Loflin & Sheza Blazin Move Get Revved up in Redding

By Tanya Randall

Two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Christy Loflin of Franktown, Colo., and her tough mare Sheza Blazin Move ("Movin") were the models of consistency in Redding, Calif. The talented duo won the $10,500-added Redding Rodeo, held May 15-16, and split the victory in the $16,000 Wrangler Champions Challenge with Carlee Pierce and Dash Ta Diamonds.

Ironically, the winning time for both runs was a 17.37.

"She took off with me in the alley both times," laughed Loflin, who is sponsored by Duba Trailers, Universal Media Inc., Professional's Choice, Rock & Roll Cowgirl, Tony Lama, Equidae Feeds, Formula 707 and Hoofcaredtoday.com. "I didn't realize how far it was to the first barrel. My first thought was this can't be good, and she smoked it. I guess she knew better than I did!

"You can't really mess with her in the alley. If you pull her when she tries to go, she thinks it's an exhibition and won't run."

Unlike years past, Redding changed its format from two rounds to one to accommodate the Wrangler Champions Challenge, which was held on May 17. The rodeo paid $19,387 with Loflin's winner's share being $3,978. The split win the Challenge was worth $4,800. All totaled Loflin's Redding haul jumped her to 11th in the World Standings with $30,913.

"They did a fantastic job," said Loflin, praising the Redding Rodeo committee. She also wanted to thank her family for their support while she's chasing her dream.

With Redding marking the one-year anniversary of Movin's return to the arena, Loflin was extremely grateful just for the opportunity to compete.

"Redding was the first rodeo I made back on her after she was injured," she said. "They gave her a 60 percent chance of not coming back. So it was an awesome anniversary for me. I'm just so thankful. You never know when you're going make your last run so you should cherish every one."

Redding was the only rodeo that Loflin worked that weekend and she was just grateful to get there.

"We barely made it there," she laughed. After trailer gremlins plagued her most of the 2013 summer, Loflin had a new "phenomenal" trailer from Duba Trailers, but it was her new truck that was jinxed this trip. "We lost a dual outside of Kingman, Ariz. Dollie and Jolee Latuaret (Jordan) came to our rescue. We were there two days and almost didn't make it. I was worried that Movin would be tired but she wasn't."

The 9-year-old daughter of leading sire Blazin Jetolena out of Sheza Cashanova MP, by Sir Cashanova, was raring to go after about a month off from the road.

"I took a little break and didn't go to the California rodeos,"

Loflin explained.

Instead, she went to Guymon, Okla., and ran in the All-Star Rodeo in Denver with her daughter Randi Timmons. "I was happy to have won more than $20,000 over the winter, so I gave her a little break to rest up for the summer. So far our plan has worked in our favor."

Loflin will run at the Old Fort Days Rodeo in Fort Smith, Ark., before heading west for the Wrangler Champions Challenge in Spanish Fork, Utah.

"From there on out it gets really crazy," she said. The current plan is for her and Walker to haul together until mid-June. Walker will go to Canada, while Loflin will stay in the States since she missed making Calgary by the slimmest of margins.

RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo Moving to Osceola County

The County Commissioners of Osceola County, Fla., have approved an $11 million-plus contract that will move the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo to Osceola County for the next 10 years and dramatically increase the payoff for the stars of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association's circuit system.

In the new agreement, the contestant purse will increase 175 percent from 2014 to 2015, and contestants who compete in Osceola County will for the first time receive a $1,000 cash stipend. PRCA contract personnel and stock contractors who work the RNCFR will receive a 50 percent raise, and each of the 12 PRCA RAM circuit finals rodeos will be awarded a $10,000 sponsorship each year from Osceola County.

PRCA LogoTosceola-countyhe contract between the PRCA and Osceola County, which was signed May 19, will move the PRCA circuit system's showcase event to Florida for a four-day, five-performance event which will feature the talents of each PRCA circuit's year-end champions and the event winners at each of the 12 RAM-sponsored circuit finals rodeos. The RNCFR will move to Osceola County, where circuit standouts will compete for more than $1 million in cash and prizes, including buckles, saddles, RAM Truck vehicle vouchers and the coveted national circuit champion titles. The 2015 RNCFR will be held March 25-28 at the Silver Spurs Arena in Kissimmee, Fla.

"This is going to be fantastic for fans and the community. The PRCA recognizes that Osceola County and Central Florida are a great rodeo market," said Osceola Commission Chairman Fred Hawkins Jr. "Osceola County's efforts to bring the (Wrangler) National Finals Rodeo here earlier this year set the stage for this deal. We're excited about hosting competitors with such amazing talent at one of the most prestigious rodeos in the sport's history.

"With the county's rodeo heritage and Central Florida's nearly 60 million visitors a year, we are the perfect location for this event. We have the expertise to grow the fan base and draw awareness to such an exciting sport. It is also a tribute to all our partners in the community, who helped us showcase Osceola County and Central Florida to the PRCA. This event will enhance our reputation as a rodeo-friendly community. We have amazing rodeo fans and at the same time it will clearly show rodeo fans from around the country that we are a premier destination for them."

The RNCFR, held in Oklahoma the last four years, is one of the richest rodeos in the world.

"First, the PRCA owes a debt of gratitude to our friends in Oklahoma," said PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman. "Between Mr. Bob Funk and the good folks at the Lazy E Arena, they helped grow this event into one that has obviously become desirable to other communities.

"Central Florida, and specifically Osceola County, has a long-standing and rich rodeo heritage. The commissioners and county leaders are first-class people, and have proven so time and time again. We are very excited for this opportunity and their assistance in advancing the PRCA and gaining recognition and additional opportunities for all our members."

Osceola County will work with the PRCA through Experience Kissimmee to market the RNCFR in its new home.

"Being a native of southern Florida, it's exciting for this event to come here," said PRCA Board member Troy Weekley. "On behalf of myself and the rest of the PRCA Board of Directors, we are very appreciative of Osceola County for hosting this outstanding rodeo."

Every segment of the rodeo business is excited about the future of the RNCFR in Florida, including the event's headline sponsor.

"RAM has been a long-time supporter and title sponsor of the PRCA circuit system," said RAM Rodeo CEO Mike Orman. "We are optimistic that moving the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo to Osceola County, and what they are committed to investing in the event, will continue to grow the circuit program and bring new fans to this world-class, championship event."

About the RNCFR: The RNCFR format features the top 24 contestants, two from each of the 12 PRCA circuits, who compete in two go-rounds. The top eight cumulative times or scores advance to the semifinals. The top four from the semifinals advance to the finals, and the national champions are crowned sudden-death style based on the top scores and times in the finals.

BARREL BREEDERS INCENTIVE was formed to help promote our stallions as well as the sport of barrel racing. We are stallion owners who want to give the customer and barrel racing enthusiast an added incentive to breed to our stallions and purchase horses from us.

BBI is set apart from other barrel breeders' programs as we promote at Open Barrel races as well as at Futurity & Derby events. Horses 4-7 years old by nominated stallions (or stallion if of age) are eligible to run in BBI. Pictured BBI winners from 2013 Barrel of Gold and CSR Futilities and Derbies. JACKIE JENSEN PHOTOS

BARRELRACING REPORT

Surprise Victory for Dreamy Little Nick & Little at South Country

By Tanya Randall

Coming back into the short go of the $9,000-added South Country Futurity, Rayel Little didn't think she had a prayer of winning the championship with Dreamy Little Nick ("Tucson").

"We were going in 12th in the short go," Little explained. "I thought I'd better make another fast run because I knew they were paying eight places in the average. I never thought we'd jump from 12th to 1st! I was quite surprised!"

Tucson's victory in the 13th Annual South Country Futurity held May 16-18 in Cardston, Alberta, was worth $3,965 of the $23,439 total purse.

In the first round, Tucson was more concerned with seeing the sights rather than picking his feet up and putting them down.

"He was a 15.1, which was about a full second off of the pace," laughed Little, who resides in Thorsby, Alberta. "He just went in there and was looking around and not really running. He was too busy checking everything out to run. It wasn't like he had a bad pattern or anything went wrong."

Little took advantage of the multitude of time only sessions provided by producers Monica Wilson and her daughter Randa Nugent before the second go. More arena time made Tucson a lot more comfortable and he delivered a second place run of 14.308 in the second round and won the short go with a 14.290.

"He just needed that extra time to settle in," said Little, who is sponsored by Martin Saddlery, Impact Gel and Iconoclast. "He was all business."

Bred by Little and her husband Grant, Tucson, a 5-year-old sorrel gelding, is by As Good As Nick Gets out of Fols Dream Of Cash, by Takin On The Cash. Fols Dream Of Cash is a half-sister to champion barrel horse Lady Perks, by Dash For Perks. Both mares are out of Fols Debbie, by the Thoroughbred Fols Native. Fols Dream Of Cash is now property of Busby Quarter Horses, Brock,

Little also campaigned Tucson's full brother Good Little Nick, the 2013 South Country Futurity Reserve Champion. She said the horses are very similar except that Tucson is "very spooky."

"He was very easy (to train) honestly," said Little of Tucson, "but if he has one quirk about him, it's that he's very spooky. Even to this day if I were to go work barrels in my own arena he's scared of the barrels. He's that kind of quirky."

I am currently hauling futurity colts, derby horses, and competing in rodeos every weekend. Oxy Fluidity has become an essential part of my feeding program. I give 20 cc every week and 10 cc before I run on all my horses. It is very nice not to have to worry about your horses getting sore from injections because Oxy Fluidity is an oral paste. It is fast acting and provides so much relief for my horses when I know they are a little sore after a weekend of competing. I have seen such great results with this product I even take it myself!

"He's got a great disposition. He's very laid back, quiet and easy going. I commented to Grant quite often this winter when we were taking him to do time onlies that 'I'm not sure this horse has a pulse. He doesn't even know that he's at a race.' He's just so quiet and laid back."

Due to his spookiness, Little decided to skip the earlier futurities in the states and wait until she returned to Canada for the summer to enter Tucson. South Country was his first futurity.

"We thought he was a hair immature," he said. "He sure came around and did his job. He's one of those honest-type horses that you could almost run with a loop in the reins. You don't have shape him or doing anything special. He just goes to his spots. He's fun to ride."

Little said she hadn't planned on going to many futurities with Tucson, but will stick with the Canadian futurities. She's also thought about letting her daughter Reena Robinson run him a little at the jackpots.

"It would be something fun for her to do, because he is one of those kinds of horses that will allow a young kid on him and still try to go out there and do his job," she noted.

Little wanted to thank the South Country producers for their fantastic job with the event.

"It's like the best futurity ever for young horses," she said. "They allow us a lot of time to go down there. It's very laid back and easy going. The ground conditions were perfect. I don't think a single horse slipped."

She also admitted to enjoying going to Cardston for the concession stand and all its homemade goodies.

"It's one of those places you don't want to be on a diet," she laughed. "Everything is homemade—the hamburger buns, the cinnamon rolls. I'd be quiet disappointed if that concession stand ever changed hands!"

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We appreciate you and pray God blesses you above all you can ask or think! I don't know about you, but if you meditate that last phrase, it is awesome! I can ask or think a lot of things and none of them are small. So if Eph. 3:20 tells us God is able to do "exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think".. then we need to focus on that! We certainly aren't going to lack.

I'm sure that the phrase "all hell broke loose" is familiar to most of us. Many of us have even said it! And early on in my life, I experienced quite a bit of it. It was just the way life was. I EXPECTED all hell to break loose. And when I read the "Murphy's Law" deal it was so funny and I agreed with it. Dumb, dumb, dumb!

But I didn't know then what I know now. As time has gone by and I have spent more time in the Bible, I have learned from Matt. 12:35 that "a good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things". So I started replacing the garbage with the Word and EUREKA, good things are happening!

I knew I had finally turned the corner headed the right way when I was listening to a praise report from a friend at The Barn a few weeks ago. He shared that he had gotten laid off from his job only to have God replace it with a better one immediately! And when he finished, God said to me.....ALL HEAVEN BROKE LOOSE OVER HIS LIFE! It thrilled me from my head to my feet! Now THAT'S WHAT I'M TALKING ABOUT!!

Friends, God wants all heaven breaking loose over us, all the time! We need to expect it! Agree with Eph. 3:20! If you are tempted to walk in hell breaking loose over your life, just kick the devil out and agree with God! And receive more than you can ask or think!
