Richman and Xtrared Score Dual CA Victories in Hayward and Redding

By Tanya Randall

Two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Christina Richman is making a strong bid for her third consecutive Las Vegas appearance. The Glendora, Calif., barrel racer, who currently sits fifth in the World Standings with $29,679 in earnings as of May 22, won two California rodeos over the weekend—the $3,000-added Rowell Ranch Rodeo in Hayward, Calif., and the $10,000-added Redding Rodeo.

“I got up perfectly,” said Richman. “I was out in Hayward on Sunday. So I left for Redding on Wednesday, and camped out there ‘til Saturday.”

Richman and her super mare Xtrared, dubbed “Stitch” for a run-in with a fence as a youngster, placed fifth in the first go, won the second go en route to the average win and $3,618 in earnings.

“My first run, she made a really nice, smooth run,” she recalled. “She didn’t make any mistakes. It felt like she was on rails. I really thought it would be faster than it was.”

Since Richman had planned on staying the week in Redding, so got to watch a lot of the second go runs. When former NFR qualifier Rachel (Myllymaki) Boyle jumped up with a 17.04, Richman thought that was the round-winning run.

“I thought they should just write her the check right then,” she said. “I didn’t think anyone was going to move her.”

But Richman did, with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 17.02.

“In Redding the score board is right there when you look up from finishing your run,” she explained. “When I saw my time, my jaw dropped. I knew it was a really good run, but I was shocked that it was that good!”

Following the win in Redding in Northern California, Richman headed back south to Hayward in the San Francisco Bay Area.

“I’m such a pansy about some things,” she laughed. “(Stitch) worked so good in Redding, I thought about turning out of Hayward. Then I thought, it’s a circuit rodeo and it’s on the way home. It’s also a part of the California Six Pac bonus. If you don’t go to all six of those rodeos, you’re not eligible for the bonus. I told myself don’t be such a baby and run her. I’m glad I did.”

The win in Hayward paid $1,353.

Although Richman has no plans to rodeo over Memorial Weekend, she plans on sticking to her circuit until the Reno Rodeo.

“I had been planning on going to Canada,” Richman said, “then I had a reality check. By the time I bought my (Canadian) card, got my horse papers and with the cost of getting up there, I was a few

$1,000s into it before I ever went to a rodeo. Another thing is the weather. Down here over the Fourth, you run into some rain but up there the weather is more unpredictable. With me only having her, I’m not running in the mud. I’m not going to spend $1,000 and only get to run at two out of 10 rodeos. I’m sure I’ll be kicking myself when I see the results because they pay so well.”

Richman personifies rodeo smart. She’s made the WNFR last year by skipping most of the winter building rodeos—the indoor venues that Stitch doesn’t really like.

“She’s not the best indoor horse,” said Richman (despite the fact that she’s the 2011 WNFR Reserve Average Champion.) “I just get sick of fighting with her. She’ll fire like two runs out of 10. You start second guessing—‘Is she hurt? Or what?’ When it’s not that at all. I figure it’s just best to save her for the places she does well.”

Richman is also trying to develop some backup for Stitch. She has two 4-year-olds that she’s currently training. One is a reining reject and the other is race bred.

When she was 14, Richman started taking prospects off the track

How Washington D.C. Affects You at Your Next Competition

If you are competing in a horse show this weekend, you might not realize it, but decisions made in Washington, D.C. impact you and your ability to show your horse. The American Horse Council (AHC) believes it is important everyone involved in showing horses at any level or in any discipline understands that federal legislation and regulations affect them.

A notable example of federal policy directly impacting horse shows is the amount of funding the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) receives to prepare for and respond to contagious equine disease outbreaks. Contagious diseases are a major concern for every segment of the horse community, but they can really negatively affect horse shows. "Remember the recent equine herpes outbreak at a reining event in Ogden, Utah," said AHC Director of Health and Regulatory Affairs, Dudley Hoskins. "State and federal vets and organizations responded quickly to the outbreak. Even with quick action, horse shows and events were canceled in 36 states and it could have been worse. That incident was the most recent reminder that there is not a comprehensive federal plan, sufficient funding, or personnel to deal with contagious equine disease outbreaks. The AHC is working to change that and make sure USDA has the resources it needs to safeguard the horse industry."

Federal policy also impacts competitors and horse shows in numerous other ways. For example, many trainers, barns, and breeders depend on temporary foreign workers for grooms and farm hands and need the H-2B (non-agricultural) and H-2A (agricultural) foreign worker programs to work efficiently.

"Many people who participate in horse shows don't understand how important foreign guest workers are to the showing community," said AHC president Jay Hickey. "Without these workers, who often have years of experience caring for horses, there would be a major shortage of skilled labor in the showing industry. Unfortunately, right now we are fighting new H-2B rules that could make the program too difficult and expensive to use."

Additionally, quarantine regulations impact equestrians who compete internationally. In January, the AHC requested the USDA allow U.S. horses to travel to CEM-affected regions for up to 90 days before more burdensome re-entry requirements kick in; currently it is 60 days. "Making this change would reduce the stress on U.S. competition horses, reduce the expenses for owners, and provide a more level playing field against our international competitors without increasing the risk of future incursions of CEM," said Hoskins.

The AHC encourages members of the horse show community to visit its website at www.horsecouncil.org to learn how federal legislation and regulations impact them, and how they can get involved and support the AHC by becoming a member.

"Everyday we are here in Washington talking to Congress and the regulators to make sure they are aware of the concerns and needs of the $ 102 billion horse community. This is the only way to make sure equestrians will continue to have the ability to compete in their chosen equine discipline now and in the future," said Hickey.

Pre-Entries Due for Bismarck Barrel Bonanza

The 2nd Annual Bismarck Barrel Bonanza is slated for June 2 and 3, 2012, at Walt Neuens Memorial Arena in Bismarck, ND. Last year's event, even though we had to move locations at the last minute due to flooding, went off without a hitch and we had over 110 contestants! This year no flooding is in sight and the location is beautiful, nestled in the trees along the river.

We have $1200 added this year ($600 added per go-round). The open will be a 4D format with 1/2 second splits, with average prizes to be given away Sunday on the 2 gos. We will also have a pee wee division, ages 8 and under, and a youth division, ages 17 and under, 3D format 1-sec splits.

There will also be a futurity sidepot, futurity rules apply. This race is sanctioned with the United Barrel Racing Association, Northwest Barrel Racing Association, and Saturday's run is also cosanctioned NBHA district ND03.

This is a UBRA tour event, so counts for double points and double qualifying runs, also $500 in bonus awards for UBRA members to be awarded in an average format Memberships for all of these associations will be available on site. Pre-entries are due May 23, and drawouts must be done by May 30 to receive a full refund. All the information you need can be found at www.saddleupevents.com.

and training them for barrels. Stitch, however, never ran on the track. The 2002 daughter of Red (TB) out of the Twaynas Dash mare Attract, was a $2,700 yearling purchase at the Blane Schvaneveldt Sale.

When she started training Stitch, Richman thought she would make a pretty nice barrel horse, but had no idea that she would turn out to be one of the best horses in the country.

"It's so crazy," she said. "When you start taking a horse around the barrels, everybody dreams of going to the Finals. I had never rodeoed like that. I hadn't grown up in THAT family. It seems unreal, what she's won. She accomplished so much for me."

Lowry's 4L Ranch Rodeo

May 18-19, 2012, Summerville, GA

RODEO NOTES:

First, Linda Vick came back from injury to place at Ramona, Redding and Hayward, CA and then slipped up the road to win Helldorado Days in Las Vegas, NV for a total of $3,449 over the weekend aboard her horse AR Will He Tell. She also jumped up to #11 in the World Standings, looks like she is healthy and ready for the summer run.....Over the last few years we have seen Lisa Lockhart on her buckskin, An Oakie With Cash, most of the time, however, at the Cloverdale Rodeo over the weekend she was back on her great chestnut gelding Chisum (Fast An Gold). She and Chisum won $8,500 at Cloverdale. Lisa is going into the summer run with two NFR horses and she is currently #7 in the World so keep a look out for this threesome.....Benette Little (#4 in the World) placed over the weekend at Redding, CA marking the return of JL Dash Ta Heaven from the breeding shed for the rich summer run. Rested and ready for the summer, JL Dash Ta Heaven is ready to roll. With #1 Pozzi placing over the weekend in California as well and #2 Pierce placing at her home state Texas rodeos it is shaping up to be a very interesting race for the world title. Don't forget that #3 Lindsay Sears and Sugar Moon Express will be cracking out for their summer run very soon.

MAJOR LEAGUE PROTECTION

POWERED BY ZOOMBANG TECHNOLOGY

Introducing the Zone™ Series Pad

Made Exclusively by Classic Equine®

ZONE
SERIES

NOW THE TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPED TO PROTECT PRO ATHLETES IS AVAILABLE TO PROTECT YOUR HORSE

Zoombang is scientifically tested and proven to protect against impact injury. Zoombang is a patented polymer material that provides truly intelligent protection. At rest, Zoombang acts as a liquid to assure perfect fit and malleability. But on impact, it immediately transforms to a solid state, reacting proportionally to the energy applied. As a result, Zoombang only becomes as rigid as necessary to absorb and dissipate incoming shock.

Zoombang is widely used for its protection against injury in contact sports, law enforcement, and military applications. The NFL, NHL, MLB and NASCAR rely on Zoombang to protect elite athletes. Now equine athletes can benefit from the same protection. After all, they deserve it.

HOW ZOOMBANG™ WORKS

SOFT AT REST
ZOOMBANG is soft and fluid-like to the touch

REACTS TO IMPACT
Upon impact ZOOMBANG molecules stiffen and lock to a solid-like state providing maximum protection

SOFT AT REST
After impact, ZOOMBANG returns to its fluid-like state

Owens Tops the Field at the Tri-K

At the $6000 added Winter Barrel Blast by Tri-K Barrel Races at Lazy E Arena near Guthrie, OK; the 12 year old homeschooled 6th grader, Brookelyn Owens of Muldrow, Ok, added to her recent string of victories. She swept the top two spots in the Sunday Open and ran the two fastest times of the weekend.

"It was pretty cool. I had never won first and second in a big race like that and I was really proud of my horses." said Owens.

If you keep an eye on the results week to week you can't miss seeing the name Brookelyn Owens with her great mare Kans Of Firewater. Recently, the team got 2nd in Round 2 at the Josey Jr World and 9th in the Finals. The Owens bought Kans Of Firewater from Kim Thomas last April (2011) and over the last year the team have earned around $20k. However, this weekend it wasn't about just Kans Of Firewater it was actually Mr Slick Bug who ran the fastest time and sailed smoothly around 3 barrels to the win the Sunday Open.

Mr Slick Bug is a 16 year old 'been there done that' gelding owned by Whitney Baker sent to Owens to run. Although Owens has only had the gelding a short 2 weeks it looks like the duo is getting along just fine. Really the success of the pair should be no surprise, Mr Slick Bug combines some of the best blood in the business including Dash For Cash, Tiny's Gay on the top side with the great broodmare line of Bugs Alive In 75 and Owens has 5 top barrel horses winning wherever she goes.

At 12 years old, Owens is placing at both Junior and Open shows. Her goal for the year is to be the 2012 WPRA Junior World Champion and right now she is well on her way with $10,493 as of May 16, and actually has double the earnings of the #2 person, Kylar Terlip.

With Owens juggling several different horses with several different styles, her parents, Brian and Libby, tell her to focus on the horse she's on and when she gets to the alley their mantra is to "Drive Hard and Focus".

"One time, at a barrel race, I heard Lance Graves give some great advice to someone after they had a bad run on one horse and they were complaining about the horse's run, he told them, "You have to ride the horse you are on, not the one you just got off of." and I thought that was such a good way to put it so that's what we tell Brook." said Brian.

Through the rest of the 2012, Brookelyn Owens will continue her pursuit of the WPRA Junior World Title so keep your eyes out for this determined 12 year old and her talented crew of horses.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Like spring, when everything turns green and begins to grow, so you will be for sowing seed into the kingdom of God. God WILL and IS blessing you! Look around! The Blessing is for you and His word will NEVER fail you!

A short while back, Mike preached a sermon using the word picture of the goose that laid the golden eggs. Boy did that ever stick with me! I would encourage you to get the message online or cd. He was saying that if you had a goose that laid golden eggs, you could run around spending all those golden eggs, or watching out that no one stole your eggs! But you would be REALLY smart if you KEPT YOUR EYE ON THAT GOOSE! You'd make a special place in your house for that goose. You'd go to sleep knowing exactly where that goose was. You'd get up and the FIRST thing you'd do is be sure that goose was right where you left it. You would take time to feed it.....much more we should be knowing exactly where our Lord is at all times.....

Every good and perfect gift come from Him. And when we are blessed and receive good things, we must always know that those things came from Him and Him alone! And they are never ending. God won't get old and die on you. People can't steal Him from you because He is right there for us all! There is never a shortage in His kingdom. Praise God and praise God!

And besides. I have those geese Click and Clack. And I can assure you that the deposits they leave in the natural are not golden eggs.....

Enjoy your summer! Don't forget your very good God! We love you and bless you in Jesus name!
