So Very Epic – Kassie Mowry Showcases Karma Loftin's Breeding Program At Royal Crown Waco

By Tanya Randall

Four years ago, Karma Loftin watched her 2018 crop of colts frolicking in her pasture. Today all three — KL Touch Of Heaven, Sir Epic and Oh So Heavenly — are multiple futurity finalists.

"That's my time with them," said Loftin. "I love watching them in the pasture to see who's got it, who's athletic. I cry and hug them when they leave. I miss that connection when they're gone."

KL Touch Of Heaven (Dove), trained, owned and ridden by Kassie Mowry, is a three-time futurity champion, having won The Patriot, Ruby and now the Royal Crown in Waco. Not to be left out, Sir Epic (Sir), ridden by Mowry for Dave and Lori Zabel, took the reserve title at the 119-entry, $75,000-added Royal Crown Futurity, held May 10-15 at the Extraco Events Center Pavilion Arena in Waco, Texas.

Together the Loftin's two youngsters under Mowry's saddle won $41,741. Her share of their prize money was $3,524.

"I was speechless—Oh my goodness!" said Loftin, a physical therapist who works in home health. "That was quite a weekend. It was a dream come true! The only thing I can compare it to is when Hallie Hanssen had Mean Cheerleader and Wicked Little Leader and they went one-two at that futurity out west. This just seems even more incredible."

Dove and Sir were the only two colts running in Waco as Oh So Heavenly, who is ridden by Dustin Angelle for the Zabels, rested up for the Old Fort Days Futurity this week.

Loftin was actually rooting for Sir this time because she wanted him to have his moment for the Zabels.

"Before Sir started turning it around, I was feeling bad because Dove was doing so good," said Loftin. "I want all my colts to do well. Sir just hadn't got brave yet. He was still scared and looking around. I felt bad for Dave because my colt was out running his."

Sir had the fastest time of the futurity with a first round winning 14.8, but he got upstaged by Dove's consistency for a scant difference of .031 in the aggregate.

"We were all rooting for Sir and here comes Dove," laughed Loftin. "I thought Sir could go back to the stall and brag to Dove — 'I've won a crown and all you have are Rubies!' Dove's like 'Nope! I'm still in the game!' He's cocky like that."

Dove, a 4-year-old gelding by JL Dash Ta Heaven out of Loftin's great producer Junior Country Girl, by Deep Note Jr, earned $21,238 between the owners and breeders share of the purse. JL Dash Ta Heaven, who has his offspring from 2021 and older grand-fathered in the program as a charter Royal Crown stallion, is no longer in the program so the stallion earnings were withheld.

Dove's career futurity earnings are in excess of $114,000 with $72,713 coming from the past three weekends, where he went first, second and first at the Ruby, Lucky Dog (Breeders Challenge) and Royal Crown futurities.

Mowry had originally planned on going to the Old Fort Days Futurity, but after battling the illness, she chose to stay home. It will be up to Oh So Heavenly to carry Loftin's banner in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

"All three of them grew up together," said Loftin. "I'd watch them play in the pasture. Sir was so big, fast and strong. Dove was such the athlete. Heavenly could run—Oh, could he run!"

Dove, who had all the makings of a stallion prospect, was cocky

"Dove was always full of himself," Loftin recalled. "Get me mad and I'm going to be gritty and try harder."

Sir was the exact opposite.

"Sir was timid," she said. "I had to reassure him a lot. Sir is like, 'Help me! Hold me!' With Dove, it was I hope I survive getting him to the pasture!"

With her job and caring for her mother taking up nearly all of Loftin's time, the success of her horses is what keeps her in the game.

"I'm very, very proud of them," she said. "Thank the Lord for everything that's happened. I feel very satisfied with what I've done so far, and there's more to come."

Magnificent Mowry

Broken ankle, fractured spinous process, post-Covid fatigue and now the flu—It will take something stronger to keep leading aged event trainer and rider Kassie Mowry from the winner's circle. Even with the flu at the Royal Crown, Mowry won more than $95,000. She took first and second in the futurity with KL Touch Of Heaven and Sir Epic, plus picked up a second-place round check on Force The Goodbye.

In the derby, CP He Will Be Epic won first after posting the fastest time of the entire event, a flawless 14.680 to win the second round. Her rodeo star Famous Ladies Man was third in the derby aggregate.

EQUIBRAND™

Breakthrough Win for Chloe Gray & Designer Rockette at Big Rewards Spring Showdown

By Tanya Randall

"She shocked us all," said Chloe Gray of Designer Rockette's winning run at the $25,000-added, 633-entry Big Rewards Spring Showdown, held May 12-15 in Perry, Georgia.

In Sunday's Final Round, "Broadway" – as she's known around the barn – turned in a 14.310 to win $5,047.

"She was kind of the sleeper of my bunch," added Gray of the 5-year-old mare, owned by Rob Bondurant. "We weren't expecting her to show up and show out all like that!"

Gray rode four horses to $12,567 at the event, which featured two rounds of qualifying and a short round for a $200 entry fee. She also finished fourth in the Finals aboard Bondurant's 6-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven, Rene Dan Jet mare Heavenly Red for total earnings of $4,854. Her own mare Shake N Firewater, by her stallion Tomahawk N Firewater, won $2,540. Gray also picked up a check on the futurity aged mare VPH First Down Deb.

She called the Spring Showdown a "super cool" event.

"You get to run in two different arenas," she explained. "It runs pretty quick. You're not staying up all night trying to get your runs in. They always run it very smoothly. They had all kinds of things for you to do. They had a dodgeball tournament that was pretty fun to watch. They feed all the contestants on Saturday. It's a really fun, family-friendly event."

The event's proximity to her home in Yatesville, Georgia, also allowed her to work through the weekend at her business -- High Hopes Equine Reproduction.

"I was actually flushing and transferring embryos Thursday night at 3 a.m. and Friday night at 11 o'clock," she said. "I was running all over the place. I had embryos shipped in from the airport. We had a lot going on this weekend. Thankfully I was able to get some rest Saturday night so I could function Sunday for the Finals!"

At the time of this interview, she was getting ready to leave for the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Arkansas, where Broadway will run in the derby.

Bred by Victory Farms, Broadway is by the late, great barrel horse and sire Designer Red, out of the cutting-bred mare Rockette, by High Stylish Oak. Broadway, who was trained by Erin Christopher, had a few runs last year as a 4-year-old before joining Gray's barn.

"I'm just putting some finishing touches on her, getting her seasoned out, and enjoying the process," said Gray, a former NBHA Teen World Champion and multiple Southeastern Circuit Finals qualifier.

Although Broadway had won the 1D at two local races, Gray didn't expect her to win the Perry event.

"She's placed in the 2D at some of the bigger shows, but this was the first time that everything fell into place for her," she said, adding that Broadway has a stiffer turning style and has had ground trouble when rolling back hard to finish her turns. "This weekend she stayed on all four and got the job down."

Although they had a little ground trouble with their first run in the Sutherland Arena, Gray was pleased with how Broadway worked.

Gray's first shock of the weekend came with Broadway's second run in the Perdue Arena, where she finished 11th, just out of the money in the 1D.

"This mare actually hadn't placed in the 1D at any big show yet," said Gray. "When she placed 11th out of 600 we were super tickled. I was really excited for her. She's starting to figure everything out and put things together."

Their run in the Finals still has Team Broadway a little shocked Monday morning.

"I think we're all still a little bit in shock this morning," laughed

Designer Rockette "Broadway" 15.1 h., 1,100 lbs. "She's really stocky."

BIT: L&W 5-Bit

HEADGEAR: Tiedown

SADDLE: Master

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever "I had to borrow a pad that day because I had a few horses really close together in the Finals."

LEG GEAR: OrthoEquine

SHOEING: Front shoes only

FEED: Tucker Milling 14%

HAY: Peanut Hay

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Leg poultice with B-Equine Essentials Therapeutic Sports Mud

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She's a stiffer horse. She's more of a roll-back style, straight in, straight out, so I work on a lot of roundness with her, just keeping her soft in the rib cage, withers and face. She doesn't do a whole lot of barrel work. I might work her twice a week on barrels. She gets on the hot walker two days a week. She's pretty easy. We always try to keep it simple with them and make them like it."

SPONSORS: Master Saddles, OrthoEquine, Hangover Haynets, Kimmie's Cocktail, Complete Equine Performance, Crazy Cowgirl Shop

THANKS: Ron Bondurant for the opportunity to showcase his horses' talents.

Gray. "In the Finals, she really hooked up. She was super snappy and sharp and had a little bit more run. We were really excited."

Gray was especially pleased because Broadway has a winning personality.

"She's just a super, super kind horse," she said. "She's really sweet. She didn't really know what happened either. She just knew we were all really excited. It was pretty cute to see her getting all the attention because she was eating it up!"

Surf's Up for Halyn Lide & Jettin Ta Heaven at WCRA Rodeo Corpus Christi

By Tanya Randall

Halyn Lide got the biggest win of her barrel racing career with a $17,800 championship at the WCRA's Rodeo Corpus Christi, held May 11-14 at the American Bank Center on the Texas Gulf Coast. The mother of two was riding her homebred 10-year-old gelding Jettin Ta Heaven ("Keeper.")

"I said throughout the whole deal—Keeper deserves a win," said Lide, who calls China Spring, Texas, home. "I really believe he's one of the best horses in the world, but our time just hasn't come. I'm just happy that I didn't mess it up and he was able to go in there and do what he does, because he's a winner!"

Lide, who didn't start barrel racing until high school, qualified for the event by nominating both days of Twisted Sister's Come & Take It Barrel Race in Bryan, Texas, over New Year's. She was determined to qualify for Corpus because Keeper had done well at the pro rodeo in Corpus before it became a WCRA event.

"Corpus has always been a great rodeo," said Lide. I've always enjoyed it. That's the reason I want so badly to go back. I'm super thankful to the committee."

Lide and Keeper had their first run in a qualifying round on Tuesday, May 10 in Sinton, Texas. They were fifth, earning $1,200. The top 24 qualifiers plus the top four "seeded" contestants, per the leaderboard standings, were split into three progressive performances with the top two advancing to the Showdown on Saturday. Following her qualifying run, Lide made the five-hour mad dash home to pick up her husband Aaron and their two boys Alston and Lawton. They were on hand Wednesday night to see her take home another $1,600 for the top spot in the performance to advance to Saturday's Showdown.

In the Showdown, Keeper threw down his fastest run of the event a 14.368 to be the fastest qualifier to the championship round and get last out on the ground.

"I was completely unprepared for that situation," said Lide of having to make a second run, just an hour later. "I had never done that before. The other girls had brought buckets and halters to put on their horses and I had him in his little bit and just held on to him.

"We all pulled our saddles off. I really wanted to let him roll because they had sand in the back, but I didn't have a brush. I could not go back to the trailer because you have to walk through the carnival. That's the most difficult part of it—getting through that! "Sissy and Ari-Anna both offered me some water and that was really nice of them, so he got to get a little drink. We just hung out and I pet him for an hour and then we had to go again."

Although her husband said it wasn't long between the two runs, it felt like forever for Lide.

"It was enough to think, 'Do I do the same thing? Do I do something different and try to be faster? What do I do?'" she laughed.

In the Championship Round, Keeper stayed consistent, winning with a 14.399, worth $15,000.

"He's easy," she said. "I don't have to do anything. He's honest and great in those building setups."

Keeper is a homemade product, going back to Lide's high school and college barrel horse Zeros Gypsy Jet, by noted Southeastern barrel horse sire Three O Jones. National Finals Rodeo qualifier Terri Tackett had recommended the mare.

"I tried her and couldn't keep the barrels up, but I liked her and my dad liked her so we bought her," recalled Lide. "She was probably too fast for me at the time, but we finally got it together. We would either place or hit a barrel. She was a ton of fun, but she got hurt at the boarding facility in college and never came back from it." After being "mesmerized" by JL Dash Ta Heaven, he was the obvious choice for a sire.

Keeper was a successful 5-year-old futurity horse for Lide, who

BIT: Jr Cowhorse with a dogbone mouthpiece

SADDLE: Coats

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast on front only

SHOEING: PLR on front, plain behind

FEED: Strategy Healthy Edge

HAY: Alfalfa in the morning, coastal at night

SUPPLEMENTS: Full Bucket Probiotics, TLC Equi-Bone

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT Boots to haul sometimes. "I like the XLR8 sheet, but Keeper doesn't like any kind of sheet or blanket. He makes that clear. I don't think people need to use therapies for success. A vet and farrier who will treat your horse like a priority matters most."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "He gets ridden nearly every day. I do take all my horses through the barrels some, especially (Keeper) and Heaven. They're geldings and they tell me exactly what they're going to do over the weekend. If there's a little hole or something that's not right, they'll show me at home and I can do any correcting that needs to be done before we leave. They're very honest. If they're messing up at home, it's the exact same thing when we get somewhere."

was also a first-time mom that same year.

"Everything we asked him to do, he just did," Lide said, who noted that her husband as well as her sisters-in-law—Katelyn Scott and Lorissa Merritt, have won money on Keeper too. "I took him to a couple of derbies that were close by the next year. I got my permit and entered the WPRA Finals and he filled my permit there. I remember thinking this was really easy but then I tried it again and realized he was just magic. Those good ones spoil you a little bit."

Lide wanted to thank her horse for making the win possible and the WCRA for the opportunity.

"This was my first experience with the WCRA crew," she said. "Everyone was very nice and very helpful, accommodating. Thank you to everyone that made it possible. It was really fun and I've never won that much money before!

"It was a great event too. Every piece of it was really nice. They sent up text messages every morning to let us know what we need to do, and every night after the performances they let us know what was going on. They sent us pictures that they took and our videos. They were all friendly. The ground was good everywhere. It was a great experience all the way around, but of course, I'm biased!"

Lide said her future rodeo plans are still up in the air. Her two boys and her husband's veterinary practice make it challenging to all be gone at once.

"I may go this summer," she said. "It's just a little tough to decide. If Keeper still feels as good as he does right now...if Keeper wants to go, we're going to go."

Jimmi Jo Montera Remains in Top Spot

As the action got underway for the first-ever Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC) in Fort Worth, Texas, Monday evening at Cowtown Coliseum, heated races for the world championship titles began to unfurl.

Jimmi Jo Montera (Greely, Colorado) currently leads the World All-Around standing with 8,755-points, edging Hope Thompson's (Abilene, Texas) 8,715 points.

In barrel racing, 16-year-old London Gorham (Cortulla, Texas) was first to run and set the bar high at an impressive 13.579 seconds. Gorham, who came into the world championship event on top of the WRWC points leaderboard, beat out the remaining 25 pro barrel racers as Jana Guthrie (Canton, Texas) delivered the top time of the challengers courtesy of her 13.585-second effort.

In the intense battle for the prop breakaway roping title, Marybeth Beam (Terrell, Texas) surged to the top of the leaderboard with a 2.17-second time, surpassing 2020 WRWC World Champion Heeler Hope Thompson's (Abilene, Texas) 2.71-second run. Colorado cowgirl, Carlee Potter (Pueblo, Colorado) earned the best time in the challenger breakaway roping, posting a lightning fast 2.18-second run, besting points leaderboard contender Rylie Edens' (Hillsboro, Texas) 2.22-second time.

In the team roping competition, Kenna Francis (Las Vegas, Nevada) and Whitney DeSalvo (Alleghen, Alabama) beat the remaining 20 pro team ropers by nearly a full second. The duo earned a 5.86-second run, besting Bev Robbins (Muscle Shoals, AL) and Jessy Remsburg's (Alleghen, Alabama) 6.80-second run. Tracey Nelson (McDavid, FL) and Kaylee Billingsley (Phoenix, AZ) had the fastest run in the challenger team roping with a 9.52-second time.

Tickets for the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round are still available and start at $20. They can be purchased at the Cowtown Coliseum Box Office, or online at cowtowncoliseum.com.

Triple Crown Of Rodeo Restarts

In front of an electric crowd inside the American Bank Center in Corpus Christi, rodeo athletes from across the globe were crowned champions and walked away with upwards of $553,000. The Triple Crown of Rodeo Round saw three TCR eligible athletes enter the TCR Round, where all of the eligible athletes for the $1 million bonus were eliminated.

The Triple Crown of Rodeo is an annual bonus that pays a $1 Million cash award to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos.

Breakaway Roping had the fans inside American Bank Center on the edge of their seats throughout. The 2020 Women's Rodeo World All-Around Champion Jackie Crawford (Stephenville, TX) delivered a powerful performance when her string broke away from her saddle horn at 1.82 second mark in the Triple Crown of Rodeo round Saturday night. After notching the fastest time in the Triple Crown of Rodeo round, Crawford was joined in the box by Bradi Good (Abilene, TX) who had a 2.14-second run, and Jade Kenney (Canyon, TX), who received a no-time. This is Crawford's second WCRA Breakaway Championship. In January 2019, Crawford made history when she championed at the WCRA Windy City Roundup winning more than $52,000, setting the record for the then largest payout ever for a single event in the sport at the time.

As the only team ropers to deliver a clean run in the TCR round, Quisto Lopez (Beeville, TX) and Daniel Braman (Refugio, Texas) delivered a lightning fast 4.12-second run. Besting the No. 1 team on the Rodeo Corpus Christi Leaderboard and the defending Champions Kaleb Driggers (Stephenville, TX) and Junior Nogueira (Stephenville, Texas) along with Zachary Kilgus (Stephenville, TX) and Jake Edwards (Fort Ann, NY).

In the saddle bronc, 2x National Finals Qualifier (NFR) Wyatt Kasper (Pampa, TX) rode supreme. Capping his perfect 2-for-2 effort on Saturday evening, the newly crowned WCRA Champion rode Bartender for a monstrous 90.5 points to net an equally impressive check for $15,000. Kasper logged the highest-marked ride of the rodeo, to beat out Triple Crown of Rodeo Contender Cole Elshere's (Faith, SD) 87.0 ride and Cameron Messier's (Herald, CA) 80.5 point score.

Riley Duvall (Checotah, OK) was unstoppable in the steer wrestling where he notched the one of the fastest times of the week in the event. The 4x NFR qualifier recorded a 4.70-second run in the TCR Round, prior to delivering a lightning-fast 4.15-second effort in the TCR Round. The victory is Duvall's first WCRA Major win. Duvall walked away with $15,000.

As the Saturday evening event continued, a hotly contested race in the tie-down roping began to unfurl. The 3x WCRA Champion Riley Webb (Denton, Texas), Kincaide Henry (Mt. Pleasant, Texas), Jaxon Clegg (Coweta, Oklahoma) entered the TCR round edging each other's showdown round times within the tenths of second. Calm and collected, Henry remained controlled as she backed into the roping box as he readied for what would be a career defining moment. The Texas cowboy ran his fastest time of the week with a 7.44-second time to defeat the defending Rodeo Corpus Christi Champion and Triple Crown of Rodeo Contender, Riley Webb.

After Chad Rutherford (Lake Charles, LA), RC Landingham (Hat Creek, CA) and 3x world PRCA World Champion Tim O'Connell (Zwingle, IA) advanced to the TRC Round with high 80+ scores, the trio quickly became immersed in a shootout for the $15,000 Major payday in the TCR round. Outsoring O'Connell, the victor from the 2021 Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo who was seeking his second win in the Triple Crown, by 4.5 points, Landingham delivered a critical 87-point ride on Vegas Confused to capture the victory.

After 7x PRCA World Champion Sage Kimzey (Salado, TX), Deklan Garland (Foster, OK), and Wyatt Rogers (Locust Grove, OK), did not cover in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round, there was no champion crowned.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Okay. We've asked Jesus to be our Lord. Lord means boss. So, we are plugging along in our daily lives and we think, compared to others, that we're doing pretty good in the sight of God. After all, I don't eat as much as some people. And when I go out, I only have 3 beers instead of the usual 20. And God knows about my little problem of (you can fill in the blank). I'm down from 5 times to just 1.

The Bible tells us in 2 Cor. 10:12 that to compare ourselves to others is not wise. And we certainly do not want to measure our little load of faults against anyone else either. Gal. 6:2-5.

Our personal walk with God is just that. Personal. On judgment day He will not factor in anyone else's behavior, sin, or excuse. It will be you and God. And the really good news is, Jesus' blood paid the price for our every sin, if He is Lord, and we will be found not guilty. Glory to God!

But, we are here on this earth now and we want to be on the blessing side of things, not the curse side. So, why are we sorta sinning and sorta trying to live right? Why do we want to sin? That's the curse side and I do not want to live there. I want God's blessings coming to me on every wave. That comes from obedience to His Word. It's personal and we get to pick. The blessing or the curse. Deut. 30:19. Choose life!
