Kenyon & Sheza Famous Blurr Dig A Win At Sand Cup

By Tanya Randall

Phillip Kenyon, riding Sheza Famous Blurr for Pendleton rancher Kelly McCormmach and rough stock Hall of Famer Marty Wood, dug out a win at the 8th Annual Sand Cup Futurity, held April 4-6 in the TRAC at Pasco, Wash. Kenyon and "Edna" collected $4,232 of the $27,600 total purse of which $7,000 was added.

"She's a really neat mare," said Kenyon, who started riding Edna in October 2013. "She's very competitive. I've really enjoyed having her."

Kenyon, a 28-year-old barrel horse trainer from Pendleton, Ore., and Edna started off their season at the January futurities in Arizona.

"Those were her first times on the clock," he explained. "I hit two barrels on her to place at the Pac West Futurity. I've tipped a lot of barrels on her to be really fast at a lot of places."

His goal at the Sand Cup was to avoid the costly barrel bug.

"I knew I had to get around them," he said. "My first go run, she almost lost me on the first barrel. She turned it really hard. She had a pretty solid second and third. She just ran really hard. I didn't really have any clue what my time was going to be. I knew she was talented. When it was a .000, I was stunned. I couldn't believe it. She's just so fast. It wasn't perfect, but it was smooth and I think that's what counts in the end."

Their 17.000, the fastest run of the entire futurity, gave them the first round win. They followed it up with a seventh-place run of 17.449 in the second.

"My second, I was really just trying to get around them, honestly," he said. "She's really worky. She'll do whatever you tell her to do because she's so broke—and I love that about her. I was just trying to leave them up. I was really pleased with my time. It wasn't the tightest run I've ever made on her, but that really wasn't my goal. I just wanted to stay in there for the average. It was a 'trying-to-be-smart-about-it' run."

Edna's blessing—and curse—is her competitive nature.

"She just thinks she is the coolest, and you're not going to tell her different," laughed Kenyon, who wanted to thank his parents Steve and Tracy for their support as well as his farrier Ryan McGreevy and veterinarian Solomon Bennaroch. "She's just such a good competitor and she loves to run barrels. My mom and I were talking the other day, and we think her two favorite things in the world are the treat bin and barrel racing. She has a lot of confidence in herself and that's invaluable. That's tough to put a price on. Especially in a young horse, you can build one up, but that takes a lot of time. To find a young one that just has it? That's a tough thing."

Edna's owner, McCormmach was thrilled with the 4-year-old daughter of leading freshman barrel horse sire Eddie Stinson, by Dash Ta Fame, out of Murrs Easter Bunny, by Murrtheblurr (TB). The Dash Ta Fame-Murrtheblurr (TB) cross is one of the magic crosses in the barrel racing industry.

McCormmach, a seventh-generation rancher, purchased Edna out of an estate auction after the mare's owner died unexpectedly. "Walt Nix, he's a racehorse broker, had her in an estate sale," McCormmach explained. "He had called me about a Dash Ta Fame they had in the sale, but by the time I got there, she was already gone. I took one look at this filly and bought her. I couldn't believe there was an Eddie Stinson in this part of the country. She was a grand-looking yearling."

Edna was sent to Samantha Boone to get started under saddle. From there she went to Abby (Davis) Michaels.

"They ranched on her, tracked cattle on her and got her really broke," said McCormmach of Edna's time with Michaels. "When Phillip came home from Oklahoma, I sent her to him in October. He lives just down the road."

Though it's possible to add the BBR Futurity to their schedule, the Northwest futurities are the main priority for Kenyon and Edna. Afterwards, McCormmach said she'd just have to wait and see.

Among the open horses, Kathy Grimes' homegrown superstar KG Justice we expected swept Saturday and Sunday's open races with their carryover times from the Slot Race and Maturity. They posted the fastest time of the weekend, a 16.731 on a WPRA Standard

ProRodeo Hall of Fame Announces Class of 2014

World Champion Cowboys Pete Grubb, Wayne Herman, Glen O'Neill and Byron Walker, along with two-time World Champion Bullfighter Miles Hare and Spring Fling - one of just two horses to be honored as both a bareback and saddle bronc horse of the year - head the 2014 induction class for the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

They will be enshrined Aug. 9 during ceremonies in the sculpture garden adjacent to the Hall, along with the rodeo committees from the Clovis (Calif.) Rodeo, Greeley (Colo.) Stampede, Rowell Ranch Rodeo in Hayward, Calif., and the Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho.

The induction week will kick off with a 35th anniversary celebration of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame on Aug. 6, and will be followed by the 27th annual ProRodeo Hall of Fame Golf Tournament on Aug. 7, the Cowboy Ball on Aug. 8, and then culminates with the Induction Ceremonies and the Commissioner's Classic Team Roping competition on Aug. 9.

Grubb, who died in 1969 at the age of 56, was the first ProRodeo cowboy to win world championships at both ends of the arena. The Salmon, Idaho, cowboy won the bareback riding title in 1938 and the team roping (as a heeler) in 1940. He was the first cowboy to win both the bareback riding and saddle bronc riding in the same year at New York's Madison Square Garden, managing that parlay in 1934, and he won the bareback riding again in 1935-36.

Herman, 50, won the world bareback riding gold buckle in 1992 in the seventh of his 11 qualifications for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, a year after winning the NFR average title and finishing second to Clint Corey, just $1,050 shy of the gold buckle. A native of Dickinson, N.D., now living in Halliday, N.D., Herman had six finishes among the top five bareback riders in the world and earned $856,490 in his career.

The 1994 saddle bronc riding rookie of the year, O'Neill qualified for his first NFR a year later and competed at an elite level for more than a decade. He won his gold buckle in 2002 - capturing the NFR average title along the way - and was reserve world champion in both 2001 and 2003, finishing less than $5,000 behind fellow Hall of Famer Dan Mortensen in his title-defense year. Eight times the Australian-born O'Neill finished in the top five among PRCA saddle bronc riders and earned $1,614,860.

Only Roy Duvall has made more NFR steer wrestling appearances than Walker's 16 (1977-87, 1991, 1997-2000) over four decades. The Ennis, Texas, resident is part of a rare two-world championship household. He won his steer wrestling title in 1981 and his wife, Mary, was the barrel racing world champion in 2012. Byron was twice a reserve world champion as well, in 1979 and again in 1983, when he finished just $893 back of Joel Edmondson.

Hare, 58, spent more than three decades throwing his body in the path of 1,500-pound beasts to protect rodeo cowboys before retiring in 2008; he worked as a bullfighter at the NFR six times (1977, 1985, 1988-91) and twice more as an alternate (1984, 1992). He won the inaugural Wrangler World Champion Bullfighters title in 1981 and shared that honor with fellow Hall of Famer Rob Smets in 1988. "He's a cowboy saver - that's all he is," the late Quail Dobbs said of the Liberty, Texas resident. "There's no better man that I would trust."

Along with Kingsway Skoal, Big Bend Rodeo's legendary mare Spring Fling is the only horse to be honored as both a Bareback and Saddle Bronc Horse of the Year. Spring Fling started out on the bareback side and received the PRCA's top honor in that category in 1997, then came back to twice claim the saddle bronc award, winning it outright in 1999 and sharing it with Surprise Party Skoal, of Sankey Rodeo, a year later. Spring Fling was also voted the top saddle bronc horse at the 2001 Wrangler NFR and three times was voted the top saddle bronc horse at the Dodge National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Pocatello, Idaho.

The PRCA committees selected for enshrinement this year are among the PRCA's longest-standing and most respected rodeos. Clovis, part of the Wrangler Million Dollar Tour, is celebrating its 100th anniversary later this month. Nampa will have its centenary rodeo next year, while Hayward is in its 93rd year and Greeley in its 92nd.

Including this year's inductees, 236 people, 28 animals and 22 rodeo committees have been selected for enshrinement in Colorado Springs since the Hall opened in 1979.

Blandford & KN My Mamas Famous 2 Top JB Quarter Horses / Wrap N 3 Futurity

By Tanya Randall

She may have famous parents on both sides of her pedigree, but KN My Mamas Famous 2 ("Bella") is more than making a name for herself in the arena with more than $30,000 in earnings thus far in her futurity career.

At the $5,000-added JB Quarter Horses / Wrap N 3 Futurity, held April 4-6 in Gonzales, Texas, Bella and Kay Blandford, Sutherland Springs, Texas, added $2,953 to their resume. They topped the futurity for $2,161 and picked up $792 in the open.

They placed third in the first round with a 15.713 and won the second round with a 15.267.

"My first run, I had pilot error on the first barrel," the multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier admitted. "I kind of got her by it and then I almost hit it, but she let me move her. She smoked her second and third. Her second run, I thought 'Don't handle this mare. Just let her go in there and work.' Oh my gosh! She went flying in there. She got a little past the first but she was really round and fast around. Her second barrel was an Angel barrel. I went 'Wow.' This mare doesn't like to be spanked so I just let her run her race."

Bred and owned by Blandford's longtime friend Kimi Nichols, Brownwood, Texas, Bella is by Firewater Ta Fame out of Blandford's great mare Talents Dark Angel, a daughter of Flaming Talent out of the great Docs Abbie Lee, by Docs Superstar Bar.

Nichols had Bella started before she went to Blandford for the finishing touches.

"She's a lot freer than Angel and has a longer stride," noted Blandford. "My husband said last night, 'She's not running.' I said, 'Yes, she is.' She's got a big, ole stride on her. She gets that from her daddy."

Bella also got some turn from Firewater Ta Fame, but her style is all her momma.

"She can make that little move and get around it even though she's a bigger horse than Angel," Blandford said. "She's got that Angel move."

Though wickedly talented, the waspy Angel had, or has rather, a strong dislike for hauling and she was retired to broodmare duty after yet another incident in the horse trailer. Bella, a 4-year-old, is her first foal. Angel also has yearlings by Frenchmans Guy and Born Ta Be Famous. Schiller Ranch also has a 2 year old full sister to Bella. Angel's Dash Ta Fame filly was born a month ago.

Blandford loves the Dash Ta Fame filly. "She's the best one I've had," she said. "The others were pretty because they had color, but this little sorrel filly...you go 'Wow' when you get a look at her. I've also got a Frenchmans Guy fixing to be born, and I've got an Epic Leader checked in foal."

Angel has transitioned to her role as embryo donor quite well and is under the management of Dr. Leea Arnold of The Arnold Reproduction Center in Weatherford, Texas.

"They do such an amazing job with her," Blandford said. "She gets a lot of one-on-one and Angel loves it. That's what it takes to make her happy, and she looks amazing every time I go back to get her."

As for now, Bella's just increasing her dam's worth as a producer. Next on tap for her and Blandford is the BBR Finals Futurity and Old Fort Days Futurity.

"Bella's getting stronger," said Blandford. "She doesn't know how fast she is. Yesterday (Sunday), she was trying to buck with me and was playing. I had to tell myself it was just the weather and I've just got to be patient with her and not out think her."

"I'm happy. I'm excited. I think there's a lot more to come from Angel babies."

Creating Legends Bonus Awarded

JB Quarter Horses awarded a $500 Creating Legends Futurity Bonus at the Gonzales, Texas, event, held April 4-6. Mary Sorrells' home-bred Firewater In The Sky, ridden by two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi, claimed the honor.

Firewater In The Sky, a registered Paint by Chasin Firewater out of Earlenes Music, by Scats Music, had the fastest time in the first go the futurity of all the horses by JB Quarter Horses' owned stallions.

This was the second bonus for Firewater In The Sky, a 4-year-old mare that was trained by Sorrells' granddaughter Skylar Fleming, 12. They also won the $500 Creating Legends Bonus at the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity.

The next $500 Creating Legends Bonus will be available at the Old Fort Days Futurity at Fort Smith, Ark., in March.

Bonuses are also available through JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Open Incentive. To be eligible, riders of horses by JB Quarter Horses stallions should submit their horse's earnings from open divisional races only—senior and youth money don't count—by messaging a picture or link to their results to either of the JB Quarter Horses Facebook pages or jbstallions@aol.com. Results must also contain the horse's registered name. Winners will receive $1,250 or a free breeding to their horse's sire, plus a custom belt buckle with their horse's sire logo.

Youth Wins $6K in Stephenville 1D

By Julie Mankin

It doesn't get much tougher right now than the horses being manned by the likes of Cheyenne Kelly, Carlee Pierce and Latricia Duke – but don't tell that to 13-year-old Danielle Harmon.

The seventh-grader from Abilene, Texas, dominated the open CC5D jackpots over the weekend of April 4-6, to the tune of $6,024. She made three runs on Cashin On The Bayou (a 6-year-old derby horse called Cajun) and they were three of the four fastest of the entire weekend. Not only did Harmon win the day money all three days and the average, but she also claimed the top three holes in the Youth contest and first through third in the derby sidepot.

"We bought Cajun around Christmas 2012 from Joy Wargo, who trained him," said David Harmon, Danielle's dad. "Then Joy kept him another year and Danielle spent a lot of time with her going to little jackpots around her place."

Wargo – a Wyoming native who now lives in Texas – also had a successful futurity season in 2010 aboard Smokin Koa Lena. Cajun is by Bugemforcash – Jud Little's 13-year-old stallion by Cash Not Credit out of the daughter of Bugs Alive In 75. Wargo purchased Cajun from the Jud Little Production Sale in September of 2009. On the bottom, he's out of Sheza Bayou Gal – a Sugar Bars/Mr. Bar None mare with a splash of Doc O'Lena. Cajun's paternal brother is Jackie Jatzlau's gelding Good To Be The King.

"He's really cool," Danielle said of Cajun, now stabled a couple of miles from the Harmon family. David and Cecilia Harmon, who own a string of McDonald's franchises in Abilene, are building their own facility for horses now. Although David Harmon's sister did some riding, most others in the family had no experience prior to Danielle, who began riding at a local stable after a friend told her she should give it a try.

"It was cool and fun-looking," said Danielle, who finished this season of junior high school rodeo second in her region and will compete at the state finals in late May.

Fortunately, the junior high rodeos gave her plenty of reason to run at Stephenville's Lone Star Arena, which feels a little like home court, David said. As for Danielle, she looks up to Sherry Cervi.

"I want to keep doing some nice clean runs with Cajun and going to rodeos and having fun," Danielle said. "Cajun is a really cool horse to be around. He gets excited in the alleyway but most horses do that anyway.”

Harmon has only been barrel racing less than three years and has been horseback about five years, having started with trail rides and playdays. There’s no question in her mind, though – it’s fun to go fast, she said.

Mowry & Firewatermakemehappy Earn a W at Jackson Hall Memorial

By Tanya Randall

Super consistent Firewatermakemehappy ("Junior") raced to victory at the Jackson Hall Memorial, held April 2-6 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla. The 4-year-old buckskin gelding, owned by nurse practitioner Martha Smith and trained and ridden by Kassie Mowry, Dublin, Texas, finally got his long-awaited 'W'

"I told Martha that he deserves a win," said Mowry. "He's won nearly $80,000 and he's done it the hard way, just placing ever where he's gone. I kept telling her he was due. One of these times, he's going to get that win because he is so capable. We were so excited because we all felt he deserved it. It was his time."

Mowry and Junior were second in the first round with a 15.088 and came back and posted a second round-winning 14.987.

"The ground was great," said Mowry, praising the ground crew headed by Jerry Leach. "I've never seen the ground there that good. I ran the 14.9 on the bottom of the ground. It didn't matter where you drew; the ground was great."

In the Futurity, Mowry and Junior won the both the $7,500-added MVP 4-Year-Old and $3,000-added WPRA 5-Year-Old futurity sidepot with their carry-over times for $4,791 and $2,534, respectively. They also won $419 in the open with carryovers for total earnings of $7,744.

"This colt has been super consistent for me," said Mowry. "They were just his typical runs. He's placed in the Top 5 at every futurity I've taken him to this year. He's just dead-on. He's really honest and always really runs. He liked the ground and was really snappy in his turns. He just went out there and did his thing like he normally does. He's just a really fun colt."

Smith, Hazelhurst, Miss., purchased Junior as a yearling.

"She couldn't have found a better horse," Mowry said. "She's going to have a blast on him. He's never put up a fuss about anything. He's just a good, honest, sound horse. It's really hard to find a horse

Epic Leader 3-year-olds she's currently riding is also out of Junior Country Girl. "The fourth and the fifth one are by Epic. The fifth one, I think is by far the best one. He's beautiful and gray. He's just a yearling. I'm just excited about him. He's really something."

Three-quarter brothers smash records at Hardy Murphy

The two Dash Ta Fame – Corona Cartel geldings Fortune N Fame and Cartels Fame smashed the arena records at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum during the Jackson Hall Memorial, held April 2-6 in Ardmore, Okla.

Running at draw #21 on Friday, Kendal Owen, Purcell, Okla., and Fortune N Fame set an arena record of 14.547 to win the Open. They followed it up with a 14.678 to win Saturday's Open at draw #121.

Fortune, the 2012 Sand Cup Futurity Champion for Lance Graves and Mary Beth Ogle, is a 7-year-old Dash Ta Fame out of Already In Love, a Corona Cartel daughter out of a Rocky Jones (Moon Lark) mare. On the track, Fortune had a speed index of 94 and won three of his 10 races for $10,746.

On Sunday, Jackie Ganter and Cartels Fame lower the bar even further with a 14.431. Ganter, Abilene, Texas, describes the 6-year-old as a "free running, turny horse" and said to ride him takes perfect timing.

Unplaced in two starts on the track, Cartels Fame is by Dash Ta Fame out of Corona Koolaid, a daughter of Corona Cartel out of a Streakin Six mare. Trained and campaigned by Angie Meadors in early 2012, Cartels Fame was later futurity by Jackson Hall event producer Sharin Hall. With Hall, Cartels Fame won the Greg Olson Derby in 2013 and placed at the Fort Worth pro rodeo before going to Ganter. Most recently, Ganter and Cartels Fame finished third at the Diamonds & Dirt Derby and were in the mix for the arena record at the newly open Twin Lakes Training Center in Fairfield, Texas.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

“Life isn’t fair!”
I bet you’ve heard that complaint before. I know I have but that’s how the world sees things and not the way God sees it.

We know God is always good, fair and just and He always has a good reason for the way He does things or the way He allows things to happen. Just remember Romans 8:28 which tells us “all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.”

Look again to Matthew 20 where Jesus told the parable of the landowner hiring workers for his vineyard. At the end of the day he paid them all the same agreed upon wage whether they had worked all day or only a few hours. When those who had worked longer complained, the landowner said that he had done them no wrong for he had paid them what was agreed upon and it was his own business if he wished to pay more to the latecomers.

Jesus also told them that the last shall be first and the first last for many are called but few chosen. The man on his death bed who repents and accepts Jesus will go to Heaven just the same as the man who was a Christian his whole life. But, don’t wait until the last minute to ensure your future in eternity! Satan would like to mess you up and block the many blessing God has for you.

Take out “eternity insurance” today. The premiums have already been paid by Jesus on the cross. This insurance is free and easy to get. Romans 10:9 says if we confess with our mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in our heart that God has raised him from the dead, we will be saved. That’s good news!
