Chapman & Sun Frosted Rocket Triumph At Josey Jr World

By Tanya Randall

Cierra Chapman knew her dream of winning a Josey Jr World Championship was coming down to the wire. The Kiowa, Okla., barrel racer had made 10 trips to the prestigious event at R.E. and Martha Josey's Ranch in Karnack, Texas, and at 19, she knew only one year of eligibility remained.

"I was like, 'Well, it's okay if I don't get it done this year; I've still got next year,'" Chapman admitted.

When she qualified just one of her four horses back to the short go, Chapman knew she had nothing left to lose and no other choice. Aboard the 11-year-old stallion Sun Frosted Rocket, Chapman did the one thing she could—"I SENT him."

She and "Sunny" pulled up in a 16.066 to fulfill her dreams as the Josey Jr World 1D Champion.

"He ran harder than he ever has at Josey's," she said. "I just came apart. I couldn't believe it. This was finally my chance. We'd been coming here for 10 years and I've placed in more short go's than anything...it was just my year."

A former nursing, soon-to-be business communications major, Chapman attends Murray State in Tishomingo, Okla., on a softball scholarship. She's an outfielder, and in spite of her petite 110 pounds, bats clean up in the fourth hole in the batting order.

With Chapman's commitments, Sunny had been enjoying a seven month vacation prior to Joseys and had only had two other runs under his belt before the event.

"I hadn't been on the stud but twice since July because I'd been playing softball," she explained. "I ran him once at a local jackpot a few weeks ago and I ran him once more and said 'Ok, I guess you're ready for Josey's; Let's go.'"

They qualified out of the first round with a sixth-place run of 16.329, and were just out of the money in the second round with a consistent 16.372.

"His first run was picture perfect," she said. "I couldn't have asked for a prettier run, but he just ran out of air. The second run was pretty much the exact same run, but he stumbled pretty bad at the first. He ended up clipping himself and over-reached, but he still ran a 16.3."

Having been the fastest qualifier and run last in four previous Jr World Short Rounds, Chapman was in a little unfamiliar territory.

"Last year, when I ran at Jr World, I was on seven horses," she explained. Three belonged to family friend Kim Couch. "I was on three of her super horses, and I was like this is my year. I hit barrels on every one in the short go."

Chapman knew all she could do was give it her best shot and see what the remaining racers did.

"It didn't dawn on me that I ran an .066, and an .075 was winning it, until I got in the mouth of the alley," said Chapman, who wanted to thank her parents and her sponsors as well as Billy Cook, who sponsored her for the event and awarded the championship saddle. "I just pumped my fist in the air and started crying."

She had started to cool Sunny out in the covered arena beside the alley, but thought better of it.

"I told myself, 'I can't sit in here. If they're going to outrun me, they're going to outrun me, but I'm not going to watch them do it.' I went to the back 40 and I sat back there under some trees in the cool breeze. I heard them call out the last two, and I started sweating really bad. One of them hit a barrel and the other ran an .09. I jumped in the air and tromped back up there," she laughed.

While she sat in the breeze and waited, Chapman also thanked Sunny, who has been a part of her family since her parents, David and Rondia, purchased him as a weanling.

Bred by Billy and Hollie Etbauer, Sunny is by WPRA World Champion Sire, Sun Frost, out of Call Me Wrangler, by Rocket Wrangler.

"I can remember mom and dad bringing him and saying this is what we just bought. I looked at him and I thought, 'Oh my gosh! He's little.' He was a little, lanky colt. My dad wanted to run him in the Juvenile, but I didn't think I was ready so we had Caitlin Benja-

Campbell Wins Nothin' But Try Jackpot

Ace Campbell had a smile on his face that would have made Levi Wisness proud after winning the Nothin' But Try Steer Wrestling Jackpot at the U Cross Arena on May 9.

The event raised money for a scholarship given to a National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association member in honor of Wisness. In spite of hours of rain before, during and after the competition 37 steer wrestlers made the trip to the small community of Coleman, Okla.

Campbell won the two preliminary rounds with time of 4.4 and 3.6 respectively. He had the advantage coming into the finals where a 7.5 placed him fourth and gave him the overall title. His total of 15.5 earned him $4,168.

Dane Hanna who qualified for the NFR in steer wrestling 2010 and Wade Sundell, a six-time qualifier in the saddle bronc riding helped Mulligan with the event. Hanna was also a traveling partner of Wisness who lost his life way too soon in 2008. The 1999 world champion steer wrestler, Mickey Gee provided auctioneering services and even entered the steer wrestling.

When it was all said and done, over $4,000 was raised for the scholarship. Additionally an auction was held to benefit Julie Mankin who has written stories and publicized rodeo since she graduated from the University of Wyoming. Mankin attended school with Mulligan and his wife Bryel (Zancanella) Mulligan.

"My goal was to raise as much money as we had added in the jackpot," Mulligan said. "We topped that by a little. With the weather the way it was, I think that's tremendous. We couldn't have done it without the sponsors and this community. It's for a great cause and we just want it to grow."

A random draw put the steer wrestlers in teams of four with the winners earning the Cosequin Team Incentive of $1,000. That team included Campbell along with Hanna, J.D. Struxness and Sean Thomas.

A Nothin' But Try Award was given to Royce Johnson who had absolutely no luck. Johnson got $300 cash and a trailer kit from Equimedica USA.

Sponsors included Will Cook and Flying C Rodeo who donated the steers and contributed to the added money. Cinch Jeans and Shirts, Dufur Quarter Horses, Pro Earth Animal Health, The Sports Zone, Groveton Insurance, Cosequin, The Corner Market in Coleman and the Wisness family also contributed.

"To have Levi's family get behind us really means a lot and lets me know how much this means to them," Mulligan said. "It's rewarding to see the generosity of others make an event successful. Everyone contributed in some way and we are very thankful. We're going to work hard to make next year's jackpot even better." Final result of the Nothin' But Try Steer Wrestling Jackpot for the Levi Wisness scholarship:

Boyd Gaming to Host First-Ever Chute-Out Rodeo

Boyd Gaming is producing a new, fun and interactive rodeo event for the sport's loyal fans and popular competitors --The Cinch Boyd Gaming Chute-Out.

On December 10, 11 and 12, the Cinch Boyd Gaming-Chute Out will make its inaugural debut at the Orleans Arena at The Orleans Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas.

Boyd Gaming has teamed up with the event's title sponsor, Cinch Jeans, to offer rodeo fans around the country "A New Way To Rodeo." For the first time ever, rodeo fans will enjoy a new twist in this innovative competition, pitting popular rodeo competitors against one another in three days of action-packed performances. Fans will have the opportunity interact with the competitors and the rodeo in a new and innovative way. This event is designed to entertain serious and casual rodeo fans alike.

The Chute-Out will begin at 2 p.m. each day, and will be emceed by Hall of Fame's own Bob Tallman and celebrated rodeo announcer Roger Mooney. The competition purse totals more than $200,000 and competitors will include former and future champions that are not participating in this year's WNFR event.

The Chute-Out event format is new and tailored to add a bit more Las Vegas-style entertainment, while maintaining the long rich history and rodeo tradition. The timing of the event allows all fans to have a full day of rodeo action -- CINCH's Boyd Gaming Chute-Out in the afternoon, followed by the WNFR in the evening.

"We've established Boyd Gaming properties as the place for entertainment after the WNFR concludes each night with special events such as the Legendary Buck'N Ball, National Finals Tonight Show and more," said Gibase. "We now invite cowboys and cowgirls to begin their evenings a bit earlier at the Orleans Arena with CINCH's Boyd Gaming Chute-Out."

Other anticipated events returning to Boyd Gaming properties include the Bob Tallman Celebrity Bowling Tournament at the Gold Coast Hotel and Casino and Roxy's Buckin' Bull Honky Tonk at Sam's Town Hotel and Gambling Hall.

Tickets for the event start at $20, and go on sale on Friday, May 15 at noon PDT. Tickets will be available for purchase at BoydGamingEvents.com, by calling 702.284.7777 or visiting any Boyd Gaming box office location. Room and ticket packages will be available for purchase on June 1 at Boyd Gaming Nevada properties.

min ride him at Oklahoma City. He did okay. He wasn't a standout 3-year-old, but he was a standout 4-year-old. He's stood out ever since then."

The Chapmans have mostly bred their mares, but are considering offering him to the public next year. Sunny's oldest foals are 6-year-olds, but Chapman said she's sold all the ones of riding age. All she has are yearlings and weanlings.

Sunny will mostly spend his summer going to the large jackpots in Texas and Oklahoma before Chapman returns for her sophomore year at Murray State.

Singular Performance by Melanie Adams & RGR Loner Boy at SW Desert Classic

By Tanya Randall

With her other horse RGR Springloaded out with an abscess, RGR Loner Boy was the only bullet in Melanie Adams' gun at the Southwest Desert Classic Futurity in Salina, Utah. The duo made the most of their runs, winning the Open and Breeders' Futurity as well as placing in the open for total earnings $4,219.

"I almost scratched him, too," said Adams, who hails from Price, Utah. "I unloaded him and he could barely walk on the rocks. I put him in the stall and called my farrier. I soaked him for a while, and after we put pads on him and put some Equi-Pak in there, he was fine. He just licked his lips, was happy and was good to go."

Adams said Loner did feel a little different during his runs, which she attributed to the pads.

"It didn't feel like him," she said. "He just couldn't get a hold of the ground with the pads. It must have felt really strange to him. Usually he really rolls around the barrels like there's nothing to it at all. This time there was a little bit of hesitation."

They were 15.650 on their first run to place third to winners Lynnzie Lindstrom and Chasin Kars' 15.560. On their second run, Adams and Loner came back with a 15.567 to win the round and average.

This was the second (third if you count the Breeders' sidepot) futurity championship for the pair, having won the Dixie Classic in St. George, Utah, earlier this spring.

Adams and her husband Deloy purchased Loner as a coming 2-year-old from his breeders Ross and David Hinkins, the brothers who own Rainbow Glass Ranch in Ferron, Utah.

"I always go over there and look at their colts. I make almost out of a Dash For Cash, Go Man Go mare. The colt's dam is Hugo Style, a double-bred Streakin Six mare by Streakin Days out of a Hugo Streakin daughter.

Adams said he was "super fantastic" to start on the barrels. "It was like within three days of starting him on the barrels he was ready to run," she said. "He wanted to do it, and do it easy."

Loner is the first futurity horse in a while for Adams, who grew up running barrels before taking a brief hiatus to train racehorses. Her husband Deloy encouraged her to get back to training colts.

"My husband has been so wonderful," she said. "He's the one that said we need to get some colts and get them going. I was just rodeoing at the time, and I do love riding babies."

She also had to give special thanks to her farrier Hank Allred. "I love my farrier," she said. "He was Johnny-On-The-Spot. When I called him up and said we've got a problem, he told me that he had two more horses to do and then he'd be there."

Adams also wanted to thank Rainbow Glass Ranch, her veterinarian Duane Utley, her equine dentist Shane Hatch and "everyone who keeps me going."

Here's a number...889!! That is how many total entries (including t-shirt race) that we had at the 1st Annual Ashley Virden Memorial Barrel Race! Ashley Virden's life was cut short due to a riding accident in 2014. Her father, Lynn Virden asked several of us put a barrel race together in her honor. Ashley just wanted to run barrels and have fun, we feel like accomplished that this past weekend. We were honored to be asked to do this and feel it was a huge success!!! We look forward to next year and keeping Ashley's legacy going strong! Thank You, Courtney Adair

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Are you happy? Maybe I should ask if you want to be happy because if you look around, you'll see lots of negative, miserable people. Some act as though it makes them special to dwell on any imperfect thing in their lives.

Yet, the Bible talks a lot about joy. God wants us to be happy and fulfilled. "The joy of the Lord is your strength," Nehemiah 8:10. "A merry heart doth good like medicine," Proverbs 17:22. These are just two Scriptures that show how a good attitude might affect our health. Scientific research also shows that happy people also live longer.

Abraham Lincoln said, "People are about as happy as they choose to be." I know of a fine young man who grew up in a "fractured" home environment who said, "Happiness is a state of mind." If you seek guidance from the Lord and choose to follow His will and plans for your life, you'll be happy and have great contentment in your life.

This world's pleasures are fleeting and leave an emptiness. Call on Jesus to come into your life. Turn your life over to Him and let Him direct you in all your ways. Talk to Him every day and tell Him your hopes, dreams and fears and you'll feel His protection and provision over you like a "security" blanket.

Some people try to appear important by name dropping all the important people they know. What a waste of time! The most important person we can know is Jesus and that HE died and rose from the dead so we can have a glorious eternity. Pray and read your Bible and BE HAPPY!! There's plenty to be happy about!
