Sugar Rush — Taylor Cherry & Blazin Sugar Daddy Top Royal Crown Canada

By Tanya Randall

Canadian barrel horse trainer Taylor Cherry captured her second straight Royal Crown Canada Futurity title. She won last year's event with her own mare Poverty Ta Fame, and this year's event, held May 6-12 in Claresholm, Alberta, Cherry rode Blazin Sugar Daddy ("Preacher") to a $54,100 championship in the $250,000-added Futurity.

"He's honest and he loves it," said Cherry, who rode Preacher for Kyle And Ashley Klassen. "I just had that mentality before I ran him that he was going to do it."

Cherry, who splits her time between Canada and her place in Arizona, helped the Klassen's pick out Preacher as a 2-year-old. They purchased the son of leading sire Blazin Jetolena, out of LS Shameless In Paris, by Frenchmans Falcon, from his breeders Alan and Pamela Doughty.

Preacher had 30 days under saddle when he came to Cherry almost two years ago. She spent some time polishing his basics before starting the pattern.

"He's very smart, so it wasn't a long process," she said. "I had him started on the barrel pattern that winter coming 4 and then I exhibited him all last year."

Cherry started Preacher's barrel racing career at the jackpots after November 15. He made his futurity debut in Arizona.

"He ran good (at the early futurities). He's been pretty solid 17s (on a standard) since he cracked out, but he needed to be a low 17

THE RUNDOWN w/ Taylor Cherry

Blazin Sugar Daddy ("Preacher") 15.1-.2 hands, 1,100 lb.

BIT: "I go back and forth between the Kerry Kelley Ticket and Ticket Combo. I ran him in the Ticket at Ruby Buckle. Here, I put him in the Kathy James with a two-piece twist. Since he was kind of getting up the pen, I felt like I needed a little extra here."

SADDLE: Usher Brand — SADDLE PAD: Professional's Choice wool felt

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy on all four

SHOEING: Rims on all four. "It depends on the building. At Claresholm, I think you need rims because the ground's a little bit funny. Once I get outside I'll probably put plains on behind. It all depends on where I'm running."

FEED: Purina Ultium and rolled oats — HAY: Alfalfa and alfalfa pellets

SUPPLEMENTS: Redmond Daily Gold, Red Cell starting mid-week of a run, electrolytes, lysine

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: "He actually hates all of that stuff. He definitely loves massage."

CONDITIONING/TRAINING: "It all depends. He does step by the first occasionally so sometimes I have to walk and trot and really magnetize him to the first barrel. Most of the time I just keep him in shape. I try to lope a fair bit to keep his air up. I don't work barrels a ton. If I do, it's one barrel in the middle of the arena."

to place and he wasn't there yet. He came on from there. He was very conservative. He was very correct in a run, but he just hadn't found his speed yet. By the time Royal Crown Buckeye came along, he ran a 17.6 his first run and a 17.1 his second and placed in the average. After that, he got really confident and found the run."

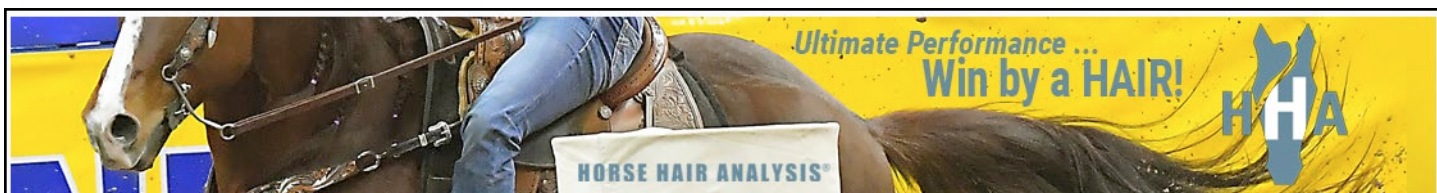

Leading up to the Royal Crown, Preacher placed 15th at the Ruby Buckle Central Futurity and sixth at the Yellow Rose Futurity, the weekend prior to the Royal Crown in Claresholm.

"My goal at the Yellow Rose was to just build him up in that pen, just build confidence," Cherry said. "I didn't ask for much. I just let him roll through there a couple of times. He ran a 16.5 and a 16.3. I was super happy with that. I didn't want to blast him that weekend. I just wanted him to be super confident on the ground and build him up for Royal Crown because there's just so much money to be won."

At the Royal Crown, they opened with a round winning 16.045 and followed with a fourth place 16.393 in the second to win the aggregate. They also won $5,675 with open carryovers from those two runs.

"He kind of wants to go up the pen on the first barrel," she explained. "On the first barrel in my first run, he did go up the pen but it worked out for us. I stayed two handed around the first and it was snappy fast. My second run, I rated him running in the pen and I shouldn't have. I should have just let him roll in there and rated him at the barrel, but I pulled on a couple of times running to the first. It kind of changed the angle, so he stepped off the first toward the timers, probably two strides, so I had to ride him all the way up the pen to get back over for the second. With the angle I entered second, he kind of stepped off it as well. It just threw off my lines. I told Kyle and Ashley when I came out that I rode too conservative. I should have let him roll. He kept moving through his run, but my lines weren't solid like they were my first run."

Preacher is getting a little break from the arena, while he attends his breeding duties. Cherry hopes to have him back for the bigger events later this summer.

2 in a Row for Manning & Little Sexcee Cowboy

For the second weekend in a row Taylor Manning had a dominating performance in Claresholm, AB at Royal Crown Canada. Manning and her mounts earned $39,264 at the Royal Crown Canada. Also for the second week in a row Little Sexcee Cowboy won the Derby (last week he won the Yellow Rose Derby)! Little Sexcee Cowboy won 2nd in both rounds of the Derby on the way to the Average championship of the Royal Crown Canada Derby. With his open money added in he grabbed a $31,782 paycheck on the weekend. We caught up again with Manning to ask her a little more about her big win!

BRR: Can you walk us through your two runs on Little Sexcee Cowboy this weekend at the Royal Crown Canada?

Manning: Archie worked great in both runs. I knew if I could do my job and help him that he would try super hard for me. My goal going into the weekend was to make sure I got my first barrel and to keep the barrels standing.

BRR: You won the Yellow Rose Derby last weekend and then came back to win the Royal Crown Canada Derby this weekend both on Little Sexcee Cowboy. What was the key to keeping him so consistent these past two weekends?

Manning: Archie seems to love the pen in Claresholm. He won the Royal Crown last year in the derby. He can really see the first and I feel like that pen, I can set him up for the first there. It helps the ground is great too!

BRR: Both last weekend and this weekend you had multiple horses winning big. What are a few keys to having all your horses running so well at the same time?

Manning: Making sure each horse is happy and feeling good. I think having a good connection/ bonding with your horse gives them the confidence to do their job!! Also we try and do a lot of slow work with them.

BRR: How do you go about connecting with so many different horses that you run and win on?

Manning: Growing up, having a connection with my horses has been very important to me. I love my job and the horses!! I think having a good connection with a horse helps give them confidence and make them feel happy.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare yourself and your horses for a big run?

Manning: I do a lot of slow work on my horses, which helps both of us. I think it helps me by feeling confident that I've done my homework and that I can trust my horse to go and make a run. With the slow work in between derbies, I was allowed to work on things I felt that needed work on from my past runs.

BRR: What are 3 things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Manning: I cant travel without my dog "Lady" and Red Bull.

Shaeley Jenkins & Hez Dashin For Money Pocket $19,342 at Spring Showdown

By Tanya Randall

Shaeley Jenkins of Palatka, Florida, and her 9-year-old solid Paint gelding Hez Dashin For Money ("Dash") left the Spring Showdown, held May 9-12 in Perry, Georgia, with nearly $20,000.

They turned in the fastest run of the event, a 14.081, to win the Finals of the $25,000-added, 719-entry Open and $9,534 between the two qualifying rounds and adult sidepot carryovers. Jenkins and Dash also pocketed $6,525 for second in the Heavy Weight Slot Race within the first qualifying round. They also collected $3,282 for first and third in the Xtreme Mini Million sidepot held in conjunction with the event.

"He ran consistently all weekend," said 20-year-old Jenkins. "I was hoping when we ran in the Finals we would have a good run. He's a blessing for sure."

Jenkins and Dash were extremely consistent running nearly identical times in the qualifying rounds, which were held in different arenas. They were 14.352 in the Perdue Arena and 14.356 in Sutherland.

"It's different arenas, but the pattern is set the same and the arenas even look similar," she explained.

Jenkins said that Dash knows when the stakes are higher. He was a few ticks faster in the Perdue than the Sutherland arena because of the Heavy Weight Slot Race. He was even more in tune for the Finals.

"His attitude was just different when we came back in the finals. It's like he just knows. I don't even know how to explain it. He just feeds off of it. He loves high pressure situations."

Bred by Tami Rawlins, Dash is by Hit On The Money, an APHA registered son of legendary barrel horse sire On The Money Red. His dam is the Quarter horse mare Miss Hoss Fly, by the Streakin Six, Dash For Cash stallion A Streak Of Cash.

Jenkins got the gelding as a 4-year-old. He'd had 30 days as a 2-year-old but had been turned out for two years.

"Dash is basically a backyard barrel horse," Jenkins chuckled. "When we got him, no one here really liked him. He would turn and try to kick you. He intimidated a lot of us. We really had nothing to do with him."

Although she did start the gelding on the pattern, Jenkins didn't start hauling Dash until he was 6 during her senior year of high school.

"I had another horse that I was running that I wasn't getting along with—just constantly hitting barrels—so we decided I needed to start hauling Dash," she explained.

With a handful of local races under his belt, Jenkins hauled Dash to Fort Worth, Texas, for The Patriot. He won the last chance Jr Patriot qualifier and finished in the Top 15 out of 400 horses in the jackpot.

"That was his first time ever being hauled off," she said. "He got thrown to the wolves there, but he just picked up. It was kind of his thing. He came along really nicely."

Jenkins, who just finished esthetician school, got hooked on horses as a preteen while following her father to team ropings. It

RC Back In Black Offspring Cross $1 Million Mark

Recently, NFR round winner Rc Back in Black offspring crossed the $1 Million mark to make her the 16th dam to produce over $1 Million in offspring earnings in barrel racing according to QData.

Her top 2 offspring; Slick N Black ($273,434) & Back By Design ($161,309); are both by $7 Million Sire & NFR round winner Slick By Design. Through researching this we thought it would be fun to highlight the 16 dams that have produced over a $1 Million in barrel race earnings.

The #1 Barrel Racing Dam, Royal Sissy Irish is of course the dam of Dm Sissy Hayday (Sister) the 4 Time World Champion mount of Hailey Kinsel and the All Time Leading Barrel Horse Earner. In the #2 position, Mistys Dash Of Fame, a blue hen producer of many greats but her biggest winner is the $1 Million barrel mare & NFR Average Winner (with Ivy Saebens) Kn Fabs Gift Of Fame (JLo). In #3, Lady Kaweah Cash, the dam of fan favorite An Oakie With Cash (Louie). Louie of course was ridden by all time leading WPRM Money earner Lisa Lockhart. Another mare that was just recently added to the $1 Million dam list is SKS Running Faucet. She is the dam of the recent The American winner Mj Segers Fast Lane (with Brandon Cullins). Rounding out the Top 5 producers in barrel racing is Curiosity Corners who is the dam of 2012 World Champion (with Mary Walker), Perculatin (Latte).

The numbers change with these dams week to week as QData updates with their offspring earnings so if you want to keep up with them go to www.QStallions.com and look for the QData Leaderboards on the left side. Once you click on that you can look at the Leading Sires, Dams and tons of other fun information.

Here is a current list of Million Dollar Dams via the Top 50 Barrel Racing Dams For All Time List on QStallion.com (pulled on 5/14/24)

Surf's Up for Bayleigh Choate & TJR Stinson Blue at Rodeo Corpus Christi

By Tanya Randall

After qualifying for the 2022 National Finals Rodeo and winning the coveted Rookie of the Year title in the WPRA, Bayleigh Choate took a step back from rodeo the following season. Now, she and her 7-year-old roan gelding TJR Stinson Blue ("Boozer") have made a triumphant return to the arena with a $29,500 WCRA Rodeo Corpus Christi Championship.

"It's good to be back!" said the barrel racer from Cleveland, Tennessee. "This was my first ever WCRA event. I was looking for an association where I could win a lot of money without having to drive the wheels off my truck. I really struggled to figure out how the WCRA worked, but now I've got my foot in the door.

"It's a good fit for what I'm trying to do. I don't want to travel the world and be gone 120 days anymore, but I do want to give my horse a shot to be on that stage. He deserves that. He loves that. I want to be able to give him the opportunity to be on that stage and be able to run him for a lot of money."

Choate, now 20, was 16 when she purchased Boozer, by leading sire Eddie Stinson out of the Pat Cowan mare YO Threatnin Frost, from his breeders Cody and Luann Johnson's Twisted J Ranch in Stephenville, Texas. As a gelding, Boozer was on the back burner of their program since they like to focus on mares. He had 60 days of riding and their resident trainer Whitney Godinez had taken him through the barrels a couple of times.

"I started training him and hauling him to get him solid," Choate said. "He was my first futurity horse when he was 4. He was the (BBR) Futurity Horse of the Year. Then, when he was 5, he took me to the NFR.

"He was so rock solid from the start. I know that every barrel racer thinks their horse is special, but he never lets me down. I don't ever get to brag on him enough. He's just an amazing athlete." Corpus Christi was his first major rodeo in over a year.

"It was like he'd never left," she said.

Choate's path to Corpus Christi started at the IPRA Rodeo in McDonald, Tennessee, just minutes from her home.

"I was like, 'Oh, it's a WCRA Corpus Christi qualifier,' but I didn't know how it worked," she admitted. "I started talking to the barrel racing director for the WCRA in our area and she told me that I had to enter the qualifier—it was a $500 fee—and win the qualifier to go to the Wildcard (in Corpus Christi). You basically had to win your way, all the way to the progressive rounds. I like to do stuff the hard way apparently."

The Wildcard Round featured four qualifiers from last chance events plus spots No. 9 through 12 on the WCRA Leaderboard. Contestants got a spot on the leaderboard by nominating the various events they regularly attended. The top four from the Wildcard advanced to a two-run Progressive Round with the top eight contestants from the WCRA Leaderboard. Winners from each Progressive Round automatically qualified for the Triple Crown Round (Final). The remaining five contestants for the Triple Crown Round were determined by a two-run aggregate.

Choate's uphill climb continued in Corpus.

The consequences of getting from the staging area to the arena through the carnival took a little starch out of Boozer in their Wildcard bid. He did, however, run hard enough to claim the last qualification spot—fourth—to the Progressive Rounds with a 14.621.

"He was wiggling out over the fair," Choate explained.

Then, on their first Progressive run, the latigo buckle came undone, causing Choate's saddle to slip to the side during her run.

"I turned the second barrel and lifted my leg, so I stepped to the outside," she explained. "I felt my saddle slip and I thought, 'No way! I'm just in my head!' but it kept going. At the third barrel, I stepped

TJR Stinson Blue "Boozer" 16 hands, 1,200-1,300 lbs

BIT: Reinsman Half Wonder

HEADGEAR: Covered cable tiedown for balance in the turns

SADDLE: Josh Andrews — SADDLE PAD: Josh Andrews

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on front; black Professional's Choice on back

SHOEING: Aluminum rims with rim pads on front; slick/plain behind

FEED: Purina Race Ready — HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Red Cell, Lubrisyn, Equinety, Eclipse PM, a pre- and probiotic, and electrolytes

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Magnetic therapy, poultice, salt water spa, BEMER, Equine ProScope, IV treatments "Anything I can do, I do!"

CONDITIONING/TRAINING: "Long trotting in the field. If it's raining, I'll lope circles in the arena."

out again and I thought, 'Oh my gosh! I'm about to fall off in front of all these people!' I didn't reach for my over-and-under or anything. I just reached up and laid out over his neck, over the top of him. I thought, 'If this saddle goes, I'm just going to stay in the middle and get through the timer, and then I'll worry about the saddle!' As long as I'm on his back when he crosses the timer, it counts!"

Their second round victory automatically advanced them to the Triple Crown Round. They also won the aggregate.

"When it came down to the Finals (Triple Crown Round) I knew it was going to take a good run to win it," she said.

Stephanie Fryar and her good horse Some Streakin French were running for a million dollar bonus if they were able to win their third consecutive Triple Crown Round that night as well.

Choate continued, "I was just going to go for it. I'm going to send him, and we're going to go all out and leave it out there, and let the cards fall where they fall. I was first out so I had the mentality of they were going to have to chase me. You lay down a run and put the pressure on everyone else."

None of the remaining six barrel racers were able to catch her 14.358, the fastest run of the event. Last year's champion, Sissy Winn took second with her newest rodeo winner Dash Ta Flit and first Progressive Round winner Makenzie Mayes on Chicado Moon took third. Fryer and Frank were fourth, just .144 from winning the million bonus.

By virtue of her win, Choate will compete at Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, this Friday. She and fellow Corpus round winner Makenzie Mayes, along with the top two finishers from each event in Corpus, will be on the Free Riders Team, coached by the WCRA's Bobby Mote.

Unfortunately, Choate missed out on adding more WCRA qualifying points to her name because she didn't nominate Rodeo Corpus Christi.

"I want to go to more WCRA's...if I can figure out how to enter them!" laughed Choate. "I've just got to get better about entering and nominating!"

Free Riders Roster Announced Ahead of Inaugural Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo This Friday at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas

With less than a week remaining before the inaugural Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo this Friday, May 17, at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, the 16-athlete roster for the Free Riders was today announced.

Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo is a reimagined rodeo produced by PBR in partnership with Kid Rock. Six teams, each led by a legendary rodeo head coach, will compete head-to-head in bracket-style competition for a $1 million purse. Within the new $1-million team-formatted rodeo, Kid Rock will perform live in concert.

The Free Riders, under the leadership of four-time PRCA (Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association) world champion bareback rider Bobby Mote, was the lone team formed independent of the Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo Draft held this past March. The Free Riders were fielded based on the WCRA's (World Champion Rodeo Alliance) Major rodeo in Corpus Christi, Texas, Rodeo Corpus Christi, which concluded on May 11. The Top 2 athletes in each discipline not already drafted to one of the other five teams earned a chance to ride for the Free Riders.

The talent-packed 16-athlete roster holds three World Championships, four National Finals Rodeo (NFR) aggregate wins, and 35 NFR qualifications, and has amassed more than $8.7 million in career earnings.

The Free Riders roster is as follows: Bareback Riding: Nick Pelke and RC Landingham Barrel Racing: Bayleigh Choate and Makenzie Mayes; Breakaway Roping: Kiely Walz and Marybeth Beam; Saddle Bronc Riding: Cash Wilson and Cole Elshere; Steer Wrestling: Cody Doescher and Levi Rudd; Team Roping: Luke Brown/Jade Corkill and Jake Smith/Douglas Rich; Tie Down Roping: Jarvis Demery and Quade Hiatt

For Fort Worth's own Choate, the 20-year-old delivered a lightning fast 14.358-second run in the barrel racing to punch her ticket to the team-formatted rodeo inside the home of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys. In the saddle bronc riding inside American Bank Center Arena, Wilson dominated, delivering an 87.5-point ride to beat out the second-place finisher by four points. Brown and Corkill lit up the scoreboard in the team roping, logging a 6.00-second run to win with ease, running a full 4.17 seconds faster than the runner-up. Demery rounded out the winning contingent at Rodeo Corpus Christi, logging a 7.52-second run to claim victory by a margin of 4.482 seconds.

Other headline riders on the Free Riders roster include RC Landingham, the first and only victor of the $1 million Triple Crown of Rodeo bonus, earned in 2022. In winning the bonus, he became just the fourth athlete in Western sports history to become an overnight millionaire. Prior to Rodeo Corpus Christi, where he finished third, Landingham had been sidelined by injury.

The Free Riders will also boast an accomplished team roping duo in Brown and Corkill. Brown is a three-time NFR aggregate winner and 12-time qualifier as a header to the year-end event, while Corkill is a three-time World Champion heeler, one-time NFR aggregate winner and 13-time qualifier.

The experienced pair, along with winning Rodeo Corpus Christi together, also roped together at the 2008 National Finals Rodeo, placing in seven of the 10 rounds.

In addition to the Free Riders team, two substitutes were announced for the other five competing teams.

On the Convoy, Dean Thompson (Altamont, Utah) replaces Tim O'Connell (Zwingle, Iowa) in the bareback riding, while on the Jokers, Joey Williams (Volborg, Montana) will substitute Jordi Edens (Gatesville, Texas) in the breakaway roping.

Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo will begin on Friday, May 17 at 7:45 p.m. CT inside AT&T Stadium. When the dust settles on the historic event, the famed venue will then host the PBR World Finals: Unleash The Beast - Championship on Saturday, May 18 at 7:45 p.m. CT and Sunday, May 19 at 1:45 p.m. CT, when the 2024 PBR World Champion will be crowned, earning the accompanying $1 million bonus and coveted gold buckle.

Fryar's Triple Crown of Journey ends while New WCRA Champions Emerge in Corpus Christi

The WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) closed out the final Triple Crown of Rodeo Event Saturday evening at the 2024 Rodeo Corpus Christi at the American Bank Center. The event marked barrel racer Stephanie Fryar's (Waco, Texas) third stop en route to winning the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo.

Fryar emerged victorious in the fiercely competitive 2024 Triple Crown of Rodeo series, winning two WCRA TCR events and needing to win Rodeo Corpus Christi to claim the $1 million bonus. The annual TCR bonus, presented by Lazy E Ranch and Arena, awards $1 million to any athlete or group of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos. The most recent event for the Triple Crown of Rodeo was held in January 2024 in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Fryar, a 43-year-old barrel racer, entered the event with two consecutive wins under her belt to put her in contention to be the second victor of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo. In the TCR round, she faced off against 20-year-old Bayleigh Choate (Cleveland, Tennessee) and hometown cowgirl Sissy Winn (Corpus Christi, Texas). fourth to run, Fryar needed to earn a faster run than Choate's 14.358-second run. She entered the round with the fourth in the average from the progressive rounds. Stephanie and "Frank" shot into the arena for what could be a career-defining moment. The duo attempted to beat Choate's but fell short, earning a 14.503-second time, good for fourth place, eliminating her from the Triple Crown of Rodeo and the $1 million cash bonus.

The bareback riding event was nothing short of thrilling as it marked the beginning of the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round, leaving fans at The American Bank Center on the edge of their seats. Mason Clements (Spanish Fork, Utah), RC Landingham (Hat Creek, California), and Nick Pelke (Mondovi, Wisconsin) rode supreme in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round courtesy of their 84+ point rides. The three quickly became immersed in a shootout for the $15,000 Major payday in the round. Tying for the round, Landingham and Pelke became runners-up after they both delivered a critical 84-point ride, as Clements earned his second Rodeo Corpus Championship (2023) after a clutch 86.5-point ride.

The team roping title was won by the duo of header Luke Brown (Lipan, Texas) and heeler Jake Corkill (Stephenville, Texas), notching a 6.00-second run. The duo distanced themselves from the second-place team by more than four seconds. Jake Smith (Broken Bow, Oklahoma) and Douglas Rich (Weatherford, Texas) logged their runner-up position with a 10.17-second effort.

Tyler Pearson (Atoka, Oklahoma) proved to be unbeatable in steer wrestling. He recorded a phenomenal 4.1-second run in the progressive round and then went on to deliver a lightning-fast 3.83-second effort in the Triple Crown of Rodeo round. This is Pearson's second WCRA victory, with his first win in 2019 at the Windy City Roundup.

The saddle bronc riding was a slugfest as Chase Brooks (Anaconda, Montana), Cash Wilson (Wall, South Dakota), and Cole Elshere (Wall, South Dakota) battled for the first-place spot. Brooks was the first contestant to go, and he set a high bar by defeating Cowboy Town with a score of 83 points. Elshere recorded a score of 83.5 in the same round. Wilson was the last to compete, and he managed to edge Elshere's score with a score of 87.5, defeating his opponent's hopes of cashing in the $15,000 payday.

Keslie Domer (Dublin, Texas) delivered the only qualified time in breakaway roping with a stealth 2.15-second time. Domer ran a 2.00-second time in progressive round. Domer collected the ground money, and her first-place win and $23,500 in weekly earnings. This is Domer's second WCRA Title (2020 Royal City Roundup).

Jarvis Demery (Beggs, Oklahoma) won the tie-down title at courtesy of his 7.52-second run in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round. Demery topped Quade Hiatt's (Canyon, Texas) 11.79 and Trevor Hale's 14.53-second time. Clayton Sellers (Stephenville, Texas) was the only bull rider to cover, scoring an 86.5 atop Ringo.

Fans can tune into the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round of the Rodeo Corpus Christi on a CBS network broadcast June 2 at 11:30 CST.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Every quarter, we have a women's luncheon at the Barn. It's a great way to get to know the women in our church. We try to do a fun activity as well. This time, we did rock painting.

Who knew it would be so hard???? Well, for me, anyway! But Mary Lou and Megan did all the work. They picked rocks, washed rocks, bought paint, spray sealer and brushes, and Mary Lou had her husband make dowels of all sizes. It would not have happened without them. Thank you, Lord!

But the interesting thing I learned this time was perspective. I decided I was doing chickens. According to instructions, you paint the main part first. So, I drew an outline of the chicken body and painted them white. One of the women came around looking at what everyone else was doing. She came to my table and said, "Oh, I love your angels!" I said, "They are chickens!" She said, "I still love your angels!"

That is exactly why I could never be an artist. Mainly because I can't draw anything!

But my feelings could be easily hurt! SHE couldn't see they were chickens. (Neither could I! LOL). The rocks were all different and beautiful.

In the body of Christ, we are all a part. We have gifts that are different and we are to use them. Please read Romans 12:4-8. If I'm seeing the lost and someone else sees giving, and someone else sees we need a new building, etc., when we work together, we get a lot done! Go to church and use your gift! Please!!!
