First Gunners Katie Pascoe & JR Naughty Jet Take Redding Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

First out typically means the fast track. Yet, when it comes to making the first pass through the pattern at a rodeo, a little apprehension is always there when it comes to the footing. But Katie Pascoe decided first out on the ground in the first performance of the Redding Rodeo wasn't an opportunity she could waste.

"Honestly, being first out, I didn't want to safety-up and regret that," said the Morro Bay, California barrel racer. "I know that first is an advantageous position most of the time, but I probably would have preferred to see someone run on it before just to know what you're getting into. I just had it in my mind that I wasn't going to leave that arena without giving it everything we had."

She and JR Naughty Jet, her 12-year-old gelding, posted a swift 17.18 that daylighted the field for much of the rodeo until Megan Champion almost came within a tenth with a 17.29. The victory at the $11,000-added rodeo, held May 13-15 in Northern California, was worth $3,819.

Pascoe's family raised Naughty after purchasing his dam, the On The Dash mare Dash On Sky, who was in foal to leading barrel horse sire Blazin Jetolena, from Candice Jacob.

"His name is Naughty because he was a little ornery when he was a foal," said Pascoe. "He's always been super cool. He takes after his mother. He has a super laid back personality. He was an easy colt to break and took everything in stride. I rode him when he was 2 and 3 and played with him lightly on the barrels. He felt super natural from the beginning. I remember taking him around the barrels for the first time and telling my mom, 'Gosh, it feels like he's done this before!' and he hadn't."

Pascoe's husband, Bear, was playing tight end for the New York Giants at the time, so rather than let Naughty miss out on a futurity career while she was living in New Jersey during football season, she sent him to Lindsey McLeod.

"I didn't want him to miss two years of experience while I was living on the East Coast with Bear, so I actually sent him to the McLeods. Lindsey McLeod (a recent nursing school graduate) competed on him first. She probably had him a year, year-and-a-half and she did really well on him. I credit her for giving him his competitive edge and teaching him the ropes. She did a really good job."

Pascoe got Naughty back at the end of his futurity year and took him to his first pro rodeo when he was 6

"It's been a little hit or miss," Pascoe said of Naughty's rodeo career. "I took him a couple summers and he's done pretty well. He's been plagued by injuries / sickness for a couple of years, so I don't really feel like I've had a full year on him. A couple of years ago, we thought he was completely done. I think he's probably had collectively two years of nothing while we were trying to heal and rehab him. Because of that, I wouldn't say he's had a monster career as a rodeo horse, but at the same time, he's always done well when he's got to go."

Naughty currently has Pascoe 40th in the WPRA World Standings with $7,645.

"Given everything I've been through with that horse, I feel every run I get to make on him is a huge blessing," she said. "I'm grateful for every run. I feel it's really hard to set a serious plan, but that

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on front, LeMieux Shoc Air hind boot with a thin polo underneath

"He speed cuts behind, so I had to find something with a shock absorber behind," Pascoe explained. "It's been a little problematic for me. I've so many types kinds of boots on him. He only cuts one leg and he cuts through everything." A simple speed cut that got infected, which in turn led to a bout of colitis brought on by the antibiotics, was one of the reasons Naughty was out for nearly a year. "I stumbled across these (LeMieux) and they have a really good shock absorber on the splint area."

SHOEING: Steel rims all the way around

FEED: Nutrena Pro Force Senior

HAY: Alfalfa and some grass/alfalfa mix

being said, my husband and I will probably go to some rodeos this summer. The one year I got to go (for the summer), Naughty really liked those big open pens, starting at Reno and going on to Cody (Wyoming) and Livingston (Montana). He really likes Cheyenne. So, I'd really love to go to some of those this summer, but it's whatever he wants to do. If he's feeling good, we'll keep going."

Pascoe, the daughter of John W. Jones, Jr. and his wife Sherrie, grew up with rodeo. Her dad is a multiple world champion steer wrestler, who joined his father Jones Sr., in both the Pro Rodeo and Cowboy Halls of Fame. Not surprisingly, her husband, who grew up in a ranching family and found himself taking off his Super Bowl ring and taking up steer wrestling after his retirement from the NFL.

"It's actually pretty cool that things have come full circle," said Pascoe of having her husband rodeo with her. "It's really fun to be able to do that together."

Pascoe wanted to thank her mom for letting her take ownership of Naughty since he was originally hers, Brad Jackman, DVM, at Pioneer Equine in Oakdale, California, for all his help in getting Naughty back going, and her husband for being so supportive.

THE RUBY BUCKLE FUTURITY & OPEN WINNERS

APRIL 25-MAY 1, LAZY E ARENA, GUTHRIE, OK
$840,000 TOTAL PAYOUT

Ruby Buckle Regional Race #1 took place in Guthrie, OK April 25 - May 1 at the Lazy E Arena. The $730,000+ Guaranteed Payout Barrel Race hosted 901 Open 4D Barrel Racers, 297 Barrel Futurity competitors and 61 Youth racers.

The first-ever $110,000 Breakaway Roping had 35 2D Futurity ropers, 72 3D Open ropers and 3 Youth competitors. All of our champions are based on a 2 go average.

The Ruby Buckle Barrel Race & Breakaway is open to anyone riding a horse sired by one of the 150 Ruby Buckle stallions. The stallion owners are the heart of the program and the best way to showcase the world-class equine genetics that they have to offer is to give competitors of all skill levels races with huge payouts and a fun and relaxed atmosphere. Our events are tailored so that contestants have the opportunity to network with stallion owners.

Our races pay each 'D' equally! At each regional race, each 'D' has $115,000 guaranteed payouts and pays down 15 places. We publish all of our guaranteed payouts at the beginning of the year.

This stallion-based incentive is unique to the barrel racing industry because it relies on a nomination system to guarantee yearly race payouts. $2.3 Million dollars will be paid out at 3 regional Ruby Buckle Barrel Races in 2021! Each year our payouts grow because of the nomination system.

All horses need to be nominated (paid in) annually to remain eligible to compete in future years, starting from the year of birth. Nominations are due Aug 1 for $200 OR Dec 1 for $300.

Race earnings totals include Owner, Stallion Owner and Breeder money paid.

Lindsay Schulz & Miss Eedie Stinson Take Top Dollar at Idaho Equine Race For The Cash

By Tanya Randall

The Idaho Equine Race For The Cash, produced by Sutfin Performance Horses, was a very profitable venture for barrel horse trainer Lindsay Schulz of Moses Lake, Washington. Schulz placed three of the five horses she ran over the weekend in the 352-entry, $12,000-added Open and won more than $11,000.

"It was a good weekend," said Schulz, who ran five horses at the May 13-15 event, held in the Badiola Arena. "The race was fantastic! I highly recommend it! I do run a lot of these bigger events and they were very accommodating. Abby Sutfin was on top of the production. For $150 for the entry fee plus the sidepots, the payout is there. It will be on my calendar for next year. I can't wait to go back!"

Schulz and her great mare Miss Eedie Stinson topped the to $12,000-added Open to win $4,408, plus another $1,531 in carry-overs for total earnings of $5,939.

"I tipped to win second on Friday and she came back really strong on Saturday," said Schulz of the 11-year-old daughter of Eddie Stinson out of the Judge Cash mare Judge Two Cash. "The blessing about that mare is she's going to do her job. If I show up to the party, she's going to do her job. It's so neat to be able to get on a horse and have the type of confidence where I know if I leave the barrels up she's going to be right in there for me."

"She's not the one that hits barrels. If I don't show up to the party... she's just so strong and so fast. You wiggle your toes and she's coming back and doing her job. With this winter and not being able to get those runs for my timing to be able to keep up with her, we struggled a little bit this spring keeping those barrels up. She's doing pretty good now. Hopefully, we can keep cruising on and getting the job done."

Schulz also had a big payday on SR Pure Crystal, a 9-year-old gray daughter of Eddie Stinson out of Expensive Crystal, by Southern Cartel, who placed in the 1D on Friday and Saturday for earnings in excess of $4,000. Her other big winner on the weekend was Eedie's half-brother Mr Tew Judge, a 13-year-old gelding by the Thoroughbred Mr Tew Socks. "Mister" placed in the 2D on what Schulz called a "funky little run" to earn more than $1,000, too.

"I don't run Eedie, Crystal or Mister at anything local unless they've got a good amount of money added, so they usually stay home while I run the babies," said Schulz. "This one is definitely one to put on the calendar. They keep getting bigger and bigger. I think when people see that type of payout, it's going to keep growing."

Schulz, who also qualified for this year's The American Semi-finals, had a tough winter between family health issues and severe weather. "Snowmageddon" in February kept her from traveling to Texas for the Semifinals and the Royal Crown, so she didn't get to compete on her A-Team as much as she had planned.

"It was a tough winter, a tough start," said Schulz, the mother of two school age boys with her husband Tyler. "We just dug a little deeper and I ended up taking a lot more training horses this winter and focusing there. Now that things are opening back up hopefully we'll be able to play a little bit more."

Schulz has several more big-money races coming up this summer such as the Xtreme Million in Salina, Utah, which is immediately followed by the Big Time Race in Silesia, Montana, as well as the Ruby Buckle and Pink Buckle later in the year.

THE RUNDOWN w/Lindsay Schulz

Miss Eedie Stinson, "Eedie" 16.1 hands, 1,400 lbs.

BIT: Dave Elliot Spur Up 13

SADDLE: Stoney — SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice Elite's on all four.

SHOEING: Aluminum shoes with pads on front; shod by Eli Smith.

FEED: ReNew Gold

HAY: Alfalfa; on pasture

SUPPLEMENTS: Forco, electrolytes, TLC Equibone

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Acuscope/Myoscope from Nancy Nuckolls; veterinary care from Jared Sharp at Idaho Equine.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "She gets rode five days a week. I'm really adamant about conditioning programs. These horses have to be spot on. Three days a week they're long-trotted. All my horses have to long trot for 25 to 30 minutes without breaking a sweat before I ultimately put them on a pattern. She never gets barrel work. I'll go work on my circles and make sure she's opened up in that rib cage and moving her shoulders freely. She's pretty easy that way. They get sprinted two to three times a month if I'm not running to make sure I keep those lungs in great condition."

SPONSORS: Katie's Western Dove Tack, Forco-Ronda Melton, FlexiNeb, Nancy Nuckolls-Sun Therapies, Oxy-Gen-Susan Pierce, Zesterra-Bryel Muligan, Besthorsegear.com-Mike Holland, Gear Up Apparel, Topsy Cowgirl, EkiJoint Gold-Jaime Collins.

"There's a lot of big money races that make it worth going down the road to," she said. "The barrel racing community has taken a life of it's own. Rodeo isn't in my foresight anymore. I'm getting older and I just don't want to run on bad ground anymore. I can go to these big opportunities and afford to keep my good open horses. They make it fun and enjoyable for my family to stayover at these big events. You can take the colts too. It makes more business sense to stay and do those type of things."

Triangle Horse Sales Breaks Record for Three Successive Sale Seasons

Triangle Horse Sales continued record-breaking averages for the third straight sale season with the close of its 41st Annual Spring Sale, held April 30 and May 1 in Oklahoma City. The sale's average topped all previous averages at $12,975 per head on 244 catalogued horses, less withdrawals, with a 79-percent sales completion. This continues a streak of record high averages for the venue that began with the Fall 2020 Sale, which posted a $10,150 per-head average and the 2021 Winter Sale at $12,750 per head.

The highly successful barrel racing mare, Spotlight Ta Fame helped to kick off the Spring Sale with a bang as Hip No. 38, commanding a remarkable purchase price of $170,000. Spotlight Ta Fame is a daughter of My Stud Leroy x Lite On The Bar by Stripping On The Bar consigned by Keyla Polizello Costa, Tolar, Texas. The 2009 bay mare has accrued $40,000 in lifetime earnings, winning barrel futurities and rodeos across the country and was purchased by ASCO Equipment located in Hereford, Texas.

The high averages are indicative of the demand for quality, finished horses across the country and Triangle Sales has been a go-to sale site for buying and selling the best in a range of western disciplines since its founding in 1979. Overall, the Spring Sale sold 70 performance geldings for an average of $20,600.

The sale also elevated Triangle's Top $10,000 Club with the addition of 90 horses averaging $19,600. There were 132 horses added during the Winter Sale, for a total of 222 horses selling over $10,000 within two sales. Top averages broken down by discipline included reining horses, averaging $19,700; cutting and cow horses at $18,000; ranching and roping horses at $15,600.

Jim Ware, owner of Triangle Horse Sales says that despite the increase in averages, he feels like the market is approaching a point of healthy stability, rather than a continued climb.

"I think pricing for the Spring Sale was as good as that in January," Ware said. "We have experienced these record high averages and a strong market across the country."

"It seems like every sale we've had for a while has seen progressively higher averages than the last one, however I feel like now the market is stabilizing."

"We had a presidential address the week of the Spring Sale," Ware said. "Anytime policy changes are discussed, such as changes in tax codes, that plays a role. The over-riding majority of horse owners stay aware of the political environment, and you could feel that among the buyers. But overall, it was a really good sale that drew a great crowd."

The Spring Sale was host to buyers from 25 states, and the top buyer states were Texas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Arkansas and Missouri.

Other Top 10 selling lots included Hip No. 148, Peek Twice (Peeka Pep x Miss Dualling Pep by Dual Pep), a 2010 red roan gelding, which sold for $50,000. The gelding was consigned by Turner Performance Horses, LLC, Wickenburg, Ariz., and purchased by Jeff Edwards, Bozeman, Mont. This was followed by a 2014 sorrel mare selling as Hip No. 112, Wicked Little Cat (Metallic Cat x Wicked Wanda Rey by Dual Rey), which went for $44,000 to Karen Griffin, Purcell, Okla., and was consigned by Rock Creek Cutting Horses, Weatherford, Texas.

Two sorrel geldings came in as fourth and fifth high sellers. Hip No. 63, Famous Collusion (Dash Ta Fame x Legsgonewild by Tres Seis) sold for $39,500. The 2018 gelding was consigned by Lance Powers, Wynnewood, Okla., as agent and was purchased by Scott Duke, Vancleave, Miss. Fifth high seller, Gunna Be Hermoso (Gunnatrashya x Hermosa Dun It by Hollywood Dun It) followed closely with a purchase price of $35,000 as Hip No. 135. Gunna Be Hermoso is a 2017 gelding consigned by St-Onge Reining Horses, Gainesville, Texas, and sold to Shane Kelley, Lampasas, Texas.

The Top 10 high sellers also included:

Hip No. 210, Darlin Bobby (Bobby Starlight x Darlin Delta by Haidas Little Pep) 2014 Gray Mare; Selling for $30,000 to Flag Ranch, LLC, Purcell, Okla., consigned by Daniel Reed, Allen, Okla.

Hip No. 105, Jackie's Last Dunit (Jackie Twas Dunit x Zans Last Durette by Zans Last Dude), 2009 Dun Gelding; Selling for $27,500 to Brad West, Shawnee, Okla., consigned by Shawn Trimble, Colleyville, Kan.

Hip No. 57, Legends Whizard (Spooks Gotta Whiz x Legends Lil Squeeze by Custom Legend); 2015 Bay Gelding; Selling for $27,500 to Sam Kyle, Yukon, Okla., consigned by St-Onge Reining Horses, Gainesville, Texas

Hip No. 189, A Little Cat N Mouse (Cats Merada x HR Playin Legend by Little Lenas

Triangle Horse Sales features three regularly scheduled sales per year: The Winter Sale — or "January Sale," Fall Sale and Spring Sale, as well as occasional special sales. The 42nd Annual Fall Sale is scheduled for October 29 and 30, 2021, at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City. The Fall Sale will be held in conjunction with the American Quarter Horse Association World Show.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

In the times we are in, we MUST NOT get dragged down by watching what's going on in our world. Our very good God knew everything that is happening and will happen.

The news just reports what has already taken place, God will show us things to come! John 16:13. If we spend all our time listening to the media, we will despair that anything is going right, and we can get into fear.

The Bible is our guidebook. The Bible is our hope. The Bible has the answer we need for every problem. So, let's look at what God put in there for us today. Phil. 4:4-9. I'm going to sum it up for us, but please go and read it for yourself. We are to rejoice always. Don't worry. Pray about everything. Be thankful. Receive His peace. Then in verse 8, He instructs us to think about things that are true, noble, just, pure, lovely, and of good report.

I haven't ever seen those things on the 'bad' news channel, have you? God knew all this was coming and He has given us every tool to come through victorious. We were born for such a time as this. If we didn't have what it takes to be overcomers in Him, we'd have been born in another time.

But we must look to Him FIRST! It would be very beneficial to practice seeing the good, talking about good, and DOING good! That approach in your life will run the devil off! And our example just might be the hope that someone else needs!
