Miniat & Caytlyn Dee's Shake Ems Hayday Sweep Southwest Desert Classic Open & Breeders Futurities

By Tanya Randall

When Shake Ems Hayday ("Fiona") decided she wanted to be a barrel horse, the 5-year-old mare came on in a big way for trainer and rider Taylor Miniat and her best friend, Caytlyn Dee, the mare's owner and breeder. Both ladies hail from Parshall, Colo.

"We really love the mare," said Miniat, who picked up her first futurity championship with this win. "She's cool. She's just got that winning attitude. She really just kind of came on in April, and since then, she just wants it."

Miniat and Fiona swept the Southwest Desert Classic Open and Breeders futurities, held this past weekend in Salina, Utah. The dual victories were worth $5,170.

"I was just tickled with how well she worked the whole weekend," said Miniat. "The first day, she fired really good and had three smooth turns. I couldn't have been any happier. Then the second day, she tightened up the second a little bit and was even faster."

Bred by Dee, Fiona is by WPRCA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday, who has had an increasing number of futurity winners in recent years, and out of former barrel horse Shake Em Baby, by Royal Shake Em. Shake Em Baby, who came from legendary Colorado horsewoman Norma Seward, started her career in the barrel futurities, but got hurt and never really went on from it, Miniat said.

Having been raised by her best friend, Miniat was around Fiona since she made her first appearance into this word. She admitted that Fiona wasn't always easy.

"She's a lot of horse," she said. "She was really easy as a 2-year-old. I have a guy that starts all my horses and he put 45 rides on her. We were going to sell her, but decided to no sale her. At the point, Caytlyn and I kind of became partners on her and decided to take her to the futurities."

Miniat did a lot of outside riding on Fiona and her fiancé, Coy Hildreth, who is also the mare's farrier, heeled on her too.

"She's had a lot done on her," Miniat explained. "We've taken it fairly slow with her on the barrels. We've piddled with her here and there and we roped on her quite a bit. She's been used on the ranch a lot. She's really gritty. She has a lot of try and a lot heart. She's about as tough of a horse as you'd want. She will give her all every time."

Miniat wanted to thank her veterinarian Jill Eyles, DVM, equine chiropractor Sam Young, Rudy Faulds of Narrow Gate Saddlery in Gunnison, Colo., who makes her tack and equipment as well as her fiancé for all their help and support.

Next up for Miniat and Fiona will be the Colorado Classic, June 17-19.

2016 Rodeo Rigs Futurity Trifecta

In 2016, the Fizz Bomb Barrel Race Classic, Parker-Wood Memorial and the Copper Spring Ranch Futurities have partnered together with Rodeo Rigs to bring an exciting opportunity to their contestants. The high point futurity team from these 3 Futurities will win be the Rodeo Rigs Futurity Trifecta winner.

The Rodeo Rigs Futurity TRIFECTA winner will have the use of a 2017 4-Horse Elite Mustang Trailer (white skin, drop down doors on both head and tail side, front dressing room, rear tack, and hay rack) courtesy of Rodeo Rigs. The winner will be determined by points, which are awarded 10 to 1, 10 being first and 1 being last. Points will be awarded each round and to the average at all three futurities (Fizz Bomb, Parker Wood Memorial and Copper Spring Ranch). Must enter all three to be eligible. Derby winner will be awarded a TRIFECTA buckle. Point system will be the same as the futurity.

Here is more information about each race:

ERA Announce Partnership with The Days of '47 Rodeo

Elite Rodeo Athletes (ERA) is proud to announce a partnership with The Days of '47 Rodeo, one of the premier rodeo events in the world. Taking place July 19-23 in Vivint Smart Home Arena, the rodeo will feature a new high stakes format that will provide Salt Lake City fans an all-star rodeo experience.

“We are elated the Days of '47 Rodeo and ERA have joined forces to bring together the biggest names in rodeo, including Utah's top cowboys and cowgirls, to perform in a highly challenging and entertaining new competition. It's going to be an athletic show like you've never seen before,” said Kem Gardner, Chairman of the Days of '47 Rodeo Executive Committee.

Tony Garritano, ERA President and CEO commented on the partnership by saying, “We are excited that The Days of '47 Rodeo will be joining the ERA family. Together, we've developed a partnership that will maximize the success of their event, while showcasing the top rodeo athletes in the world through the ERA.”

At stake for contestants will be over $350,000 in money (the biggest in the Days of '47 history) and an opportunity to compete against the top ERA rodeo athletes during Saturday's ERA Premier Tour performance. Also, contestants will have a chance to qualify for the ERA World Championship.

The format will include three (3) days of qualifying rounds and two (2) days of an ERA Premier Tour Event. The three (3) days of qualifying will consist of 36 invited professional rodeo contestants vying for not only a chance to move into an ERA performance, but their share of $100,000. The overall high score/fast time from the qualifying round will compete in Saturday's ERA televised performance. All existing ERA athletes will compete in both Friday and Saturday night performances with a total purse of $200,000.

In addition, contestants will have a chance to qualify for the ERA World Championship event. Of the Days of 47 Rodeo 36 qualifiers, each performance winner (total of 3 in each discipline) will receive an automatic seed to compete in the ERA Qualifying Semi-Finals Round held in Mesquite, Texas in September. There, they will have a chance to advance from Mesquite to the 5-day World Championship event in Dallas at The American Airlines Center, November 9-13, 2016. In Dallas, they will compete against the ERA tour athletes for their share of $3,000,000.

Tickets to The Days of '47 Rodeo are on sale now at smithstix.com and start at $10.

Pay It Forward with Jill Moody

By Jill Moody

Back in the day as I was attempting to train a barrel horse or two, I could buy an exhibition for three dollars. The barrels were on the stakes, I could go around and around the barrels, I could walk the pattern, I could stop and back up at any given point, or I could make a run and get a time.

Today, exhibitions are five dollars or I might get a deal and get three for 10 dollars. The barrels are nowhere close to the stakes, I can only circle each barrel once, and I have to maintain forward motion. The timer is used only to make sure I don't go over my 60 second time limit. And... to keep from getting scolded during my allotted arena time I need to know if the producer is planning on having exhibitions, time onlys, riding slots, or warm ups.

Evidently each one has different rules as to acceptable arena conduct. I'm pretty sure that neither a dictionary nor a thesaurus could help me figure out exactly what the format is on any given day so I'll just have to make an educated guess.

If I can clarify the rules I then have to determine how many spots are available for purchase and how the producer is planning on organizing the time frame so everyone gets their turn at exhibitioning, or warming up, or whatever the flavor of the day is.

Will they be calling names, taking tickets, assigning time slots, or will it be a free for all? Do I sign up by mail, email, text, or do I need to be in line at 5:30 in the morning to assure myself ample time spots to accommodate my multiple horses?

All things considered it will inevitably turn into a three ring circus for me regardless of my organizational skills. I have heard the occasional muttering about me having too many horses or cutting in line but in my own defense I do not have a clone helping me, I am not allowed to tie horses to the fence, and parking is not permissible anywhere close to the arena. Therefore it takes me a little bit of time to change horses even when they are saddled and waiting and I paid for my time in the arena just the same as everyone else. I try not to interfere and to respect others but it is all about me isn't it?

I haven't produced a barrel race nor do I want to and I'm guessing the majority of barrel racers haven't either. Unless I am willing to get off of my horse and get my knees dirty I should probably keep my whining to myself. Even though we all have legitimate concerns and encouraging ideas as to how the exhibitions, time onlys, and warm ups should be handled, waiting in line at the barrel race may not be the best time to speculate.

We all need to respect the wishes of the producer, be courteous with each other, and be thankful that we have a venue that allows us to play. As for myself, I just need the occasional reminder that it's not all about me!

Jill Moody is a 2-time Reserve World Champion, & a 2-time NFR Avarage Champion. She and her great mare Dolly hold the second fastest average time over 10 rounds at the NFR. Moody made 10 runs in 138.26 earning over $133,000 in 2010.

Jill is a multiple futurity champion, Badlands Circuit Champion and owns multiple amateur association finals championships in the Dakotas. Jill is also a 2-time Female Athlete of the Year by the South Dakota Sports Writers Association.

Big Time Barrel Horses Capitalize at Waco WrapN3

By Hope Sickler

With over $80,000 paid out plus saddles buckles and other great prizes, this past weekend's WrapN3 French StreakToVegas 5D was nothing short of a very impressive organized barrel race and an even more impressive showcasing of talent amongst the tough field of competition.

Montana standout barrel racer Chloe Hoovestal took top honors in the open, kicking off a weekend full of barrel racing on Friday with a 16.058 for $733.

On Saturday, Lisa Nicholas and her superstar mare Stoli My Guy blazed the cloverleaf pattern at the Extraco Events Center in a time of 15.775 which pocketed her $1,640. Then on Sunday, former NFR qualifier Kassie Mowry showed up to take home the final win on Sunday with a time of 15.769, aboard the very talented Firewatermakemehappy, posting the fastest time of the entire weekend! Nicholas Nails It

Lisa Nicholas had a very successful weekend while in Waco winning money on all three of her horses.

"Last weekend was a very successful weekend for Ribbit Ranch and I am so grateful for such a profitable weekend doing what I love," said Nicholas.

Nicholas piloted her great mare 7-year-old Stoli My Guy to the win on Saturday with a blazing fast time of 15.775-seconds. She also pulled checks on her other two horses, Nmd Chesters Lil Bunny and Perrywater Dash.

"Stoli" was fresh off breeding season and that was her first run back. I didn't fully expect her to come back with this big of a splash but really nothing surprises us anymore! Our first run on Friday met with some ground trouble- she fell nearly all the way down at the first barrel but fired hard throughout the rest of the run and clocked a 16.1 barely missing a check. Being the consistent horse that she is, she ran a 15.7 on Saturday and a 16.0 on Sunday, winning us the 1D Average for the weekend."

With their successful weekend, Stoli My Guys' lifetime earnings climbed over $130,000+.

Nicholas explains that "Stoli" as she affectionately calls the gorgeous buckskin, who is by Traffic Guy and out of the late, great mare Sixes Future, natural nervous behavior is what fuels her fire.

"I lunge her before I ride her every time that she runs. It is just part of the routine and she loves to get rambunctious during that time and enjoys herself so I let her have that! She is fairly uptight but strangely her comfort and quiet zone is the opposite of others; she is very quiet and comfortable in the holding pen and when entering the alley," Nicholas explained.

A competitor to the core, "Stoli" has been a huge blessing to the Nicholas family.

"We just flushed a Dash Ta Fame embryo earlier this year so we are really looking forward to that baby next February, which will be her second baby. She has yearling stud colt by Darkelly that the Conrado's own that is quite the handsome boy."

Nicholas and "Stoli" have some plans to possibly hit some rodeos close to home this summer.

"I am hoping to get to some rodeos but rodeoing is just not my thing. I like to be home training futurity colts and hanging out with my family. Plus my daughter Skyler is now starting to get competitive and I like to go where we can all run and it be a family affair. That is the most important thing to me."

graceful riders you will ever watch, Kassie Mowry and Martha's Smith's 6-year-old buckskin gelding Firewatermakemehappy are one of the hottest duo's when it comes to those three metal cans. Mowry describes the gelding, who is by FirewaterOnTheRocks and out of Junior Country Girl by Deep Note Jr, as very kind and honest and one that always means well.

"Junior" is great about going out there and getting the job done. He is very honest but he can be spooky at times and that seems to be the only real challenge to him. He likes to look around and gets spooked pretty easily so I just try to keep him as confident and comfortable as I can at all times," explained Mowry.

"Junior" and Mowry have had a very lucrative career so far and his lifetime earnings are in excess of over $250,000+.

"Our run on Sunday was good. I was a late entry and I had 5 entered so they all had a pretty short and sweet warm-up before they ran. I noticed his ("Junior's") ears perk forward as we were running to the first barrel but as soon as I bumped him, he got focused on the barrel and went to work."

Mowry explains that "Junior's" apt to be very light and responsive is what makes him a winner.

"He has a lot of feel and he is very light when running barrels. He runs so light that if he gets into a bind, he can usually get out of it easy with good recovery as he is very quick and explosive out of the turns. He really listens to me and will not grab on the bit," Mowry said.

Mowry won the open, derby and adult sidepot on the final day of the event and left with over $2,000 to add to "Junior's" earnings!

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We have talked about speaking TO our problems with the Word of God, instead of talking ABOUT the problem. Romans 4:17 tells us God gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did. So if you smashed your finger, you wouldn't keep saying your finger is smashed, you would say that your finger is healed! Healing is what we want. Not a smashed finger.

And then in Mark 11:23-26, God tells us to speak to the mountain. Well, is a smashed finger a mountain? I've smashed my finger before and it certainly is the only thing I can think of until it quits hurting!! The whole rest of my body might be doing just great, but that finger is talking! So talk back to it! "Finger, you are healed in the name of Jesus."

If we keep our mouth saying the truth of God's word about our finances, our healing, our relationships and anything else we come up against in a day, it won't be long and we will be living in the reality of those promises. But if we are constantly replaying the problem, we will not get to where we want to be. The ONLY thing that can keep us down is our mouth speaking the wrong thing. Speak the Word and watch God move on your behalf!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
