Bugni Back To Back Ft. Smith Futurity Champion

By Hope Sickler

Mark Bugni had a banner year in 2013 and it doesn't look to be stopping in 2014. One of his biggest accomplishments last year was winning Fort Smith and he can add another Old Fort Days Futurity win to his growing resume for 2014 and a check for $54,337.82 to his bank account.

Bugni won another big check upon Red Carpet Zoom "Zoomer", a 4 year old AQHA brown gelding, sired by Azoom and out of VIP Treatment by First Down Dash, owned by Mike and Jan Dahlen from Iowa City, Iowa. The Dahlen's purchased the gelding thru the Lance Graves Pro Classic Sale last February as a prospect from the Flying W Ranch in Texas. David Witcher broke the gelding while Shannon Witcher lightly started him on the barrels. Once the gelding was sold to the Dahlen's, they sent him straight home with Bugni to begin his barrel racing career.

"He's a very personable horse. He has the most personality that I have ever had in my barn. He is such a character and even on his bad days, he is still enjoyable. He would rather spend time with us at a barrel race than standing out in the pasture," explained Bugni. This year at Fort Smith, there were 425 entries in the futurity with only 40 back to the short round. Bugni and Zoomer qualified for the short round with a 17.091, in the 31st position.

"We qualified in the same spot as we did last year so it felt like a great omen."

Bugni and Zoomer had a good run in the progressive round, but jerked a shoe which cost them some serious time.

"He ran pretty fresh in the first round and sort of ran thru his turns. He then ended up jerking a shoe which really cost us some time," explained Bugni.

Since they had a couple days before the short round, Bugni and Zoomer had some time to get a few issues ironed out.

"I immediately got his shoe tacked back on and then I worked on getting more rate into him before the short round. I ended up doing a bit change and went with an old Sharon Camarillo combination bit. He felt great in it during a practice run so I went ahead and used it during the short round."

The bit change and added rate seemed to help, as Bugni and the brown gelding blazed a 16.475 to have the fastest futurity run of the weekend.

"He worked like a champ. He was much more focused and ran hard and turned hard. I knew he was hooking it strong coming home, but I didn't hear my time until the announcer announced it a second time. My adrenaline was sky high and with the roar from the crowd, I couldn't hear it the first time."

Bugni says the win is extra sweet since he has won it two years in a row now and will try for a third time next year. This summer,

Bugni would also like to thank all the owners of his horses and his sponsors, Animal Element, Horseswim.com, 5 Star Saddle Pads, Double J Saddlery, Loomis Bit and HorsePowerEQ.

THE AMERICAN Returns March 1, 2015

RFD-TV is proud to announce the second RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN Presented by Polaris RANGER will be held March 1, 2015. The world's richest one-day rodeo will return to AT&T Stadium in Arlington, TX to payout $2 million dollars to the days victors and award over half a million in prizes. Athletes will battle through qualifiers, Semifinals and World Finals for a chance to compete at the home of the Dallas Cowboys.

"We reached all the goals we set for the inaugural AMERICAN and we're ready to raise the bar for the next one," stated Randy Bernard, President and CEO of Rural Media Group. "Support from our viewers and rodeo fans has been pouring in and it's thanks to them and our sponsors that THE AMERICAN will happen again."

"Polaris RANGER was proud to be part of the first-ever AMERICAN rodeo," said Beth Shimanski, marketing manager for Polaris RANGER. "We are thrilled to continue our sponsorship for 2015 and look forward to another spectacular event showcasing the amazing talent, hard work and dedication these athletes bring to this amazing sport."

The road to THE AMERICAN and Cowboy's AT&T Stadium has 3 routes. The top contestants in the world receive automatic invitations to compete at THE AMERICAN. The second route is through exemptions extended to outstanding athletes who no longer compete regularly and are willing to prove their records.

The third route is the longest but also the most rewarding. This route begins with qualifying events conducted by the sanctioning bodies of Better Barrel Races, Professional Bull Riders, Professional Rough Stock Series, Ultimate Calf Roping and United States Team Roping Championships.

After qualifying at any of the top-quality events held around the country, qualifiers must then make it through another round of competition at RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN Semifinals. The top qualifiers in each event advance to AT&T Stadium and are eligible for the $1 million side pot. To win a share of the $1 million, a qualifier must win their event at RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN, beating out the best in the world.

RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN is committed to invigorating the sport and building a brighter future for today's youth. To help accomplish this, a new path has been added to the road to THE AMERICAN. An automatic bid into the Semifinals will be awarded to each event champion of the 7 traditional event champions of the National High School Rodeo Finals held in Rock Springs, Wyoming July 13-19.

AT&T Stadium will once again host the multi-million dollar western sports weekend which includes the PBR's Iron Cowboy VI, part of the Built Ford Tough Series, taking place on Saturday, February 28, 2015.

"Combining the PBR's popular Iron Cowboy event with THE AMERICAN gave our fans the ultimate two-day western sports competition," said PBR Chairman and CEO Jim Haworth. "The best PBR bull riders in the world were showcased on one day and rodeo's most talented athletes on the next each presented on the world's greatest stage – AT&T Stadium, the home of the Dallas Cowboys. It doesn't get any better than that."

Haworth added, "It's an excellent combination that elevates the profile of our athletes to a level they not only deserve but have earned and gives our fans and sponsors spectacular entertainment and value for their investment."

March 2, 2014 was a thrilling and record breaking day for western sports and RFD-TV. Viewers and fans enjoyed the dual arena action witnessing historical rides and runs from Invited, Exemptions and Qualifiers. With a top score of 90 points or better in all three rough stock events and lightning fast times posted in the four timed events, every contestant left it all in the arena.

Perhaps authenticating his name, Richmond Champion was the biggest champion of the day, leaving AT&T Stadium $1.1 million dollars richer. Champion was the lone qualifier to beat the world champions in any event to take home the Bareback Championship and the $1 million dollar side pot.

The reigning 2014 RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN Champions are Richmond Champion (Bareback); Hunter Cure (Steer Wrestling); Wade Sundell (Saddle Bronc); Kaleb Driggers and Patrick Smith (Team Roping); Tyson Durfey (Tie-Down Roping); Lisa Lockhart (Barrel Racing); J.B. Mauney (Bull Riding)

"Having a rodeo at AT&T Stadium and the grandeur of that place was pretty amazing. (THE AMERICAN) is something that everyone should get to experience," said Hunter Cure, THE AMERICAN 2014 Steer Wrestling Champion.

"Golf has the Masters. Football has the Super Bowl. Rodeo has THE AMERICAN," said 8x World Champion and rodeo legend, Larry Mahan. "Showcasing the elite cowboys, cowgirls and animal athletes, this rodeo is named THE AMERICAN for a reason. We celebrate the greatest sport and the greatest nation. It's about our Western heritage of community, traditional values, family, friends and neighbors, excellence, hard work and love of country."

Love & Jet O Red Seal Up Derby Championship

By Hope Sickler

Nicole Love and her 6 year old AQHA sorrel mare Jet O Red proved once again last weekend that they are a force to reckon with. Love and Jet O Red sealed the Old Fort Days Derby Championship and a seriously big, literally big, check.

"I have had her two years this June. She is a very ratey horse that absolutely loves to turn," explained the North Carolina barrel racer of her number one stick, Jet O Red.

Jet O Red is by Blazin Jetolena and out of On Time Gal, by On The Money Red.

Although Love didn't start the mare on the barrels, she finished her and has learned a lot about the mare in the last couple of years.

"She is a very willing mare that loves to please. I look forward to riding her every day."

Love and Jet O Reds first run at Fort Smith was solid, winning the qualifying round and Love was very pleased with her mare.

"Our first run was good. I was just happy to have a clean run on her. I have had a little trouble being consistently clean on her in the past so right now, clean runs are what we are looking for. To make it back to the short round was just icing on the cake," said Love. Love and Jet O Red clocked a 16.720 in the qualifying round and came back and knocked .4 tenths of a second off of her time in the short round when they posted a time of 16.328, good enough for first place and a check for $32,986.29.

"I couldn't have asked for a better run than what we had in the short round. She was running a lot harder and made one of her solid runs. I am very pleased and thankful for her."

Love will play around with things this summer and enter some open

Oxy-Sox - $100 per tube • BUNDLE PRICE - 3 tubes for $250 (15 day treatment course or 30 day maintenance)

I am currently hauling futurity colts, derby horses, and competing in rodeos every weekend. Oxy Fluidity has become an essential part of my feeding program. I give 20 cc every week and 10 cc before I run on all my horses. It is very nice not to have to worry about your horses getting sore from injections because Oxy Fluidity is an oral paste. It is fast acting and provides so much relief for my horses when I know they are a little sore after a weekend of competing. I have seen such great results with this product I even take it myself!

Teenager Makaela Memmott & Cash Gato Boogie Top BRN4D Finals

By Tanya Randall

Central Point, Oregon, teenager Makaela Memmott and her tough 7-year-old mare Cash Gato Boogie topped the three-run Open 1D average and swept the youth races at the BRN4D Finals, held May 23-25 in the TRAC in Pasco, Wash. Memmott, 14, collected $3,848 for the weekend.

This year the BRN4D Finals was dropped from four runs to three along with starting later on Friday to allow contestants time to travel. On Monday a separate $8,000-added Open was held for those wishing to stay and compete on Memorial Day.

Memmott, the daughter of two supportive, but non-horse parents Todd and Darla, was anxious to make her second trip to the CC5D From Page 28

"It was pretty fun," she said. "I went up there two years ago and I did pretty good. I ended up third in the 1D average that year."

She and Boogie made five runs on the weekend, including a bonus run in the Top 20 World Championship, which consists of the top 20 fastest runners from the three open races in a shootout for a $1,000 bonus check.

"The first run I kind of took it easy with her," she said. "It was her first week back in three weeks because she had an abscess in her foot. She ran a 17.5 on a standard and she got faster as the week went on."

Their 17.542 was fifth in the 2D of Friday's $5,000-added Open. They picked up nearly a half-second with a second place 1D run of 17.134 and made the fastest of all their runs thus far, a 17.057, to win Sunday's $8,000-added Open. In the World Championship Round on Sunday night, they clocked their best time yet, a 16.855, that finished less than 2/100ths out of the lead. A fourth-place 2D run of 17.286 on Monday rounded out their weekend.

Memcott's stellar weekend allowed her to pick up two sponsors – RES Boots and Mike Gammelgard of BRN4D. She is also sponsored by Team Equine.

"They're sponsoring me to come back (to Pasco for Producers Gone Wild) for the qualifier to (RFD-TV's) The American," she said.

Memcott, who will be a sophomore this fall, has been partnered with Boogie, a daughter of Doc N Hollywood out of Miss Kathys Bux, by Three Ohs Wild Dash, since the mare was just a 3-year-old. She was bred and started by Autumn Derry, who had given her riding lessons and got her started barrel racing.

"She was green broke and I just patterned her," said Memcott. "They gave me hints along the way. She is one of the easiest horses that I've ever worked with. She's really smart and picked up things really fast."

Memcott plans to try her hand at high school rodeo this fall. She'll rodeo in California because the high school rodeos in Red Bluff are much closer than Pendleton, Ore.

Hinton & OJS Tex Wood Top World Champion Round at BRN4D Finals

By Tanya Randall

Two years ago Jaime Hinton was looking for a veterinarian to de-nerve her horse so he could comfortably retire as a pasture ornament. On the night of May 25th in the World Championship Round of the BRN4D Finals in Pasco, Wash., her steadfast partner OJS Tex Wood, better known as "The Goob" clocked a 16.836 on WPRA Standard Pattern to win $1,000.

"I was pumped and excited to be there," said Hinton, Turlock, Calif. She and The Goob had already clocked their two fastest times in two years to qualify for the World Championship Round, which took the top 20 times from the three open races at the Finals. "I'm glad that I made that Top 20. I knew that was pretty tough pen of horses."

Hinton, who wanted to thank her hauling partner Kathy Branco for encouraging her to make that second run on Sunday night, said she's just grateful to have her horse coming back to form.

After winning the California Circuit Rookie title in 2012, Hinton had great expectations for the 2012-2013 rodeo season.

"I was all geared up to haul," she recalled. "I ran the fastest time I'd ever run on him in December. I went to head out to Arizona in January and he was lame. He had a tumor in his foot that was attached to his coffin bone."

Hinton was devastated.

"He was 10-years old and sound," she recalled. "I really thought I had a war horse, and then all of a sudden..."

The non-cancerous tumor cost him an entire year.

"They did surgery and then he got a bone infection at the surgery sight," said Hinton, who wanted to thank her sponsors Cowgirl Tuff and ReNew Gold for sticking with her while The Goob was out of commission. "He laid down and tried to die for about four days. He spent a couple of days at UC Davis and they wanted to take off about a third of his foot. They didn't even give him a 50 percent chance of surviving it. I said, no. In July, I was looking for a vet that would nerve him so I could turn him out in the clover permanently. Luckily, I found another vet who had some different ideas, and we got him sound. I got back on him in January for the first time. I was down in Arizona for the futurities and I got to rope off of him."

The Goob went to his first barrel race since 2012 in February and he and Hinton have been working to get their "mojo" back ever since.

To protect his damaged foot, The Goob runs with a steel plate in his shoe.

"Hopefully, one day I can put him in something lighter than this apparatus," she laughed. "He's wearing half of a plate now with a full pad. The sensitive tissue of his foot won't reconnect to the hoof wall so he still has a hole in the bottom of foot. It's pretty tender."

Ironically, The Goob didn't start out as a barrel horse. Hinton, who grew up in Mount Vernon, Wash., north of Seattle, started off roping off the double-bred Driftwood gelding when he was 3.

"I heeled on him when he was 3 and 4, and then headed a little on him when he grew up," she explained. "When I moved down here, all my friends were barrel racers and he was all I had. He's just something special. It's nothing I did. He's one of those kinds that it doesn't matter if you're going to go team rope or go the barrel race, he meets you at the gate ready to work. He's just special."

When she's not in the saddle, Hinton devotes most of her time to the West Coast Barrel Racing Association. She's partners on the group with Shane Parsons of Diamond Bar Arena in Ceres, Calif.

"We're up to about 600 members now," she said. "We've got about $70,000 cash in the bank for our Labor Day Finals and that just keeps growing. It's getting crazy. It's growing crazy fast. I had $65,000 and some change for last year's finals, and I've got three months left to go and I've already got more in the bank than I had last year. Last year, I added $16,000 in each of the three go rounds and $16,000 in the average, and gave away saddles and horse trailer, and about $25,000 worth of stuff. This year I'm hoping it's closer to $20,000 in each round and the average and I'll give away more stuff."

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are countless number of "how to be successful" tips, books and articles today on just about every topic under the sun from how to lose 10 pounds in a week to how to be a millionaire and retire by age 50.

But, the best "how to" book, covering every need you might have, is the Holy Bible. The Word of God in the Bible is powerful and effective (Hebrews 4:12). It says in Psalm 119:105 that God's Word shines light on our path and shows us the best way to go in life and it accomplishes what it is sent forth to do (Jeremiah 1:12). Pray God's Word over your family and loved ones, naming them and claiming the blessings of God over their lives. Prayers, prayed in faith produce good results so keep it up and you'll see blessings come.

An agricultural paper, some time ago, printed a formula on how to be successful. It listed the worldly things such as "whatever you start, finish" and "whatever you do, do with excellence." What impressed me most was that it also said, "whatever you pray, believe it" and "whenever you want more, give more." So even the secular world knows the value of Godly principals.

In Matthew 22, Jesus said the great commandment is, "You shall love the Lord your God with all our heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment and the second is like it; 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'"

Take time to talk to God every day and read some in your Bible. Read some books by good Christian authors and spend time with other believers and you'll "find your way prosperous and you'll have good success."

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
