Sweet Victory, Bryant Wins PWR and Nearly $70K on Pancakes

By Julie Mankin

Kappie Bryant of Sunset, Texas, didn't have to haul very far to the Fort Worth Stockyards to make four runs that netted her $68,500 and the inaugural Premier Women's Rodeo barrel racing championship. But, although everybody thinks the small confines and blind alley of Cowtown Coliseum are a great fit for Bryant's tiny 8-year-old buckskin gelding Smooth As Rico ("Pancakes"), they're wrong.

"I've never won a dime in that arena and mostly just clocked 13.6s and 13.4s," said Bryant, 31. In fact, she said it's in the small pens the duo makes the most mistakes.

"Sometimes I miss my first," said Bryant, who grew up in Arkansas riding jumping horses. "Did anybody watch the second round? He went to the wall on the first barrel. I'm lucky his footwork is efficient and he's fast."

Bryant had to make a special game plan to keep her playful buckskin on point. And that included a little superstition. By Tuesday, she still didn't have her winnings because Bryant refuses to fill out a W9 beforehand.

"I've got the big cardboard check, but honestly, anytime I've ever walked up and filled out a W9 when I entered, I've never won a dime," she said. "All the other times, I ended up winning good money."

Her superstition worked like a charm. Bryant purposely didn't try to get a high seed into the Semi-Finals because Pancakes works better on the fourth run in a pen than the first. She qualified for the PWR as the 16th ranked barrel racer on the Pro Leaderboard. Because the aggregate finish was so important in order to advance, Bryant dropped her bit way down in Pancakes' mouth to encourage clean runs.

"I was focused on the long game and trying to be smart," she said. "I had a plan in my head and stuck to it. My bit was almost hanging out of his mouth. If he went to shaking his head hard, he could have shaken it off. But I could run him in a halter. If I put him in his spots and do my job, he'll handle the rest. He's super honest and so broke I can put him wherever I want the entire run." She and Pancakes finished third in each of the first two rounds with near-identical times of 13.2, which also placed them second in the average on two. Then the pair won the Pro Semi-Finals with a 13.072, which topped the average on three runs. Bryant said she and Pancakes just know each other so well by now that it's an advantage. Bred by Lauren Solomon of Ogden, Utah, he's by the late Myers stallion A Smooth Guy (Frenchman's Guy/Doc's Movida) and out of Little Thunder Rolls (SI 106), by Royal Quick Dash out of a Streakin Six daughter. He was called "Rico" when Bryant traded a horse for him as a 3-year-old. Why'd she change his name to Pancakes? That personality.

"All week at Cowtown, he was being so silly and playing," she said, laughing. "You can't see it on TV, but going up the alley, he'd be on the wrong lead, messing around. I was like, 'Pancakes, please, for the love of God, what are you doing?' I had to stop him in the alley the first two rounds and make him take the correct lead!" For the clean-slate finals, Bryant hiked her bit back up and knew she had to go for broke.

"I sent him from further back and was going in there to win,

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice Strike

SHOEING: steel shoes by Cutter Holloway; hind shoes have tiny trailers

FEED: Bluebonnet's Equilene Pro Care

HAY: mix of orchard, timothy and alfalfa

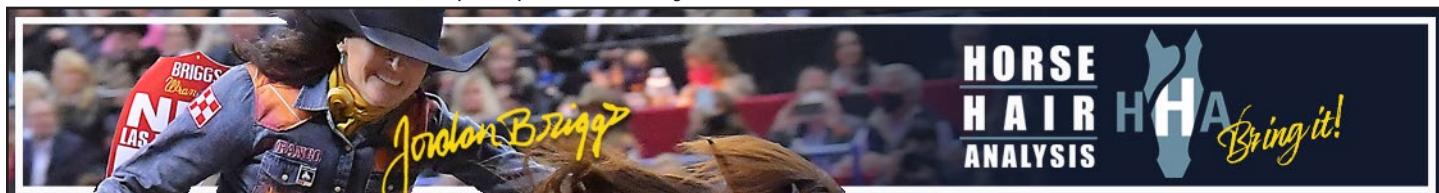

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Breathe paste, daily electrolytes, Redmond trace mineral salt, FullBucket probiotics

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: I just need a dirt patch and a bucket of treats after a run, because he loves to roll.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Pancakes is so little, I keep him a little stiffer and ride his hind end all the way to a barrel before starting the turn. To keep him free, I work him with my hands in middle of the reins, drive him forward and keep his feet low to the ground.

THANK YOUS: To Ashton Jones, who started Pancakes and made my job much easier. To all my sponsors. To the PWR – I can't wait to go back next year. And to everybody who cheers for Pancakes, which means more than they realize.

especially after Paige goes in there and runs that 13.1,” recalled Bryant. “He got up the pen too much on the first barrel. I didn’t set him up with a great angle. I guess I should have held him a little longer. It sounds goofy, but I keep my face down in a run because I talk to him. When that happened at the first barrel I said, ‘Oh sh*t, Pancakes, now we’ve got to hurry!’”

Bryant had to lift a leg leaving first after their tough approach. Then she hustled him and allowed tight corners, finishing with a 13.062 that won the rodeo by almost a full tenth of a second over Skyler Nicholas, who took home $29,000 on the week. Bryant’s little buckskin was flying. She does wear spurs, but they’re encased in vet wrap.

“He needs encouragement,” said Bryant. “When Halyn [Lide] ran him at the Finals, I told her, ‘Unless you show him an over-and-under before you go in, he’ll trot in the alley at the NFR!’ She said, ‘But I’m not aggressive.’ I told her, ‘If you put your hand down and want to carry a flag, he’d do that.’”

It was a great two weeks for Bryant, who also took Pancakes to Rodeo Corpus Christi the weekend prior and won second for another $9,005 total. Honestly, she said if she were to leave Pancakes home for a break, he’d be so mad he might cripple himself in his pen.

“He enjoys it so much,” she said. “I’ve never been around a horse or human in as great a mood all the time. He’s doesn’t know he’s small. I told Tricia [Aldridge], if you ever say you have the only stud out here, don’t say it in front of Pancakes! He thinks he’s a banty rooster.”

Everyone asks Bryant if she’s going to rodeo now.

“My plans are still the same,” said Bryant, who hopes to make her Circuit Finals this year. “I’ll take him where I draw good on the ground and think he can win. We entered Reno. But I’m not going to make the Finals one time and cripple him doing it, you know?”

Luckily, Bryant will also be seasoning a 7-year-old First Moon-flash horse that she said can maybe outrun Pancakes. Plus, she and her significant other, Don Lee DVM, just this spring welcomed Pancake’s almost-full brother they’re calling ‘Hot Pocket.’

“We’ve got the breakfast club now,” cracked Bryant.

Double Tough – Tyler Rivette Sweeps Old Fort Days Futurities with Adios Ameegos & Epic Path Ta Fame

By Tanya Randall

Tyler Rivette will ride into the Old Fort Days Futurity history books as the first rider to win both the 4-year-old and 5-year-old futurities in the same year on different horses.

The trainer from Maysville, Oklahoma, rode Adios Ameegos (“Blair”), a homebred for Rosemary Harrison, to a $28,502 Hart Farms 4-Year-Old Futurity Championship and then climbed aboard Sadye Albert’s Epic Path Ta Fame (“Jammer”) for an injured Pete Oen to win a $23,012 R Barrel Horses Senior (5-Year-old) Futurity Championship.

The 49th Annual Old Fort Days Futurity, held May 11-16 in Fort Smith, Arkansas, marked the first time for the 4- and 5-year-old futurities being two completely separate classes with no roll over times. The $40,000-plus added 4-Year-Old Futurity drew 173 entries, while the Senior Futurity for 5-year-olds boasted 193 entries for $20,000 added.

“Weeks like this are unforgettable and remind us why the early mornings, late nights, hard work, setbacks, and sacrifices are all worth it,” Rivette wrote on Facebook.

“Not every horse becomes a champion, but every horse will teach you something if you let them. Every run, every mistake, every small win along the way has helped shape me into the horseman and competitor I am today.

“I wouldn’t be where I am without the amazing people in my corner — the ones who are always just a phone call away, always willing to help, encourage, push, and believe in me even on the hard days. I’m beyond thankful for every single one of you.

“This journey is never done alone, and moments like this make it all worth it. This one is going to be hard to top!”

In the 4-Year-Old Time Trials, Rivette and Blair clocked a 16.799 to be the seventh fastest qualifiers. They came back to win the sudden death Finals in 16.376.

“She’s very honest and very easy to run,” said Rivette. “I can basically run her one-handed through the whole pattern. In the long go, she set to turn the second and kind of slid by it. I wasn’t really too worried about it.

“In the finals, I just went and made my normal run, and it all worked out. She can really stick a leg in the corners. She makes a fast corner.”

Blair is by $18.4 million dollar sire The Goodbye Lane out of National Finals Rodeo qualifier and multiple American Semifinalist Streakinflingindisco (“Disco”), by A Streak Of Fling out of Lot A Disco, by Disco Jerry (TB). She’s also the first foal out of the mare that Rivette’s got to campaign.

“She’s identical to her mother Disco,” Rivette said. “Her mother went to the left and I trained her to the left from day one. She’s never even gone to the right barrel (first). It was kind of cheating (training) since I rode her mom. She’s basically her mom made over.”

It’s worth noting that Disco is the reason that Harrison bought the stallion Flingin Roses that Rivette made into a BFA Futurity and AQHA World Champion.

Prior to Fort Smith, Blair had earnings of $33,359 with career highlights including a third place finish in both the Royal Crown and South Valley Equine Open futurities in Buckeye, Arizona, as well as placing in the first round of the incredibly tough American Central Regional. The mare’s career earnings are now $63,266 including $1,060 in Future Fortunes bonus money.

“She doesn’t act like a 4-year-old,” Rivette said. “She just loves it. She doesn’t get nervous. She’s not hot. She just has a big personality and loves to run barrels.”

In the 5-Year-Old Time Trials, Rivette and Jammer were the sixth fastest qualifier with a 16.713 and came back to win the sudden death Finals in 16.408.

On Facebook, Rivette wrote that he was grateful to make an unfortunate situation for Jammer’s owner Sadye Albert and regular rider Pete Oen “a little brighter.”

Oen, who is nearly recovered from a surgically repaired broken arm, got Jammer late in his third year from Sadye Albert, who had owned his dam God Given Fame and bred her to Epic Leader for an embryo before selling her to Raphael Haras in Brazil.

Oen had ridden God Given Fame, who was trained by Janna Brown, before the mare went to Brazil and that experience helped greatly with Jammer.

“He wasn’t the easiest horse,” said Oen. “His mother was the same way. There were things that he would do that I normally would have made a big deal of if I hadn’t ridden her and knew she was like that too.”

Oen and Jammer started making headways in February at the Quarter Horse Show at the Fort Worth Stock Show, where they won the junior barrels and finished in the money in the Timed Event Challenge. They took fifth at the super tough Grand Prix Futurity in Stephenville, Texas, before he broke his arm on March 15 after a run-in with a broodmare in the pasture.

Record Run Wins Old Fort Days Super Derby For Ima Mulberry Breeze & Phillip Kenyon

By Tanya Randall

In the mid-1980s, Harold and Ruth Swain sent Hesa Classy Osage to the late, great Larry Stevens to train and campaign. Stevens and the gelded son of Osage Streaker (TB) won the 1987 Barrel Futurities of America's World Championship Derby.

Now 39 years later, another Osage Streaker descendent has taken the couple to the winner's circle.

Ima Mulberry Breeze ("Breezy"), expertly trained and ridden by Phillip Kenyon, set the new pattern arena record to win a $22,808 5-Star Equine Products Super Derby at the Old Fort Days Futurity, held May 11-16 in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Breezy is by MCM Imahoss, a son of Tres Seis out of the great Mulberry Canyon Moon, a granddaughter of Osage Streaker through her dam, De Streaker. The 5-year-old mare is out of Keith and Dee Burgess' homebred mare Buggys Easy Breeze, by Buggys On Trial.

Kasey Faust recommended Kenyon to the Swains, who sent him the filly as a broke 2-year-old.

As a 3-year-old Breezy placed well in a round at the BFA Juvenile Futurity. She made the finals of the Old Fort Days Futurity but was a little inconsistent through her fourth year.

"I don't really want to say inconsistent," said Kenyon. "She's really tall, like 16.1. She's always been really aware of her feet and stuff like that, but we were just dealing with growing and changing."

This year, Breezy has really started to figure out the game.

"I won a barrel race on her earlier this year, and that kind of started it all. She just figured it out. I didn't want to get too excited, but I was like, 'Wow!' This mare really tries every time, so if she gets confident, I think she'll get really fast. And that's exactly what happened."

Breezy came into the Old Fort Days Super Derby off of a solid ninth-place finish at the Ruby Buckle Central Derby but had to take the Consolation route into the Derby Finals.

"I haven't been exhibiting her, because she just likes to go and run," Kenyon explained. "I've done it a couple times this year. I didn't do it at Ruby, so I wasn't going to change it up too much here."

They were a disappointing 17.291 on their first run in the 123-head Derby Time Trials.

"That was my little reminder she's still 5," laughed Kenyon. "I told my friend after my first run that the long go was my exhibition. She just kind of looked around a little bit, but she really locked in after that."

Breezy clocked a 16.322 to take second and earn one of five Consolation spots in the 25 head Derby Finals. She also earned an additional $1,930.

In the Finals, Breezy and Kenyon were fourth out and first on the ground since they were dragging the ground every three runners.

"It started out really fast," said Kenyon. "Ceri ran a .3 on Leslie Willis' horse. Dusky Lynn Hall ran a .2, so it started with a bang."

Then Kenyon and Breeze turned in a blistering 16.010, the fastest time of the week on the pattern that was moved to center the third barrel off of the single alley being used for the event.

"I looked up and was like 'Holy cow, Man!' Kenyon exclaimed.

He said Breezy's first and second barrels were "utter perfection."

"I think I touched every side of the second barrel in the Finals," Kenyon said. "I'm still a little shocked that I ran the fastest time of the week."

Kenyon also placed 20th in the Derby Finals on Popstar Princess, owned by his mom Tracy. Popstar Princess, who earned $1,140, is by PC Frenchmans Hayday out of the Clarify mare DC Princess, Kenyon's first 4-year-old futurity horse that later became

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I just long jog her and lope her most days and a couple times a week I'll go through the pattern slowly just to keep everybody on the same page. Like I said, she's really smart so I have to watch it with her because she'll pick up on stuff that I don't mean for her to pick up on. She's not trying to do me dirty, she's just trying to please, trying to be a good girl."

THANK YOUS: Parents Steven and Tracy Kenyon, Cole and Kelsey McNamee for staying an extra half day to help him with his two derby finalists and Harold and Ruth Swain for being incredible owners and great partners.

Popstar Princess is also a half-sister to Kenyon's homegrown Hossta La Vista, one of MCM Imahoss's biggest winners to date.

"I think they're really kind horses," said Kenyon, who has ridden five or six by the stallion. "I think they're personable. They've all really wanted to be pleasers.

"This mare (Breezy) in particular is very, very intelligent. When I started training her, if she was struggling with something, I could get her to a place where I felt she improved and quit on her, and the next day it was like she thought about it all night and completely fixed it. It was kind of crazy.”

Kenyon did say that Breezy is “a more serious” horse, whereas Hossta La Vista was very “happy-go-lucky.”

“I think what I like about them is that I can keep it simple because they tend to be sponges,” he said. “If you can keep things a little simpler, it actually helps them and they just kind of learn where I want the go and how to stay balanced underneath me.”

New Home, New Name, New Dates - Still the Crowning Jewel for Professional Rodeo Breakaway Roping

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association and the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo (FWSSR) are excited to announce a new three-year agreement to bring the Wrangler WPRA National Breakaway Finals, formerly known as the National Finals Breakaway Roping, held in Las Vegas to the Lone Star State. The event is slated for December 18-19, 2026, at the newly remodeled Will Rogers Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas.

"We are looking forward to this new chapter of women's breakaway roping in professional rodeo and are excited to work with the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo to continue to elevate this championship event," said Heidi Schmidt, WPRA President. "With the overwhelming response we saw last year, we feel moving to a larger venue in Fort Worth will allow this event to continue to grow and evolve for the foreseeable future for our contestants and fans alike."

The WPRA National Breakaway Finals is the only event in the world where professional breakaway ropers can earn the title of World Champion Breakaway Roper, the ultimate honor in professional rodeo. The top 15 at the end of the regular season on September 30th will punch their ticket to this prestigious event.

"Hosting these high-caliber WPRA athletes brings another top-tier competitive event to Fort Worth where we enthusiastically celebrate the Western way of life," said FWSSR Rodeo Director Cal White. "The Will Rogers Coliseum is a perfect venue for Western sports thus we're excited about this new partnership to draw greater attention to breakaway roping and continue highlighting these amazing women."

Recognized as an industry leader, the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo was honored with the 2020 WPRA Breakaway Trailblazer Year-End Award, recognizing them for their early adoption to feature women's breakaway roping during their professional rodeo with equal money. The rodeo and city of Fort Worth, home to the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame, have and continue to put an emphasis on women's sports not only in the western industry but in mainstream sports having recently hosted the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament at nearby Dickies Arena.

Women's breakaway roping hit a new benchmark in 2020 when the WPRA and PRCA hosted a premier 10-round, top 15 championship, mimicking the structure of NFR barrel racing—a massive evolution since the first world title in 1974.

As the championship moves to Fort Worth, Wrangler will continue its role as title sponsor—a position it has held since the event's inception in 2020, following decades of support for the WPRA.

"It has been inspiring to see the WPRA's growth and commitment to the advancement of women's breakaway roping" said Jeff Chadwick, Director, Wrangler Western Special Events. "Congratulations to the WPRA, the city of Fort Worth and the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo for hosting this premier event showcasing the top 15 breakaway ropers competing for a World Championship. We encourage fans of women's sports to come out and support these ladies."

Additional details including on-sale ticket date and pricing will be forthcoming. For those interested in being included in the presale offers for this great event visit www.wpra.com/2026nbf.

Championship Monday Closes Out an Epic Rodeo Weekend at Cloverdale Rodeo

The championship atmosphere was electric Monday afternoon at Jamie Rogers Arena as the top eight competitors from each discipline returned for the 2026 Cloverdale Rodeo Finals. After battling top-tier stock in front of sold-out performances across the May Long Weekend, the remaining athletes delivered one last showcase of world-class rodeo action in front of another packed crowd at one of Western Canada's premier rodeo events. From clutch championship rides to dramatic final runs against the clock, the Finals capped off five unforgettable days of rodeo, live music, and fair fun at the expanded 2026 Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair, an event that continued to raise the bar with record crowds, elite competition, and festival energy across the fairgrounds.

Fans can re-live every moment from the 2026 Cloverdale Rodeo, including all pool go-rounds and Monday's championship Finals, through the official replay broadcasts available on the Cloverdale Rodeo website. From the opening rides under the lights on Friday night to the final bull ride of the weekend on Monday afternoon, the replay library gives rodeo fans another chance to experience the biggest moments, top scores, and unforgettable atmosphere from Jamie Rogers Arena.

The Barrel Racing competition showcased consistency, precision, and incredible horsemanship throughout the entire May long weekend, with athletes battling through two closely-fought pool rounds before advancing to Monday's Finals. Fans packed the arena for every run as competitors pushed for faster times around the barrels, proving once again why Barrel Racing remains one of the most thrilling and crowd-favourite events at the Cloverdale Rodeo.

In her very first trip to Canada, Sloan McFarlane made sure the Cloverdale Rodeo crowd would remember her name. Drawing the second run of the Finals, McFarlane laid down a blazing 15.74-second pattern that proved untouchable for the remainder of the competition, earning her the 2026 Cloverdale Rodeo Barrel Racing championship, a $25,000 payday, and a set of Cloverdale Rodeo spurs. Brooke Wills placed second with a 16.13-second run, while Vanessa Leggett rounded out the top three after stopping the clock at 16.31 seconds.

When rodeo announcer Brett Gardner asked if she planned to return to Canada, McFarlane grinned and replied, "If I can come back as many times as I can, I will!"

Whatever you do,
do it well.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When you turn on your tv or Facebook, there are people who seem to be in the headlines. We recognize their names and we know something about what they do. Singers, actors, rodeo stars, government officials. Do people recognize your name? And what does it mean to them?

We were headed home from doing a church meeting in Montana last week and, through the Crow Reservation, the railroad tracks parallel the interstate. We were keeping pace with a train so I had several miles to watch the cars. I don't know about you, but I marvel at the artwork on those cars. And without fail, I wonder why anyone who can draw like that, is wasting that talent on a railroad car!

So, I said to Mike, "I can tell you for sure, that you will NEVER see my artwork on a train car. Heck, you'll never see my artwork anywhere!" He laughed because he knows I can't even draw stick people!

"AND, for that matter, you will never hear my voice on stage at a concert. . . ." I got to thinking about just what it was I would be remembered for. . . .and then I thought, "Who cares?" There is a name that is above every name, there is a name that is wonderful and powerful and mighty and can deliver all of us from anything evil.

THAT's a name! And it's the name of JESUS! It's the name to remember and call on . . . every day, all day!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
