Cashen Turner & VF Rock Grinder Triumph at 32nd Annual Josey Jr World

by Tanya Randall

Cashen Turner, an 11-year-old fifth grader from Plains, Kansas, pulled off the first dual Josey Jr World Championship at the 32nd annual event held May 10-12 at R.E. and Martha Josey's Ranch in Karnack, Texas.

It was the first time in the race's history since moving to the 4D format which allows multiple horse entries that a contestant won first and second. Prior to the divisional format, the Jr World was a straight-run race where contestants were allowed only one entry.

Cashen, the daughter of Dusty and Amy Turner, won the 1D Championship aboard VF Rock Grinder ("Rocker"), an 8-year-old gelding owned by her grandmother Bonnie Baughman, and took the 1D Reserve Championship aboard VH Royal Red ("Hotrod"), her mother's 13-year-old gelding.

Rocker's victorious 15.765 was the fastest time of the event, and Hotrod was second with a 15.971.

Amy said seeing Cashen win on family horses was a great Mother's Day gift for her and her mother.

"It was special day for all three of us to be there," she said, "doing what we love as a family on horses we made. It just means a lot."

Cashen qualified both Hotrod and Rocker in the first round of competition. For the Finals, the two horses drew up very close together.

"I was 97 on Rocker and then 107 on Hotrod," said Cashen, who aspires to be a fashion designer one day. "Whenever I ran Rocker I was really happy, and I was crying I was so happy. Then I went to get on Hotrod and they're totally different, so it was kind of hard to go from Rocker back to Hotrod."

After her win Cashen got to visit with Martha Josey, who along with Charmayne James is one of her idols.

"It was fun to talk to her," said Cashen, a straight 'A' student. "I wasn't nervous talking to her because she seemed just like a regular person."

Cashen wanted to thank her grandparents, her parents and brother for all their support. She also wanted to thank the Joseys for having such a wonderful event.

This was the third Jr World for Cashen, who along with her brother enjoys the traditional water balloon fights. Last year, she finished eighth in the 1D with Hotrod. It was Rocker's first trip as a replacement mount for Cashen's other horse that was sore.

"When we started making plans, I thought 'Gosh, if we're going to make a 10-hour trip we ought to take another horse to try to place on to make it more worthwhile,'" said Amy. "So I asked Mom what she thought about Cashen taking Rocker down and trying to run him at Josey's and of course, she thought it was wonderful."

Baughman, 72, had purchased Rocker, a Sticks An Stones out of Natural Lady Bullion, by Bully Bullion, from Victory Farms as a 4-year-old. Darla Taylor trained the gelding and was just starting to enter with him when Baughman bought him.

"She just went to the futurities and derbies and the big 4Ds trying to finish him out and make him solid," said Amy, who noted Rocker and Baughman qualified for the AQHA World Show last year. "He was a nervous-type horse and was a little hit and miss. He's 8 now and is finally getting solid. She's done very well with him."

The initial concern was if Rocker would be too powerful for Cashen, but as Amy noted children ride with no fear.

"Rocker is powerful. He's got that centrifugal force going on," noted Amy. "Hotrod is long-strided and you could ride him two-handed around every barrel if you wanted. Rocker definitely has some force behind him, but like I said, the whole kid thing with no fear. She just jumped right on him."

A strong performance at the Jackson Hall Memorial Barrel Race in Ardmore, Okla., the first of April proved that Cashen wasn't going to have a problem with Rocker.

"She won the Thursday night jackpot by like 3/10ths," said Amy. "We were all shocked and thought maybe this is going to work. The next day she ended up third in the 1D and was towards the bottom of the 1D on the final day; she kind of overworked him on his first

Mildred Farris Passes Away

ProRodeo Hall of Fame member Mildred Farris passed away May 13, 2013, at her home in Addington, Okla., at the age of 79 after a battle with pancreatic cancer.

Farris, who was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2006 alongside her husband, John, won the Texas Barrel Racers Association championship from 1955-57. In 1958, she joined the Girls Rodeo Association (GRA), which later became the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA). She served as a director, vice president and president from 1965-71. Farris qualified for the National Finals Rodeo 12 times, and was a runner-up to the champion three times, posting the fastest time of 16.6 seconds in 1968. She was selected "WPRA Woman of the Year" in 1996.

Farris served as secretary of the Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo 17 times, and also as rodeo secretary for the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo for 30 years. She was a five-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo secretary, a five-time Wrangler NFR assistant secretary and a 15-time Wrangler NFR timer.

She served as secretary of the Women's National Finals Rodeo seven times and was named PRCA Secretary of the Year nine times, and twice by the Women's Professional Rodeo Association. Farris also served on the PRCA Contract Personnel Executive Council from 1988-2002, and was inducted into the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame in Ft. Worth, Texas, in October 2012.

For 17 years, Farris carried the American flag at the opening of the National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City. She was elected to the Sul Ross Rodeo Hall of Fame in 1994. In 2010, she and John were inducted into the Rodeo Historical Society Hall of Fame at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City.

Farris, the daughter of W.B. and Blanche Cotton, was born Aug. 8, 1933, in Andrews, Texas. She obtained a degree in Physical Education from Sul Ross State College in Alpine, Texas, in 1955, where she also participated on the Sul Ross State Rodeo Team. On May 31, 1955, Mildred married fellow rodeo contestant John Farris, and the two eventually made their home on the Farris family's ranch outside of Addington, Okla.

In lieu of flowers, a donation may be made to the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in Colorado Springs, Colo.; the Rodeo Historical Society Hall of Fame at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City; and the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame in Ft. Worth, Texas.

A funeral service for Farris is scheduled for 2 p.m. Wednesday, May 15, at the First Baptist Church of Waurika, Okla., with Dr. Stacy Conner and Mike Mathis officiating. Burial will follow at Waurika Cemetery under the direction of Dudley Funeral Home.

South Dakota has lost one of its most notable mares that turned barrel racers heads for over 20 years due to chronic arthritic pain. Fancys Dream, the 1987 mare by Ramblin Red Fowler was laid to rest on May 3, 2013 in the "Pasture that Fancy Built" out by the arena on the Richardson Ranch. The plain sorrel mare that caught your eye, has a success story that most cannot compare and the list of achievements and awards goes on and on. She touched the lives of so many but most of all, she opened the doors to success and opportunity to her long-time owner Cindy Richardson and her family of Sturgis, SD. If you had the chance to watch the hard running "lefty" mare run, you would remember her for a lifetime. Usually naughty at the gate, then springing like a race horse, she would run as hard as she possibly could to the first barrel then drop and if you were not holding on, you were going to hit the dirt.

In 1988, Fancy was introduced to the race track with 3 outs which gained her a Speed Index of 86. Cindy purchased Fancy in the spring of 1990 as a 3 year old from the horse trading group. As the "Bozo" story goes, Fancy was bought for $750 through the sale barn and won thousands throughout her long barrel racing career. Fancy participated in only 3 futurities and winning money at 2 of them, running against the likes of Frenchmans Guy himself. Fancy shortly proved herself a much happier & hard running rodeo horse rather than the usual jackpot horse. The louder the crowd & music, the harder she ran. With much success during the 1990s in the SDRA, NRCA & NPRA, the duo also won the WPRA Permit Finals in 1996.

With a limited 1999 rodeo season & climbing on "cold turkey", Kerbi (Thiel) Bowden climbed aboard Fancy & made the history books by earning a NLBRA World Championship along with many other titles and awards.

Cindy handed over the reins to her daughter, Amanda, in late 1999, Fancy continued her success in arena with several maxed out qualifications to the NLBRA finals, SD 4-H finals, numerous youth rodeo awards and setting arena records. The duo qualified for the SDRA & NRCA Finals in 2001 & 2002 while having great summer.

In 2002, the decision was made to let Fancy go to the semi-retired broodmare pen. She returned to rodeo competition at the youthful age of 17 in 2004 and also started her college rodeo career. After college, Fancy returned home to South Dakota & continued her winning ways as a great mother to her daughters, as the first trip to the water tank was always at a high trot with her newborn baby.

Whether it was roping calves, heeling steers, pole bending, goat tying, team penning, trail riding, fall gathering, or steer undercoating, Fancy showed her tremendous heart and never ending try while giving 110% every time she did something.

The legacy of this little mare will continue through her daughters as it has already been shown. God gifted this family with so much more than just a horse. Fancy opened a door that will never be closed and touched the lives of so many people & those who got to be around her, will never forget her.

Thank you Fancys Dream for everything you did and will continue to do for us. It was a great ride and your legacy will live on forever! Promise!!

barrel, but that was the first weekend she had run him.”

At the BBR Finals, Baughman reclaimed her horse and Cashen placed 19th in the 1D Finals with Hotrod. Their last prep-race before Josey’s was the Spin 3 Productions in Colorado Springs. “We went to Colorado Springs the weekend before because we thought we needed to get a few more runs,” said Amy. “Hotrod was going a little deep on his first and we just wanted to get some things lined up, switched bits. She won it on Hotrod both days and won the youth average on him. She was fifth on Rocker on Sunday, but didn’t place on Saturday. She still placed in the 1D average with him.”

Cashen’s reserve champion has a special place in the hearts of the Turner family. Hotrod, by Royal Hotrodder out of Ladies Miss Red, by Mr Baron Red, came as a 3-year-old from family friends Scott and Melissa Vanderham.

“We tried to make him a futurity horse,” said Amy. “He did okay, but nothing great. Then my husband took him for a year and roped on him and took him to some US(TRC) ropings. He did that for about a year and then said take him back to the barrel pattern and see if he likes it. Before he just wasn’t craving it; he was just going through the motions. After roping for a year, he instantly went to winning. He figured out it was easier to run for 16 seconds than rope all those steers. We were hoping that’s what it taught him—that’s life is much easier if I go out and turn three barrels.”

Laid back and little on the lazy side, Hotrod made the perfect family horse. In 2010, he carried Cashen to the Ogden 8 & Under World Championship, and in 2011, he won Amy her WPRA card by winning the Permit Holder’s Race at the WPRA World Finals.

After the victory, she said she probably wouldn’t use her newly won card much because she’d be too busy hauling her children. Flash forward two years and she no longer lays claim to the horse she won it on—Hotrod’s all Cashen’s now.

“For about the last year, year-and-a-half, Cashen has taken him over,” she said. “He’s just been a really special horse to us. He’s been a total blessing in our lives. We’ve had him around for lots of years. He’s sound. He’s won a lot for me and now for her.”

Now Cashen has her sights set on her own WPRA title in the Junior Division. However, their year got off to a slow start with her brother Ransen playing basketball and Hotrod being a little under the weather.

“He kind of got sick on us last year and got a break this winter,” said Amy of Hotrod. “His red blood cell count was real low and he’d just got rundown. We gave him some time off and when he came back this spring we could tell he was a whole different horse. He was feeling so much better. We had switched him to ADM Power Glo and started him on Platinum Performance CJ. He just really turned around and he’s running stronger now than he did two years ago when I won the WPRA Permit Race on him.”

The Turners will try to split their time between Ransen’s summer basketball and Cashen’s barrel races and Little Britches rodeos.

“She loves the Little Britches stuff as much as she loves the barrel races,” said Amy. Cashen is the defending Little Britches Jr Girls Pole Bending Champ. “It’s hard to do both. We’re trying to fit it all in.”

French-Canadian Teenager Wins First Futurity

By Julie Mankin

Seventeen-year-old Jonathan Bussieres (pronounced Bu-share with a heavy French accent), says most Americans can't begin to say his name correctly. That may soon change, however.

On 4-year-old Blackhearted Master, he won the first round and clocked an even faster time for third in the second round to win the $5,000-added Blainville Futurity, May 14-16 in Quebec. It was the first futurity he has ever entered.

"The second run was faster than the first, but the first was more beautiful than the second," said the French speaker in halting English. "I was really excited to win my first futurity here. I don't believe it."

Bussieres' family doesn't have horses or ride. He simply saw barrel racing as a kid and decided he wanted to do it. He started when he was about 7 years old on a pony his parents found for him.

"A really, really good trainer named Alain Arseneault, also from Quebec, has helped me a lot," said Bussieres. "I used to just have an Open horse, but when my main horse got hurt, I decided to buy a 3-year-old from Tiany Schuster. I wasn't sure what would happen when I bought him, but then he proved to me he was able to be a champion."

Blackhearted Master, or "B.M." as Bussieres calls him, was started by Schuster.

"Tiany helped me a lot with this colt," said Bussieres. "She's really nice. He already knew the pattern and I rode him as if he was a green horse."

The colt is out of a mare named Itty Bitty Honor – on the top side a daughter of Mr. Honor Bound by Jet Of Honor and on the bottom, a great-granddaughter of both Easy Jet and Lady Bugs Moon.

"He's a really little horse, but he has such a big heart," said Bussieres. "His turns are really round and snappy, and he runs really fast for a little horse that I have never seen before."

And B.M. is, of course, by Schuster's late, great Perks Master – that magic cross of Dash For Cash/Easy Jet blended onto Lady Bugs Moon, Jet Deck and Master Hand.

"This weekend in Blainville, three babies from Perks Master were in the winners' circle," said Bussieres. "Shannyka Sylvestre won the Sweepstakes on one, and Dave Tardif won the second round of the futurity on one."

Sylvestre's $2,252 winner, 9-year-old Mr. Perks Honor ("Perky"), is out of a mare by Jet Of Honor and out of a half-thoroughbred granddaughter of Lady Bugs Moon. And Tardif's great colt, 4-year-old Perks Moon Dance, is out of Dance The Dance – a mare by Bully Bullion out of a Top Moons Gay daughter.

Schuster, who was in Blainville and earned $1,888 in the Open races on Notable Bully, bought Perks Master in 2000 from breeder Marvin Barnes sight unseen, with the understanding he wasn't sound. She did surgery on him and nursed him through various other injuries, all while trying to sell him. But the sales always fell through, and she made him both a winner and a legendary sire. Sadly, his last colts are on the ground, with few young enough to futurity, because colic killed him in 2008.

The biggest winner of the weekend was Nicole Kurty, who raked in $4,030 on three horses in the futurity, derby and open races. As for Bussieres, he earned almost $3,000 as well as a horse blanket and saddle, which he says is going on display in his bedroom. With the windfall, he ordered a $4,000 vibration plate for his horse.

"It's expensive, but worth it," he said. "Already, people are asking me when I receive it for a session."

In the meantime, Bussieres goes to work every day for his father at the family's Harley Davidson dealership, and one day he may attend the Harley Davidson training school in Pennsylvania. Also, in two weeks he'll again run B.M. at a futurity slot race in Quebec.

"I want to continue with futurity but I would like to become a professional barrel racer, too," he said. "I don't know yet. Maybe."

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Deb and Jeff Copenhaver were Pro-rodeo's first father and son World Champions. Though the world knows them as champions in the rodeo arena, fewer people know them as champions in God's arena of life.

The Copenhavers love, trust and faith in the Lord is so evident by the lives they lead and the witness they make. Years back, Jeff had a Scripture put on a silver plate that he put on the cantle on the back of his saddle. It was Isaiah 1:19, "If you be willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land."

Jesus said we aren't to be ashamed or timid about our faith. He said in Matthew 10:32, "Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven."

Can the world see you are a Christian by the way you live and speak? If Jesus dropped in unexpectedly at your house, could you welcome Him in happily or would you have to hide some books and things you'd be ashamed to have Him see?

The years pass swiftly and the pleasures of the world are fleeting but the peace and confidence you can have by being a member of God's family is a lasting contentment. Remember God said in Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the thoughts that I think toward you... thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope."

It also tells us in Psalm 37:4 to make the Lord our joy and He will give us our heart's desire. We can live like champions in this life!

Mike & Sherry Morrison are ordained ministers and pastors of "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, Wyoming. They also travel widely, ministering by invitation, at ranches, futurities, churches, community halls and rodeos.
