Yeah Hes Firen for Pozzi at the Ram National Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi defended her Ram National Circuit Finals Championship, April 4-6 at the State Fairgrounds Park in Oklahoma City. Pozzi and her great horse Yeah Hes Firen ("Duke") left with $18,784 and a $20,000 voucher toward the purchase of a new Ram truck.

"Last year, I got a little 1500 gas truck," said Pozzi. "I've got a fairly new Dodge, like a 2012, and I'm thinking I'll wait until the end of the year and trade it in and use the voucher and get a 2014."

Pozzi, who is sponsored by Professional's Choice, Priefert, Platinum Performance, Purina, MGM Grand, Energy XXI, Double J Saddlery, Elgin Veterinary Hospital and K9s4Cops, has had a quiet winter run by her usual standards, where she normally has $50-$60,000 already in the bank. This year, however, Duke was out for the National Western in Denver and the yearly kick off rodeo Odessa, Texas, due to a sore suspensory from the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

She was forced to season her young horses that she raised and trained—Ima Super Fly Guy, a 5-year-old Frenchmans Guy gelding, and Steele Magnolias, a 6-year-old Magnolia Bar Jet mare, and the two did admirably picking up checks against the wolves looking to get a good start to qualify for the WNFR.

Unfortunately, when Duke got the all-clear on the suspensory some other issues surfaced when she returned him to competition.

"I started at Fort Worth and San Antonio," said the Victoria, Texas, barrel racer, "but I could tell he wasn't right. I took him back to Marty (Tanner, DVM) and we worked on him some more."

By San Angelo mid-February, the 10-year-old gelding by Alive N Firen out of Splendid Discovery, by Shoot Yeah, was starting to come around.

"I ran my colt in the first round and then Duke in second round and finals," said Pozzi. "I ran him at Houston. He just doesn't like that pen, but he did good there. I won second on him at Beaumont and then ran him at the (RAM) circuit finals."

Texas Circuit Champion Carlee Pierce dominated the early going at the Ram, winning both rounds and leading the average into the clean-slate Semi-Finals. The top eight in the average were pared down to four in the Semi-Finals with Pozzi, Pierce, Nancy Hunter and Cindy Smith making the cut for the Finals.

Pozzi and Duke had gained speed with each run and won both the Semi-Finals and Finals.

"My first run, he didn't run across the pen and get over for the second barrel," she explained. "I've kind of been having a problem with him doing that. On the second run, I carried a skinny bat across to the second. He was like 'OK'. I carried it again in the Semi's, but by the Finals he didn't need it. He had gotten the hint."

Now, Pozzi will head to $10,000-added Wrangler Million Dollar Tour-Silver Rodeo in Logandale, Nevada, to run on Thursday before turning around and coming back for $13,500-added WPRM Tour Rodeo in Corpus Christi, Texas. Both are one-run events.

She plans on sending a new acquisition—Shes Free To Flame, a 5-year-old daughter of Flaming Fire Water out of Racin Trouble, by Racin Free, that Trip Duperier purchased from Savannah Reeves and Jan Boultinghouse, to California and leaving Duke in Texas. "I figured she needed seasoning," said Pozzi, "and I can win more at Lufkin and Corpus on Duke than I can at those other rodeos. I figured having two horses would be the best plan."

In the meanwhile she has to get her young horses ready for the Old Fort Days. She has five futurity colts and five derby horses entered.

New Owners for Blazin Jetolena

On Monday April 8, leading barrel horse and sire Blazin Jetolena was purchased by Busby Quarter Horses from his owners/breeders Sue Rist and Randy Rist.

Blazin Jetolena, the 14 year old stud by Lenas Sugar Daddy and out of the Jet Of Honor mare, Blazin Jennie Jet, will continue to stand the 2013 breeding season at Shadow Oak Ranch near Stephenville, TX. "All of us here at Busby Quarter Horses couldn't be more excited to have "Jet" joining our program. This stallion is truly "one in a million!" We are proud of his past and ecstatic about his future." said Andrea Busby of Busby Quarter Horses.

Blazin Jetolena was started by Randy Rist and Sue Rist and then ran through most of his career by Ryan Lovendahl. He earned over $120k and also ran at the 2005 WNFR. He was the #1 Futurity Horse in 2003, the 2004 AW4D Finals 1D Average Winner and won over $20,000 at Prorodeos.

Blazin Jetolena went on to sire 2012 WNFR qualifier, Sheza Blazin Move, ProRodeo winner Blazin Ruby Rocket, recent Diamonds & Dirt Derby winner, Catch The Rain, and Futurity & Derby money earner, Jet O Red to name a few.

Blazin Jetolena will again be united with Ryan Lovendahl, as he is the head trainer at Busby Quarter Horses. "This is an amazing stallion and I am so excited to once again have him; come home, and be part of our program!" commented Ryan Lovendahl

"Jeff & I are honored and humbled to be given the opportunity to carry Jets legacy into the future. We sat on the sidelines for many years and watched in awe of Jet's athleticism, talent, grit and heart. God has blessed us with this opportunity and we will do everything we can to preserve, protect and honor what (Sue Rist and Randy Rist) have started." shared Andrea Busby.

For breeding contracts and information contact Shadow Oak Ranch at www.shadowoakranch.com or call 254.485.2542. For more information on Blazin Jetolena either visit his Facebook page at www.facebook.com/blazin.jetolena or go to www.busbyquarterhorses.com.

Wright's Still Got It; Wins Cowboy Capital for $2,378

By Julie Mankin

What's that saying about old age and treachery overcoming youth and skill? It's hogwash; the two least treacherous ladies out there are obviously still the most skilled.

With six decades of living under their belt and all on the same weekend, Mary Burger was spanking some of the best futurity trainers in the country in Ardmore, Okla., while Martha Wright was killing the open riders in one of the toughest venues in all of barrel racing – Lonestar Arena in Stephenville, Texas.

At the big Cowboy Capital 5D held April 5-7, Wright “home-towned” them, you could say, by clocking the fastest time out of roughly 800 entries – by more than a full tenth of a second. Her 15.108 came on Sunday and earned Wright $1,839 aboard 13-year-old Famous Lil Dasher.

She edged a field that included multiple entries by the same horses and always includes the likes of NFR qualifiers like Kassie Mowry, who won first and second in the futurity sidepot on the same horse; then won the derby and adult sidepots on another to earn an extra $1,470.

The Cowboy Capital race not only paid 10 places in each of five divisions when the dust cleared at the end of the weekend, but it also paid day money each of three days. Depending on the day you were up, each division paid six holes starting at $350 for first (Friday night paid five holes in each of five divisions and $250 for first in each). That meant Wright nabbed another $350 on Sunday, and then gained an extra $189 for winning the Senior 1D sidepot with her rolled time.

“It was definitely a good barrel race,” said the soft-spoken Wright. “A little check every now and then brings a smile to your face.”

Such vivid success may remind fans of another Dash Ta Fame gelding that Wright also excelled on by the name of Fame Fox Kirk, who was four years older than “Dasher.” Despite being half-brothers and both packing thoroughbred blood on the bottom, she says the only thing they possibly might have in common is the intense temperament typical of Dash Ta Fames.

“Amos” – out of a Dr. Kirk/Truly Truckle mare – was 16.2 hands and weighed over 1,400 pounds. “He was like a big pit bull that was going after something when he went through the gate,” Wright said.

So he really doesn't compare to Dasher – out of a Hempen/Three Ohs mare – who honestly is just “not all there.” He's a spacey, edgy little horse prone to ulcers and pain in his back from “kissing spines.” No wonder he's intense.

“He's always been a horse with a lot of try,” said Wright. “He just had physical issues, and we think we've got a handle on those. We have a really good shoer right now that has definitely made a difference in all my horses.”

The Cowboy Capital 5D added even more money this time than ever, which made for an event that paid like a rodeo. Except that the ground held steady from the gunner on Friday through the final entry, with second place going to a girl who ran Friday night and first going to Wright, who was up Sunday.

To move everyone was a nice feeling of redemption for someone who's painstakingly gone through barrel racing's ups and downs with this one horse who is now 13.

“I'm the ‘hanger-on-er,’” said Wright. “I'm hard-headed enough that I keep trying to fix it and keep trying to make it work. There comes a point when you should say, ‘Enough is enough,’ but I have a tendency to be a stayer.”

Part of her recent success on Dasher she also attributes to family friend Allison Danley, who won her share on Dasher at high school rodeos this past year. Being run by someone who wasn't his trainer may have helped free Dasher up, Wright said. In fact, as powerful as he's running now, more than a handful of people have inquired about purchasing Dasher.

“I've always told them, ‘You'll bring him back,’” cracked Wright. “And we wouldn't be friends afterward. He's just difficult to deal with. We actually bought him as a stud prospect but he was too ornery and mean to leave a stud. He's still aggressive toward other horses. I want him to stay right here.”

Kelly & Ivy Conrado dominate at 7th Annual Sand Cup

By Tanya Randall

Most families go to the beach to have their fun in the sand, but the Conrado family of Hudson, Colo., prefers their sandy fun to be in the arena. Kelly Conrado and his youngest daughter Ivy took the top spots at the Sand Cup Futurity and Maturity, respectively.

Kelly rode C Four Tibbie Stinson ("Tibbie") to a $4,874 Futurity victory, while Ivy guided Kellies Chick to a $1,219 win in the Maturity at the seventh annual event, held April 5-7 at the notoriously fast TRAC arena in Pasco, Wash.

In the $6,000-added, 86-entry futurity, Kelly and Tibbie placed fourth in the first go with a 17.180 and followed it up with a victorious 17.083 in the second en route to the average win.

"They were just smooth," Kelly said of his runs. "I don't kick her. She's a really free runner. She's extremely responsive. I run her in a custom made draw bit that I've had for years and years. It's just easy for her. There's no effort there. There was nothing there that made you go 'ooh' or 'ahh.' She was just extremely efficient and she can really run."

The Conrados raised Tibbie, a 4-year-old daughter of the Dash Ta Fame-Sixarun stallion Eddie Stinson out of Little Fancy Granny ("Racey"), by Del Puerto Bill.

"Her mother was my all-time favorite horse," said Kelly. "She came from a close family friend in Meeker, Colo., Kay Baumgartner. The mare's granddam had produced some nice barrel horses in our area back in the 70s, so we were real familiar with the family line. We got her when she as a 4-year-old and Ivy trained her as a young kid."

The family won a lot aboard the mare. Kelly's oldest daughter Paige won rounds on her at the Colorado Professional Rodeo Association Finals with her. Ivy won the Wrangler Junior High State Finals and finished reserve in the open/amateur rodeo association on her. They even let Dad win a little too at the Mile High barrel races.

Racey also saw pro rodeo action with Deb Renger and Liz Pinkston leased her in 2005 for a backup horse at the National Finals Rodeo.

Kelly said he picked Eddie Stinson as a sire because of the stallion's female line and his affordability.

"I had looked a several sons of Dash Ta Fame, and I really liked the bottom side of Eddie Stinson," he explained. "I really liked the Sixarun. I always liked Linda Vick's horse (Running Episode, her NFR horse by Sixarun). I really like Sixarun himself as individual. He had one of the most massive hips I'd ever seen on a horse." Tibbie, however, favors her mother.

"She is the spitting image of her mother with about six more gears," said Kelly, who also wanted to acknowledge Joe Butterfield for braking Tibbie. "She turns just like her mother.

"When Ivy trained her mother, Ivy was just 8-years-old. She took her to the CJRA rodeos all summer and she would lope to the barrels and trot around them. One day, the mare just started running barrels. This filly was the same way. I think I had taken her around the barrels maybe three weeks and then one day, she was like, 'I got it.'"

Kelly said all of Racey's colts have been hotter than she was, but they still come down just like she did.

"She was really laid back and quiet," he said. "The only time she got excited was when you headed to the alley way. Her ears would come up and she would do her little Poodle prance, because she looked like a little Poodle trotting up to the alley. She ran barrels then dropped her head and walked off. All this mare's colts have been hotter, but they'll just walk off. It's just easy for them."

Racey has also produced a 2-year-old PC Frenchmans Hayday and yearling JL Dash Ta Heaven. She's due to foal an Oh Whatta Boy any day. She will be bred back to Darkelly, a son of First Down Kelley that the Conrados own with longtime family friend and partner Debbie Mikkelson.

"We would love to be expecting a foal by Darkelly now, but we didn't own him at the time," said Kelly, who purchased the stallion late last May. "His colts are just fantastic movers. They're extremely fast and they love running barrels. It doesn't matter what kind of mare they're out of. To breed Racey to him is going to be very exciting. She's part of our family."

Kelly first became interested in Darkelly after watching Cody Hyde run Miss Dark Flash at the futurities.

"She was just a little bitty mare that could fly," he said. "She was very quick-footed and wanted to do her job. That's when I started paying attention to them. I actually bred a mare to him that year and that colts now a 2-year-old. From there I just kept up with them. It didn't seem to matter what level of trainer or what level of rider was riding them, they wanted to do their job."

It was Kelly's pursuit of a Darkelly daughter to cross on his son of Dash Ta Fame son C Four Life Ta Legend that led him to purchase Maturity Champion Kellies Chick ("Skye"). He asked Hyde to find him an AAA daughter of Darkelly.

"He called me up and said he had found a 3-year-old," laughed Kelly. "I said, I wanted a broodmare, not a 3-year-old. He said you can breed a 3-year-old. He picked her up and started messing with her. He told me that I need to ride the mare and take her on. I told him that I didn't have time but if he wanted to take her on, then let's go for it."

In January 2012, Skye was only racetrack broke, but by last year's Sand Cup Futurity, she was placing.

"That was another thing that really turned me on to Darkelly," said Conrado. "I've found that his colts really handle pressure well. They rise to the occasion. It doesn't intimidate them. When he came up for sale, it was a no brainer for Debbie and I to buy him."

In the $1,000-added Maturity, Ivy and Skye were third in the first go with a 16.993. A smother 16.884 gave them the second go and average victory.

"My first run wasn't that clean of a run," said Ivy. "We kind of got by our second by a stride and a half and could have had a better third, but she smoked her first and was really striding out. We ran a 16.9 even with those mistakes; it was amazing."

Before the second round, she got some help from Hyde.

"I got my positioning fixed up for my second barrel, and we smoked the second and third. We ran a 16.8. She's only 5, and that's pretty wicked for a 5-year-old on a standard pattern."

Ivy said the mare is "very, very easy" to ride.

"Honestly, she can take all the credit, because she's super easy to ride," she said. "You just take her to the barrel and she turns it."

Ivy want give a big thank you to Bob Loosenort, Hazel, Ky, who reset Skye while at the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity in Bryan, Texas.

"Before he shod her, we weren't clocking and we weren't having really nice runs," she explained. "After he shod her, she freed up and started running and turning really hard."

Ivy also wanted to thank longtime family friend and business partner Debbie Mikkelson and TechMix supplements for their support.

An 18-year-old WPRA permit holder, Ivy has taken Skye to a couple of pro rodeos. She tipped a barrel on her at San Angelo and was right out of placing at Glen Rose.

Her main barrel racing goal for this year to have Kellies Chick finish her the year ranked as one of the Top 10 Derby Horses in country. She's also planning for her future by enrolling in the nursing program at Ranger College in fall.

Kelly said his family has been really blessed with the great horses and opportunities that have come their way lately.

"We very fortunate to have Darkelly," he said. "All of this has been a passion for my family and Debbie. It's exciting for my family—my daughters and myself—to do well. We've been very blessed and are thankful."

Burger Notches a Special Win at Jackson Hall Futurity

By Julie Mankin

Back in the early 1970s in Indiana and Ohio is when things really started to heat up competitively in jackpot barrel racing. There were two people entering the increasingly tough Quarter Horse shows and they were darn near impossible to beat. They were Jack Hall and Mary Burger.

"Jack had some really awesome horses; in fact he and I probably had the two best horses back then, and we had a good time being competitive against each other," said Burger. "He was a really swell, modest guy and a good trainer."

On April 4-7, Hall's daughter Sharin Hall and her husband, Bobby Lowe, decided to honor her late father with the first annual Jackson Hall Memorial Barrel Event at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla. They added a full $20,000 across the Open, 4-year-old Futurity, 5-year-old Futurity, Derby and Junior races – and gave 5 percent of the proceeds to the American Lung Association.

Hall and Lowe had combined their last names to come up with their business, Hallowe Ranch in Kingston, Okla. Now, through their new Hallowe Ranch Store (available at halloweranch.com), they offer for sale all the products Hall uses in her training program, plus Lowe's custom-designed line of exotic tack.

At the Jackson Hall Memorial, they kept things light by adding a pony race and husband/daddy "make it look easy" jackpot. Numbers were great in each division and the event attracted handfuls of the country's biggest futurity trainers, so Hall plans to add a select sale and slot race next year.

Burger and SadieFamousLastWords ("Moe") won the first round and placed second in the second round of the 4-year-old futurity to win the average by a whopping four-tenths of a second. They banked $4,219, including the money she earned when the first-round run also placed second in Saturday's Open 1D.

"I knew he was capable of that, but I don't ever expect it," Burger said. "I just take whatever's given to me." She'd intended to campaign Moe at futurities in the Northwest this month, but at the last minute just couldn't do it to her horse. The three-day trip there and three more days getting back just would wear him out, she figured.

"Then with what happened in Ardmore, it put me right in the mood to stay here!" she said.

Burger ran 4-year-old Moe at his very first pro rodeo the night before the futurity, in Graham, Texas. She'd expected slack but had gotten up in a perf, and said he picked out his barrels but was a little out of position heading to first after jumping the gun in the holding pen.

"He handled it real well," Burger said. "But he's only 4 once, so the futurities are more my plan."

And the Jackson Hall Memorial is only new once – Burger couldn't be more tickled about how the inaugural edition turned out.

"It was sort of one of those things where you feel like maybe he had me picked out to win it," said Burger, 65 this year. "I asked Sharin, 'Do you think Jack is proud of me?' and she said, 'Mary, don't make me cry.' I just feel like maybe he had me picked. They are really a nice family."

Burger felt a rush of old memories when she saw the table Sharin had laid out with old pictures of Jack and his horse, To Heck, on whom he gave Mary and her horse plenty of heck 40 years ago.

Coffey and Romance Strike Again in the IBRA

By Julie Mankin

The romance never ends for Chris Coffey. On a 4-year-old filly that is the half-sister of his former futurity standouts Streaking Romance and Cruzin Rebel, Coffey dominated the IBRA Preferred Show Futurity April 4-7 in Lewisburg, Ohio.

Her name is A Flash Of Romance, and she's out of a daughter of Easy Find – the product of Easy Jet bred to a Tonto Bars Hank daughter. And her sire, Rolls Of Romance (speed index 103), has again passed along the championship blood he inherited as an own son of Dash For Cash out of the half-thoroughbred Easy Jet daughter Love N Money.

In fact, Coffey won the two-run average by nearly a half-second over Kelly Bowser on a Dash Ta Fame/Strawfly Special grandson that actually has that same Dash For Cash/Easy Jet magic cross on the bottom.

Coffey had won the first round and was barely edged into second in Round Two by Leslie Willis aboard Incendiary Ivory. He took home $3,261 in the Futurity.

Then, on the filly's 6-year-old half-brother, Streaking Romance (out of a Streaking La Jolla/Tiny's Gay mare), Coffey also placed in the event's Open on two different days and won the second round of the Derby to haul in another $795. More divisional and sidepot money on Guy Cash Perk brought Coffey's weekend total to $4,731.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The Bible teaches us the importance of forgiving others. There are many Scriptures telling us we won't be forgiven unless we forgive others and our prayers won't be answered if we're unable to forgive others. Even if we don't feel very forgiving, we can choose to forgive through Jesus Christ.

But, have you forgiven yourself? That's important, too. It's easy to hang onto guilt. The devil wants to destroy your peace by reminding you of past sins and offenses. But, if you've asked God to forgive you, you are "a new creature in Christ" and you are redeemed and made clean by the blood of Jesus shed at the cross. Read First John 1:9. When we are forgiven, it's just as if we never sinned and God remembers it no more. So if God forgets it, so should we. Tell the devil to "get lost" when he reminds you of something and tries to make you doubt the righteousness you have by being born again as a child of God.

It's good to know some Scriptures you can use at those times when you come under a "guilt attack". Remind yourself of Romans

8:1 which says there is no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus.

Jesus was the only man who led a sin-free life. God loves us so much with an unconditional love that He sent His Son to pay the debt mankind owed but could not pay. So every day we should be thankful to God that we have been redeemed from the curse of the law (Galatians 3:13) and we're a joint-heir with Christ (Romans 8:17).

Hallelujah! When we made Jesus our Lord and Savior, we were made over and old things passed away and all things become new! (2 Corinthians 5:17)
