Kylar Terlip & Guys Voodoo Bug Defend Josey Jr World Championship

By Tanya Randall

Kylar Terlip and Guys Voodoo Bug ("Jock") earned their second straight Josey Jr World Championship after posting a 15.905 to win Sunday's Finals at the 36th annual event, held May 12-14 at R.E. and Martha Josey's iconic ranch in Karnack, Texas. It was the third title for the, Frontenac, Kansas, barrel racer, who picked up $5,757 on the weekend.

"It was a pretty nice 17th Birthday present," said Terlip, who celebrated on Sunday. "It hasn't really set in. I didn't think I would win it back-to-back. I knew my horse could do it, but ..."

Terlip did have the peace of mind knowing that she was already leading Sunday's Finals on Guys Cashn In ("Cash"), a 6-year-old stallion owned by Tom and Linda Kay, with a 15.984, the fastest time of the event up to that point.

"After I ran the .9 on the stud, I definitely felt a lot better. I thought at least I'm already leading it and whatever happens, happens."

Terlip, who first won the Jr World in 2012 when she tied with Stevie Watson, ran seven horses at the Jr World and all of them were in the late draw. She qualified back on four—Jock and Cash as well as Rock On Ta Fame, also owned by the Kays, and Wood She Be A Lena, owned by her mom Karin Neilsen.

"Friday, all day was awful," she said. "I ran the stud first and I barely hit a barrel to run a 16.3. I'd never done really good on him. He'd either run really hard and have sloppy barrels or have really pretty barrels and not run really hard. He got hurt right before The Patriot in February and we had to scratch him there and at Diamonds & Dirt. My first run back on him as at the BBR Finals. Since that break, he's just felt like a new horse."

Unfortunately, the missed opportunity haunted her remaining runs.

"I really let that run get to me," she admitted. "Normally, I don't let pressure and stuff like that get to me, but it was just one of those things where he'd never done that good with me and ... ugh...I just wasted that run. Jock ran a .2 and I hit a barrel. Friday was just bad all around."

On Saturday morning, Terlip ran all her horses early because the draw was reversed. Jock was her second horse to run, and she finished third in the round with a 16.153.

"I think that really helped me because I could really focus on him," she said. "I knew what I needed to do and he ran a .1 and that really helped me confidence. I felt a whole lot better about the day. I definitely rode better on Saturday."

Cash also made a clean run, posting a 16.645, which finished seventh in the 2D.

Although she said she's not really into coincidences, Terlip noted that she'd been in the same position before and come back to win the championship.

"All three years that I've won it, I've hit a barrel in the first round," she noted. "The first year I was fourth in the second round, and this year and last year, I was third in the second round. So, I was like forget Friday, we can do this. That was my mindset going into Sunday."

Terlip got started off in the right frame of mind with both of her 3D qualifiers improving their runs.

"They ran a 16.7 and a 16.8, so they improved," she said. "I felt like they worked good, so I already had a good day. The stud, I knew he could run an .0 or a 1, because of the run he made on Friday. It wasn't a perfect. His first barrel isn't really tricky, but sometimes I want to check when I don't need to so it kills his mo-

Lance Graves Futurity Moves to Oklahoma

The Lance Graves International Futurity Slot Race and Barrel Races has moved to Oklahoma! The races are scheduled on February 14-17, 2018 at the historic Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Graves, who created and implemented the unique two go rounds with a finals and a consolation slot race, is excited to report that he will be offering $30,000 in added money to the once "jackpot" only event. This is the very first time ever for added money to be offered in an Open (non breeders) futurity slot race! The winning owner will be awarded a custom oil painting by Angela Festervan!

"We will also be offering a $20,000 added BFA Futurity, $10,000 added Future Fortunes bonuses, as well as added money derby, and open races. Another new feature for this year, a $5,000 added youth championship race. Plans are underway to make this a Junior NFR qualifier and look for University Scholarships to be awarded as prizes!" said Lance Graves.

LG has joined forces with World Barrel Racing League (No Bull) and we will be offering two open races that will serve as qualifiers for their world finals. We are excited as well about the support from the PBRIP for 2018.

"I really appreciate the extreme outpouring of support from the barrel racing community with the changes and also the Oklahoma Quarter Horse Racing industry," commented Lance Graves. "A special thank you to Micah McKinney, the owner of the Lazy E, for his welcoming of the event and positive input." Exciting plans are in the works for the LG Sale and LG Sale Futurity also.

Also a big thanks to Sponsors: Famous Bugs (barrel futurity champion and champion sire) Equi-Resp and Cowboy Classic Saddlery. The list continues to grow at press time. Our scheduling is perfect for contestants to attend the No Bull Finals in Perry, Georgia, then the LG races in Guthrie, Oklahoma and a short 3 hour drive straight down I-35 to Ft Worth Texas to the American Semi Finals. February is made for barrel racers. More information coming soon.

The secretaries for the event will include Terry Leach, Cindy Arnold and Beth Kidd. Kenneth Springer will once again serve as event photographer and 3-2-1 Action Video will serve as videographer. A big thanks to Lynn McKenzie, who will once again be delivering our Lords message on Sunday morning. For more information contact Terry Leach at terrydeleach@yahoo.com or the Graves Ranch at lgbarrelhorses@gmail.com. Courtesy Graves Ranch

Nothin' But Try Steer Wrestling raises money for scholarships

When Sean Mulligan's friend and fellow steer wrestler Levi Wis-

ness passed away, he and other friends wanted to do something to honor his memory.

They started the Nothin' But Try Steer Wrestling Jackpot in Mulligan's hometown of Coleman, Oklahoma at the U-Cross arena. This year's event was May 13th. It paid $14,000 to contestants and raised $4,000 for the Levi Wisness Nothin' But Try scholarship.

The scholarship has been given as part of the Nothin' But Try scholarship program since 2009. Awards go to college students who has faced adversity in their lives but refused to give up just like Wisness did in his life. Three other scholarships are given annually.

The program started with college champion Shane Drury's fight with cancer in 2006. Drury passed away just four months after presenting the first award. In 2009, scholarships were added to honor Wisness, who was a college champion and student director in the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association, longtime college rodeo coach Betty Gayle Cooper-Ratliff and College National Finals Rodeo qualifier Lee Akin who was injured in a bull riding accident and has spent many years recovering and rebuilding his life.

Mulligan not only produces the event, he was one of nine Wrangler National Finals Rodeo steer wrestlers that participated in the jackpot. Saddle bronc rider Wade Sundell showed the steer wrestlers that he can do more than just ride a bucking horse when he also competed.

The winner of the event was Chase Crane from Boynton, Oklahoma. Crane grew up riding horses but is the first member of his family to compete in rodeo. He has been coming to the jackpot since it started and left this year knowing that he had beaten some of the world's best.

"It's an honor to be here with these guys," Crane said. "It's always good to take home a win. This jackpot has been a lot of fun and I look forward to it every year."

Crane's win on Saturday gave him the confidence to know that his rodeo goals this year are within reach. He will be competing at PRCA events in the Prairie Circuit hoping to qualify for the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in 2018.

Other winners at this year's event include Oklahomans Cole Edge of Durant, Blake Mindemann of Blanchard and Riley Duvall of Checotah and Chris Berry from Valley View, Texas. Sponsors at this year's event include: Cinch Jeans and Shirts; Cosequin; Zesterra; Dufur Quarter Horses; The Corner Market in Coleman; Groveton Insurance Agency; Sundell Performance Horses; Clay and Marka Mitchell; The Sport Zone and Flying C Rodeo Company.

For more information or to donate to the Nothin' But Try Scholarships, contact Susan Kanode (817) 307-6336 or susan@cowgirlimaging.com.

mentum. To clock good, I was going to have to let him run. When I saw the time, I screamed. I'm normally not like that, but it just wasn't expected. I was really happy for the horse. I was happy for Tom and Linda, because they were there and got to see it."

Cash was trained and campaigned by Marne Loosenort through the 2016 Old Fort Days Derby before the Frenchmans Guy, Dash For Perks stallion went home with the Kays, who later asked Terlip if she wanted to ride him. Right before Joseys, the Kays sold a half-interest in Cash to the Terlip family.

When it came time to run Jock—her hard-turning, equine partner since purchasing the gelding about 18 months ago from his trainer Monica McClung—Terlip knew she could go broke.

"On Jock, I could let it all hang out," she said. "When I saw the time, I got really excited, but I was also nervous for the next two—Rio Flaharty and Elle Sullivan, they had won the first and second round."

Jock, who is by all-time leading living barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy out of Bill and Deb Myers' Marthas Six Moons mare, Voodoo Martha, earned $3,363 for his two 1D runs.

Terlip wanted to thank her sponsors, her parents, her two grandmothers who were in attendance, her stepmother who was at home with her siblings, the Kays and numerous others for all their support.

"I just want to thank everyone who is behind me—that's a lot of people, and I can't name them all," she said.

Darcee Shepherd & Two Rubles Sweep Southwest Desert Classic Open & Breeders Futurities

By Tanya Randall

Darcee Shepherd of Levan, Utah, and her 5-year-old mare Two Rubles ("Dee") made the move from the crying hole to the winner's circle at the Southwest Desert Classic, held May 11-14 in Salina, Utah. They swept both the open and breeders futurities for total earnings of $4,400.

"I have been one hole out of placing in the average at every futurity until this weekend," laughed Shepherd, a sixth-grade teacher. "If they paid six, I was seventh. If they paid 15, I was 16th. She finally got some money won!

"She's been so solid and worked so honest all spring long. I could never get mad or fault her; it was just a tough pen of horses. There's just so many of them that can jump up and win on any weekend."

Their first run of 15.973 was out of the money in the open futurity, but placed fourth in the breeders. It also won the 2D in Saturday's open with a carryover. On Sunday, they won both the open and breeders second round with a 15.641, which also placed eighth in the 1D of the open. Her total weekend earnings were $5,372.

Shepherd, who has only had four or five futurity horses over the past 11 years, said it was a special feeling on Sunday to stand up with trainers like Sue Smith and Vauna Walker, whom she'd long admired, to receive her awards.

"It was cool to be standing here with people that I've looked up to for so long. I admire them," she said.

Shepherd didn't start riding horses until she was 8 and came up through 4H shows and high school and college rodeos. She met her husband, Casey, through rodeo and the couple has an 8-year-old son Cajun.

The making of Dee was a bit of a family effort. Shepherd's husband had found the mare for sale on the local horse classified website. Her brother-in-law and farrier, Kylie Shepherd, had put 60 days on the mare when she came off the track. Shepherd ended up buying the mare as a 3-year-old in November 2015.

Bred by Jay Pitcher of Smithfield, Utah, Dee is by stakes winner Twoforthedough out of the Society Road mare A Society Lass. Twoforthedough is a son of First Down Dash out of Hemps Folly, by Hempen (TB), and is a full brother to 1996 AQHA Racing World Champion Dashing Folly. Both Twoforthedough and Dashing Folly were bred by Bob Burt, the owner and breeder of Dash Ta Fame.

"I have a soft spot for Hempen horses," noted Shepherd, who bred two mares to the stallion in hopes of getting fillies—she got colts. "They've won me a lot over the years. So, I really loved that part of him. I seriously think he's a hidden gem. I just love him. Everybody I know that has one has nothing bad to say about them. I've had three now and they just have the nicest minds."

Shepherd said that Dee has been all business when it comes to running barrels. She even made a 10-hour trip to Las Vegas the Friday before the futurity to act as a buddy horse to Shepherd's rodeo horse Head Rush.

"I was a little worried that the 10 hours she spent on the trailer on Friday would be a little much and make her tired," she said. "She's such a business-minded mare. She knows what to do. I ride her like an open horse. I'm able to put my hand up on her neck and spank her like an open horse. She's a lot of fun."

Shepherd, a WPRA rookie cardholder, will spend most of her summer focus on the Wilderness Circuit Rodeos instead futurities. "I'll go to the Dash For Dollars Futurity in June in Ogden," she said. "I'll pick back up with the Parker-Wood and some of those that are close to home in the fall. I'll have her in the trailer with me all summer and I'll probably pick and choose some with good ground to run her at. She won't sit at home all summer." Shepherd wanted to thank the producers of the Southwest Desert Classic for hosting the event.

"They put on a great fun race," said Shepherd. "They care about the contestants and the ground. They're a great group of people that put it on. I'm grateful for them."

She also wanted to thank her family, including her brother-in-law, and her veterinarian for all their help and support.

"It takes a village," she said. "I couldn't do it without any of them."

JULY 10-12, 2017

RODEO BIBLE CAMP

ATTITUDE OF A CHAMPION

AT COPPER SPRING RANCH

Thanks to the grace of God I have been able to live and accomplish a dream that God has put in my heart a long time ago! I would love to share with you the faith and love of our Savior and some of the knowledge that He has blessed me with through the years.

JANA BEAN
3-TIME NFR QUALIFIER

You are invited to the 6th Annual Copper Spring Ranch Rodeo Bible Camp—Attitude of a Champion—July 10–12 in beautiful Bozeman, Montana. This is a rare opportunity for today's and tomorrow's competitors to work with nationally recognized past and present rodeo champions.

Instructors include: in team roping TREY JOHNSON 2000 PRCA Rookie of the Year Heeler, 8-time NFR qualifier CHARLY CRAWFORD in heading, 14-time WPRA World Champion JACKIE HOBBS-CRAWFORD in breakaway, 5-time NFR qualifier RUSTY SEWALT in tie down roping, World Champion DEAN GORSUCH in steer wrestling, 3-time NFR qualifier JANA BEAN and standout futurity horse trainer LESLIE WILLIS in barrel racing and LANA TIBBETTS CNFR Goat-Tying National Champion.

The camp features instruction in tie down and breakaway roping, barrel racing, steer wrestling, team roping, and goat-tying that includes ground work and live cattle. Designed for cowboys and cowgirls of all ages, the camp provides a wholesome environment for this Western family-style sport. However, prizes will only be awarded to those 18 and under.

CSR rodeo bible camp has an exciting mix of rodeo-oriented training by highly regarded clinicians plus it offers a chance for hours of fellowship with positive-minded mentors. Curriculum includes motivational teaching and positive practice instructions that give participants the tools to win inside and outside the arena.

The cost is $300 with food and lodging included, additional family members are $150. Campers may sign up for another event at no additional cost. Scholarships are available, please send a letter requesting assistance. All information and enrollment forms may be found at CopperSpringRanch.com or by calling 406-585-7008.

We look forward to seeing you at the 2017 Copper Spring Ranch Rodeo Bible Camp—Attitude of a Champion.

Great opportunity to tune up for the National High School Rodeo Finals in Gillette Wyoming, July 16–22

Headin' For Home

"Classic" by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are countless number of "how to be successful" tips, books and articles today on just about every topic under the sun from how to lose 10 pounds in a week to how to be a millionaire and retire by age 50.

But, the best "how to" book, covering every need you might have, is the Holy Bible. The Word of God in the Bible is powerful and effective (Hebrews 4:12). It says in Psalm 119:105 that God's Word shines light on our path and shows us the best way to go in life and it accomplishes what it is sent forth to do (Jeremiah 1:12). Pray God's Word over your family and loved ones, naming them and claiming the blessings of God over their lives. Prayers, prayed in faith produce good results so keep it up and you'll see blessings come.

An agricultural paper, some time ago, printed a formula on how to be successful. It listed the worldly things such as "whatever you start, finish" and "whatever you do, do with excellence." What impressed me most was that it also said, "whatever you pray, believe it" and "whenever you want more, give more." So even the secular world knows the value of Godly principals.

In Matthew 22, Jesus said the great commandment is, "You shall love the Lord your God with all our heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment and the second is like it; 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'"

Take time to talk to God every day and read some in your Bible. Read some books by good Christian authors and spend time with other believers and you'll "find your way prosperous and you'll have good success."

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
