Fifth Futurity Title For Mark Bugni and Jill Lane's JL Roc Lost A Sock at Sand Cup

By Tanya Randall

After three straight futurity wins on WPRA standard patterns, the big, red galloper JL Roc Lost A Sock ("Mo") has proven his efficiency on smaller courses, winning the Dixie Classic in Hurricane, Utah, and the recent Sand Cup Futurity, held April 1-3 in Moses Lake, Washington.

JL Roc Lost A Sock, ridden by Mark Bugni, added a $7,517 Sand Cup Futurity and Open 1D average championship to their list of wins, which also includes championships at the MVP, Greg Olson and Royal Crown Buckeye futurities.

The Jill Lane bred and owned 5-year-old gelding by her homebred stallion JL Sirocco, out of the barrel futurity money-earning Thoroughbred mare Reddy To Rebound, by Lane's late NFR sire Red, has won approximately $115,000 since his first competition runs in November 2021.

At Sand Cup, Bugni was presented with the challenge of a new arena and no exhibitions, so he chose to enter the Friday night jackpot, where they ran fourth with a 15.518.

"He's always a little shy coming into a new pen," he explained. "I didn't get any exhibitions. They were all full. I went ahead and entered the open jackpot on Friday night. I felt like he was looking around and not a hundred percent confident in there, but he still ran fourth out of 348 entries. It was a nice steady run and enough to let me know he could come back the next run and be confident." Some open arena time before the first go of the futurity bolstered that confidence.

"I was able to fence him and get him confident going back and forth up into the fences a little bit," Bugni said. "I felt like we were completely ready. He's been warming up like an absolute gentleman, just quiet and half-sleepy. I think he's just getting more confident."

What Bugni didn't expect was Mo's "Oh no! People!" moment at the second barrel in the first round.

"He went in for our first run and everything felt excellent and I think got a little distracted with the people sitting in the bleachers just off to the left side of the second barrel. I think I sat up a little bit and he hit the brakes and almost turned left like he thought we were at the turn. Then he saw the barrel and he corrected himself, but it cost us enough of a bobble that we ran second."

NFR qualifier and veterinarian Kathy Grimes and her homebred KG Jukebox Hero took the round in 15.404, while Bugni and Mo were second with a 15.439.

"My plan the next day was just to make sure I pushed him far enough and balanced the outside rein just enough that he didn't make a move prior to getting to the barrel," said Bugni. "He was faster, sharper, stronger. He felt phenomenal! I couldn't have asked him to perform any better."

Their 15.339 held the lead in the round.

"We were sweating it out a little bit because Kathy Grimes' horse is just fantastic," he said. "Luckily, Mo was able to hold her off. It was very successful and very exciting, and he finished like the champ he is!"

Bugni wanted to thank Lane as well as his sponsors for all their support. He also wanted to express his appreciation for the Sand Cup producers, especially the ground crew.

"I really appreciate their attention to the ground," he said. "It's literally checked the ground. They didn't just race the tractors around and park them again. They took the time to walk out there and check every single turn. They were very attentive to what the ground needed and that was impressive."

Bugni and his crew of five horses will hang out at the Grant County Fairgrounds until the 44th Annual Idaho Equine Hospital Valley Girls Barrel Daze next weekend.

"It's nice to have these futurities back-to-back up here," he said. "Plus, this area is really nice and I enjoy it up here."

Bugni will also conduct a clinic there mid-week, and Mo will get a little more arena time as his demo horse.

"He's going to be my clinic horse just to demonstrate a few things," Bugni added, "so he'll get really comfortable with the pen." After Valley Girls, Bugni will head to his sister's in North Dakota for a visit and to drop off a JL Reddy To Charm, JL Sirocco yearling for some time in the growing pasture. His next futurity will be the Ruby Buckle in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Bugni also purchased open land near Shawnee, Oklahoma, and has to get utilities installed and running so he can build.

"I'll be working on getting my new place set up in between barrel races," he said. "I'm already sweating about it. I will be a busy, busy man and probably stressed to the hilt, but as long as Mo keeps winning for me, I'll get through it!"

Amber Moore & CP Dark Moon Win Sand Cup's Tim Corfield Memorial Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

2016 WPRA Reserve World Champion Barrel Racer Amber Moore and her great mare CP Dark Moon ("Paige") turned in the fastest time of the event to win the Tim Corfield Memorial Slot Race at the Sand Cup, held April 1-3 at the Grant County Fairgrounds in Moses Lake, Washington.

"I'm still alive," laughed Moore, a four-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Salem, Oregon. "I've just been playing close to home. I just go to jackpots here and there."

Moore picked up $3,200 for Paige's win in the slot race and $1,330 for winning Saturday's Open with a carryover. It was their second Tim Corfield Memorial win, having won in 2016 as well.

"Paige is 13 now," noted Moore. "I'm just enjoying her and having fun. I'm grateful that she's still going."

The daughter of Darkelly, out of the On A High mare SRQH New Highs, has over $1 million in earnings. She's one of the few horses that have reached that milestone that are still competing.

Their last NFR appearance was in 2019. The extensive shutdowns in the Northwest during COVID derailed her rodeo plans significantly.

"Covid took the umph out of everything," she said. "We had nothing in '20. We lost the whole northwest. Where I used to take $30-$40,000 out of our circuit, we didn't have a circuit!"

The only thing that benefited from the shutdown was the family's pool and spa business, Emerald Outdoor Living.

"One thing Covid did was make our pool and spa business go crazy," she said. "Everybody was staying home and everybody was wanting a pool or a spa. It made our business thrive."

When restrictions eased, Moore set out again in 2021. She was in the WPRA's Top 30 when Paige's assistant, Blue Duck Down ("Ducky") went down with Equine Protozoal Myeloencephalitis (EPM).

"After Red Bluff last year, I had gotten myself up into the Top 30," she recalled. "I thought, 'We can do this! I've got Paige and I've got Ducky. We can go.' Then Ducky gets EPM and I'm like, 'No, we're not going anywhere.' I'm staying home and taking care of him."

Moore suspects the cross-country trip to Florida for the RAM National Circuit Finals is what caused Ducky to flare up with EPM.

"I think he had it, but that was the tip over the edge," she said. "I found it mid-May and had him back running by mid-August, but it took me staying home and treating him eight times a day. You have to hit it head on. You don't just baby it."

With Ducky healthy—he clocked with Paige this past weekend in Moses Lake but tipped barrels—Moore had thought about trying to make a run for the finals again.

"I didn't come down to Texas because I didn't get into the winter rodeos," she said. She was 83rd in the World in 2021 with just 14 rodeos. "There's no reason to come down for a few here and there." Now, fuel prices put a major wrinkle in her plans.

"I don't make plans anymore," she laughed. "If I make plans they get ruined.

"My original plan was to catch the Tour points because that's the fastest way to get back into anything. A friend and I had gone down to King City (California). Paige and I placed down there. It was $1,200 in fuel and we split it. I won $1,200 but if she hadn't been with me, I wouldn't have won a penny. I would have put it all in fuel just to go buy some points."

She tentatively has Red Bluff, California on the books. "I entered Red Bluff, weather permitting," she said. "As long as the sun stays shining and there's no rain, I'll go to Red Bluff. Of all the years I've entered, I've only been down there twice. It's spring and I won't run in mud."

Moore also has several young horses in the works. She's currently running a 5-year-old Darkelly mare. Her oldest out of Paige is a 3-year-old by Guys Pocket Coin. Paige also has a 2-year-old by Roarrr, a yearling by French Streakin Jess and an Aint Seen Nothin Yet due any day and a Slick By Design due in May. Moore also has Paige's 2-year-old full sister.

BARREL RACING REPORT

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

o you sometimes hear something that really pricks your conscience? I did the other day. I was listening to a preacher on tv and he said, "If you can't make an hour church service, how will you ever survive heaven?" Oh me! Oh my! That's a really good guestion!

I thought of the times BP (before preaching) that I decided I could get a lot of work done if I stayed home. Rest never entered MY mind. LOL! And hobbies! Oh me! Oh my! They took up a GREAT amount of my time.

The truth is, if we don't make our Lord and Savior our top priority, our life will NEVER be as blessed as it would be if we put Him first! And we will NEVER know that unless we put it to the test.

It's like a young barrel horse. You can walk, trot and lope till the cows come home, but one day you are going to have to ask for speed. And when you do, your training is going to show, good or bad.

In the same way, you can go to church on Christmas and Easter and skip the other 50 Sundays in the year. But when trouble comes, you'll be able to see just where you spent your time.

God's best for us is a continual relationship with Him. When we spend MUCH time with Him, trouble will roll off of us like water off a ducks' back! Best place to be!

ike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

TUESDAYS @ 7:20 PM WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR Triple M-Mike Morrison Ministries FACEBOOK LIVE STREAMED BIBLE STUDY!
