Consistency Pays Off for Molly Childers & Just My Choice at Windswept BBR World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Inconsistent is one word for Mother Nature during spring time in the Plains States. When the worst non-tornadic storm to come through Oklahoma City in years disrupted Saturday's competition at the BBR World Finals, held April 27-30, producers modified the event's format to accommodate the 1752 entries, most of which had to return to work on Monday.

All of Saturday's competition was moved to Sunday due to a lack of power to the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds on Saturday, and instead of the traditional short go on Sunday, the championship in each division would go to the most consistent horse and rider duo—something that had been an Achilles Heel for BBR Finals 1D Champions Molly Childers and Just My Choice ("Ozzy").

"I was little surprised that the little cowpony did as well as he did," laughed Childers, who was determined to improve their consistency. "That was my goal for the last six months. I even wrote it down and said this is what we're going to do. We are going to get more consistent. It's starting to happen."

Childers and Ozzy picked up $6,813 at the BBR Finals. They were second in Barn 6 with a 15.385 and fifteenth in the Coliseum with a 15.559.

"I was in Barn 6 first," she explained. "He was feeling really, really good. It was something about the environment up there. I think he knew something really big was going on. We got to the holding pen and got ready to go and he came off that hill absolutely flying. I thought, 'Well, it's either going to be really good or really bad, but we'd better go for it.' He was really good. It didn't feel like a .3. It was just a nice, smooth run. I was a bit surprised."

Childers, who hails from Mead, Okla., was supposed to make her run in the Coliseum on Saturday morning and had stayed with a friend near Guthrie, Okla., to be close by. Thankfully, she missed out on the turbulence that many staying in their trailers at Fairgrounds experienced.

"Sunday, we were on the bottom of the ground and my goal then was just to be clean and stay solid," she said. "Consistency hasn't always been our strong point and that's been the thing that I've been working on for a while. He flew in there and I got behind going across to the second barrel. It didn't look as bad as it felt on the video, but I was hanging on for dear life at the second barrel, because I thought he was going to lose me. I caught back up by the time we got to the third."

Unfortunately, Childers, a real estate appraiser for Merit Advisors in Gainesville, Texas, left after making her runs because she had early morning appoints at work on Monday. She didn't find out until late Sunday night that she had won the average.

"It was quite a shock," said Childers. "My other horse (Gray Ghost Frost) also placed in the Coliseum and would have placed in Barn 6, but hit a barrel. It was good weekend for both horses."

Childers wanted to thank Dr. Erika Hanna in Atoka, Okla., for going "above and beyond to keep my horses going" and Dr. Paul Loe at Weatherford Equine—"He's my farrier and has played a major role in Ozzy's success. Happy feet, happy horse."

She also wanted to thank her husband Jason and her daughter Avery for their support.

"I think she's a big help," she added of her daughter, who gladly woke up at 5 in the morning to go with her mom on Sunday morning. "She calms (Ozzy) down. He likes her a lot. I think he's destined to be a kid's horse one day."

Bred by Lara L. Landers, Ozzy, 10, is by SR Instant Choice, an all-time leading cutting horse sire, out of the Justa Swinging Peppy, Dual Pep mare Rose Red.

"He came to us as a 3-year-old and he was literally unwanted. They gave him away. He was given to a really good friend of ours Rodney Agnew. He's a great family friend. He brought him to the house and dropped him off. He said I don't know what this colt is, but nobody wants him. He was kind of skinny, nothing special to look at."

Childers' husband started riding Ozzy and was roping calves on the colt when he injured a hamstring. As part of his rehabilitation, Ozzy was ridden for 20 minutes a day at a walk and a trot. That chore fell to Childers, who spent the time going around the barrels.

"He's probably an equally as good of calf horse as he is barrel horse, but I took him over. He's mine," she laughed.

Ozzy saw limited action as a 4-year-old futurity horse, but made the finals at every futurity entered.

"He's just been really good," said Childers. "I've won a few pro rodeos on him, but I don't get to go a whole lot with work. The past few years, we've been battling little injuries."

Childers was just getting Ozzy over one injury when a freak accident at his first rodeo back in 2016 sidelined him again.

"Fort Worth was my first rodeo back and I was running up the alleyway when the bull got out," she said of the accident that injured several horses and barrel racers in the warmup area. "He got hurt pretty bad because of that. I was off of him for another few of months. I started back in July but then had to come back due to work."

Childers, who runs in the Texas Circuit, is hopeful that she can go to more rodeos this summer. She'd like to make the circuit finals and the All-American Finals.

"We've went the past two summers just to see what it was like and to get out of this area," she said. "He really likes the big pens. I feel like he excels on trashy ground. It doesn't really bother him. He's an arrogant horse and I think it makes him mad."

Chayni Chamberlain & Lion Ta The Ladies Set Pace in Coliseum; Wins $14,189 at BBR World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Precocious barrel racer Chayni Chamberlain of Stephenville, Texas, had great BBR World Finals. She took home the lion's share of the purse $14,189, thanks to the effort of her superhorse Dat Flowin Bunny ("Flo Jo") and her newest mount Lion Ta The Ladies ("Swagger").

"I want to thank my whole entire family, my horses that have got me to where I am today and my sponsors," said Chamberlain, a homeschooled sixth-grader.

With less than handful of runs together, Chamberlain and Swagger topped race in the Coliseum with a 15.256, worth $6,813. They also won the AQHA incentive for an additional $1,330.

"He's really easy to ride," she said, "but there's still some quirks that I've got to work on too."

They hit a barrel on their first run in the Barn 6 on Thursday, and Chamberlain said she "had that whole entire night to think about it," before making her winning run on Friday in the Coliseum.

Chamberlain purchased Swagger through his breeder Bryel Mulligan a few months ago. The 7-year-old gelding, by Lions Share Of Fame out of Jessica Magoo, a granddaughter of The Old Man through Ole Man Roan, belonged to Kelcy Schaffner.

The 11-year-old barrel racer also did well on her main mount Flo Jo. The 16-year-old gelding, by Whose Dat Bunny out of Hota Moore, by He Hota, carried her to a 10th place finish in the 1D average after placing on both runs. They also won the 1D Invitational, for $3,400.

Chamberlain said there's a lot of difference between Swagger and Flo Jo. The biggest difference is their height—Flo Jo towers over Swagger—they also differ in their speed and turning style.

"Swagger turns a barrel like a square and its really quick," she explained. "Flo Jo has that smooth circle kind of barrel. Swagger is very quick footed so he feels like he's faster than Flo Jo. Flo Jo really strides out."

said she plans on running both horses at the larger jackpots and rodeos that she's able to enter to keep them sharp. Her national exposure through winning the American Semifinals Rodeo at just 8-year-old and running on the ERA Tour in 2016, has given Chamberlain experience beyond her years.

"Being around professional barrel racers like that was a dream come true for me," she said. "Being that I have a horse like Flo Jo, where he puts me in that position, is a God gift to me."

Making a Comeback -- Skyla Whitters & Cash For Bid Win Barn 6 at BBR World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Skyla Whitters and Cash For Bid made an astounding comeback with a $8,143 victory in the Barn 6 at the BBR World Finals.

"It was awesome!" said Whitters of Glencoe, Okla. "He was little strong in the gate, but that's just him. He kind of got by the first—the more I watched the video I realized he REALLY got by the first. His style is to get by it and come straight back. His second and third barrels couldn't have been any prettier. I was just in shock. I'm still in shock!"

It was the first major victory for Cash after a near fatal injury.

"Six months ago, he tore his deep digital flexor tendon," explained the 19-year-old. "We weren't sure if he'd ever run again, if he'd ever walk again or if we would have to put him down. We took him straight to Outlaw Equine. Even they didn't know what was going to happen, but they started working on him. He slowly started progressing; it was really rough in the beginning. About November he started doing a lot better and in the middle of January they gave me the all-clear to start running him again."

Bred by leading barrel horse breeders Vaughn and Mary Watkins, Cash is by PC Frosty Bid out of Cashini, a full sister in blood to Lanita Pierce's great Wahini Cash.

Both Cashini and Wahini Cash are out of Ms Wahini Bug, a daughter of one of the greatest barrel horse broodmare sires of all-time Bugs Alive In 75, who was owned by Mary Watkins' father Ralph Shebester. Cashini is by Bet The Cash, a son of Dash For Cash out of the Easy Jet Mare, Take You On; while Wahini Cash is by his full brother leading sire Takin On The Cash.

Whitters purchased Cash through Pierce, who trained the gelding, three years ago.

"He's been a complete blessing to me, but he's also been a bit suicidal," laughed Whitters, who is studying psychology at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater.

Whitters is hoping she can start rodeo seasoning Cash this summer.

"I've been wanting to do that for a little while, but he's had a couple of other injuries. I have my pro card so it would be awesome if I could start going down that road."

She wanted to thank her family and Outlaw Equine for making her victory possible.

"Without them," she said, "that horse wouldn't have had the opportunity to get better."

Hall Hoards All the Cash at the BBR World Finals

By Hope Sickler

Veteran futurity trainer Sharin Hall has been having a heck of a year aboard the 4-year-old mare, Dreaming Of Foose. With 3 futurity wins before this past weekend, Hall was sitting on the top of the world, and with another futurity win added to her resume this past weekend at the BBR World Finals, Hall is on cloud-9. Hall and the incredible bay mare blew the competition away with their freakishly-fast, flawless runs.

The mortally fast mare is by AQHA Racing Champion, Foose, and out of Hawks Dream Girl by Hawkinson. With speed running thick through her veins, there is no denying that "Goose" gets her incredible bursts of speed from her sire as well as her dam.

With their total time on two of 31.412, Hall and "Goose" sealed the deal and earned themselves yet another futurity championship. Hall describes "Goose" as a true gift from God.

"She has been a huge blessing in my life and I truly believe that she is a gift from God. He blessed me when he put her in my life and I am forever grateful for the opportunity to get to ride her," Hall said. "She is an incredible athlete, loaded with speed on top of athleticism. She is the perfect package quite honestly."

Placing second in the first round of the futurity with a 15.704 behind Kassie Mowry and Girls Dig Fame's smoking time of 15.667, Hall knew that she needed to be smooth and clean in the next round, and "Goose" would take care of the rest.

Running almost the exact same time as they did in the first round, Hall and "Goose" laid down another beautiful run shutting off the clock with a 15.708.

"Her runs were consistently fast and she worked her barrels almost perfectly. I focused on being solid, clean and smooth. I was very tickled with how everything ended up and especially grateful for how well she worked all weekend."

With another futurity win on her resume, Hall has won so many that she isn't quite sure what her number is up to now! Dreaming Of Foose has won close to $70,000 so far this year and has caught the eye of every futurity trainer, rider and fan alike.

"I am looking forward to the rest of the year aboard "Goose". So

Comeback-Kid Kimmie Wall and TKW Bullysfamous Fox

By Hope Sickler

With a slow start to her California run, Kimmie Wall was starting to feel a little pressure, but after a week of diligent slow work and horsemanship, Wall was on top of the world again after winning Wrangler Million Dollar Tour Gold Rodeo in Clovis, California.

"Our first run in California was Red Bluff and it was a disaster. "Foxy" was very naughty, which is not unusual for her, but she was being more ornery than usual. She was naughty at the gate and didn't want any part of it so I knew we had to scale back and work on some fundamentals," explained Wall.

Walls dance partner TKW Bullysfamous Fox aka "Foxy" is 9-years-old and by Bully Bullion and out of Gateway Ta Love by Dash Ta Fame.

After a solid week of basics and pattern work, Wall was feeling confident going into Clovis, especially since she drew up better than she ever has.

"This was my fourth time to Clovis and my fourth time to make the finals but this year was the best that I have ever done in the first round. In past years, I have barely snuck in through the qualifying round but this year I drew up good and it paid off!"

Tying for 7th in the first round with Amberleigh Moore with a 17.23, Wall got the fuel she needed to come back with confidence.

"Our second run was good but I have always struggled with the third barrel at Clovis. It is a long run to the first barrel but the first and second barrel are on the fence. The third barrel, however, is out in no-man's land and seems to be tricky for me. "Foxy" made up for my mistake though, and we ended up placing 9th with a 17.22 in the second round."

With two solid runs under their belt, Wall and "Foxy" went into the championship round full-force, hoping to make another smooth, clean run and let the chips fall where they may. With their fastest run of the entire rodeo, the dynamic duo shut the clock off with blazing fast time of 16.80, outrunning the rest of the field by over 3-tenths of a second.

"I was elated! "Foxy" worked incredible and I couldn't be more grateful for the effort that she put forward while in Clovis. All the slow work we did the week before Clovis assured me that maybe I do know what I am doing," laughed Wall.

With her sweet win in Clovis, Wall continues to show her love for the Golden State and her time spent there.

"I absolutely love the California run and I am very fortunate to have wonderful friends, the Kelley family, that allow me to stay and relax while running up and down the road. They come to the rodeo and support me, which is a huge part of my success while in California. It is so nice to have my own little cheering section and some "family" at these rodeos that are far from home. It certainly makes a difference."

Sitting just outside the top 20 in the World, Wall plans on attacking the dusty trail a little differently than last year.

"I feel like last year was a turning point for "Foxy" and I, as far as knowing what to enter and what not to enter. I learned that even though I might be driving right by a rodeo, it doesn't mean I need to enter, especially if I don't think the setup and conditions will benefit "Foxy";" said Wall. "So, this year I plan to rodeo with that in mind and only go to rodeos that I know "Foxy" likes."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I have often talked about 'not worrying' in these articles. Worry weighing me down was what brought me to God. In fact, the first scripture I ever committed to heart was Phil. 4:6-7. "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." I received a LOT of peace from that scripture alone. But there's even a better one! Matthew 6:33. "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." It would be really good if you read Matthew 6:25-33.

God has such a good plan for us. I remember early on in my walk with Him, that when I spent time in the Word, there were promises to me I had never known. I knew.....don't drink, cuss or lie. If you did, God would GET YOU! That right there is a lie. But ignorance of the Word will cause us to say and do all sorts of dumb things. Believing God is the problem would be one of them.

So. My thought for the day is.....It's difficult to seek God while you're worrying and it's difficult to worry while seeking God. God is the answer. Worry is the problem!
