Stephanie Fryar & Some Streakin French Catch Winning Wave at Rodeo Corpus Christi

By Tanya Randall

Stephanie Fryar finally got her surfboard, the unique championship trophy from Rodeo Corpus Christi on the Texas Gulf Coast.

“When I got home, I was trying to find somewhere to put it,” chuckled the professional barrel racer and trainer from Waco, Texas. “Where do you put this?”

Fryar qualified for the $50,000-added rodeo, held May 5-9, via her position in last year’s Texas Circuit Standings as the event was limited to 60 contestants of which 20 came from a qualifying jackpot in Hamilton, Texas.

Thankfully, her amazing gelding Some Streakin French (“Frank”) is back to winning form after spending most of 2025 out with an injury. She and the 11-year-old gelding collected $10,653 for their winning efforts.

She said tight confines of the Hillard Center set up suits Frank.

“It’s really set up for him with his honesty,” she said. “The ground is always good. It’s just always been a good rodeo to us.”

They were eligible for the World Champion Rodeo Alliance’s $1 million Triple Crown Bonus for winning three straight events if they won Corpus Christi in 2024, but Frank wasn’t 100 percent.

“He’d gotten hurt and we couldn’t find it,” she said. “It wasn’t crippling, but I knew something was bothering him. We never found it before I ran for the million. Now he’s back sound and happy.”

Fryar and Frank finished fifth in the first round with a 13.37. Their 13.16 split the win in the 12-head short round with Kappie Bryant and Smooth As Rico Suave (who shined at the 2025 National Finals Rodeo when Halyn Lide borrowed him.) They got the aggregate win in 26.53.

“I knew it was going to be tough,” she said. “Not that either one of these bridles means anything, but I took his Jim Warner Hack off and put him in his sidepull. I turned him loose and said, ‘It’s your time to shine!’”

Frank’s sidepull is homemade with a steel band over the nose and simple rope under the jaw.

Fryar became Frank’s person in the spring of 2016 when she traded her Traffic Guy filly, out of her National Finals Rodeo qualifying mare Sail On Lena, to Corbin Pinyan for the then 4-year-old gelding by Frenchmans Fabulous out of the Some Dasher, Streakin Six mare Some Streakin Chick. That year they were finalists at the Old Fort Days and Barrel Futurities of America World Championship futurities and won the inaugural running of the Blue Collar Breeders Futurity.

Now, they’re pushing $700,000 in career earnings.

“Maybe we’ll cross over this weekend,” said Fryar, who was competing at the Professional Women’s Rodeo Championship in Fort Worth at the time of this interview.

Although she’d love to run Frank in the little, yellow arena in Las Vegas, Fryar doesn’t have lofty rodeo plans. She’s only been to six, now seven (rodeos) with Corpus Christi, this year.

“I want to try to make the (Texas) circuit finals again,” she said. “And I will probably venture out for at least one month this summer. I think Frank would like going to the Northwest. He did good that first year I used him out there and he’s way more experienced now.”

McPhee Rides Krystal Grad's KSJ RememberTheTitan to Royal Crown Canada Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Brandy McPhee guided KSJ RememberTheTitan to the Futurity Championship at Royal Crown Canada, held May 6-10 in Claresholm, Alberta, for the 5-year-old gelding's owner, breeder and trainer Krystal Grad, who broke her arm in an exhibition mishap at the Yellow Rose Futurity the prior week.

"It's kind of surreal," said McPhee of Edson, Alberta. "We know Titan really well. My husband started him, so he spent some time at our house."

Grad was still on the arena floor, waiting for the ambulance, when she phoned McPhee to ask her to ride Titan at the Yellow Rose Futurity. Since there was a warmup jackpot that night, McPhee had to hustle to make the drive in time.

"My husband was shoeing one of my own futurity horses when she called. He had just put front shoes on her and we had to load his equipment and finish her when we got there," chuckled McPhee.

Since she hadn't ridden Titan before her plan was to cruise him through in the Yellow Rose Warmup race.

"I thought I would probably knock all three barrels," she said, "because I just really wanted to feel him and not get in his way. He's a little bit stiffer style than I'm used to, but I knew from riding Krystal's other horses that he would be, so I really just tried to stay out of his way."

McPhee and Titan placed in the first round of the Yellow Rose Futurity on their second run together and ended up eighth in the average.

To get more experience with the gelding, she ran him again in the Royal Crown Warmup Race, placing third in the 1D, on Wednesday.

"Krystal told me before she went in for surgery, 'I know this horse can win it, and I think you guys can do it.' I thought to myself, that is so much pressure because I know how many runs that colt has made, and it's not very many. So, I didn't have the faith in that colt that she did and maybe I didn't have the faith in myself that she had in me too.

"But by Wednesday, I was really dialing in and able to ride him stride for stride. We were together and I wasn't just up there letting him do his thing. I was working with him."

McPhee and Titan were a 16.511 to split fourth in the first round of the Royal Crown Futurity but came back with the fastest time of the Futurity, a 16.236, to win the second.

"He was getting a little bit hot because we ran him quite a few times, asking him for his life, so I had Klancee (Grad's 10-year-old daughter) warm him up because I knew he wouldn't relate her to making runs. So she loped and worked him because I had to run my other horses. Then I just jumped on him and asked him for a couple turns in the wings and sent him up there.

"I knew he was going to be good. When we got to the third, I'm like, 'Oh yeah! This is a good run! That was pretty fun.'"

The victory in the $75,000-added, 74-entry Futurity was worth $20,432 ($14,303 owner, $4,290 stallion owner and $1,839 breeder). McPhee and Titan also won the 83-entry, $5,000-added Open Futurity for $5,148. Including open carryovers, they collected $28,282 for the event.

McPhee, a former nurse, said the whole thing was an emotional experience, from the pressure of doing well as a jump rider to the concern for her friend.

"I was a wreck when Krystal called me," she said. "I'm a nurse so I understood that if she's on the arena floor waiting for an ambulance for a broken arm, it's super bad. I was trying not to panic and reassure her that I would have everything handled. In the meantime, I'm panicking because I had four horses to load and my husband's gear, because he's a farrier. I didn't get all my clothes packed so the last day I had to wear her clothes because I didn't have enough!"

HEADGEAR: Bonnet

SADDLE: Rylee Racer by Frontier

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Alliance Equine

SHOEING: Rims on all four for Claresholm; usually has plain with a modified rim behind

FEED: Buckeye Nutrition

HAY: Alfalfa with a little timothys

SUPPLEMENTS: Equine Choice probiotics, MVP Vitamin E, Silver Lining Herb support, Kentucky Equine Research electrolytes, sucralfate while running.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER, GoldRide Red Light Therapy, nebulize

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I do a lot of softening and suppling. If they know their job, we work barrels two to three times a week and then exercise the rest. After something like this, they'll get time off. I like to do interval timing on them to keep their lungs and muscles feeling good, but I like to keep them sharp on the barrels. There's barrel work involved every day in some shape or form."

SPONSORS: Alliance Equine, Rhinestone Acres, MVP, Silver Lining Herbs, Cor Veterinary Services, Coyotee Flats Equine Therapy, HealthiStraw, Chad Robinson-farrier, Fountain Tire North Battleford, Olympic Motors, Frontier Western Shop, Branded By B, GoldRide.

THANK YOUS: Brandy McPhee and Taylor Cherry—"This wouldn't have been possible without them." To all the people who have helped me get through the week.

As for jump riding, she had to remind herself that it wasn't that big of a deal because she'd done it before.

"I need to just not get so caught up in the hype of it," she said. "Just do my job and let them do their job. I felt like I was really sharp all weekend. My horses also worked well. So it was good for me to put my big girl panties on and make it work and do my job."

Proof In The Pudding

Grad raised Titan, by leading Canadian barrel horse sire French Hula Guy, is the first foal out of her Judge Cash mare Judge Spice ("Stella"), whom her daughter now rides. She had purchased Stella as a yearling from National Finals Rodeo qualifier Shelly Murphy.

"I trained her," Grad said. "I wasn't really into futurities back then. I only started her on the pattern as a 5-year-old and then I started running her that fall. She just went to winning right away. My daughter started riding her three or four years ago and she wins more on her than I do."

Titan had a major setback in his training last year due to kissing spines.

"He started bucking out of nowhere," Grad said. "I went and checked his back, and of course, he had kissing spine."

Titan had surgery in July and Grad didn't get back on him until the middle of September

"I kind of had him on the pattern but not really," she said. "We trotted and loped through a few times that winter. I think the residue of the kissing spines left him with some quirks, so I ended up switching him to the left (barrel first)."

Titan was still being a bit of a challenge and Grad finally decided that she'd try to meet the gelding in the middle.

"I'd pick on him about a few things and he wasn't having it," she said. "I let him show me the way he wanted to do, and I tweaked a few things here and there. I took him to about five or so jackpots and then we went to VGBRA and Sand Cup (in Washington in April). That's where he started liking it. He really came on there."

Grad was pretty confident in Titan's ability to win at the two Claresholm futurities when she was injured while exhibiting her other futurity horse.

"Brandy was my first call," she said. "I told her a few things that she needed to do and she just executed perfectly."

Taylor Cherry also jump rode her second futurity horse and her great derby horse A Famous French Kiss. Between McPhee and Cherry, Grad estimates her horses won about $40,000 at Claresholm.

"It was a great experience to watch those two jockeys run my horses," she said. "It was very cool to see my horses go in and work like that for other people. We don't often get that opportunity as trainers until we pass the reins over when we sell them.

"I'm so thankful for Brandy and Taylor."

Grad also commended her young daughter for stepping in like an adult.

"My daughter took care of everything—she's 10-years-old!"

Grad said proudly. "She had the feeding schedule down, cleaning pens and all the things. I had six head there. She just handled it all. She's like, 'Mom, you don't do anything. I will do everything,' and I'm like, 'Ok!'"

Grad appreciated everyone's efforts on her behalf.

"It's amazing how everybody came together. Maybe that's what I was supposed to see and experience, the camaraderie.

Grad expects to be back in four to six weeks.

"I don't have anything until Glacier Chaser in July so it will be two and half months anyway before I have to run," she said, "so I have lots of time."

Taylor Cherry Wins both Derbies, Slot Race at Royal Crown Canada and $60K

By Julie Mankin

Taylor Cherry and her 6-year-old mare Lynn's Honor ("Lenny") didn't just clock the fastest time of the entire week of futurities, open races and derbies at Royal Crown Canada in Claresholm, Alberta, May 6-10 – it was fastest by more than three-tenths.

"That horse is so special," said Cherry, who bought Lenny from Tracy Scott a year ago.

The mare hadn't even seen a single barrel since October, when the duo won the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive Futurity and Super Stakes in Ponoka for a haul of $48,951. That was just after Lenny ran at her first rodeo – the Canadian Finals Rodeo – where she racked up about $20,000. But the stout mare had been injured, and in fact is still healing a slight injury in one front foot. Cherry figured she could use the winter off. The only time she worked her was while actually warming up at Claresholm.

"I just have so much faith in that horse," said Cherry, 27. "She would run three-legged if I asked. Her running that 15.8 doesn't surprise me – she's just such an athlete and loves her job. You put those two things together and that's just what happens."

In their first run in the Royal Crown Derby, Cherry said she just eased Lenny through, since she'd been off so long. Their 16.5 placed fifth in the first round. But then they came back and laid down that smoking 15.8 to win the second round and average of both the Open and Royal Crown Derbies and won the Open and Slot Races. This marked the sixth championship for Cherry at Royal Crown Canada events.

"I didn't put much effort into that first run; just let her be very controlled," said Cherry, who raked in a cool $30,263 including Open monies on Lenny. "Then I asked her for a little more and she gave it to me. That mare just stays running and never gets down or slows down to turn. It's all forward motion the entire run."

Lenny's by Guy's Casanova Cowboy (Frenchman's Guy/Holland Ease/Takin On The Cash), so the win paid sire owners Doug and Debbie Willis an impressive $9,978. On the bottom side, she's out of Lynn's Blue Valentine (double-bred Blue Valentine on top and double-bred Jet Deck on the bottom side).

Remarkably, Cherry actually jump-rode another Derby horse that would have won the average if not for a penalty. Krystal Grad had been running her mare A Famous French Kiss, but had just broken her arm a few days prior and asked if Cherry would get on the 7-year-old daughter of French Streaktovegas. They won the first round of the Derby with a blistering 16.1, then barely caught the first barrel leaving it in Round Two.

"First and second in the Derby would have been cool," lamented Cherry, who still earned $10,686 and third in the Slot Race on the mare.

Not only that, but Cherry also placed seventh in the Derby average on Chyann Cor's 6-year-old mare Frenchman's Extra (by French's Hula Guy out of Raisin Extra by Raisin The Moon). With Open money, that horse brought in $7,323.

What's more, Cherry could easily also have won the average of the Futurity except for one mishap. In her first run on Cor's 5-year-old Unleashed Fame, they clocked a 16.4 for second place. But in Round Two, the young mare stepped off the first barrel halfway to the timer, Cherry said, and still ran a 16.7 for seventh in the average and $8,972 total with Open money.

Cherry walked out of Claresholm with $59,073 on a handful of mares. In fact, she's won so much money on so many horses with different styles that her Canadian clinics are in high demand. She's done five already this year.

"The students ask me about my mental game, since they know I fell at the CFR and then won the round the next night," said Cherry,

BIT: J.D. Morrow one-to-one three-piece twisted-wire with locked shank

HEADGEAR: tie-down and cavesson

SADDLE: custom Usher

SADDLE PAD: Professional's Choice

LEG GEAR: J9 Equine Sports Boots

SHOEING: aluminum on front, steel rims on hind

FEED: Hoffman's Pro Fat and Manna Pro Max-E Glo

HAY: straight alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: 4CYTE, lysine, electrolytes, Hoffman's Horse Mineral, Optiwear and KER's E0-3 fish oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: I have a J9 magnetic blanket, but I'm kind of old-school – I just put her front feet in two buckets of ice when I'm done. I use a cold hose or some liniment post-race. For hauling, maybe Soft Ride boots and Back On Track hock boots.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: She's so aggressive that I work her pretty big to keep her standing up; I lope a lot of squares on her and ride her up into fences.

THANK YOUS: Obviously, my sponsors who grew up riding with reining trainers. "And they ask me how to keep a horse running upright instead of getting down too much in the turn. I teach a lot of body control. At my clinics, we don't even go around barrels much – it's more about loping squares and keeping the wither up and getting a horse broke. My horses are extremely broke – I'm able to place every single foot in every run wherever

I want.”

Cherry, last year’s CPRA Rookie of the Year, will next haul Lenny to the rodeo in Cloverdale, Alberta.

“I’ll go to some stuff on her with better ground and bigger money, but I’m very picky about where I run her,” said Cherry. She’d love to breed Lenny to The Goodbye Lane, and hopes also to breed her to his son, the young barrel-racing stallion R Ace Of Spades.

$24,175 Haul For Shaeley Jenkins & Hez Dashin For Money at Spring Showdown

By Tanya Randall

Shaeley Jenkins and Hez Dashin For Money (“Dash”) profited yet again from a great weekend at the Spring Showdown, held May 8-10 in Perry, Georgia. The team from Palatka, Florida, collected $24,175 of the event’s non-incentive purse of more than $300,000.

“They do such a great job,” Jenkins said of the Big Rewards production crew. “Everything about it is really, really good. The payout is great. They go out of their way their awards and they’re very, very kind.”

Jenkins and Dash finished second in the Finals of the $25,000-added, 807-entry Open Showdown 4D, earning $9,700 after running first and second in the two qualifying races which were held in two different arenas.

Their biggest payout, however, came from winning the average for the new Heavy Weight Shootout, a half-second split, high stakes ($750 fees) 3D race that also paid in the rounds. The 111-entry Heavy Weight paid $11,708.

Jenkins said she tries to keep things simple when running Dash.

“I just really try not to overthink things,” she said. “I want to keep it simple and be smooth. I don’t try to do anything crazy or fancy. I just want to do my part and see where we fall.”

Jenkins got Dash when he was a green broke 4-year-old.

“A close family friend was just telling us about him,” she said. “He told us we needed to go look at him. There wasn’t anything fancy to him. None of his siblings made anything special. But he wasn’t far from the house, and it didn’t cost nothing to go look at him.”

Dash, who is a grandson of the legendary On The Money Red through his registered Paint sire, Hit On The Money, out of Miss Hoss Fly, by A Streak Of Cash, had just a handful of runs as a 7-year-old when he hit the big time.

“We were at a barrel race in Elkton, Florida, and my dad told me if I go in there and make a smooth, great run that he would haul me all the way to Fort Worth to run in the Last Chance Qualifier for the Jr Patriot,” Jenkins recalled. “The horse had never been out of the state of Florida and had only five or six runs. We came out here and won the Last Chance Qualifier in big coliseum out of 180, and he ended up in the Top 15 out of 1400 horses in the Open 1D. He’d never been anywhere!”

Although she’s rodeoed a little—she’s currently in Fort Worth, Texas, competing at the Professional Women’s Rodeo Championship—Jenkins prefers the bigger jackpots.

“I prefer to run at the bigger barrel races,” she said. She’ll run at the May Day Barrel Race in Ocala, Florida and Virginia Barrel Classic in Lexington later this month. “I love rodeos but he’s my only horse and I just can’t do it to him. I’d rather go where they pamper the ground. I feel like he’s too nice to run on old, trashy ground.”

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Are you satisfied with just getting by in life? I was telling Mike the other day, that I didn't want to get to a point where I was just maintaining. Because, really, that is not how it works. You are either getting better or you are slipping backward. And it's a fight!

We talk often about being happy in the decade we are in. We aren't 20 anymore, but we aren't 80 either. I was at the high school rodeo yesterday, watching those teenagers competing and for all practical observations, nothing looked like it hurt. I was sitting with friends and one of them said, "I was legging up my daughter's goat horse, and I decided to swing my leg over and let her scoot. That was dumb. I'm 52 and I won't be doing that again!"

52. 52????!! I sat there for a minute. Thinking. Just a few days before that, Mike and I went down to ride and he watched me climb up on my 16 plus hand horse, like normal, and he said, "That's amazing! Babe you are doing so good!" Then he said, "Why don't you use a stool?!" BECAUSE I'M 72 NOT 82?!!

You absolutely must use it or you will lose it! I Cor. 9:24-27 tells us we must run the race to win it. It works in competition. It works in our walk with the Lord. We can never set the Bible aside, or take time off from going to church. The devil will run in and trip us up when we least expect it.

We practice the Word. We meditate the Word. We live the Word! And when we do, we win in life!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
