Emotional Sand Cup Futurity Win For Hallie Hanssen & Ms French Walla Walla

By Tanya Randall

Hallie Hanssen of Hermosa, South Dakota, and Ms French Walla Walla swept the $10,000-added Futurity and Slot Race at the 15th Annual Sand Cup, held April 1-4 at the Grant County Fairgrounds in Moses Lake, Washington. The 4-year-old mare, owned by Chris and Clara Herren of All-In Barrel Horses of Crooks, South Dakota, won $10,262 on the weekend.

The victory was an emotional one as Walla is from the first foal crop of The Kandyman, the Valley Girls Barrel Daze Futurity Champion son of Tres Seis and Famous Silk Panties. Sadly, the Hanssens lost The Kandyman last fall.

"It's bittersweet," said Hanssen of The Kandyman, who was the Future Fortunes Juvenile Sire Slot's Leading Freshman Sire at the BFA. "It's hard knowing that he's not standing at our house." Walla's dam is multiple futurity finalist French Streakin Izzy, by A Streak Of Fling out of PC Frenchmans Flirt, a full sister to Frenchmans Guy. French Streakin Izzy, bred and owned by Barb Westover, is a full sister to Westover's stallion French Streakin Jess, whom the Hanssens trained, campaigned and currently manage.

Hanssen said her husband Lee admitted the win brought a tear to his eye.

"He told me, 'I teared up a little bit to think she's our whole breeding program rolled up in one,'" said Hanssen, who was also a finalist in the Sand Cup Maturity on JessWatchMeStreak, by French

THE RUNDOWN w/Hallie Hanssen

Ms French Wallawalla, 14.3-15 hands, 1,050 lbs.

BIT: Custom Flaharty O-ring snaffle with a three-piece with a roller. "Her mouth is kind of skinny," Hanssen explained. "I asked Troy to make her a special one because the regular ones were making the corners of her mouth sore because they were too big for her. So, he shortened it up and made her one that fits her mouth."

SADDLE: Tami Semas

SADDLE PAD: Saddleright

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on front only

SHOEING: St. Croix Lite Rims on all four. She has a no vibe pad and an aluminum plate for extra protection.

FEED: Re-Leve from KER

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Gastro Plex and In Sync from MVP, Omega Fields Horse Shine

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Polyglycan, Adequan, MagnaWave, G4orce Magnets

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "Recently, it's been a lot of longeing or riding because we can't really turn her out due to the bruising," said Hanssen. "It just been keeping her fit—long trotting, loping some circles, tight barrel circles. Before I got out here, I didn't get to work her too much because we were a little bit worried about her having too much concussion if I tried to work her fast. We just tried to get her ready off the barrels."

SPONSORS: ESMS, Saddleright, Omega Fields, Platinum Coach, Tami Semas Barrel Saddles, FlexiNeb, UltraCruz, Troy Flaharty Bits & Spurs, Bimeda, Cowgirl Tuff, MVP, Dunn Ranch and G4horse Magnetx

Streakin Jess. "To have her doing so well is pretty emotional."

Walla, named for the traditional host city of the VGBRA Barrel Daze, was bred by Westover and sold to the Herrrens as a yearling. She joined the Hanssen's barn last spring. Hanssen noticed shortly after starting the mare on the pattern she had a lot of similarities to her superstar mare Tres Movidas ("Vida").

"I told Lee when I started her last summer, 'This mare has the attitude like Vida,'" she explained. "She's the closest thing I've trained since to Vida. For her to kind of step up too...that makes me happy."

Walla started off her career as a finalist at the BFA Juvenile and OKC Rookie futurities, only to hit a snag in Arizona.

Hanssen noticed the mare wasn't clocking up to par and wasn't quite hitting her spots leaving the barrels. Once back in Texas, a visit to Dr. Reece Hand didn't show anything conclusive so Walla had an MRI, which discovered a bone bruise.

The Sand Cup Futurity was her first run back.

Hanssen and Walla won the first go with a 15.354 and the second with a 15.240, which also tied to win the Open on Sunday and gave them the futurity slot race win.

"Our goal was just to have nice smooth runs being her first runs back," said Hanssen, who admitted she couldn't really hold the mare back and just had to go with her. "She just loves it and is really fast. She just gets faster and tighter in her turns. She's something else to ride. She can run across there so fast and the next thing you know you're going to the next one. I really have to hold on!"

Kipty Watt & Little Streakin Cat Pounce On Sand Cup Maturity

By Tanya Randall

Kipty Watt and her homebred 7-year-old mare Little Streakin Cat collected $4,241 and the Sand Cup Maturity Championship at the 15th annual event, held April 1-4 in Moses Lake, Washington.

"Every run she made for me this weekend she won some money for me," said the Claresholm, Alberta, native, who now resides in Canyon, Texas. "It was really nice because I had to replace the DEF system in my truck. It was an expensive trip to come up here and she won it back for me."

Watt and Little Cat started their weekend by placing second in the first go of the Maturity with a 15.480 on Saturday morning. They followed it up with a 15.5 that night in the Tim Corfield Memorial Slot Race to place eighth. In the second round of the Maturity, Watt and Little Cat's 15.408 split the round with last year's leading futurity horse RV Two Dash 'Ta Vegas, owned and ridden by Anita Randle.

"She's kind of special to me because we raised and trained her," said Watt, who works for Champion's Choice Silver. "She's a really cool mare. She'll spook at her own shadow, but when she goes into the arena, she's all business."

Little Cat is by industry leading sire A Streak Of Fling out of Silver Marbles, a granddaughter of High Brow Cat through his son Cat Silver. Silver Marbles was originally supposed to be a calf horse for the Watt family but an injury to her knee relegated her to broodmare status. Sadly, Little Cat was her last foal as they lost the mare while she was in foal to Stoli My Heart.

Watt says her parents picked A Streak Of Fling.

"Streakin Six is one of my favorite bloodlines," said Watt, noting she would have loved another Little Cat had they not lost the mare. "Plus, the A Streak Of Flings can be really versatile and that really caught our eye. You can rope on them and run barrels. I just think they're very athletic. You can ask them to do anything you want and they're going to find it easy."

"That's exactly how Little Cat was. She was very hard to break, very stubborn and spooky. After that she was really easy to train on the barrels. I've started to rope off of her a little at home. My goal is to ride her in the breakaway at the Ruby Buckle next year."

Like her horse, Watt has a championship pedigree. She's the daughter of three-time Canadian Barrel Racing Champion Elaine Watt and her calf roper husband Neil.

"It runs in the family," said Watt. My sister Kirby (Watt-Finkbeiner) is a vet. My brother (Walker Watt) is a vet and my sister-in-law (Selina) is a vet. It all stays in the family from the breeding all the way to the training."

Part of the appeal of making the 24-trip to Moses Lake from Canyon was getting to see her mom and run her futurity horses.

"I love to come up here," said Watt, who wanted to thank producer Bobo McMillian for a great event. "If anyone says they want to come up to these northern futurities I always say they're run really great, have a lot of added money and I've always had a lot of fun."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I pony her some. I try to breeze her once or twice a week and build up her lung capacity. I've done a LARC test. So, we draw her blood and check her heart rate to see how she's recovering. That helps me keep my condition program on top of what she needs. I try to do some sprint work twice a week to keep her fast-twitch muscles in top shape. I don't feel that their muscles get used for all that speed when all you do is long trotting."

Abby Sutfin & Leapyear Romance Top Sand Cup's Tim Corfield Memorial Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Abby Sutfin and Leapyear Romance ("Chili") turned in the fastest time of the 15th Annual Sand Cup, held April 1-4 in Moses Lake, Washington, to win the Tim Corfield Memorial Slot Race. The victory was worth $3,200 plus $1,527 from the open carryover win for total earnings of $4,727.

"My mare worked outstanding," said Sutfin, who trains and brokers horses with her farrier husband, Tex, in Homedale, Idaho. "It was really exciting. I was in the last rake and there were some phenomenal horses and phenomenal jockeys ahead of me. I had an extreme amount of respect for those up before me. I knew if I was going to place I couldn't safety up. I honestly had to make a run and not just go make it pretty. My game plan was to keep the barrels up and let her run. I was extremely happy with her. She listened to everything I asked her for."

Sutfin was even surprised by her time of 15.147.

"When I crossed the line, I figured I had a .3 or so and would probably place," she said. "She was even faster."

Bred by Wegner Ranch, Chili, a 13-year-old mare is by Instant Romance out of Sexy Freckled Pine, by Mr Slyden Pine. Sutfin

THE RUNDOWN w/Abby Sutfin

Leapyear Romance, 15.1-15.2 hands, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Kerry Kelley Correction to ride around; Kerry Kelley Magnum with the bumpy snaffle mouthpiece

HEADGEAR: Free head inside; tiedown outside

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Pad

LEG GEAR: Top Hand Brand

SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: Rice bran and rolled oats

HAY: Homegrown alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Equerry's Combined Rx

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Chiropractic care as needed; veterinary care at Idaho Equine in Nampa, Idaho.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I really just long trot her and ride her outside," Sutfin said. "I don't work her a ton during the week. I am a little addicted to pop-up barrels with her before I run her at an event. It just seems to get her brain right to what we're doing. I don't do that with any other horse but her. I have a totally different program with her."

SPONSORS: Equerry's, Idaho Equine

traded her futurity horse for Chili not quite a year ago.

"I hadn't even ridden this horse," she admitted. "I made a couple of runs that were definitely not what you would write home about and then I won five jackpots on her. It was just meant to be. By then it was late August and I took her to the Top Gun at the Barrels of Gold in Montana and she did really well there. I came back and she ran some really fast times outside and all of a sudden I realized I had a really special horse."

Sutfin said the mare is quite humbling to ride.

"There are times she makes me look like the monkey on the border collie, and I ride horses for a living!" she chuckled. "She's the hardest thing I've ever had to ride. She's a really powerful and quick mare. Things don't always go like they're supposed to, but when they do, it's really nice."

Sutfin, who produces the $12,500-added Idaho Equine Race For The Cash in May, says she probably won't run Chili again until her next circuit rodeo.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

What is your heart longing and searching for? Are you restless and dissatisfied? Looking, looking for... what?

We really must be firm in our vision and life goals. And we need to be certain that they are Godly. If all our time is spent trying to achieve a goal that ultimately will not be glorifying to God, then we are wasting our time.

Prov. 4:23-25 instructs us to "Guard, protect, your heart above all else, for it determines the course, and source, of your life. Avoid all perverse talk; stay away from corrupt speech. Look straight ahead, and fix your eyes on what lies before you."

It's easy to get distracted these days. We are being bombarded on every side with agenda's, lies and power struggles. But as children of God, we need to look to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. When we follow Him, we'll never go the wrong way.

I hate going the wrong way. My husband and friends will tell you that I'm a good navigator. I rarely lose my sense of direction and I have a PHD in map reading! LOL!

We need a PHD in following the instructions in the Bible. I don't want to wake up in two years and wonder just where the heck I am, and how did I get here???

When Jesus leads, that will never happen! Each step we take with Him will lead us STRAIGHT to where we want to go. Let's achieve our Godly goals sooner... rather than later. Blessings on you!
