Cheyenne Wimberley & Fast Flingin Dash Bank $63,400 at Women's Rodeo World Championships

By Tanya Randall

The barrel racing in Cowtown Coliseum was one of the toughest races ever with multiple arena records and an incredible payout.

Multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Cheyenne Wimberley of Stephenville, Texas, took top honors at the World Champion Rodeo Alliance's Women's Rodeo World Championships, held May 17-20 in Fort Worth.

Wimberley, who was the inaugural WCRA's barrel racing champion 2019 Windy City Roundup in Chicago, Illinois, collected $63,400 aboard Fast Flingin Dash ("Blue Duck"), a 5-year-old she co-owns with the gelding's breeder, Steve Hurlburt, DVM.

Blue Duck is by 8 million dollar barrel horse sire A Streak Of Fling out of the Dash Ta Fame, Marthas Six Moons mare Dash Ta Suz that helped carry Wimberley to the NFR. The 6-year-old gelding is the second horse from this cross that Wimberley has ridden. The first was A Streak Ta The Moon, who she rode to $80,000 at the futurities.

"I trained him," said Wimberley. "I patterned him as a 3-year-old but he had some growing up to do. When I was gone his 4-year-old summer, I sent him to Cole Cameron just to ride him. He just needed riding, riding out."

Wimberley started exhibiting Blue Duck in the fall but didn't enter him until the spring of his fifth year. He made his futurity debut at the Royal Crown in Waco.

"It's just so hard rodeoing," she said. "He was well patterned; he was just behind on going."

Not wanting Blue Duck to miss out on the summer futurities and the Royal Crown in Rock Springs, Wyoming, she sent the gelding with Kelly Conrado through the Breeders Challenge Finale in Fort Worth in September.

"He did pretty good," Wimberley said. "He had pretty limited hauling. He really came on at the end of summer."

All totaled, Blue Duck won $50,000 as a futurity horse.

This year, she's tried to take the gelding to the derbies and introduce him to the rodeo atmosphere.

"He's just been rocking along," she said. "He's been to four rodeos and he's placed at three. Waxahachie (Texas) was his very first pro rodeo and I hit a barrel to win it. He placed at Nacogdoches and Helotes (Texas)."

Blue Duck did run green at the WCRA's Rodeo Corpus Christi though, so his WRWC victory was a redemptive one.

"He was so green at Corpus I don't know that he ever saw a barrel," she laughed. "That was so weird for him because he's never not done his job. I had rode him in the arena before and I had never done that before. I don't know if that made a difference or not, but I'm not doing it again."

At Fort Worth, Wimberley and Blue Duck made four runs, improving on nearly every one. They were fifth in their first round—the field is split between professional, Wimberley's group, and challengers—with a 13.414. They got faster on their second run to take second in the round with a 13.302.

In the Semifinals, Blue Duck dropped the hammer with a 13.096, only to be outrun by new record holder Laura Mote and Red Hot Redbull's delirious 12.967.

While the breakaway ropers and team ropers were paired from 12 down to three for the Triple Crown Round, the 12 barrel racers day if you made the semifinals that night. The ropers did go from 12 to three, but they did run all 12 barrel racers."

Wimberley and Blue Duck won the $60,000 Triple Crown Round Championship with a 13.105.

"I think the biggest relief was the ground was crazy good," she said. Ricky Hibbeler was in charge of the ground. "It was amazing. It was a crazy barrel race. They didn't hit many barrels, which is crazy in that pen after four runs."

The renovations to Cowtown Coliseum itself have also helped the arena have a more open feel.

"It's so much better," said Wimberley. "They've changed the lighting and the walls are lighter. They've done an amazing job over there. Their upgrades are fantastic."

The WCRA also rolled out the carpet for its WRWC champions at the PBR World Finals.

"They did a great job," Wimberley said. "They had breakfast at the Cowgirl Hall of Fame and Museum. They gave gifts to

WRWC Notes:

- The Cowtown Arena Record was broken twice over the course of the week. Wylie Jo Hodges ran a smoking 13.067 to set it in Qualifer Round 2 on Hodges Farms amazing yellow rocket, DH Jess Stellar. The same mare previously held the record there with Hailey Kinsel at this same event last year! Then later in the week Reb Hot Redbull & Laura Mote smoked a 12.967 to lower the record again!
- Laura Mote also won the $5,000 World Champion bonus at the end of the Semi-Finals Round.

everyone that made it back to the Triple Crown Round. They introduced us that night at the PBR World Finals and put us in a suite. It was super nice."

Caroline Boucher & From Famous To Vegas Capture 45th Old Fort Days Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Caroline Boucher and From Famous To Vegas ("Duke") captured their second straight championship with a $38,151 victory at the 45th Annual Old Fort Days Futurity, held May 15-23 at Kay Rodgers Park in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

"It was an experience that I'll never forget!" she said, chuckling that a rifle was amongst the prizes she had won. "Now, I'm a Canadian with a gun! We don't have guns in Canada a lot so when I saw the gun I thought, 'Oh, I have a social security number and a gun! Welcome to America!'"

The French Canadian duo now based out of Aubrey, Texas, won the Lucky Dog Futurity with its Breeders Challenge sidepot two weeks earlier and followed it with a record-setting run to win the famed Old Fort Days title. Their 16.280 in Saturday's Finals was an event record time for the Futurity.

"At the time, I didn't know how special the .2 was," said Boucher. "I was super happy because I saw Hello Stella (the industry's record setting futurity earner) running the .3 and I thought no one can be faster than that! It was a perfect run."

Boucher and Duke, who she co-owns with Marylene Menard, were the 10th fastest qualifiers in the Time Trials with a 16.846.

"The first (barrel) is very far and it's a very straight line," she explained. "I missed my shot with my first horse, so I readjusted with Duke. I was hoping Duke was figuring out what I wanted of him. I was focusing a lot on my first, and he had a super nice barrel. He had a super nice second barrel, and I said to myself, 'I just need to keep the turn up to make the finals.' I did a very secure turn to make sure everything was fine."

After making a "safe" third barrel in the Trials, Boucher knew she could be faster in the Finals. She told her husband and farrier Olivier Pelletier that she didn't think she could improve on her first and second, but she knew her third could be better.

"If I can let him let him work around the third, I think I can come back with a .5, maybe a .4 in my wildest dreams. That's what my goal was for my final run. I wanted to have a good first and a good second and let him do his turn on the third. He loves to wrap around the barrels, so I was going to leave him to do the third barrel like he wanted to."

Boucher and Duke had a flawless run.

"He doesn't like it when I whip him, so I was just screaming at him and showing him the whip on the side," she said. "When I looked up, I was like, 'What! What just happened?' I couldn't believe what I'd done. I was running home pretty happy thinking maybe, maybe I had my .5, maybe I had my .4 or maybe it was a .6—that was in my mind too, but it was a .2!"

Duke is the second horse by $2.1 million dollar barrel horse sire French StreakToVegas to take an Old Fort Days Championship. MR Smashed In Vegas won in 2021.

Bred by Carole Lampron, Duke is out of the proven producing Dash Ta Fame mare Famous Aunt Martha, who has a Thoroughbred maternal line.

Boucher purchased Duke as a yearling after Lampron had posted him for sale on Facebook. She put the deposit down first and then called Menard about co-ownership.

Duke's Old Fort Days victory more than doubled his earnings, which stood at $24,772 prior to the Old Fort Days Futurity, according to QData. He had missed the first two months of his futurity career after suffering a deep abscess about the time of the BFA World Championships in November.

By February's Royal Crown Futurity in Buckeye, Arizona, Duke started to feel 100 percent, Boucher said. Although a little green compared to his peers that had run since November, over the past two months, the gelding steadily built his confidence and was putting two solid runs together. He placed in the aggregate at the Select Stallion Stakes Futurity, picked up checks at Ruby Buckle and won the Lucky Dog.

After his long week at Fort Smith, Boucher said the gelding is still getting stronger, which is a good thing as they have Royal Crown in Oklahoma City this week.

"I don't know how he'll be next week, but after I rode him (Monday) morning, I told Olivier that he's getting stronger and stronger," Boucher said. "I don't understand. The more that I work him the happier he is. He's the kind of horse that gets fat very easily. I need to work him every day, but he loves it."

"He was not very tired from last week. Yesterday I gave him the day off, I put him in the Eurociser for his cardio and then put him in the pasture. He was bucking and playing.”

Boucher also placed 35th on HP Rollin Rollin (“Jan Jan”), bred and owned by Highpoint Performance Horses. She slipped on the first barrel and Boucher chose to cruise the mare through rather than ask her for more run in case she was injured or sore. The daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Rods Last Ladybug, by A Sharp Rodney, was the fifth fastest qualifier and had total earnings of $1,985.

Jamey Hunt & Ever Eddie Capture Inaugural Old Fort Days Senior Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Jamey Hunt has good “history” at the Old Fort Days Futurity. The McAlpin, Florida, barrel horse trainer and farrier won the richest Old Fort Days Futurity ever held, back in 1999 when he won $105,500 aboard Marthas Smoothover for Michael Boone. He added a Derby Championship in 2003 with Roll Sixes for Lowell and Debra Hadder.

This year, Hunt won the inaugural Senior Futurity for 5-year-olds, presented by R Barrel Horses, with Ever Eddie, owned by Tiany Schuster. A 16.435 in the Finals netted $23,177.

Hunt, who returned to full time training just two years ago, said the win was “huge!”

“It’s the biggest win I’ve had this year,” said Hunt, who won the Elite HHA Futurity on KVS HitYouBackCash and the Legends of the South Slot Race on Gripe Gut earlier this year. “There might be some that pay more but considering the whole circumstance, winning it all those years ago and then being able to come back and win it again, that’s huge.

“Then to do it on that horse...one that I’ve struggled on...He’s been there for me every step of the way, and I feel like I’ve let him down or been the one to make the mistake. For it to work out on that horse that I like so much, for him to get the credit for a win like that...I don’t think I can win another one this year that will mean so much.”

Royally bred, Ever is by $6.2 million dollar sire Eddie Stinson out of WPRFA World Champion producer Curiosity Corners, by Silver Lucky Buck. The 5-year-old gelding is a full brother to 2020 Old Fort Days Futurity Champion VF Cream Rises and 2021 Greg Olson Futurity Champion VF NFL Draft, and a half brother to 2012 WPRFA World Champion Perculatin.

Schuster purchased Ever from his breeder Danny Ray of Victory Farms. Cody Bauserman was riding the gelding at the time and had told Schuster to take her time with the fractious gelding. After hauling him around for some time, she found herself without room in the trailer as she headed to eastern Canada last summer.

Schuster knew Hunt had a way with fragile horses and his wife Ashley had an “eagle eye” for soundness issues, so Ever went to Florida last June.

“I knew they were the best bet to him and not lose time,” said Schuster.

Hunt did take his time.

“The first couple of months, I spent a lot of time riding outside, putting miles on him,” he said. “He was just kind of hot and fractious, a little nervous about everything. It didn’t take much for him to come around. He’s actually pretty quiet. When you first get on him, he’ll act a little fresh, but if you lope four, five circles, he’ll come back down.”

Hunt and Ever were finalists at the Golden Buckle and Ruby Buckle futurities, but had some bad luck along the way, like hitting barrels to do very well at the Kinder Cup and Elite HHA Futurity. They did manage to carry $35,328 in earnings into Fort Smith.

“I’ve been waiting and waiting for me to not do something stupid, and it finally worked,” chuckled Hunt.

They almost didn’t escape Fort Smith unscathed after nearly taking a tumble in the qualifying round at the second barrel.

“He went across to the second barrel and right as he was setting himself up to commit, he hit himself and pulled a shoe,” Hunt explained. “He went down and then he was trying so hard to come back that he actually slipped a little in the hind end. Thank goodness, I got around that corner good.”

They qualified with a 16.935, but Hunt knew they could be a lot

BIT: J&C Custom called the Hunt Bit. “It’s like an O-ring with a curb chain, but it has a little more purchase than the (J&C) Dee Dee.”

HEADGEAR: Loose tiedown “I actually don’t ride him in a tiedown at home or when I’m schooling him, but for some reason in a run, he gets a little more scatter if I take it off. For some reason, he feels more confident with it.”

SADDLE: Older Mike Green

SADDLE PAD: Cutter Collection

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast on front and polo wraps on back

SHOEING: Triumph lite rims on front and SX7s on back

FEED: Buckeye Equine Nutrition Safe N Easy Performance

HAY: All he can eat alfalfa and grass hay

SUPPLEMENTS: Oxy Bio Gut by Oxy-Gen

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: MagnaWave, especially the day before he runs CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “He goes on the walker three to four days a week. He gets rode three to four days a week. It’s mostly just exercise.

Every couple of days, I’ll do a few drills just to make sure he’s sharp and doing everything he’s supposed to. Then one day a week I’ll spend time schooling him on the pattern, just making sure he’s going straight where I want him.”

faster.

“He left a lot at the second in the trials,” he said. “I really just wanted to make sure he got around the barrels. I knew if he stayed out of too much trouble that he’d clock pretty good and make it back to the Finals.”

For Saturday's Final, Ever was very focused, Hunt said. "When he gets that way, you generally can let him go do his job," he said. "I could tell he was really relaxed when I was walking down the alley during the tractor drag. I knew he was really focused."

"When it was my turn, I just started walking down the alley and then I started jogging. He just waited and waited until I wanted him to take off. I got a perfect start, but you can see on the video I actually went to the horn and picked him up a stride earlier than

I normally do. He was running so hard, I thought if I did that, it would put him just right. He smoked his first barrel. The other two barrels, if you ride all the way there and don't do nothing too silly, he's going to work every time."

Hunt also placed 23rd in the Senior Futurity aboard Twenty Plus Ranch's Whattaflin RC for $1,786. He was 41st in the 4-year-old Futurity on KVS HitYouBackCash for total earnings of $2,832. All totaled, Hunt's horses won $27,795.

One-Two Punch For Pete Oen in Old Fort Days Super Derby, Wins on DR Famous Legacy

By Tanya Randall

"I have a green, not truly seasoned, derby horse ready to go!" quipped Pete Oen last November after winning more than $105,000 in two events on DR Famous Legacy, after the gelding lost nearly his entire 4-year-old futurity season to injury and a subsequent Equine Protozoal Myeloencephalitis (EPM) flare.

"Bugsy," a homebred for Travis and Johnna Dobbs, has more than made up for lost time as a 5-year-old. He crossed the $150,000 threshold in career earnings with a $22,009 Old Fort Days Super Derby Championship, presented by 5 Star Equine Products.

The gelding's victory over his stablemate Baptized By Fire gave Oen a historic one, two finish in derby in the 45th annual event, held in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

"I was winning it on Baptize By Fire when I ran, so I outran myself," said the aged event veteran from Maysville, Oklahoma. "I was in a little bit of disbelief."

Oen and Bugsy were the fourth fastest qualifiers, so there were just three horses left to run, including the fastest qualifiers Sharin Hall and her record-breaking mare Hello Stella.

"I told myself that I needed to focus because I still had futurity horses that I needed to run and there wasn't a lot of time," Oen recalled. "I was braiding my futurity horse's mane. My hands were shaking so badly, I could barely keep a hold of her mane. I heard them call Sharin, and it seemed like an eternity before they said anything. I heard 17 and I didn't even hear the rest."

"Oh my God! I did just win first and second in this thing. You've got to be kidding me! It was amazing to say the least!"

producing and performing Rare Bar mare, Bars Sweet Legacy, has been in Oen's barn since he was 2. He initially didn't have high hopes for the colt, until he was gelded.

"As a 2-year-old, he was still a stud, I called the Dobbs and said, 'This thing is like a fat tick. He has no neck. I don't think he can run.' We castrated him and I don't think I've ever seen a horse transform so much in his body type as this horse did. His neck slimmed down. He didn't feel like a pony anymore. And he can run faster than anything in the barn. There's been no regret in the decision to cut him. He never would have become the horse he is today."

Bugsy was clocking two to three tenths faster than Oen's 2023 hopefuls and was unquestionably his pick for the BFA Super Stakes. Unfortunately, the horse Oen was betting on never showed. He under performed before blowing a nasty abscess in a hind foot, which led to other complications and ultimately a spiking EPM titer.

His futurity as a completely sound horse and his second runs back since November of his third year were at the Ardmore Futurity. He followed Ardmore with the fastest run of the entire BFA World Championships and a fourth-place finish in the futurity to compliment two Future Fortunes titles.

Oen said he simply "catches a ride" with the incredibly quick gelding.

"He and Strait Dallas Fuel are the two fastest horses I've ever swung a leg over," said the 2015 Old Fort Days Reserve Futurity Champion. "He's dirty fast as Bo Hill likes to say."

That speed came in handy in the 5 Star Equine Products Super Derby Finals, where they overshot their first barrels just a smidge.

"He missed the first barrel decent, but he just swapped ends and came back really hard and was running," Oen recalled. "Second barrel, I thought he caught up quite a bit of time. He turned it super tight, and I had to lift my leg over the top of it to not knock it down. I knew he was going super-fast. Going to the third, I thought, 'You're going so fast, you're going to end up at the tractors if you don't start slowing down. I gave him a little bump a little early. I thought I've either done it just right or I'm fixing to tackle this barrel! Obviously, he didn't hit it. He swapped ends and was hauling butt the other way.

"I knew he was going fast, but I didn't know how fast. When I looked up and saw the (16.360) after missing the first barrel I knew he was going as fast as hell!"

Oen picked up $7,969 for the reserve championship on Baptized By Fire, owned by Angela Richardson.

In the Futurity, Oen placed fourth on Hall's homebred Mirakul to earn $7,630 and was 13th on Streak Gypsy Streak, also owned by Richardson, for $4,292.

Oen's four rides won $41,900 on the week.

"All four horses had sub-17 second runs and didn't hit a barrel, so I'm proud of all of them," said Oen. "It was a good Saturday. All four horses warmed up really confident and quiet which helped my confidence. When I worked them on the pattern, they were super focused. I just worked them really slow in the practice pen before they ran. My horses were there when I called on them in the finals and it just worked out. They performed."

Oen was very appreciative of his horses and the opportunity to train and ride them.

"Everybody is like, 'Oh you did so good...' You know what though... You've got to have a nice horse. It's not all about me. You've got to have a partner in crime in what we do."

"You can only train so much into one. A great horse is just special. You better enjoy them because you don't get one every year. I feel grateful that every year it seems that I have something pretty nice to ride. I'm thankful and blessed."

KELLY CONRADO
BARREL RACING CLINIC

June 9 & 10, 2023 - Powell, WY
 Limited to 12 Riders - $650 ($200 deposit)

Testimonials:

ASHLEY SCHAFER - BARREL FUTURITY TRAINER OF MULTIPLE CHAMPIONS
 "If you haven't had a chance to ride with Kelly Conrado I highly recommend it! He has a great eye for seeing the little things... If you are trying to reach the next level, I recommend attending one of his clinics!"

BRANDON CULLINS - MULTIPLE BFA WORLD CHAMPION & EMILY EFURD
 Kelly's way of training is simple and effective. Easy to apply and has worked on every horse we've gotten help on. It has helped us win a lot of money over the years!

BEN BEALL - BARREL FUTURITY CHAMPION
 "I was struggling and Kelly helped me get out of my head & focus on my horse. His helpful tips helped me win the Pink Buckle Futurity & OKC Futurity that made 2 of my dreams come true!"

Bertina Olafson & Alive N Smashing Win $27,500 at Cloverdale Rodeo

The former 2021 Calgary Champions, Alive N Smashing & Bertina Olafson, starting off their summer rodeo season with a bang snagging the Cloverdale Rodeo Championship! Although, the money at Cloverdale doesn't count towards either the WPRA or CPRA standings the $27,500 they banked is sure to help them get down the road this summer! We caught up with Olafson to ask her about her big win!

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs in your Pool and then the Finals run?

Olafson: First run, Duke was busy looking at the crowd in his run. He still clocked decent with a 16.42 to place 6th. Next run, I knew I'd need to help him a little more to keep him from being distracted. Pressure was on as we needed to win the round to make it back to the short go on money earned. We tied for 1st with Kasey Gartner with a 16.11. Making it into Monday for the final we clocked a 16.13. A very special win for me!!

BIT: Ed Wright Locked dog bone

SADDLE: Irvine's Custom Saddle — SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy

SHOEING: I have a few farriers while on the road that I trust and use for my competition horses. My regular ones are my brother Kent Salmond, Clay Mastad and Steve Theissen. They all have a hand in my success over the years and keeping Duke's feet in great condition!

FEED: Timothy/little alfalfa

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Equine Choice Vitamin E, Equine Choice Probiotic, Equinity, KER Electrolytes & Flax

ADDITIONAL CARE: Ty with CorVet Vet Services is my regular vet that has helped us enormously over the years!!

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: At home most of my riding is in the pasture, it doesn't feel like work that way to either of us. I'll find different things in the pasture to circle or hills to work all his muscles. He is an older barrel horse now, he has his own way of doing the barrels and knows his job. Barrel work is minimal. I keep it all very basic so he craves the barrel when he sees them.

SPONSORS: Aim Engineering and Project Management, Cor Veterinary Services, Irvine's Tack & Western Wear, Equine Choice, Sky's The Limit Performance Quarter Horses

THANKS: Thank you to Duke that always keeps me dreaming and keeps making dreams come true. He is my heart horse. I'm forever grateful for him! Thank you to my husband and family that help me with everything so I can be on the road. I don't live anywhere near the beaten path to the pro rodeos. A thank you to those have opened up pens for my horses while on the road. Without the help of others I could never do it all!!

BRR: Can you share with us about your gelding where your gelding came from and his career up to now?

Olafson: I purchased him as weanling from Leanne King. His sire is Ante Up Guy stood at Clearwater Quarter Horses in Minnesota until his passing a few years ago.

I hadn't competed in barrels much since I was a teenager. The adventures with Duke began as my children graduated high school and moved away from home. I was incredibly lost with an empty nest. He kept me busy and had me searching to learn more about barrel racing.

He was a 4 yr old when we began this journey, we started out running in gymkhana. I entered jackpots, futurities, derbies and had success over the years. We had setbacks as we were learning, this made our bond stronger as we figured it out together. Next was rodeo. We continued to climb the ladder making our way into three amateur associations (KCRA, MRCA, CCA) with success over those 3 years making the finals each year. Next we began competing in the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association, making the finals each year of competing.

I would never brag he is always the fastest horse but I do have to say he is consistent. He runs the same pattern every time. If he doesn't, I know to stop and see what's ailing him. He loves a big crowd and will find a little more speed for them when he hears the cheers. His biggest win up to this point was winning Calgary in 2021.

BRR: What are a few things you did with him to have him at his best for this weekend?

Olafson: I was at home foaling and breeding in April, he wasn't getting in any runs. I'm very thankful that my sister and husband took over so I could leave. Cloverdale is over 22 hour straight trip from my home. I needed to break up the trip and gets some runs in. I entered an indoor race in Claresholm, then to an outdoor race in Kamloops where he was back to running solid again. Then we made our way to Cloverdale, I felt we were prepared by that point.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about yourself and your barrel racing career?

Olafson: I have been married to Jason for 28 years, we have two grown children Breanna and Justin. I live in Hudson Bay, Saskatchewan. I have a small breeding program that I enjoy. Duke is a grandson of Frenchmans Guy, this prompted me to purchase a son of FG for my breeding program.

My stallion is Perks French Cash, he is under my business, Sky's The Limit Performance Quarter Horses (on Facebook). I have 2 mares from my program that haul with me this year. Halo and Zena will be getting jackpots while on the road and hope to get them in a couple rodeos.

BRR: What are your future plans for you and your horse throughout the rest of the 2023 rodeo year?

Olafson: I will kick off my first CPRA rodeo for this season next weekend and plan to work hard all summer to try make the Canadian Finals Rodeo again. To add in the excitement, I entered in the Calgary Qualifier to try to get back to Calgary Stampede this year. I go with the flow, if Duke is running solid and sound we keep entering. If he's tired and needs a break we go home to rest. Most of my life revolves around what is best for him!

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Olafson: Phone (GPS), Coffee and Chocolate

Womens Rodeo World Championship Concludes & Crowns 4 Event Champions

Following this week's electric 2023 Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC) event inside the historic Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas, not only are there new event champions crowned, but the event reached a new level of dominant competition and record-breaking showcases.

As the 2023 event finals got underway, a ferociously contested Breakaway Roping Event Championship race capped off a slug-fest between Kelsie Domer (Dudlin, Texas), Kassidy Dennison (Tohatchi, NM), and Haliagh Grant (Santa Maria, California).

Domer's grit and determination was evident before Texas native even stepped boot inside Cowtown Coliseum for one of her first events in 2023.

After making her way into the event through the last chance qualifier, Domer collected one of two positions during the LCQ after placing out of the first-place spot by a slim one-one-hundredth of a second.

Backing into the box last, only needing to make a clean run under 4.47 seconds, Domer delivered a groundbreaking performance, as the string broke away from her saddle horn at an impressive 2.16-second time. Domer was presented her Event Championship check with her daughter, Oaklynn, and they walked away from the event with a total of $61,000.

After two arena records were broken this week, barrel racing was a shootout for the $60,000 event champion payout. Ultimately, it was 2019 WCRA Champion Cheyenne Wimberly (Stephenville, Texas) who was crowned the 2023 Women's Rodeo Barrel Racing Event Champion. After making her WRWC debut as an event alternate on the pro leaderboard, her jaw-dropping 13.105 push through the Cowtown Coliseum course propelled her to the top of today's battle, beating Stephanie Fryar's (Waco, Texas) 13.179-second effort and current WPRA Rookie Standing Leader Kalli McCall (Lufkin, Texas) 13.269 run. Taking the top time aboard her horse Fast Flingin Dash, Wimberly netted $63,400 throughout the week.

As the World Championship event continued on Wednesday evening, a hotly contested battle in the Team Roping began to unfurl. Roping duo Jackie Crawford (Stephenville, Texas) and all-around cowgirl Martha Angelone (Cross Junction, Virginia) had fans inside the historic arena on the edge of their seat as they were second to run, earning a remarkable 7.08-second time. Kayelen Helton (Stephenville, Texas) and Loraine Moreno (Mathis, Texas) notched a valiant 7.13-second run, to take the number two spot. Crawford earned nearly $63,000 in the week while Angeone snagged over $80,000. This is Crawford's fourth WCRA title.

San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo Reveals Educational Commitment of over $12 Million

The San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo is pleased to reveal its educational commitment of more than $12 million for 2023. This year, the organization impacted more than 18,000 Texas youth. Since 1984, the Rodeo has committed more than $255 million in scholarships, grants, endowments, auctions, calf scramble, & show premiums to fulfill its mission.

Executive Director & CEO Cody Davenport said, "We are thrilled to help future generations of Texas youth achieve their educational goals. The rodeo and our over 6,000 volunteers work diligently to generate funds for the youth of Texas as it is at the core of our organization and mission. This educational commitment would not be possible without the support of our community, sponsors and patrons that visit us each year."

Approximately 13,500 Texas college students have benefitted from a San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo Scholarship or Auction. Approximately 1,700 active scholars attend Texas colleges and universities today. The funds are raised through events as well as the annual Stock Show & Rodeo and are awarded in the form of scholarships, grants, endowments, junior livestock auctions, student western art auction, calf scramble program and show premiums.

The 2024 75th celebrations of The San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo will be held Feb. 8-25, 2024, at the AT&T Center & Fairgrounds.

Angelone Wins 2023 WRWC All-Around Cowgirl

After an electric record-setting season, Martha Angelone (Cross Junction, Virginia) emerged the supreme competitor, delivering a clutch final day of the all-around race in Fort Worth, Texas, to be crowned the 2023 WRWC (Women's Rodeo World Championship) All-Around World Champion, earning the accompanying $20,000 bonus and Coats saddle.

Angelone, who began earning points for the title in April 2022, finished the race with more than 14,300 points ahead of reigning all-around world champion, Hope Thomson's (Abilene, Texas) 16,009 points.

The Virginia Cowgirl is competing in three separate disciplines, team roping heading, team roping heeling, and breakaway roping. Despite not earning a qualified time during the event in the breakaway, Angelone's 22,307 points on her breakaway leaderboard standings coming into the event, was good to earn the $5,000 Pro World Championship Bonus. Harley Pryor (Moore Haven, Florida) earned the round win, notching a 8.09-second average. In the challenger division, Kinlie Brennisse (Craig, Colorado) held onto the top spot to take the challenger round win, snagging a 7.97-second average time for the round.

At the end of the semi-finals round, the $5,000 world champion bonus was paid out to athletes in all disciplines from both the PRO Leaderboard and the Challenger Leaderboard. The award was based on total points earned from the combined Leaderboards. The Athletes who earned the $5,000 bonus in each discipline and division are: Team Roping: Pro Header - Bev Robbins; Pro Heeler - Jessy Remsburg; Challenger Header - Sydney Ball; Challenger Heeler - Sally Ball; Barrel Racing: Pro Barrel Race - Laura Mote; Challenger Barrel Racer - Julie Plourde; Breakaway Roping: Pro Breakaway Roper - Martha Angelone; Challenger Breakaway Roper - Rylie Romero Backed by a dominant showing, including the fastest time of the week, 18-year-old Barrel Racer Laura Mote (Llano, Texas) was on a mission and surged to the top of the semi-final round leaderboard after a dominant 12.907-second run to win the bonus. Mote set the arena record for the pattern while sitting atop Red Hot Redbull. Mote defeated WCRA barrel racing champion Cheyenne Wimberly's 13.096-second time. Even though Wylie Jo Hodge's 13.288-second run won the round, Julie Plourde earned the world championship cash bonus in the challenge division.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's official. I'm old. My granddaughter told me so last week. I'm not sure if it was the grey hair or the wrinkles that gave me away. I asked her if I ACTED old. She said no. I was relieved! Lol! And then she told me that my hair looks funny when I run barrels. It goes all over the place! I was thankful that she didn't say it hung straight down. That would be a sure sign that I'm not RUNNING the barrels.

Ahhh kids! They are so observant and truthful. In Matthew 18:3, Jesus says that we must come to Him like a child. We don't have to sneak up on Him, cower down if He looks at us, beg Him to answer our prayers or any other silly thing. We can come BOLDLY to Him and obtain His mercy and help. He says we can in Heb. 4:16.

This week, let's pay attention to any children you may be around. Let's laugh more. Let's not be afraid to ask God for anything according to His will. Let's not notice if someone is different than us, let's just love them.

And for Pete's sake, the next time you see me at a barrel race, don't tell me my hair looks funny! Lol!
