Bauserman with EquiStat earnings of $134,026. BF Silver Charm is the dam to JL Takin On Fame, a futurity money winner as well as a PRCA Circuit Finalist, ridden by Sally Young. She is also the dam to JL Third Timesacharm, JL Fourtafame (currently being futurityed by Mark Bugni) and JL High Five Ta Fame (being ridden by Cody Bauserman this year).

BF Silver Charm's foals have earned $76,355 in the barrel pen. Leading money earner is JL Takin On Fame (shown above with Sally Young) who is listed with $52,738 EquiStat earnings.

I love Oxy Fluidity. It's such a great product to use on a weekly basis and pre-race if needed. The horses I am currently hauling stay on this product. I give a weekly dose every Monday of 20 cc and get the exact results I am looking for!

Molli Montgomery & A Dash Ta Glamour Sweep Jackson Hall Memorial Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Molli Montgomery of Dawson, Texas, and A Dash Ta Glamour (“Bakken”), owned by Tesha Jo Fredericks of New Town, N.D., swept the Jackson Hall Memorial Futurity, held in Ardmore, Okla. The victory was worth $5,126.

“I was just trying to put my runs together,” said Montgomery. Bakken trained solid as a 3-year-old, but was a little hit and miss once his futurity career started. “I hit a barrel on him one round of the BFA (Juvenile) and placed one round. It’s kind of been that way everywhere. I’d have little mistakes. At little shows, I could get him right there in the 1D, but it seemed like when I got to a big show—I don’t know if I tried too hard or what; I know it was my fault though—he never really shined like he was supposed to. I feel like finally we got it together and I helped him shine.”

At Ardmore, Montgomery focused on not over-riding the gelding.

“I felt like I tried to ride behind more than I had before—I tried to trust my training,” she said. “He just wants to do good. He just wants to please. If I go in there and set up for success, he will be successful. If I go in there and mess up, he will mess up. He just listens to every little thing I ask him to do. I just tried to stay out of his way and help him where he needed it.”

Bred by Jud Little, Ardmore, Okla., Bakken is by up-and-coming leading sire JL Dash Ta Heaven out of the Bully Bullion mare, My Glamour Gal. Bakken was purchased as a yearling by noted horseman John Reed Foster of Scottsville, Ky., and sold through the Better Barrel Races Sale in 2014 as a 2-year-old. He was purchased by Fredericks for $14,500.

Bakken is the third JL Dash Ta Heaven that Montgomery is running this year. She placed third in the futurity on the stallion Heavenly Firewater, owned by the Matthew’s Mission Ranch, and also ran his full sister FeelinTheFirewater. Both of them are out of Fire Water Fanny, by Fire Water Flit.

“I’m really, really liking them,” said Montgomery, who loaded up on the breeding at the sales this past year. She currently has seven head for future futurity years. “They’re all really different. They’re all individuals, and you kind of have to tailor your training program to them.”

Montgomery’s training business has steadily come into its own after leaving her steady 9-to-5 job about five years ago. After years of riding problem horses, she’s found better bred horses coming her way in recent years.

“I feel like I was able to take some horses that weren’t expected to be great and made them shine,” she said. “Still I wasn’t even sure that people were even recognizing me. I struggled for so long through a lot of hard times.”

Her break through futurity colt was This Firewater Rocks, who carried Taylor Jacob to a recent ERA Rodeo win.

“I really only had five and a half, six months training on her from being green broke. She went in and placed at the Juvenile. I really felt like that she was the turning point," she said. Montgomery also did extremely well with the stallion Royal And Famous for the Matthews. This year, it's her pack of JL Dash Ta Heavens that are consistently in the money.

She said the hardest thing about getting to this point—and staying there—is believing in herself and staying strong when things are going right.

"That was the hardest thing for me, because I'm a people pleaser," she said. "I want to make people feel like they're spending their money wisely because that's the way I am. I never want to feel like I'm wasting my money, so I always try my guts out. I had some horses that shouldn't have made it, but I just worked so hard and found a way to make it happen. I tried to go out and be consistent with my training. Even if I had a horse that wasn't the best, I was building a solid horse that could go on and win with someone. I still feel that way about my futurity horses now."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you ever find yourself thinking, "That's above my pay grade?" You know, being willing to pray for someone if they have a cold, but calling your Pastor if it's cancer? Or just doing what is required of you at work, never stepping up to do more? How about not speaking up with that God idea you have because you think no one will listen? Almighty God lives on the inside of YOU and NOTHING is above your pay grade!! God has made you in His image. We lack NOTHING except the knowledge that "we can do ALL things through Christ who strengthens us!" Phil. 4:13. All things. That pretty much covers ALL things, doesn't it?

So the next time you have the urge to go forward, but find yourself stepping back, remember the account of David and Goliath. David was a shepherd. A teenager. He had no formal war training. He had a slingshot and some rocks. No sword. No armor. BUT WHAT HE HAD WAS GOD AND A COVENANT WITH HIM.

He was not afraid because he had God. And he used what he had to take out the biggest, ugliest, nastiest and meanest giant. Read the whole account in I Sam. 17. It's no accident that these accounts are in the Bible. They are a witness to us that we can overcome in difficult times. With God on the inside of us, there is nothing that is a match for us unless we quit. We are joint heirs with Jesus. That's all we need.
