Sister Act – MR Performance Horses Makes History at 44th Old Fort Days Futurity & Super Derby

By Tanya Randall

"Let me see the checks!"

Jayme Miller-Robison eagerly asked her sister Jodee Miller when she arrived at their Bellville, Texas, home from the 44th Annual Old Fort Days Futurity & Derby, held May 14-22 in Fort Smith, Arkansas. Miller had just made history with their homebreds by their late stallion French Streaktovegas, winning the futurity on M R Smashed N Vegas and the derby on MR Repete Pete.

Miller, the younger sister by a decade, proudly handed the large cardboard checks to her sister with a grin. As excited as Robison was with the new mementos, her countenance prompted Miller to comment.

"Oh, you mean the real checks?"

Those totaling $73,671 were still in Secretary Cindy Arnold's office at Kay Rodgers Park.

Making History

When Miller qualified three of her four horses back to the finals, things were already going better than expected at her third trip to the "World's Richest" Futurity. She got two back in the Derby, which is only open 5- and 6-year-old horses paid in full to Old Fort Days Futurity as a 4-year-old, and one in the futurity. Her second futurity horse just missed the finals by a couple of holes.

M R Vegas Fame ("Lilly") was her first horse out in the derby finals on Saturday afternoon. The daughter of "Streak" and JL Sweet Fame, a Dash Ta Fame daughter from the great barrel producing mare BF Silver Charm, by Takin On The Cash, had the 11th fastest time in the derby trials with a 16.770, but clipped a barrel to finish 24th, earning $820.

"I was extremely nervous," said Miller. "I normally don't get nervous but I was shaking. She truly got me over that. I usually have to stay really relaxed on her because she gets really nervous. We got a barrel, but she worked really good. But when I got off her, I was relaxed and had my head back in the game."

A drag and one horse later, she had to run her sister's dream horse Pete. With one run already under her belt, she was able to ride Pete "really right" to a victorious 16.371, worth $22,354.

"Pete is probably my pride and joy," said Robison of the gelding, by Streak and out of Danyelle Campbell's National Finals Rodeo qualifier Repete Fame, by Dash Ta Fame out of her NFR qualifier Hittin Pay Dirt, by Arbeka Jet One. "It was a lot of convincing to get Danyelle Campbell to sell me an embryo out of her NFR mare for an unproven stallion. Everyone buys and sells embryos now, but it wasn't that common six years ago."

After getting his start under saddle with Robbie Sharp, husband of NFR qualifier Jennifer Sharp, Robison did nearly all of Pete's training. It wasn't until it was time for him to start his futurity career as a 4-year-old that Robison realized with two young girls in school, traveling just wasn't possible, so she handed him over to Miller.

"I took him over to haul him, exhibition and run him," said Miller. "I got him in December of his 3-year-old year and my first runs on him were at Edna (Texas). He was really solid in the pattern, but super spooky because he hadn't been hauled that much. It took me about three months for him to stop spooking from everything."

Miller said Pete, who often suffers from "goofy-gelding syndrome," has really matured recently and is taking his job as a barrel horse more seriously, even though he did give the side-eye to the Robison was "just ecstatic" with Pete and Miller's win. She knew when Pete wrapped the third barrel—where he stumbled and bowed off in the trails—that he was fixing to take some tenths off his qualifying run of 16.729.

"I wanted to call her right away and say, 'I told you so!' I knew Pete could do it! He was a little immature in the beginning. That's why he wasn't a standout futurity horse, but I knew he was going to be great!"

Instead of calling her sister, who had to prepare for Smash's run in the futurity, Robison fielded congratulatory calls including one from Campbell.

"I missed the beginning of the futurity because I'm getting all the phone calls," Robison laughed. The weeklong affair in Fort Smith kept her from attending. She had taken her daughters out of school for the BBR Finals and Ruby Buckle but thought it would be best for them to not miss their last week of school. "I was so excited I kind of forgot about the futurity at the time!"

MR Performance Horse actually had three horses by Streak running in the futurity finals: Jute Wright's Playin N Vegas, who was ridden by Jordan Harrell to a $6,517 seventh-place finish, and Latricia Mundorf's homebred DM High Roller ("Vanila Wafer"), out of her great Firewaterontherocks mare Happy To Run Em. Robinson was beyond excited when Mundorf and Vanila Wafer had temporary control of the reserve championship with a 15.584.

"She's one of the kindest hearted people," she said. "She's believed in Streak from the beginning. When she ran I was so excited! I was so happy for her!"

Miller and Smash, the fourth fastest qualifiers with a 16.609, were the very next to run. Already on "Cloud Nine" because of Pete's championship, Miller was very relaxed for Smash's run. "When it came time to run Smash, I think with the others doing good, I was like 'Who cares!' Miller chuckled. "I just wanted to make a good run. I think having run the other horses really helped." Even though she thought her first run was better, Smash picked up the pace for a victorious 16.449, worth $50,497 including the qualifying money.

"His qualifying run, to me, felt a little bit smoother than the finals run," she said. "I was just going for the same run again. I think that I got a little ahead of myself at the second barrel, I kind of sat down a little too soon, but it worked. Any other horse, that could have been bad, but he is so honest. The third he went a stride by it and tripped and somehow sped up 2/10ths. I swear his first run was smoother but he was out for blood!"

Watching at home, Robison was "just floored."

"I immediately started crying," Robison said. "Jodee's boyfriend Lee Pedone called. He told me to keep watching to see if it holds. I was like to heck with it holding! That was fantastic! Who cares! Winning wasn't a thought at that point I was thinking how awesome he did! When he won, there was no calming me down!"

Smash was special to both sisters because he was out of a mare they shared, Jamaka Smash. The daughter of Big Smash, a son of Easily Smashed, was out of Dol Rocket, by Jet Rockette, making her a half-sister to former Jud Little powerhouse Des Delight.

Jamaka was one of Robison's first "big time" barrel horses. Later when Miller started showing more interest, Robison shared the mare with her sister, who mainly used the mare for pole bending at high school rodeos.

Sadly, they only got one Streak out of their beloved mare. The first one, born via recipient, died. Jamaka carried Smash, but an EPM flare up nearly killed them both. Thankfully, they were able to get Jamaka to Texas A&M where she delivered a healthy foal but was unable to recover. Thankfully, Danielle Collier had a recip mare that had lost her foal two days before that would become Smash's surrogate mom.

Smash's next everted crisis came as a long yearling. A storm came through and he nearly took his left hind foot off on a piece of tin. Dr. Rolf Modesto did surgery but Smash was still left with half a foot. With an unknown competitive future, Smash was left a colt until he proved he could stay sound on that foot.

"We figured if anything, we'd keep him and collect on him, because we didn't know if he was going to be able to run," said Miller. Yet, when sent to Sharp for breaking, soundness wasn't an issue but his dominant attitude was. "He had him for 30 days as a stud colt and we figured he was a little too much to handle. We did collect him before we cut him so we do have some frozen. We sent him back to Robbie for another 30 days after we cut him, and he's been super easy."

Miller started Smash to the left to protect his foot but did try him to the right to make sure she was correct in her thinking. That experiment didn't last long as Smash was destined to be yet another lefty in Miller's barn.

BARREL RACING REPORT

Unlike her derby horses, Smash was ready to be a futurity horse from the beginning. He's been steadily improving, especially over the last three weeks leading up to Old Fort Days.

Miller said he's got the best of Streak and Jamaka in him.

"He's literally the best of both of them," she said. "I see so much of Jamaka in him. He's ornery and pushy like her. He's really dominant and that's how Jamaka was. She just knew she was the best. He's really feely and turny and sweet like Streak. He gets his honesty, his quick feet, his turns, his color, his sweetness and kindness from Streak and he gets that resilience and power from Jamaka."

The Best of Both

The sisters first exposure to horses was trail riding with their parents. When Robison was in the third grade her neighbor's aunt introduced her to barrel racing.

"That's when it was over," Robison laughed. "I went back to my parents and taught this 10-year-old trail riding horse how to do barrels and we went to Suburban (a riding club in Tomball, Texas). I upgraded from the trail riding horses. It was never ending. I went to college on a rodeo scholarship. My main goal was to make it to the NFR. Those dreams are still there, but the road to get there has evolved."

Her sister was still riding bareback all over the place when Robison first started to rodeo on her WPRA permit. It wasn't until she was a junior in high school that Miller's competitive drive took over. Jamaka was the horse that taught her how to win.

With Robison living part time in Minnesota, where her husband Brian played football for the Vikings, Miller got to "share" more of her sister's horses.

"When I would leave in August, Jodee was like, 'Can I take them here...'," laughed Robison. "By the time I got home, she'd already formed this bond with them. At one point, I was like don't get on my horse when I leave. She'd fall in love with them and I couldn't take them from her."

Their main focus at the time had been rodeo until Robison purchased Streak. The decorated son of $5 million dollar sire A Streak Of Fling out of Sun Frost, Frenchmans Lady mare PC Frenchmans Flirt, a full sister to $10.6 million dollar sire Frenchmans Guy. "My main goal was rodeo," Robison said. "I was willing to be patient. When Streak came along I had to have a Plan B. Instead of buying prospects in hopes of making a rodeo horse, I was going to breed them."

And her sister was going to train them. Although she enjoyed rodeo, Miller wasn't as passionate about it as her sister. She found it in training and hauling young horses, something her sister didn't have the time to do.

"I really love the colts," said Miller. "As much as Jayme loves to piddle with the colts, she's never going to be the 100 percent go to the futurities fulltime. Her passion is the rodeos. She'd rather have two or three to take to the rodeos and season. After their derby year, I'm not going to have much use for them so she'll either take them and rodeo on them or we'll sell them."

With mentorship from her sister, later Jordon Briggs and now Ryann Pedone, Miller has evolved into a successful trainer and she had one of her brightest moments on one of barrel racing's biggest stages.

"Every day, every show, you're still learning, and I hope that never changes," said Miller. "I'm a better rider this year than I was last year. I think a lot of it is letting the horses come into it on their own and not rushing it. This year I think Pete and Lilly have been dominating and I don't think they were quite ready last year. This year, I have Smash, who had that tough mentality right out of the gate, which makes it easier. The more I go, it's easier to not get in your head about it.

She said the hardest part was relaxing and letting the wins come to her.

"When I met Ryann, I wanted it so badly," she said. "Even now she'll still get on to me. When you want it so badly, you get in your own way. I've learned to relax, and like Ryan Pedone has said, When it's your time, it's your time. Relax, let your horses work. When you let things happen, the unachievable becomes achievable.' I tried not to have expectations. I know that my horses are nice, but I'm not going to put those expectations on myself. I hope moving forward it continues to be the same."

Now, next year, Miller will be on to the next set of colts, while Robison will take over seasoning the derby horses to rodeo.

"This has been a longtime in the making," said Miller. "We had bred a couple that would have been older, but it's just been waiting and waiting for them to do what they thought they would."

As it stands, MR Performance Horses is the first, owner, breeder, rider team to have swept both the futurity and derby at Old Fort Days in the same year. Miller becomes the first female rider to win both in the same year. Cody Bauserman had accomplished the same feat in 2007. Although records are piecemeal prior to the late 1980s, it's highly probable that Streak is the first stallion to sire both the futurity and derby winner in the same year.

"It makes it sweeter that both of those horses were bred here," said Robison. "I worked very hard at getting Pete's embryo, and then Smash, his mom was my barrel horse that I worked to pay off. I bought her before I had money. It made that win sweeter that it all came from us. You breed them, you raised them, you trained them. It just couldn't get any better. That put me at the top and I wasn't even on them. Knowing that was all because of us and the decisions we made ... "

BARREL RACING REPORT

Melby and RF Back For the Cash Sweep Grid Iron

Over the weekend at the Grid Iron Futurity in Spearfish, SD, the sorrel stud RF Back For the Cash and Fonda Melby completed a clean sweep; winning both rounds and the average of both the Open & Breeders Futurity along with both the Saturday & Sunday Open. Their weekend sweep netted them a hefty $6,783. RF Back For the Cash is barrel racing royalty; by the $2 million barrel sire & $1.4 million race sire Judge Cash and out of the 3 Time NFR round winning mare RC Back In Black. According to Equistat, Rc Back In Black, an earner of over $100k herself (per Equistat), has already produced $401,546 as of their last reporting, with Slick N Black being her top earner at $188k.

The Barrel Racing Report caught up with Fonda Melby to ask her about her special horse.

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the Grid Iron Futurity on RF Back For The Cash?

Melby: The pen in Spearfish is pretty small so I just tried to keep him really straight up the pen and not let him drop too soon to the first. On the first run, he aced his first and typically when I send him into second and third I have to keep my focus really strong on the ground finishing the turns so he keeps his feet on the ground moving forward without elevating. He did just that. For the second round, I was pretty nervous but I just tried to stay focused on where I needed to ride him to on each barrel. When he came into the first he buried up pretty close to the barrel and I thought he was going to cut back too soon so I really had to move his hips around to finish the turn and get by the barrel. After we finished the second, I made sure to send him deep into the third. My husband always gives me a hard time about not whipping him out of the arena so I on my second run I did.

BRR: Tell us a little about your horse and what you have won so far this year?

Melby: Heatwave is the neatest horse I have ever ridden. He has so much speed and reach, but he can also hold his body in position and make really small tight turns. He was Reserve Champion at the Greg Olson Memorial Futurity in Buckeye in January. He qualified in the top 30 at the American Semifinals and ended up 13th in the short go. He was reserve champion at the SC Productions Futurity Slot race. I have taken him to one amateur rodeo and he won second at it.

BRR: Can you share with us an exercise or training tip that was vital to the development of RF Back For The Cash?

Melby: He has a lot of speed and not as much natural rate so we spent a lot of time doing the 3 barrel drill (all to the left or all to the right) showing him where to transition down to a slower speed so he would understand where to rate and where to start his turn.

BRR: What are the major events you plan to run RF Back For The Cash at throughout the rest of the year?

Melby: Several of the Northern Region Futurity Tour Futurities and some circuit rodeo this summer. Once fall comes, we'll go to some of the larger futurities again - Fizz Bomb, Ardmore, BFA and OKC (derbies).

BRR: We know along with barrel racing, you are also a veterinarian. How do you balance running barrels, training, traveling and your vet work? Also, do you feel it is an advantage when you go to work on horses where you also run them?

Melby: We live in MN so equine veterinary work is very seasonal. Most of the work we do is performance horse work-ups and reproduction with the bulk of the work being from March-June. November-February is very slow so we schedule work every 6 weeks on the farrier schedule for both veterinary and farrier appointments so we can be in the south for a majority of the winter getting our horses hauled. During the busy season we stay home/close to home but once June comes around, we schedule appointments around our futurity/rodeo/jackpot schedule.

As far as being a veterinarian, I do think that riding and competing myself, helps with my examinations. When an owner describes what the horse feels like, I have a pretty good idea if the front or hind end is more involved in the horse's soreness. Competing also helps me to understand what the horses go through on the road and what their needs are to stay healthy and able to compete.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Melby: Ryan (my husband), coffee and sunglasses

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo to Feature $50,000 Young Guns Rodeo

The Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo is excited to announce the expansion of the Days of '47 Young Guns Rodeo that will be a featured competition during rodeo week in Salt Lake City.

The Days of '47 Young Guns Rodeo will feature the next generation of rodeo stars ages 13-18 in the timed events (steer wrestling, team roping, tie-down roping, barrel racing and breakaway roping) and 6-18 in the roughstock events (bareback, saddle bronc and bull riding) and will be part of the Nation's Only $1 Million Cowboy Games and Rodeo July 20-24 in the Salt Lake Valley.

"We are excited to feature one of the largest youth rodeos in the State of Utah boasting $50,000 in prize money," said Tommy Joe Lucia, Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo General Manager. "Our mission is to honor Utah's pioneer heritage and educate Utah's youth. We are honored to make this investment into the future of our sport and tomorrow's leaders."

The timed event competition will take place daily, July 20-24 starting at 10 a.m. at the Salt Lake County Equestrian Park outdoor arena in South Jordan, Utah. While the roughstock competition will be held daily at 4:30 p.m. at the Days of '47 Arena in Salt Lake City as part of the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo pre-rodeo entertainment.

Entries are on a first come, first serve basis with entries opening at 10 a.m. MT on May 26, 2021 online at www.ctrodeo-Idaho.weebly.com. Individuals can enter once per day with daily payouts of $1,000 in each category. Entries will be capped at 15 per category per day in the timed events and a total of 15 per discipline in the roughstock events. Books close and fees are due NO LATER than July 1, 2021.

"Youth in the State of Utah and across the United States will not want to miss this event," said Cameron Tuckett, owner and operator of CT Rodeo. "This is a huge step for us expanding to offer opportunities for the timed event youth during the Days of '47 and drastically increasing the total event payout from $7,500 to $50,000. We can't thank our partners with Days of '47 enough for investing in the next generation of rodeo stars and the sky is the limit for this event."

The overall champion (highest score in the five days not including the pee wee age group) in the bareback and saddle bronc riding competition will earn a GOLDEN TICKET to the Junior World Roughstock National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas during the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in December.

For those kids that aren't quite ready for the bucking horses and bulls, the Young Guns Rodeo will also feature mutton busting. There will be three sections each day at the Days of '47 Arena as part of the pre-rodeo entertainment beginning at 4:30 p.m. Always a crowd favorite, the mutton busting gives the younger kids an opportunity to "Get Their Cowboy On." Participants must weigh less than 50 pounds and be between the ages of 3 and 8 years old. No exceptions. Entries are on a first come, first serve basis and are free to sign-up at www.daysof47cowboygames.com under the Events tab. Tickets to that night's rodeo are required for entry to the arena.

Tickets are now on sale and range in price from $14 to $29. Tickets can be purchased through AXS tickets - online at http://www.axs.com/series/11764/2021-days-of-47-cowboy-games-rodeo-tickets or by phone at 800-888-8499. Group sales of 10 tickets or more will receive a $5 off excluding the $14 priced tickets.

Gates open at 4:00 pm daily and fans are encouraged to come early to enjoy the historical exhibits, commercial exhibitors, great food, and preshow activities in the area including the Young Guns Rodeo featuring tomorrow's champions. New this year is an air-conditioned vendor space and additional shading for the Fun Zone activities that is open and free to the public. The Young Guns Rodeo will take place in the main arena beginning at 4:30 p.m., and a rodeo ticket will be required for admission. For more information on pre-event activities please visit www.daysof47cowboygames. com.

The Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo has become a must stop on the summer rodeo schedule for contestants from the junior high level all the way to the pros of the sport as they vie for Gold, Silver and Bronze medals awarded to the top three, setting this rodeo apart from any other rodeo in the world.

have a little sign in my kitchen that says, "Change is good...as long as I don't have to do anything different!" Truly, change is hard for me. So, when I read or hear the phrase that seems to be prevalent right now (the new normal), my hair stands on end!

I DON'T WANT A NEW NORMAL! I want to do the same thing, the same way and expect different results! LOL! We all know that's the definition of insanity. Well, WHAT IF there is a new normal? WHAT IF this whole last two months is going to turn into the biggest blessing we've ever seen?

Now, if Jesus is not your Lord, you will have to take what the world gives. As Christians, we are NOT subject to the world's answers. God PROMISED us in Jere. 29:11 (AMPC version), "For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for YOU (put your name in there) says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome."

Our future is bright. Listen, listen, listen, to what God is saying in your HEART! Not what the news is saying and not what you hear through your ears. Listen with your heart and He will guide you into your place of blessing! I would love to hear what God is doing in you and through you!
