Jackie Jatzlau & Imanonstop Fame Triumph at Old Fort Days Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Jackie Jatzlau and the outstanding 4-year-old gelding Imanonstop Fame ("Prince"), bred and owned by Shelly Weaver, wowed the crowd on Finals night at the 38th Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Ark., with a spectacular 16.415, the fastest time of the entire event to win the $50,841 Championship.

"What a blessing that horse is," said Jatzlau, a multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier and aged event champion from Giddings, Texas. "He's been a blessing to everyone that he's touched. I'm just so thankful to be a part of it."

In the qualifying round, Jatzlau made a businessman run—staying smooth and clean—to qualify back in the 18th hole. Pete Oen and the flashy Firewaterontherocks daughter, Hip Swinging Gypsy, topped the Trails with a 16.747 to claim the $25,000 Future Fortunes Sire Slot's and Future Fortunes and Triple Crown 100 bonuses.

For the Finals, Jatzlau knew she could let her barrel racing protégé—who had already survived the pressure packed atmosphere of Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas, for RFD-TV's The American—make his run.

"The music and the crowd makes him run really hard," said Jatzlau. "He just excels in that kind of situation. Back in the warmup pen, it was really loud. He was as cool as a cucumber and there were a lot of horses you could see that were really nervous. He warmed up really nice and I had a really great feeling. I just walked him to the mouth of the alley (like her mother told her too) and let him go. Everything after that's kind of a blurr."

Weaver, who has pretty much put her own barrel racing on hold to be a devoted Prince fan for his futurity year, was on hand to see her homebred win.

"I'm pretty much the most foolish owner when he does something well. There's videos of it, so I have no doubt!" laughed Weaver. "Prince has accomplished so much this year. I've been so blessed by him. When we went into Fort Smith—it was the one futurity that she'd never won—and I wanted Prince to win, but I wanted Prince to win for her. I feel like Jackie had done so much to give 110 percent that I really wanted that for her. I was so grateful that he was able to do that for her, and it meant a lot to me. I felt like in my heart that one was for her."

Weaver had purchased Princess mother, the pro rodeo winning Imanonstop Princess, from Jatzlau in August of 2010, but she only made six runs on the mare before she was injured. As a major Dash Ta Fame fan, Weaver made the decision to breed the daughter of Letta Hank Do It, a barrel racing money earning maternal half-brother to Fire Water Flit, out of a Nonstop Jet mare, to the leading sire.

"That in my eyes was the perfect cross for Princess," Weaver said. "Princess was always so consistent. She might not go and win every rodeo, but she could place. I felt like adding a little bit more speed to her could be beneficial."

Prince was the first foal that Weaver had ever raised. She raised a few other foals out of Princess before she joined Jud Little's stellar broodmare band in the spring of 2012.

In the meantime, Prince is getting a five-week break while Jackie rides her 3-year-olds.

"I think we decided if I leave him out for five weeks, I can get him up and ride him for two before the Elite in July," said Jatzlau. "I may take him to a few amateur rodeos this summer and then shoot Jatzlau, who is sponsored by Circle Y Saddles, Cowgirl Tuff, Oxy-Gen, Schneider Performance Pads, Heritage Brand Tack, Kroes Feet Stirrups, Equi-Sports Massagers and Iconoclast Boots, wanted to thank her team—who were surprisingly absent from the win picture. Her mother Peggy Dube stayed home to doctor sick and injured horses, while her biggest cheerleader husband Lane stayed home to coach their son Jagger's t-ball games and watch their 7-month-old daughter Journey.

Laughed Jatzlau, "I told both of them before I left, 'you know, because you aren't going with me, I'm going to win, right?' My husband said, 'Well, if it's that simple, enjoy the trip because no one is ever going with you again!'"

Kay Blandford & KN My Mamas Famous 2 Star at Old Fort Days Derby

By Tanya Randall

Champion barrel racer and trainer Kay Blandford found herself back in the Old Fort Days Winner's Circle with Kimi Nichols' KN My Mamas Famous 2 ("Bella"). Blandford and golden dappled palomino mare posted a 16.512 to win the $31,330 Derby Championship.

"I asked her for an Angel run," said Blandford, hoping the talented young mare would perform like her dam, Talents Dark Angel, who always came through with big money on the line. "She doesn't need to be Angel. She can be her own horse now...until I need to ask her for another Angel run."

Nichols laughed and said, "She needs to ask her for more runs like that!"

Bred by Nichols, Bella is a genetically-engineered barrel horse. Her sire, Firewater Ta Fame, is a proven performer by the all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame and out of barrel racing money earner Fashion Star Flit. She, too, was double-bred barrel horse with legendary sire and performer Fire Water Flit as a sire and with race-horse turned barrel horse Chillie Charger as a broodmare sire.

Bella's dam is none other than Blandford's 2007 WPRC World Champion Talents Dark Angel, a daughter of barrel horse Flaming Talent out of noted producer Docs Abbie Lee, by Docs Superstar Bar. The potent cross of Flaming Talent on a Docs Superstar Bar mare also produced National Finals Rodeo qualifier Top Tally.

Blandford said Bella's a lot like her mother.

"Her stride ...," she said. "She's got a heck of a stride ... like her momma. She's a lot more docile. She doesn't kick the trailer like Angel did. She's got some of her quirks, but not the bad ones. She

when she last won about her great National Finals Rodeo horse The Key Grip. Called "Llave," the Spanish word for key, the great gelding, now 25, was the first horse to sweep the aged events at Old Fort Days—winning the Futurity and Super Derby twice from 1994 to 1996. They also dominated the Old Fort Days PRCA Rodeo for many years.

Blandford, who is sponsored by Larry Coats, Platinum Performance, Charlie 1 Horse Hats, Elgin Veterinary Hospital (Dr. Marty Tanner), Respond Laser and Classic Equine, nearly got her next Derby championship in 2010 when a photographer for local Fort Smith newspaper walked in front of the timer during her finals run on KN Docs Gray Gold, another horse raised by Nichols. They won the reserve championship on the rerun.

Her first Old Fort Days Derby Championship came in 1991 aboard Double Sugar Cat.

Flannery and Vanilas Sudden Fame Capture Roper Apparel Futurity

By Hope Sickler

Samantha Flannery from Mission, South Dakota is one of the most accomplished futurity trainers in the business, having stamped her name at numerous futurities and derbies across the nation. She can add another win to her long resume after claiming the Roper Apparel and Footwear Futurity championship aboard the talented 5-year-mare Vanilas Sudden Fame. Vanilas Sudden Fame is by the great Dash Ta Fame and out of SX Frenchmans Vanila, by Frenchmans Guy and is owned by Butch and Stephanie Webb.

Vanilas Sudden Fame "Reese" was ridden this winter and spring by Wyoming's Ashley Schafer but expectant mother-to-be Schafer sent the mare to Flannery while she waits for baby Schafer to make his/her debut in August.

Prior to the futurity in Gillette, Wyoming, Flannery had taken the pretty palomino around the cloverleaf pattern only one time at a jackpot.

"Like most of the Midwest and south right now, we have been extremely wet so I have been unable to work my horses at home. I got "Reese" May 6th and took her to one jackpot before making the trek to Gillette. I had watched Ashley run this mare enough though to know that I needed to stay in the middle and let the mare do her job," explained Flannery.

And indeed she did.

Flannery and "Reese" won the first round of the futurity posting a time of 15.727, good enough for $1,194.

"I didn't want to waste a run on her in an exhibition so I just did slow work prior to our first run. She blew so hard off the first barrel that I was glad I had my cante to keep me in my seat. She smoked a run and I tried to stay in the middle of her the very best that I could but I felt like whiplash the monkey. She is such an amazing horse."

Coming back to their second run on Sunday, Flannery watched patiently as a few other horses that placed behind her in the first round, hit barrels.

"I watched as a few horses hit barrels that were going to be in the running for the average, so I just did a bunch of reverse arcs before making our run. I wanted her to stay round and off my leg so we would stay clean," Flannery said.

Rounding the cloverleaf pattern with all three barrels standing and posting a time of 15.925, put them fourth in the second round and first in the average. Their total time of 31.652 sealed the deal and the futurity championship.

"I am very tickled with how our first outing went and I am very excited to see what is yet to come. I am very thankful to the Webb's and Ashley for allowing me this opportunity to jockey such a nice mare. Also a huge thanks to Lynn Kohr for such a great futurity."

Flannery pocketed $3,532.25 for the weekend along with an awesome Roper Jacket and a beautiful Jessie Jaymes trophy buckle

Kathy Grimes & KG JusticeWeExpected Own It

By Hope Sickler

Medicine Lake, Washington superstar Kathy Grimes is no stranger to the arena in Pasco, Washington and neither is her phenomenal equine partner, KG JusticeWeExpected. They have set that pen on fire more times than not and this past weekend at the BRN4D Finals was no exception.

Prior to the weekend, Grimes had not made a run on her great mare "Izzy" since Barrel Daze six weeks earlier. "I knew she was going to make great runs because she loves that arena but I didn't quite think she was going to come back and run that hard after not being ran in over a month. I was very pleased with how she performed," explained Grimes.

Grimes and "Izzy" shut the clock off their first run on Friday with a sub-17 second run with a 16.763, earning them $1,352.43 for first in the 1D.

"She did great. She went in there and got the job done and worked her butt off."

On Saturday, the dynamic duo came back and clocked another sub-17 second time with a 16.779, only a hair slower than their run the previous day. Once again, good enough for first in the 1D and another large sum of $1,281.53.

"Our run on Saturday was not as smooth as she typically is. Our turns were a little wild and after checking Interval Timing, she in fact had slower turns but was faster in the straight aways," Grimes said.

Having an unusual run on Saturday set Grimes off a bit for their run on Sunday where she and "Izzy" ran their only 17-second run of the weekend with a 17.093, placing them fourth in the 1D and a check for $937.55. Kelsie Miller and her mount Bridle Bit Riley won the 1D Sunday with a 16.938.

"I got nervous on Sunday and overrode her. I was a little disappointed but a 17.0 was nothing to complain about. I was just disappointed in myself for overriding her."

After having two not so "Kathy and Izzy" runs on Saturday and Sunday, Grimes was bound and determined to make the cloverleaf pattern the way she and "Izzy" normally do, on Monday.

"Our run on Monday was much better. I left her alone and let her do her job. We ran our fastest time of the weekend, a 16.706. I was very pleased," commented Grimes.

When it was all said and done, Grimes accomplished what she came to do and left Pasco with the 1D average championship along with a 2 horse bumper pull from Don Johnsons Trailers.

"I am thrilled with the weekend that we had and I am so thankful for such a great event that the staff at BRN4D put on. They always do such an awesome job and treat us barrel racers so well."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

You know, our walk with the Lord is a day by day process. We spend time in His word. We pray. We give. We make adjustments in our lives and behavior as He directs.

But if I've heard it once, I've heard it a LOT....."I just don't have a ministry." "What can I do for the Lord?" "How could God possibly use "little ole me?" It's an excuse. God made you and me just like He wanted. Some of us can sing (not me!). Some have a gift of hospitality (not me!) It's not that I don't want people to come to my house, I do. But I have a hard time slowing down. So unless it's a prearranged date, if you show up at my house unannounced, you'll have to follow me around while I work. Or you will get put to work!!

YOU HAVE A MINISTRY! Just do what needs to be done at the time...where ever and whenever. If someone needs a shoulder to lean on...stand up strong so they don't have to lean too far. If someone needs a meal, you can buy it or fix it. Help! Listen! Encourage!

As an example, I want to tell you what happened this last weekend at the barrel race in Montana. We got there early so we were first in the pens..... the ones on the end....the ones near the porta potty.....

After I made my last run and was at the trailer, I couldn't find Mike. Hmmm. Usually he's at the trailer with encouraging words or words of wisdom. (Sher, you need to go faster! It's a barrel RACE!) You know, things like that. So as I headed for the pen, I was taken totally by surprise when there he was.....standing at the porta potty holding horses while ladies went potty!

Yep, sometimes, you don't even have to be spiritual!
God Bless!
