Bailee Snow & Dr Jet Rare Ghost Triumph at 33rd Josey Jr World

By Tanya Randall

College freshman Bailee Snow claimed 1D Championship honors at the 33rd Annual Josey Jr World Championship Barrel Race, held May 7-11 in Karnack, Texas. It was just the second attempt at the prestigious title for the 19-year-old from Bentonville, Ark., having competed just once before in 2012.

Snow and her 8-year-old gray gelding Dr Jet Rare Ghost finished just out of the 1D money on their first run. "My horse hadn't been run in two weeks and he didn't really know how to handle the ground there," she explained. Sydni Cain of Jasper, Texas, was the best of the 442 entries in the first round with a 16.059.

In the second round, 2013 Ogden 8 & Under Champion Chayni Chamberlain, Stephenville, Texas, and her mother's former pro horse Dat Flowin Bunny ("Flo Jo"), 12, posted the fastest time of the event thus far, a 15.993. Snow and Ghost finished sixth with a 16.193 to earn a spot in the 120-head Finals on Sunday.

With the Finals being run slowest to fastest, Snow and Ghost were the fourth runners from the end so she didn't have to wait long to see if their 15.936—the fastest of the event—held for the championship.

All totaled, Snow won $3,307 of the $101,240 purse of which $5,000 was added. The victory also allowed Snow to purchase her WPRA card.

"Josey's was a WPRA approved and I actually filled my permit," she explained. "So I'm going to buy my card now and try to make the circuit finals."

Snow is an agricultural business major at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College in Miami, Okla., which she attends on a rodeo scholarship. She is the current Central Plains Region Champion Barrel Racer and will head to the College National Finals Rodeo in June.

She wanted to thank her parents, Hank and Shawna, for all their support. She especially wanted to thank her mother for training Ghost and handing him over to her.

"We bought him as a 3-year-old at the BFA sale in Oklahoma City," explained Snow. Bred by Charlotte Strate, Hendrix, Okla., Ghost is by WPRA World Champion Sire Dr Nick Bar out of Rare Lady Ghost, a granddaughter of Rare Jet. "My mom has mostly rode him since we've had him. I rode him some through my senior year of high school rodeo. We just started taking him amateur rodeos, on and off, two years ago."

With her family raising, training, buying and selling barrel horses, Snow will have a full summer of seasoning horses—Ghost at the pro rodeos in the Prairie Circuit and possibly some colts at the amateurs.

Judge Buy Cash “Jethro” laid to rest, May 1999-May 2014

By Tanya Randall

One of the all-time great barrel horses, Judge Buy Cash, affectionately known as “Jethro,” was laid to rest on May 6. The coal black gelding was a beloved member of the Mays family of Terrebonne, Ore., and made Brenda Mays and Judge Cash household names in the barrel racing industry.

“He was amazing,” said Mays of her six-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier. “He made dreams come true.”

Bred by Deanna Haggard, Hermiston, Ore., Jethro, a 1999 black gelding, was by Judge Cash out of Pollys Vandy Flash, a breakaway and calf horse by Mr Tiffon Flash.

The Mays purchased Jethro as a long yearling.

“He was barely halter broke and kind of an ornery,” recalled Mays, but even as a youngster, she knew he was something special. “When we were breaking him and exhibiting him at some open rodeos as a 3-year-old, you just kind of had a feeling.”

Mays took Jethro to a few futurities as a 4-year-old in 2004.

“That was a tough futurity year,” Mays remembered, noting that Blazin Jetolena and Hat D Doc were also futurity horses that year. “There were three or four from that year that later on made the NFR.”

Mays thought enough of Jethro to enter him in the Challenge of Champions at the 2004 American West Finals in Reno. Unfortunately as the first gunners out the gate, Jethro found the hard pan at the third barrel and fell hurting his stifle and Brenda in the process.

“You can go back through all those memories... and there is a reason for everything,” said Mays. “It made him what he was.”

In 2005, they went back and won the whole darn thing—the prestigious American West Finals 1D Average and the Challenge of Champions as a warm up to their first Columbia River Circuit Finals Rodeo appearance.

The following year, they made their first bid for the NFR.

“I went in ’06 and almost made the (NFR), and that was the first year we got to haul him,” said Mays. “I didn’t know how he would take the hauling and how he would stack up. After that year I knew. You can have that gut feeling but you never really know until you get them out there.”

Mays and Jethro made six straight NFR appearances from 2007 to 2012 and won well over $500,000 together. Jethro was named the 2010 AQHA/WPRA Horse of The Year and carried Mays to the 2012 Wrangler NFR Championship.

“He almost made the Finals in ’06 and ’13, and six years between he did,” Mays said. “That’s really something special for eight years, as hard as he was hauled, and making the NFR six out of the eight years he ran. Until the last couple of years, he was the only thing I had, the only one I ran.”

Jethro was also lethal in the Columbia River Circuit. They won the year-end championship from 2008 to 2010.

“He never lost an average at our circuit finals any year he ran besides 2005,” she recalled. “From 2006 to 2010, he never lost an average there.”

As Jethro aged, Mays became more appreciative of his grit and heart, especially after battling injuries for much of 2013.

“Even when he was hurt, he would still try,” she noted. “When he came out of the arena at San Antonio last year, he was limping. We split winning the round. I went back and watched the video. You could see him pull that shoulder muscle on the second barrel; he made this funny move. He gritted it out and still won the round. “Those are the memories that are sticking with me. He gave you everything he had. He was just so tough.”

Rodeo’s iron horse suffered a suspensory injury in the last round at the Justin Boots Playoffs in Puyallup, Ore., in 2013. In the process of treating the injury and other minor arthritic issues, complications arose.

“He had no cartilage left in his ankle joints,” Mays said. “We’ve been fighting to keep him sound as a pasture pet from the end of September, first of October. We knew this was the scenario. He toughed it out, but he got to where I couldn’t stand to watch him try to walk across the arena. We tried everything. We don’t know what went wrong. We have no idea. It’s one of those freak deals. I tell people you should appreciate every single run you get because you never know when it’s going to be your last.”

Although Mays still has Judge My Fame (“Dora”), a Dash Ta Fame mare that her parents Frank and Lynne raised out of a Judge Cash mare, she said her son Kyle Easterly, a junior in high school, has garnered most of her attention.

“This year I’m going to the high school rodeos with my son, and I’m enjoying that,” she said. “I’ve only been to three rodeos this year. I’m sticking close to home. I got into Calgary so I’ll go a little bit, but my main focus is what my son’s doing.

“You just have to keep moving forward and God opens another door. You just have to trust His plan is the best.”

I am currently hauling futurity colts, derby horses, and competing in rodeos every weekend. Oxy Fluidity has become an essential part of my feeding program. I give 20 cc every week and 10 cc before I run on all my horses. It is very nice not to have to worry about your horses getting sore from injections because Oxy Fluidity is an oral paste. It is fast acting and provides so much relief for my horses when I know they are a little sore after a weekend of competing. I have seen such great results with this product I even take it myself!

PUT SPEED AND GOOD LOOKS IN YOUR NEXT BARREL HORSE

JL SIROCCO

2010 AQHA Champion Canada Hi-Point Three-Year-Old Colt

Sirocco is a AAA race winning stallion by Dash Ta Fame, out of a winning barrel racing Band Of Azure mare. Fee $1500 (includes first cooled semen shipment). Nominated to VGBRA and 5-State Breeders, and others as foals come of age.

PRAISE FOR JL SIROCCO

I have two coming 2 year olds by Sirocco that are beautiful! I bred to Sirocco after riding his full sister and seeing a picture of Sirocco himself. I asked around and was told he was even better in person. Jill has an amazing eye for a horse and knows her pedigrees, so I knew I couldn't go wrong. In my business, I train futurity colts and sell them after their futurity year, my goal is not only to have a winning season on a very talented colt but to also look good doing it, Sirocco is helping me be all that! I believe that JL Sirocco is going to be the whole package, looks, speed, ability and awesome conformation, what more could a barrel racer ask for!

I'm awaiting another colt to be born this year and plan to breed two more mares to him.

Schuster is Queen of Quebec

By Julie Mankin

There was nothing prissy about Prissy French Girl on May 9-11 at the MFA Futurity in Blainville, Quebec.

The 4-year-old filly scampered to the championship after blowing the lights out in the second round by a whopping six-tenths of a second under Tiany (pronounced Te-AWNeY) Schuster.

The brutal winter had given way to 60 degrees in Quebec just in time for the first futurity of the summer season. Prissy French Girl is owned by Raymond and Gina Flowers of Arkansas, and is by Frenchmans' Guy out of Shawne's Bug Jet by Shawne Jet. She earned $2,985 in the futurity, plus another $446 for placing fourth in the Grand Prix.

Schuster, who spends winters in the States, also won the Grand Prix on Hoosier Fame for $893 and placed in the Open and Maturity aboard 5-year-old Sweet Lena Jet to bring her weekend total to a cool $4,919.

"I trained Prissy French Girl early in her 3-year-old year and then sent her to someone else to ride for the summer, because I don't really have a place to train up here in the summer," Schuster said. "My plan was to go rodeoing and have Troy Crumrine jockey the 4-year-olds."

But one horse broke a leg and the other didn't have a lot of success. Eventually, Prissy French Girl found herself back with Schuster.

"She was a little behind, but never did do anything wrong," Schuster said. "Every trip down the alley, she got a little better. Even now, she just keeps getting a little stronger and better and it was the same at Blainville. I entered her that Friday night in the Grand Prix, which is just a straight-up good old-fashioned race with no divisions. And the next morning I entered her in the 4D mostly as just an exhibition run and she placed second."

In the futurity, Prissy French Girl made a mistake in the first round and still placed second.

"If that little mare ever makes a mistake, she gets a little stiff at second and will slice it," Schuster said. "That's what happened in the first go at the futurity. But I thought, 'She won't do it twice.' Sure enough, in the second go she ran a 14.7 which was the third-fastest of the entire show. The arena record is a 14.6, so that's pretty impressive for a 4-year-old."

Schuster said you may think Quebec isn't the hotbed of competitive times, but that's not the case.

"That arena has had really great horses run there over the years," she said. "Horses like Bahama Bully, Red Headed Jonesy and others, so don't think the horses in Quebec aren't tough."

Speed Lena Jet is a horse Schuster trained that she picked up on the way to Canada a few weeks ago and hadn't been on since December. And Hoosier Fame is running tough as ever, but she doesn't intend to rodeo this year, unless you count some local IPRA shows.

"These futurities are so lucrative in Quebec that I think it's like a hidden secret in the futurity world," she said. "And Quebec people just love it; it's what they love to do. This is how they have fun – it comes from their heart. It's not all about making money for them. They sure as hell want to make money, but they really just want to train a winner and go out and have fun. I can't describe it; you'd have to come up and see it – the ground's always good and the people try so hard and everyone has the best positive attitude. It's just crazy."

In fact, Schuster is going to skip Fort Smith just to stay in Quebec for a slot race next week that pays the winner $6,000, and another the following week. As for Flowers, he's proud as punch. "I called Raymond and said, 'Your horse just won the futurity and I think you might have won a saddle.' And he got really quiet and said, 'Are you lying to me?'" Schuster recounted. "Anyway, this is their first good horse and I'm so happy for them. Raymond owns a plumbing business and they're just the nicest people you'd ever want to meet."

Schuster has a 2-year-old getting broke at home that is another Flowers horse, so she's hoping the same recipe might work out twice. In the meantime, she may need to keep the lipstick handy.

"I was back at the trailer unsaddling and the show staff called me to come take pictures," she said. "I told him they'd have to wait; it's been so long since I took a real win picture I have to find my lipstick. I have no idea where it is."

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I've heard quite a few people complain how hard it is for them to get on a tall horse for various reasons.

Still, others seem to have problems coming down OFF THEIR HIGH HORSES! The Bible warns us about that because the definition of "high horse" is to be proud, arrogant and act superior to others. Scripture tells us not to think more highly of ourselves (Romans 12:3) than we ought to.

Everything we have comes from God and we couldn't exist one day without His guiding hand on our planet. So what do we have to brag about except for Jesus and what He's done in our lives? All of our gifts, talents and opportunities come from God. Without Him we can do nothing (John 15:5).

Jesus died in our place for the forgiveness of our sins so we can have eternal life when we die and so we can have an abundant life while we're here on this earth now. It's nothing we've done and we couldn't earn this great gift. Nor could we buy it.

All we have to do is believe that Jesus is the Son of God, raised from the dead and profess it. Romans 10:9 says, "...if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. " Read it for yourself and see how easy it is to be a member of God's family. Don't wait. Do it now. God is waiting to hear from you.

Don't be one of those people who are miserable and unhappy as they ride around on their "high horse." James 4:10 tells us to "Humble ourselves in the sight of the Lord and He will lift us up." THAT'S GOOD NEWS!
