Cherry On Top – Taylor Cherry & Poverty Ta Fame Claim $32K at Royal Crown Canada

By Tanya Randall

After Poverty Ta Fame (“Letty”) stepped up in the second round of the Yellow Rose Futurity, Taylor Cherry had a hunch. The Grande Prairie, Alberta, based trainer had a feeling that the 5-year-old mare would do well in the $150,000-added Royal Crown Canada Futurity, held May 10-14 in Claresholm, Alberta.

The only thing she needed to do was be able to enter. Cherry sent a text to Sierra Stukel, who owned Letty’s sire Guys Keepin The Fame—“You’ve got to buy your stud in. I have a feeling about this.”

“I helped her buy in and the rest is history, I guess,” Cherry laughed. “Honestly, I just had a feeling in my gut that she needed to run at Royal Crown. Sierra must have felt my need to run there and we made it happen.”

Cherry and Letty claimed $31,651 on the weekend with $4,182 of that total going to Stukel on behalf of her stallion and $1,791 going to Letty’s breeder Monica Wilson, who owned her dam Povertys Essie, by Speedy Kirk. The futurity victory put $24,900 in Cherry’s pocket as the mare’s owner.

Jody Neudorf had sent Letty to Cherry to start as a 2-year-old, but the mare’s behavior during the breaking process was a little entertaining.

“I told Jody, ‘I don’t think you’re going to like this mare. She’s not going to fit your program.’ I bought her from Jody and kept going with her. I rode her for three or four months as a 2-year-old and then kicked her out for a little while. I brought her back in as a 3-year-old, rode her a little bit and kicked her back out again,” recalled Cherry.

Although she had hoped Letty would be ready to run as a 4-year-old, Cherry held the mare until her fifth year. Then a splint delayed her competitive debut from November until March.

“I had her ready for the Greg Olson and the MVP (futures) down in Arizona,” Cherry explained. “Then she had to have surgery on her leg. Until two-and-a-half months ago, she was still recovering from surgery. It was just a splint, so it wasn’t anything serious. It was just time consuming. The splint was rubbing on a tendon so we took it out and now we’re good to go.”

When Cherry was finally able to enter Letty, she let the mare pick her pace. The mare turned in consistent 18.0s on the WPRA Standard Pattern in Buckeye, Arizona.

“I was just sitting up there,” Cherry noted. “I wasn’t asking for anything. I was trying to let her build her own confidence. She was super looky. She didn’t want to go fast right off the bat, but I just kept letting her build and build.”

She said the key to making Letty was not making a big deal out of Letty’s insecurities.

“If I didn’t make a big deal out of it, she didn’t make a big deal out of it,” she said. “Now, she’s got the most confident attitude. I just ignored that little bit of insecurity and she just came around.”

At the Yellow Rose Futurity in Claresholm, the weekend prior to Royal Crown, Cherry felt Letty “come around” after a little mischief in the first round.

“My first run in that building she actually tried to buck me off,” she chuckled. “She wasn’t dirty about it. I guess she hit some funny

Poverty Ta Fame (“Letty”) 15.1 hands, 1,200 lb. “She’s very, very stout.”

BIT: J&C All-Around Leverage

SADDLE: Usher Brand

SADDLE PAD: Professional’s Choice felt

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy

SHOEING: Wedges on front, rims on rear when in Canada, plain behind in the States

FEED: Soaked alfalfa cubes

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Lysine, Vitamin E

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Hansbo rugs and boots

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “I don’t do a pile of barrel work. Most of the time I’ll set one barrel out and work small circles a lot, getting her reaching her hind end up underneath herself. Mostly, I just keep her in shape. We’ve got lots of fields and acres to ride in so I’ll long lope her and keep her air up. Sometimes before an event, I’ll sharpen her up on the barrels, but she feels pretty solid for being a baby.”

THANKS: Thank everyone that had a part in her winning weekend, especially Stukel and her sponsor Usher Brand.

Meet Taylor Cherry

Taylor Cherry grew up in Quesnel, British Columbia, and followed her father, a roper, into the arena.

"I've been riding since I could walk. Even before I could walk, my dad was throwing me up on his rope horses," she recalled.

Cherry started training horses at an early age, mostly turning her dad's rope horses into barrel horses.

"I trained barrel horses without even knowing what I was doing," she chuckled. "My dad always told me I had a gift. I had no idea what I was doing back then and I was able to win on anything he had in his pasture. That's where I got my start."

She later expanded her equine horizons by riding with established barrel horse trainers and trainers from other disciplines.

"I rode for some reiners and some cutters," she said. "I bounced around trying to find out where I wanted to be in a discipline. I did it all and enjoyed it all. I rope. I like riding reiners and like riding cutters. I just always had a thing for the barrel horses. It came naturally for me I guess. I still do the same thing. I train barrel horses and learn from absolutely everybody. I'm a firm believer that you can learn something from everyone."

ground around the second barrel and she gave me two little humps. I thought, 'Oh that's kind of weird.' I ran her the next day and she ran a 16.5 and I thought, 'Oh, she might get the feel of this building.'"

In the Royal Crown, Letty was fourth in the first round with a 16.750 and won the second round with a 16.427.

"My first run, my nerves may have got to me, got to us," Cherry admitted. "I knew it was a big deal and she hadn't been in that type of environment yet. It was a big deal for her. She was a little tight, not super free running, just a little bit nervous, but she went in there and clocked well. My second run, she went in there all business. She won it by a tenth and felt outstanding."

Cherry said she doesn't have any lucrative aged events on the immediate horizon for Letty. Most of their big breeders events will come again toward fall.

"I might take her to a few of the CPRA rodeos and see how she does," she said. "They're all outside rodeos, so she'll probably like that. Other than that, I'll just keep her fresh and strong and ready for Breeders Elite."

Hometown Heroics – Sissy Winn & JL I Am Reddy Capture WCRA's Rodeo Corpus Christi

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sissy Winn topped her hometown rodeo with a $16,600 victory at the World Champion Rodeo Alliance's Rodeo Corpus Christi, held May 10-13 in the Texas Gulf Coast city.

"It was Christmas for me early," laughed Winn, who lives just 20 minutes from the American Bank Center in Corpus Christi, where the rodeo was held. "It was so special. I did mutton busting there when I was little. I was the rodeo princess before I was the rodeo queen and helped with the sponsor flags and the mutton busting. It came full circle. I've always wanted to run there, and I have in the past, but to win the hometown rodeo was icing on the cake."

The rodeo was also Winn's richest victory on her 6-year-old gelding JL I Am Reddy ("Teddy").

"I'm so proud of Ted," she said. "He's got such a cool story. I've only made 10 runs on him this year. I've had him since he was a 4-year-old but he had a hoof injury that sidelined him all last year. It took a whole year to get that hoof better. I finally got him back this year and he's proven himself."

Winn heard about Ted from a friend, who suggested that she look at the gelding that was being campaigned by leading futurity rider Mark Bugni.

"I didn't know Mark, but knew he was a great trainer," said Winn. "He rides so upright and so perfect. Ted won a lot as a futurity horse, but he didn't have a lot of wins; he was a nice consistent placer. I like that in a futurity horse. I want a horse that's going to go out there and be top five or top 10. I like a horse that's going to come on strong as they get a little older with experience. I liked how consistent he was. His barrels were always tight. Mark made him look easy. Once I got on him, he wasn't as easy—he has his quirks—but I knew I could do it with Mark's help."

After purchasing Ted at the end of his 4-year-old year, Winn only had a handful of runs on the gelding before he was injured in February 2022. She started legging him back into shape in January but didn't run him much as she concentrated on the lucrative winter rodeos with AR Dash To Flame ("Scoop").

Ted was two rodeos into the seasoning process when he got his first pro rodeo win at Huntsville, Texas, in early April. Winn then sent the gelding back to Bugni for a tune up and the BBR World Finals while she took Scoop to the California rodeos.

"Mark was really instrumental this week and he always has been in Ted's career," Winn said. "He tuned him up. Mark said, 'Oh man, it's been a year! I forgot how nice he was!' I'm so glad he did so well on him (at the BBR Finals)."

Winn's Wednesday night performance run was her first run back on the gelding. They won their performance, but their run, a 14.5, was a tad on the wild side.

"My favorite is someone said, 'I think Sissy's trying to tune up her horse.' No, what I was really trying to do was go to the stands and tell my family and friends 'Hi' at the second barrel!" she chuckled.

"He went in there like a baby and I didn't help him at all. I was thinking that I was on a seasoned horse! A lot of girls were driving up into their pockets. All the barrels are right on the fence. It's two jumps between the first and second. It's smaller than the NFR. It's the smallest pen that I will run in all year. It's a hockey rink. Ted did exactly what I told him to. I told my dad, I told him to go to the wall, and he did!"

Winn had a few days to regroup before the Triple Crown (Championship) Round on Saturday night.

"I talked to Mark after the run and he said, 'Well, it wasn't that bad, but I wonder what he'll clock if you sit down and help him.' I said, I hope a 13.9!" laughed Winn.

JL I Am Reddy ("Ted")

BIT: Short shank Ed Wright Lifter with a three-piece mouthpiece made by JD Morrow "Saturday was my first run ever in that bit. It's definitely the one I need to use because it fits my hands the best."

SADDLE: Martin Guardian

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Shod by Bob Hodges

FEED: ADM Patriot

HAY: Cubeit

SUPPLEMENTS: Simply Equine Herbs, Oxy-Gen products, Kahm pellets, Succeed

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT, ActiVet Pro laser, PEMF Complete therapy, Theraplate

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "I ride him quite often because he has so much energy. I ride him 5-6 days a week. Every workout is different. Sometimes I just go walk out in the pasture and let him see the deer and the bunnies and be scared by that."

SPONSORS: Charlie 1 Horse Hats, Simply Equine, Oxy-Gen, HorseSwim.com, Tanner Equine, Panhandle Slim/Rock N Roll Denim, Kahm, ADM, Succeed.

Winn said she did several things to prepare for her second run. The first thing she did was switch to a short shank lifter (Ed Wright) from J.D. Morrow. Her run Saturday night was the first run she ever made in it.

"I needed a little more gag," she explained. "I'm too hard with my hands and Mark's really soft. At times, I scare Ted a little bit with my hands. Mark said put this bit on him."

She also followed Bugni's advice on Ted's slow work. "Mark said, 'I just want you to walk the pattern. He knows where the barrels are, just try to slow his brain down and circle the barrel tighter. Just let him know where his feet are and his mind is.'"

Right before Winn made her run Saturday night—the barrel racers only had to make one run that night to spare their horses as opposed to the other events that had a semifinal round as well—London Gorham had taken the lead with a 13.7.

"I thought, 'OK. We're either going to be a hero or a zero and we'd better go fast!'" recalled Winn. "He was a hero! My dad said, 'You whipped him twice in the back!' I did! Normally, I only pop him once but I popped him twice... We're going fast, really, really fast!"

Their 13.684 was the fastest run of the entire rodeo.

"I can't believe he ran a 13.6," laughed Winn. "A whole second faster...oh geez! That's definitely the best run I've ever had on Ted. Going into summer, knowing that we can do it is good confidence for us."

Winn has a few more circuit rodeos before starting her summer run.

"I'm just kind of taking it slow," she said. Winn is currently fourth in the WPRA World Standings with $48,564. "I've got the Women's Rodeo World Championships this week on Ted. I'm going to some circuit rodeos. I've got a really good draw at Hugo (Oklahoma) and I'll get back on Scoop at Fort Smith (Arkansas). He likes that pen there. The next week is kind of nice. I'm just home."

Brittany Dallaire & Heavenly Harvey Pocket $25,095 at Spring Showdown, Grand Slam Tour Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Brittany Dallaire and her speedy black gelding Heavenly Harvey picked up $25,095 between the Grand Slam Tour 2D Slot Race and $25,000-added Spring Showdown, held May 11-14 in Perry, Georgia.

Dallaire and the 5-year-old gelding won the Open Slot Race on Thursday with a 14.235, worth $20,000 and a spot in the Grand Slam Tour Slot Finals on December 17 in Jackson, Mississippi.

"I was going for the open anyways and they had asked if I wanted to run in the slot race," Dallaire said. "Horses got hurt or people didn't show, so they asked me. They needed someone to run and I'm glad I did!"

She and Harvey, 5, also finished reserve champions in the Spring Showdown after turning in a 14.202.

"My horse slipped a little bit at the third barrel and bowed off quite a bit, so I was surprised he ran that fast. He had two of the three fastest times in that arena for the week. I thought that was pretty cool."

Dallaire purchased Harvey as a yearling from the 2019 Solo Select Online Sale. The Jud Little-bred gelding is by 6.2 million dollar sire JL Dash Ta Heaven out of the Cash Not Credit, Tiny Tornado Too mare Ima Cash Dancer.

She trained the gelding from start to finish herself and campaigned him as a 4-year-old. Harvey was a multiple futurity finalist from the very start of his career at the BFA World Championships in 2021. He also turned in the fastest time of the famed progressive round of the 2022 American Semifinals Rodeo just two months into his barrel racing career.

Harvey has career earnings of more than $133,000, according to QData. His career has only been limited by Dallaire's involvement in the Thoroughbred industry.

Although she's a lifelong barrel racer, Dallaire started galloping Thoroughbreds when she was 14. By the time she was 21, she had started pinhooking—buying yearlings, starting their training and selling them before they make their first career starts on the track. At the time of this interview, she was breezing horses in the under tack show for the upcoming Fasig Tipton Midlantic Sale. She had already sold all of her 2-year-olds in April at the Ocala Breeders Sale. Racehorses are her business and barrel horses are her hobby.

"Racehorses are easier for sure," she said. "It's harder barrel racing. Your timing has to be a lot more precise and you have to know your horses a lot better. Breezing is just get on and go in a big circle. It's a lot of fun; I enjoy it."

Diaz Wins Rodeo Corpus Christi to remain in Contention for $1 Million Bonus

Riding an incredible wave of momentum, Isaac Diaz (Desdemona, Texas) produced what was one of the most ferocious saddle bronc title races in WCRA history. The 37-year-old was the undeniable star of the rodeo, going first in the round and delivering what would be the most groundbreaking performance of the event. As only one of two athletes remaining Triple Crown of Rodeo eligible in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round, his 80-point ride elevated him to a $15,000 payday. For Diaz, fresh off his win at December's Cowtown Christmas Championship, the event marked his second consecutive WCRA Major, putting him in contention to be a millionaire. If Diaz triumphs at WCRA's Rodeo Carolina, he will be the second victor of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo $1 Million Bonus.

The Triple Round of Rodeo Contender was the first WCRA Saddle Bronc Champion during the Windy City Roundup in 2019. The Texas Cowboy has more than $120,000 in WCRA Earnings; not only did the now-3x WCRA Champion emerge victorious, but did so by defeating 4x NFR Qualifier Cole Elsher (Faith, South Dakota) and Gus Gillard (Morse, Texas). Diaz has won three WCRA events in total.

The inaugural Rodeo Carolina's is playing host to the final stop to the WCRA's Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) during the 2023 series and will have a guaranteed payout of more than $400,000.

The Triple Crown of Rodeo is an annual bonus that pays a $1 Million cash award to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos.

As the first discipline of the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round, bareback riding had the fans inside the American Bank Center on the edge of their seats throughout the action-packed night where contenders prevailed. After Mason Clements (Spanish Fork, Utah), Garrett Shadbolt (Merriman, Nebraska), and Leighton Berry (Weatherford, Texas) advanced to the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round courtesy of their 85+ point rides, the three quickly became immersed in a shootout for the $15,000 Major payday in the round. Outsoring Berry, Clements, an 8x WCRA qualifier, took home the victory after he delivered a critical 87-point ride on top of High Heels to capture the victory.

2023 Women's Rodeo World Champion Martha Angelone (Cross Junction, Virginia) ran the only qualified time in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round. While Cheyenne Bartling and Kerstin Freeman did not catch, Angelone had one of the fastest times of the week, earning a 2.03-second time. With Angelone being the only roper to earn time, she collected the ground money and earned $19,000.

Hometown cowgirl Sissy Winn (Corpus Christi, Texas) won the Barrel Racing title at the Rodeo Corpus Christi courtesy of her 13.684 -second run in the TCR round, good to take ownership of the quickest time of the week. Winn topped London Gorham's (Cotulla, Texas) 13.803-second time, distancing Stephanie Fryar's (Medford, Oklahoma) 13.908-second run.

Angelone and Winn will compete in the May 18-20 Women's Rodeo World Championship. If either wins in their respective discipline at the event, they will be in contention to win the Triple Crown of Rodeo at Rodeo Carolina in October.

As one of only three tie-down ropers to deliver a clean run, Shad Mayfield (Clovis, New Mexico) found himself edging out West Smith's (Emmett, Arkansas) 11.97-second time and Clint Singleton's (Comfort, Texas) 14.14-second run.

The team roping title was won by the duo of header Riley Kittle (Woodland, Alabama) and heeler Jace Helton (Tolar, Texas), notching a 10.16-second run. They edged the runner-up duo of Andrew Ward (Edmond, Oklahoma) and Buddy Hawkins (Stephenville, Texas) who logged a 10.25-second effort. The second-place finish dashed the hopes of Hawkins who was hoping to leave Corpus with his second victory in the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo after topping the discipline at the final 2022 Major of the year in Fort Worth.

Trisyn Kalawaia (Hilo, Hawaii) was unstoppable in steer wrestling. The 21-year-old Hawaiian native recorded a 3.82-second run in the long round before delivering a lightning-fast 3.75-second effort in the Triple Crown of Rodeo round. Kalawaia studies under 2x WCRA champion Stockton Graves.

Young-gun Jaxon Mortenson (Prescott, Arizona), who just came off a recent Velocity Tour Win in Fresno, California, was the only athlete to cover in the TCR Round. With Mortenson being the lone athlete to earn a score, he collected the ground money equal to $20,000.

On June 4 at 11:30 a.m. CT, fans can tune into Rodeo Corpus Christi Rodeo Triple Crown of Rodeo Round on a CBS network broadcast.

QData Launches QData Money-Earner Leaderboards

Powered by the 40-year-old QData Database (formerly the Robin Glenn Pedigrees database), the QData Money-Earner Leaderboards provide the top 50 money-earners in 16 different event groups for both all-time and yearly leading money-earners, sires, dams, grandsires, owners and breeders.

Currently free and updated weekly, QData Leaderboard features include:

- Sire lists detailing total and average money-earnings along with sortable columns allowing a view of leading foals by age and average earnings of stallion progeny.
- Dam lists providing total and average earnings, plus number of sire crosses and the best cross by money earned.
- Broodmare sires listing average foal earnings per daughter, as well as the number of producing daughters and the No. 1-producing daughter.
- Sortable columns on all lists allow filtering of lists to offer even more information.
- Subscribed stallion names link directly to the sire's QStallions page, offering an in-depth study of the stallion.

"Our goal remains to provide horsemen with information to help them make informed decisions when selling, breeding, buying and marketing American Quarter Horses," said Robin Glenn, director of QData. "The QData Leaderboards provide an exciting, inclusive service that has never existed in the industry until now."

The QData Leaderboards join the list of premier resources for American Quarter Horse pedigree and performance data provided by QData.

View the QData leaderboards at QStallions.com/QDataLeaders, Robinglenn.com or QStallions.com. About QData: QData offers horsemen tools for marketing and evaluating American Quarter Horses and breeds that cross onto Quarter Horses. This includes Catalog-Style Pedigrees, Stallion Stat Pages, DIY Horse Sale Catalogs and the QData Online Performance Database.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Living in Wyoming is an adventure! The last of the snow drifts melted last week and then the rain started. Ten days ago, a lot of my plants weren't even peeking their heads out and this morning one of my flowers is standing at 10".

Life is like that. One day you are hiding your head and the next you're on top of the world! Just because things are tough today, doesn't mean it will always be that way. And when we shine the light of God on the problem, we know we have the answer. Because He is the answer!

James 1:2 instructs us to 'count it all joy when we fall into various trials'. And I Cor. 2:14 warns us not to murmur or complain.

Some scriptures challenge me. It is an act of my will to count it all joy and not complain. Our obedience is how we get through those hard times. We get to pick. I can tell you from experience that if we do what He says, those hard times don't last very long. And we come out without even the smell of smoke.

Daniel 3:16-27 is the account of the three Hebrew children who were thrown into the fiery furnace and were delivered by God. God loves us so much. Let spring be a reminder of new beginnings and great growth in Him!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
