Angel On Her Shoulder – Kimmie Wall Wins Redding Champions Challenge

By Tanya Randall

Kimmie Wall of Roosevelt, Utah, was running with a heavy heart last week after the passing of her mother-in-law, Dawna Wall. The Wall family matriarch fought a courageous battle with brain cancer before passing on May 15.

With an angel riding on her shoulder, Wall won the Redding, Calif., Champions Challenge, drew a check in the regular Redding Rodeo and placed at Hayward, Calif for total earnings of $6,049.

"I really felt like I wasn't riding alone," said Wall after winning the Champions Challenge in mud on Saturday night. "That was the first thing I said when I came out of the arena. She was a very big supporter of whatever we wanted to do and us accomplishing our dreams. She loved to come and cheer. She was always the loudest one. We just wish we had her with us longer, but we're thankful we had her as long as we did."

Wall added, "I wear a gray ribbon and dedicated this year to #CancerSucks, not just brain cancer or breast cancer, but all forms of cancer."

At Redding, Wall and her talented young mare TKW Bullysfamous Fox ("Foxy") had beautiful footing for their run in Wednesday night slack after the rodeo, but had to deal with the slop for the Champions Challenge.

"There were some girls that got fouled by the luck of the draw and still had to run (in the regular rodeo performance) on Sunday when it was still a little boggy," she noted. "At least with the Champions Challenge, it was muddy for all of us. We all had the same ground. It was a little messy, but Foxy sure seems to thrive on that. It sure seems to be working for us."

Even though they were ninth on the ground, Wall and Foxy still turned in the fastest time by two-tenths to win $3,944.

"Foxy did really well," she said. "You know when you're out back, you can't quite hear the times so I wasn't really sure what everyone else was doing, but when I crossed the time line and I heard the crowd I knew we must have done something right."

On Sunday, Wall headed south to Hayward, where she and Foxy placed fourth for another $1,300 in earnings. Her weekend haul jumped her four spots in the WPRAs World Standing to seventh with $37,200 won on the season.

"It boosted me up there quite a bit," she said. "I had a really good week. I really appreciate getting to be a part of a Champions Challenge and be able to win that much money. It was my first one, so it was pretty exciting."

Wall and her 8-year-old mare Foxy, a daughter of late leading barrel horse sire Bully Bullion out of the Dash Ta Fame, Easy Jet mare Gateway Ta Love, have spent the last three years on the rodeo circuit fulltime. She said the experience is really starting to payoff.

"I know the places that Foxy runs well now, so I feel more confident as to where I can take her and do well," she explained. "Foxy, herself, is more confident and she's more solid. I know that sounds crazy, talking about a horse that has ran in as many rodeos as she has, but she was just a baby that first year we went out and I was just a rookie. We just know where to go now."

Wall is looking forward to heading back home for some family time and several top paying rodeos in her Wilderness Circuit, including an appearance in the Champions Challenge in Spanish Fork, Utah.

"It's been a tough week," she said. "I wouldn't have made it without my rodeo family, that's for sure. My family at home is so strong and so supportive, but my rodeo family has kept me going while I'm away from home."

Cleaning House -- Pana & Streakin N Perks Win South Country Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Nicole Pana and her 5-year-old black mare Streakin N Perks ("Easy") are cleaning house at the Canadian barrel futurities. The duo has won three straight. They swept the Frozen Futurity in Stettler, Alta., in March, won the Yellow Rose Futurity in Claresholm, Alta., two weekends ago and just wrapped up the three-run title at the South Country Futurity in Cardston, Alta.

"We've had great luck," said the 19-year-old from Wood Mountain, Sask. "We've won three futurities in a row. I've placed at two pro rodeos on her. We took bottom-hole check at Medicine Hat pro rodeo and I took seventh-hole check at Camrose pro rodeo. I've made about $750 on her at the pros on her. She's like a freak of nature."

Pana and Easy were third in the first go, fifth in the second go and decimated the finalist in the short go to win the average and $5,242.

"The first run was really nice," she said. "We had a really good first barrel. She struggled a little bit on our second barrel, but she came back hard. Our third was really nice too."

"Our second run it was more than just me that struggled with the second barrel. I think she had to take a funny step that put her a little bit wider, but she still came back really hard. We still ended up fifth with all that happening."

"In the short round, she couldn't have had a more perfect run. Every barrel was tight. We were right on the dot for the last one."

Pana purchased Easy as a 3-year-old from Kristen Pfeifferle, who bought the mare from her breeders. Easy is the next generation of the magic cross of Dash For Perks on daughters of Easy JL Reddy To Charm—one of Red's last foals—reminds me so much of Red with his personality, that beautiful front end and the effortless way he moves I've decided to breed him to several of my mares and a limited number of outside mares this year. His dam, BF Silver Charm (ROM racing), is out of Missy Yupon—dam of BF Shenanigan, one of Dash Ta Fame's top money earning aged event horses. Silver Charm's leading money earner, JL Takin On Fame, is a futurity money winner as well as a PRCA Circuit Finalist with Sally Young. And Mark Bugni and JL Fourtafame have been on fire the last couple of months (see photos). BF Silver Charm's foals have earned $82,240 barrel racing so far.

sire Dash For Perks out of a daughter of The Signature, and out of the Streakin La Jolla mare Streakin CC.

"She is honestly a freak of nature," said Pana, who wanted to thank her parents Nicolas and Bonnie for their support. "I got her as a 3-year-old. She had 10, maybe 12 rides on her. She was quite green when I got her. She just picked up on things so easy. She's a complete natural at everything. Everything that you want her to do, she just does it naturally."

Easy jumped into the highest levels of competition right off the bat due to an injury due to Pana's rodeo horse Crime Dreamer.

"I had made the American Semifinals, and my good horse ended up getting hurt two days before the Semifinals," she said. "I had just started running Easy when I went down to Arizona, which was the beginning of February. I really had only been trying to make her run for like, two-and-a-half weeks. I ran her at the Semifinals and I was just a few holes from making it back to the next round."

"She handles everything like a champ. It's almost like she was born to do it. She just goes. You just send her and let her do her job. She just does it on her own. It's taken me a while to find a horse that was as good and tough as my rodeo horse. She's awesome. I love her to death."

Based on her experiences with Easy, Pana definitely wants another Signature Perks.

"They're awesome! I want another one!" said Pana. She hopes to breed another Streakin Six-bred mare to Signature Perks. "I'd never owned a Dash For Perks until this mare. They're just naturals. They're so easy—that's why her name is Easy."

Next up for Pana and Easy is the Glacier Chaser Classic in Kalispell, Mont., and of course, she'll finish out the Canadian barrel futurities. They'll probably run at a few more pro rodeos and possibly a few open rodeos in Saskatchewan.

Pay It Forward with Jill Moody

By Jill Moody

I have had numerous requests over the years to instruct at clinics and for the most part I have declined. I am firm believer that a good trainer, a good competitor, and a good clinician are not necessarily one and the same. I have trained two or three "champion" barrel horses, made four NFR appearances, and was a horsemanship instructor at West Texas A&M University for several years. I consider myself a jack of all trades master of none! The biggest hurdle that keeps me from being a true blue clinician is lack of confidence in me.

Don't get me wrong, I know I can successfully train a barrel horse, have proven myself to be a fierce competitor, and can instruct a beginning horsemanship class in my sleep. If I want to call myself a trainer it's easy if I own the horses that I train. I have no one judging me as to the horses' progress but myself.

If I enter a rodeo I will have to pay the entry fees and win, lose, or draw it's my gamble. Putting on clinics is a whole different ball game. If you write me a check for my advice then I feel that I need to make an honest attempt in helping you to reach your goals.

But...I am a trainer. It's easier for me to train on your horse than it is to teach you how to teach him.

But...I am a competitor. I want to win so do I really want to tell you how you can beat me? Where did the clinician go?

That brings me back to my own insecurities and lack of confidence. When I was teaching college horsemanship most of my classes were elementary and intermediate level. I knew that I knew more than my students. Some of them had never touched a horse before my class. My job was to teach them to catch, lead, groom, bridle, saddle, start, stop, steer, walk, trot, and lope without getting themselves killed. And I had a pasture full of lesson horses who all knew their job. Add a variety of skill levels on the riders' part, throw in a few categories of "broke" horses, challenge them for speed (barrel racing is a timed event) and my job becomes considerably more difficult.

The icing on the cake is when a "student" seems to have more and better ideas than myself. Out of my comfort zone I soon transform into one of the masses. I lose focus, I become unorganized, I get frustrated, and I end up feeling like I'm not helping anyone accomplish anything. My confidence shrivels, I begin to doubt my abilities, and guilt sets in. I am actually charging people money for my advice?

But I always persevere and deal out the best advice that I have on any given day, remembering that there is no right way or wrong way to barrel race or to train a barrel racing horse. Although there does seem to be more efficient ways, the clock is the judge, not me. I will show you what works best for me based on my experiences but this "jack of all trades" certainly won't have all of the answers regardless of my credentials.

Here is a bit of free advice for you though; realize that the best competitor, the best trainer, and the best instructor is not necessarily wrapped up in one convenient package; and after the fact, be gracious, and thankful that someone was willing to put themselves out there for your benefit.

Jill Moody is a 2-time Reserve World Champion, & a 2-time NFR Average Champion. She and her great mare Dolly hold the second fastest average time over 10 rounds at the NFR. Moody made 10 runs in 138.26 earning over $133,000 in 2010. Jill is a multiple futurity champion, Badlands Circuit Champion and owns multiple amateur association finals championships in the Dakotas. Jill is also a 2-time Female Athlete of the Year by the South Dakota Sports Writers Association.

Garthwaite and Shu Fire Claim Cloverdale Championship

By Hope Sickler

Katie Garthwaite and her speedy mare, Shu Fire, owned by Connie McCormmach, were crowned the barrel racing champions at this year's inaugural Cloverdale Rodeo in Surrey, British Columbia.

In the first round, Garthwaite ran her trusty rodeo horse, Frenchy, and had some ground troubles which cost her from placing third in the round.

"She ("Frenchy") worked great but had some ground troubles which was no fault of her own. We lost our footing on the second barrel and ended up slipping into the barrel and knocking it over. We would've placed well in the round had that not happened," said Garthwaite.

After a disappointing run in the first round, Garthwaite contemplated running her younger mare Shu Fire in the second round to give her some rodeo exposure.

"I have been packing "Shu" around with "Frenchy" to the rodeos just to get her some exposure in the rodeo world and she had been handling it very well. She had never been ran in a performance until I decided to make the call to run her in my second run at Cloverdale."

With her decision made, she texted her husband just to see what his thoughts on it were.

"I texted him and told him I was thinking about running "Shu" in the second round and he texted me back 'Go for it' so I took that as a yes and it solidified my decision. I was anxious and nervous all at the same time," Garthwaite explained.

Garthwaite describes the 6-year-old daughter of Dash Of Royal Gold and out of Fire Water Flyer by Fire Water Flit as a very gritty and focused athlete.

"She gives me 110% every run that I make on her and almost always knocks it out of the park in our first run. Whenever I need her, she steps up to the plate. I knew that I needed to win the round in order to make it back for the short round so I knew that I had to go for it and just see how the chips would fall."

With a smoking fast run of 16.009, Garthwaite did what she needed to do and won the round, securing her a spot in the short round. With $2,700 in earnings at Cloverdale, Garthwaite went into the finals tied for second and third with Idaho's Kali Parker.

"Going into the short round, I knew that I needed to tidy up my second barrel from our run in the round before. She ran pretty hard to the first and I sat down a hair too soon which caused me to shoot her by it so I didn't knock it over. After that, we were golden; "Shu" smoked the second and third barrel and made up for my mistake on the first."

Posting a time of 15.962 in the short round, Garthwaite ran the fastest time of the round and added another big win to her resume and an even bigger win for the young superstar, Shu Fire.

"I have been to Cloverdale a few times and have always done well there but this was my first time winning it. I am beyond grateful for the opportunity to ride such an amazing horse with such a big heart. Overall we won over $22,000 and a beautiful pair of custom made spurs for our time spent in Cloverdale. I am beyond proud of both of my mares and I am anxious for what the future holds with the two of them," concluded Garthwaite.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There is a bumper sticker in Wyoming (probably other states as well) that says, "Welcome to Wyoming...Consider us all armed." (If Mike would let me, I'd have one on my pickup!) I saw one on a car, IN WYOMING, that said, "Welcome to Florida, now go home!" Seriously?? What were they doing in Wyoming? But that's not why I started this.

A lot of people have guns in Wyoming, and carry them everywhere they go. I do. I think in the movies it's called "packin'. It's just a fact of life here. I can drive up behind a pickup load of hunters with guns in sight and not be terrified cuz I can shoot back!! JUST KIDDING!

Even better than guns, as Christians we are 'packin' Jesus everywhere we go. We are packin' love, packin' healing, packin' grace and peace. And the more familiar we are with the goodness of God and

His being on the inside of us, the more we can let those things flow out of us and on to those around us. It will change lives for the better! Consider I John 4:4. It says, "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: BECAUSE GREATER IS HE THAT IS IN YOU, than he that is in the world." That's the best kind of packin'!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
