Buncha Dinero for Hayle Gibson-Stillwell with American Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo qualifier Hayle Gibson-Stillwell and her great mare Buncha Dinero (“Piper”) nabbed the $100,000 Championship at The American Rodeo, held May 22-23 at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas.

“I’m still taking it all in,” said the barrel racer from Redcrest, California. “It’s surreal to me that I just won The American. I’m very thankful for The American and everyone involved with it for the opportunities it brings us. I’m speechless and just over the moon excited!”

Stillwell, having finished No. 4 in the 2025 WPRA World Standings, was in Invited guest competitor to the event and played spoiler in a Championship Round containing three Contenders, who earned the right to compete for a share of $2 million bonus for those advancing through a grueling four-step qualification process.

“Being an Invitee, we just kind of went in there enjoying the experience, no pressure,” said Stillwell, who contested at her first NFR last year. “I didn’t have any expectations or anything. We’re just enjoying the journey.”

Stillwell had Piper and RDC DancingToTheLead (“Fancy”) to choose from for her American runs and opted for her NFR star Piper.

“I felt like she deserved to go out there on that big stage and shine,” said Stillwell. “She lives for it. The bigger, the better for her. It’s like she can feel the energy.”

Stillwell did her due diligence by taking advantage of practice time on Saturday morning.

“It was supposed to start at 8, and it ended up being probably an hour late,” she explained “I was the only one who utilized morning practice. I had the arena to myself. All I did was probably five minutes. I got to trot her through the pattern and then I loped her through and let her feel the ground. Then we just kind of walked around and let her look and called it good.”

In the Showdown Round, the top five Invitees faced off with the top five Contenders. Initially, the Invitees—the top five in last year’s WPRA World Standings—were Kassie Mowry, Tricia Aldridge, Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, Carlee Otero and Stillwell; however, Mowry turned out and wasn’t replaced per rules. The Contenders, who advanced from the Semifinals Rodeo on Friday, were Taylor Armenta, Heidi Gunderson, Mindy Holloway, Dusky Lynn Hall and Blake Molle.

Stillwell squeaked into the Championship Round finishing fourth with a 15.443 behind three Contenders—Gunderson, Molle and Hall.

They had about an hour and a half between the Showdown and Championships rounds. During that time Stillwell took Piper back to the trailer for some pampering.

“She did get an EquiFlow nebulizing treatment between the two runs. I have an EquiPod so I gave her a 30-minute session on my EquiPod, but she just sat at the trailer and rested.”

In the Championship Round, Stillwell and Piper took an unrelinquished lead with a 15.428.

“The first one I kind of didn’t really ask her to run and let her just pick her speed,” she said, “and I felt like I didn’t have full speed when I hit the eye. For that second round, I was like I’m just going to come running from outside of the alley because it’s a pretty easy way for me. That definitely helped her, she was rolling when she hit the eye.”

The $100,000 payday bumped Piper’s third-party documented career earnings to nearly $600,000 in her early career. Piper, 7, was raised by Stillwell via a stallion auction-purchased breeding to now four-time American Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday for her pro rodeo money earning Thoroughbred mare Rambunchkie, by multiple graded stakes winner Bellamy Road.

“She’s so fun,” said Stillwell of Piper. “Everything about her is fun, easy. I have so much confidence on her back, but she doesn’t need me. She’s so honest and automatic. She just loves her job and loves the crowd and goes out there and tries her hardest every time. She makes it so fun.”

Stillwell currently sits No. 4 in the 2026 WPRA World Standings with $73,609 after an exceptional winter. (Note: The American is a non-sanctioned rodeo and does not count toward any standings.)

“I’m so thankful for a fantastic winter,” she said.

She’s been home trying to get the required number of California Circuit rodeos to be eligible for those finals, which count toward the following year’s world standings. She’s currently No. 2 in the circuit behind Kathy Petksa.

“After the winter run I got to go home for a little bit,” she said. “I’m trying to get my rodeos in for California because they bumped our numbers this year, so it’s a little harder for me.”

Stillwell has used the need for more circuit runs to keep her whole team horses sharp. While Piper and Fancy have made the big money runs, Smiling N Ta Fame (“Sharky”) has been getting the wins at the smaller circuit rodeos.

“I’ve been running Sharky,” she said. “She’s loving being back on the trailer and being No. 1. Because Sharky kicks in the trailer so badly, she gets to go alone and have the whole trailer to herself. She’s happy that way.”

Stillwell has another circuit rodeo this weekend in Santa Maria, California. Afterward she’ll have a week at home before starting her summer run.

“I’ll take Fancy and Piper out with me,” she explained. “Sharky will come out on another trailer to the rodeos I think she’ll excel at. Since the NFR Open and Salinas are on top of each other, Sharky gets to go to the NFR Open and maybe some other ones, maybe Reno. Fancy and Piper will stay with me and go to Calgary and the bigger ones.”

After having to hustle to make her first NFR last year, Stillwell’s hoping to use that experience to make this year’s hauling easier.

“Last year was hardcore,” she said. “We plan to stay out (on the road) again but pick and choose where we’re going and capitalize at the bigger rodeos. My goal is to take as much of the travel time off my horses as possible, so I’m going to lighten my schedule a little bit and try to keep the girls happy. I don’t want to do the all night drives and kill myself on the road if we don’t have to. It might change in the summer because we know how much money there is to be won, but right now, we’re going to try to be selective.”

$50,000 Haul For Troy Crumrine & Titan Remember Eddie at Royal Crown OKC

By Tanya Randall

Troy Crumrine, one of barrel racing's all-time leading riders, guided Titan Remember Eddie ("MJ") to dual futurity championships at the Royal Crown Race, held May 19-24 in the OG&E Coliseum in Oklahoma City.

MJ collected $49,947 for the 4.5 million dollar barrel racer from Waynesfield, Ohio, and the mare's co-owner Schuyler Unruh.

"I knew she was pretty good all along," said Crumrine, "but Royal Crown is where she really stepped it up."

Crumrine and MJ won the 188-entry, $75,000-added Royal Crown Futurity for $29,161 with $5,103 going to the mare's sire SR Industry Titan and $2,187 going to the 4-year-old mare's breeder Tom Wylie. The victory in the 130-entry, $10,000-added South Valley Equine Open Futurity paid $9,773. They won $7,797 in the open and $3,216 in the seniors with carryover times.

"I always said Titan would be a good daddy," said Crumrine of MJ's sire, whom he rode to the BFA Derby Championship among their many wins together. "I think this is a good start for him. He didn't really breed a lot of mares until 70 Ranch got him. I think a lot of those babies are going to get exposed, so that's good for Titan."

MJ was bred when Wylie owned SR Industry Titan before he sold to 70 Ranch Performance Horses, and is out of RSL Remember My Fame, a daughter of Eddie Stinson that Crumrine campaigned until she injured a meniscus at her second futurity.

"I got her last year about March," Crumrine said. "She was broke and lightly loping the barrels. She was pretty green and didn't know a whole lot and I just kept messing with her."

MJ made her competitive debut in the opening weekend jackpots at the Barrel Futurities of America World Championships before the event was cancelled due to the equine herpes virus outbreak.

Crumrine said MJ was always in the hunt but finally started having her breakthroughs this spring.

"She's been right there all along," he said. "If they paid 10, she was 12th. She hasn't had a whole lot of luck with the ground. It seemed like I was right after a big drag or last on the ground. Just something eats her up somewhere along the line."

MJ had just $16,223 in QData earnings before Royal Crown. She was third a finalist at the Barrel Bash Select Stallion Stakes Futurity and third at the Panty Raid Futurity.

The past three weeks, MJ has run third at the Barrels For Badges Futurity, ninth at the Old Fort Days Futurity and won both futurities at the Royal Crown.

"We just finally had a little bit of luck, and she seems like one of those colts that's just getting better instead of getting worse. That's what you like to see as they progress. You like to see them stepping up."

At Royal Crown, Crumrine and MJ were 37 in the draw. With Royal Crown opting to drag every three, they were first out after a drag in the first round and then second out for their second run because of a scratch.

They won the opening round with a 14.793, which also won all the open carryover races, and were fifth in the second round with a 14.811.

"She pretty much laid down about the same run both times," Crumrine said. "I couldn't really ask her to do much more than what she did. She just stayed right in there. She does it easy. She doesn't really look like she's running, but most of the good ones don't.

"She likes her job. She's good minded to be around. She doesn't have any bad habits at all. If anything, she always wants to be in your back pocket all the time, but that's not really a bad habit."

Ward Nearly Sweeps Royal Crown for $94K, rides Willis' 5-year-old to Derby Win

By Julie Mankin

Ceri Ward estimates this month that, between Old Fort Days and Royal Crown Oklahoma City, she's piloted barrel horses to almost $114,000. Not a bad ten days. Plus, at the Royal Crown on May 19-24, Ward came within .148 of a second of winning both derbies and both futurities.

But through all that, the best feels came from her Derby championship on the only horse in Oklahoma City owned by veteran trainer Leslie Willis, who was injured in a horse accident nearly one year ago. For winning the Royal Crown and SVE Derbies on Willis' 5-year-old mare Jess Genesis One ("Barbie"), paychecks came to a cool $53,905.

"Leslie and Jason were both pumped," said Ward. "I was almost in tears, just so excited for that horse. I think Barbie deserves it – and so do Jason and Leslie."

Ward and Barbie ran two very consistent 14.8s to win the Royal Crown Derby for $25,968 and the SVE Derby for $9,189. Their 14.802 placed fifth in the High Stakes for $2,408 and was worth another $3,878 in the Open. Plus, Barbie earned a whopping $12,462 in Breeders Challenge money, as well.

"She can really run, but her heart is huge," said Ward of the mare by Tres Seis and out of Little Eye Opener, by Mr. Eye Opener.

"She showed up two runs in a row and just tries hard. That horse is so trainable; she's picked up how I use my hands very well – that's what's helped us win so much right now. She got a little tight at third in the second run, but I stayed two-handed and we got around it."

When Willis got hurt last year, her three competing futurity horses went the remainder of last season to her friend Brett Monroe. This year, when Monroe needed hip surgery, two of them went to Blaise and Brian Wheeler and Barbie went to Ward. Of course, Ward was full up, but she was honored her friend asked her to take the big grey mare.

"You can do a lot extra for a good horse and a good friend," said Ward, who's only had Barbie a few months. "The mare placed second in at least one start on the track before Leslie put her on the barrels. Riding behind Leslie meant the hard work was already done. Barbie and I just had to figure each other out and what worked for us. She was already a good horse."

Ward had taken Barbie to a couple of jackpots and to the Ruby Buckle with no luck. But they'd made it back at Fort Smith via the consolation, then placed fifth in the Derby finals.

"At Fort Smith, Leslie and I had talked and I worked her a little different and made a bridle change," said Ward. "She's been good ever since. What we did was switch to an O-ring, which was highly out of my comfort zone. Leslie said, 'I think you should try it; just go ride and feel it.' I didn't even have one! I had to borrow one from Cade Edwards. But I thought, 'I'm going to trust Leslie on this.' And it worked."

Then, on Shawn and Rickki Moyer's 5-year-old mare Flinging Goodbyes, Ward raked in $38,737. The duo placed second by just over a tenth on two runs in both the Royal Crown Futurity (to earn $23,086) and SVE Futurity (to earn $6,966), plus earned $3,112 in Breeder's Challenge money. Their 14.7 also placed fourth in the

Jess Genesis One

BIT: three-piece twisted-wire O-ring

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: Schneider Performance Pads

LEG GEAR: Relentless by Cactus

SHOEING: steel rims

FEED: alfalfa cubes by McCracken Hay Co.

HAY: Purina Impact Professional Performance

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: I don't really do any of that

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Just keeping her soft and round and moving forward

THANK YOUS: Jason and Leslie and the Eastern crew – I used Cade's bit and Brett rode Barbie. Also, my husband Reagan, who went with me and Colton Williams, our guy who makes the wheels roll at home.

SPONSORS: Robbie Philipps Saddlery, FullBucket Health, Schneider Performance Pads, and Cactus Gear's Relentless Sport Boots.

High Stakes for $3,130 and $2,443 in the Open.

"She's just extremely accountable," said Ward. "That mare is a once-in-a-lifetime horse. She lets me place her in a run, and she's so fast."

Ward pointed out very few horses can run that fast and still allow handling. She also said her runner-up futurity finish wasn't so bad, considering who won.

"If you're going to lose to somebody, you might as well lose to him," said Ward of Troy Crumrine. "Troy's a living legend. If he's going to outrun you, how can you feel bad about that? He's been doing this longer than I've been alive. When you realize how different the pedigrees are and how much times have changed – he just showed us once again why he's a legend."

With a few more dollars earned on two other horses of the six

YOUR HOME FOR SPEED

FOR BARREL RACERS, THIS CHANGES EVERYTHING.

More inventory ONLINE. Race-bred barrel prospects. Broodmares. Embryos. Horses currently on the track. All in ONE PLACE— all vetted, photographed and videoed.

The barrel world has never had its own dedicated online marketplace for true running bloodlines. Fastrack fills that gap.

This isn't a mix of cutters, ropers, and the occasional race-bred prospect. Fastrack is speed horses only.

SIMPLE. TRANSPARENT. GLOBAL.

Buy and sell year-round with Fastrack.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you been practicing 2 Pet. 1:5-8 with me? If so, you know we are on "self-control". Ya. Diligence was easy peasy. Self-control can be a bit of a challenge for me, since I'm always wanting to straighten someone out. I'm sorry. But it's true.

Every day I think I'm going to do better. Until I run into a knucklehead and I'm sure God wants me to point out to them the error of their ways... I've even begun to have stern talks with myself before I have interactions with store employees, plumbers, sprinkler guys, door people. Pretty much everyone I come into contact with...

I heard that Mike Tyson said, "Everyone has a plan... until they get hit in the mouth". That's me. I have a plan. Then I have to go and execute that plan with people.

Don't get me wrong. I love people. I just want them to do their job with 'diligence'. Is that too much to ask? No, it's not. But I'm not perfect and neither are they.

I have a plan to be Christlike this week. To exercise self-control at all times. Pray for me! LOL!
