Leslie Willis & Ryon Rocks Win 40th Annual Old Fort Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Futurity veteran Leslie Willis of Chester, S.C., had won a lot of futurity titles over the past 19 years, but winning the 40th Annual Old Fort Days Futurity Championship, aboard the 4-year-old gelding, Ryon Rocks, will long be one of her favorites.

"I think God made us wait this long so we'd really appreciate it," said Willis, who made her first trip to Fort Smith, Ark., for the annual Memorial Weekend event 19 years ago. "I saw all my friends and started tearing up. It was unreal. I still don't know that it's really sank in yet that we've won the Old Fort Days Futurity."

Willis and her equally-talented horseman, husband, Jason, have carved their niche in the aged event world by buying affordable horses off of the track and turning them into champions. Although bred for the track, Ryon was picked up as a 2-year-old at the 2015 BFA World Championship Sale for the bargain price of $3,000.

"I remember it like it was yesterday," said Willis. "We had marked him because his second dam is Dashing Phoebe."

Two of Willis' first futurity horses were Aspecial Timetofly and Time To Coup. Both horses took her to multiple qualifications to the International Finals Rodeo, and both were out of a daughter of Phobes Moon Bug, a daughter of Lady Bugs Moon out of a Johnny Dial daughter. Phobes Moon Bug is also the dam of four-time AQHA Racing Champion Dashing Phoebe with nearly $1.9 million in earnings.

"A lot of those horses are such good racehorses that we can't afford them off of the racetrack. I don't get to buy them very often. So, I had him marked."

Bred by Dale Rankin, Tuscola, Texas, Ryon is by Louisiana Senator out of Phoebe Ryon, by Bill Ryon. Willis wasn't too sure about Ryon's sire line, but after fellow competitor Jesse Childs, who also run a Louisiana Senator, told her that the stallion had such a good mind on the track, she felt better about the gelding.

Rankin, who has had futurity horses with Latricia Duke and Jolene Montgomery, had Ryon started by a Brazilian rider. He was broke enough that Willis was able to lope him through the pattern the first time she climbed on him as a 2-year-old.

Ryon trained up quickly, but had a little hiccup when it came time to run. Unlike Willis' other off the track colts that knew how to run from the racetrack, Ryon had never raced, so he had to learn to run. After doing well at his debut events, Ryon left Willis scratching her head after he kept dragging the second barrel over to win big money. Thankfully, a week laying over at Stephanie Wheeler's in Hattiesburg, Miss., helped her find the problem.

"If it weren't for Stephanie, I'd probably still be scratching my head," said Willis. "He picks up both back feet up and bounces on the backside of his barrels. He was pulling the second barrel over and it wasn't like he was purposely trying to hit it. She said he has to be sore in his backend."

"When I got home, I called my vet and said, 'We're going to inject his whorl bones.' Of course, they went over him and said, 'He's not sore in his whorl bones.' I just kept insisting that something is wrong. It was so minute that it wouldn't show up in a flexion test. We found a tear right at his SI joint. They helped me treat it and I had a chiropractor work on him. Ever since then he's been easy to ride. It's been night and day difference."

Although Ryon had been doing better, hitting a barrel was still Willis' biggest concern at Fort Smith, and it almost cost her on her first run.

"I came through gate running, maybe a little too hard, and he shot by his first barrel," said Willis. "I'm thinking, 'Oh my gosh!

That's not what I need to do today! I don't know what I did at the second and third barrel—I guess I was so mad at him and rode him so aggressively—but he inhaled them. He ran an .81. I don't know where that came from. I literally went a good stride and half passed the first barrel."

Willis and Ryon had the 12th fastest qualifying time out of the 352-head trials and was bumped to 15th-fastest after the addition of the five fastest second-chance qualifiers from the Consolation, a new feature at this year's event.

On Finals' night, Ryon's calm-cool demeanor helped Willis keep her nerves at bay.

"That night, I told Jason I've never been this calm," she recalled. "All I could think going down the alleyway was don't get by the first barrel. After I had gone so hard to it in the first go, Jason said he thought I had gone too slow (in the Finals), but I got it turned. When he left it, he left it straight to go across the pen. I had noticed a lot of the horses in the derby were coming in so hard to the first barrel they couldn't get it turned without stepping off and had to move over for the second barrel. They were losing a lot of time. He listened to me and let me help him. He made a smooth run."

After waiting out the remaining runners at the stalls, Willis and Ryon returned to the arena to numerous congratulations from their futurity family and a $46,092 check. The two-time $100,000 slot race winner was tickled to win one of the oldest, and still one of the richest, futurities in the business.

"Slot races for sure paid more money when we won them, but this is like the Kentucky Derby," said Willis, who wanted to thank her husband, sponsors and numerous friends and fellow competitors who offered her congratulations. "It's been around for years and years. It's one the old-timers remember. For us to get to win the Fortieth is pretty special. It's nice to have done it on a horse that we bought, that Dale Rankin bred, that isn't royally bred, but the connections to this horse are so neat."

Triumphant Return—Margo Crowther and Shes Packin Fame win Old Fort Days Derby

By Tanya Randall

Margo Crowther's 5-year-old mare Shes Packin Fame ("Sissy") made a triumphant return to the arena after suffering a fractured hock last November. In just her first two runs back, Sissy qualified for and won the Finals at the prestigious Old Fort Days Derby, held over Memorial Weekend in Fort Smith, Ark.

Crowther and Sissy turned in a 16.405, the fastest time of the event, to win the 25-head Derby Finals, worth $23,469.

"It's crazy," said Crowther of Fort Myers, Fla. "I literally just got the clearance to run her. I exhibitioned her at Fort Smith and she felt great so I decided to run her. It paid off. She just came back so confident and so strong, like she never missed a beat."

Shortly after earning both the WPRA World Finals Futurity and Cardholder's Race Championships, Crowther and Sissy were competing at the No Bull Finals in Ashville, N.C., when Sissy fractured her left hock after broadsiding at the first barrel in the finals.

A week after the accident on November 12, Dr. Westin Davis at Palm Beach Equine inserted a screw to pin the fracture. At the end of March, Crowther got the clearance to start legging up Sissy.

When they arrived at Fort Smith, Sissy hadn't seen a barrel since she was injured six months ago. Crowther said she had "a little bit of a panic attack" before her qualifying run.

"She was feeling good and raring to go," said the mother of two young children, Sawyer and Stella, with her husband Casey. "It was really hot out, so she was making herself even hotter. With announcer going and all the other horse warming up she was just wearing herself out. I was starting to think I got on too soon. I started to panic thinking, 'What if she runs too hard and falls again?"

Luckily, her friend Craig Brooks, who was instrumental in bringing Sissy and Crowther together, rode into the warmup pen and calmed them down.

Old Fort Days Derby Continued From Page 9

“He told me to just let her go out there and run her own race, smooth and easy, and I did,” Crowther acknowledged. Their time of 16.65 was the third fastest qualifying time of 131 entries in the trails. It ended up with the fourth-fastest qualifying time after the five fastest derby horse times from the Consolation were added to the Finals—a new feature at this year’s event. Regardless of the time, that first run back was very emotional for Crowther.

“I cried a little afterward, just knowing that she took care of herself,” she said. “It was a nice and smooth run. I didn’t hustle her I just let her go at her own pace. I don’t know how I got around the third barrel. You can see in the video, she dash-boarded me. I was like, ‘I’m not hitting this barrel!’ My legs were up behind me by her butt; it was pretty crazy. She took care me and took care of herself.”

Crowther’s outlook for the Finals was completely different. Last year, she and Sissy were just two holes out of making the Futurity Finals after overreaching and pulling a shoe at the first barrel. They came back and won the Consolation.

“This time around I was just happy to be in the Finals, really. I decided that I was just going to let her work and run her own race and I’ll be at the top. I was that confident. I just stayed out of her way. I was shocked when she ran the .4. She couldn’t have run a prettier pattern,” she said.

Sissy and her two stablemates—Peytons Call To Fame, a 5-year-old futurity winner and pro rodeo money earner, and Lulu To Fame, a 4-year-old futurity horse that won her first pro rodeo check on the way to Fort Smith—are the culmination of Crowther’s plan to build rodeo horses by bringing them up through aged event competition. She found Sissy when she was at Brook’s. He was shoeing the mare when she caught Crowther’s eye.

The product of Frank Moore’s breeding program, Sissy is by the Dash Ta Fame, Sail On Bunny stallion, Carrizzo, and out of Heidis Dashing Sixes, a daughter of the late leading barrel horse sire Packin Sixes. Peyton and Lulu are by Carrizzo as well.

With three pro rodeo money earners in her trailer, Crowther is going to hit the rodeo road for the summer.

“It was a hard decision to go because there was so much going on with the kids and I have a couple of nice 3-year-olds for next year,” she said. “My husband was like, ‘You only get so many opportunities like this so why don’t you go for it. You’ve got the horsepower. I think if you don’t do it, I think you’ll regret it.’ In the end, that’s why we started buying young horses to make a nice rodeo horse.”

RODEO BIBLE CAMP

ATTITUDE OF A CHAMPION

AT COPPER SPRING RANCH

Thanks to the grace of God I have been able to live and accomplish a dream that God has put in my heart a long time ago! I would love to share with you the faith and love of our Savior and some of the knowledge that He has blessed me with through the years.

JANA BEAN

3-TIME NFR QUALIFIER

You are invited to the 6th Annual Copper Spring Ranch Rodeo Bible Camp—Attitude of a Champion—July 10–12 in beautiful Bozeman, Montana. Instructors include: in team roping TREY JOHNSON 2000 PRCA Rookie of the Year Heeler, 8-time NFR qualifier CHARLY CRAWFORD in heading, 14-time WPRA World Champion JACKIE HOBBS-CRAWFORD in breakaway, 5-time NFR qualifier RUSTY SEWALT in tie down roping, World Champion DEAN GORSUCH in steer wrestling, 3-time NFR qualifier JANA BEAN and standout futurity horse trainer LESLIE WILLIS in barrel racing and LANA TIBBETTS CNFR Goat-Tying National Champion. The camp features instruction in tie down and breakaway roping, barrel racing, steer wrestling, team roping, and goat-tying that includes ground work and live cattle. Designed for cowboys and cowgirls of all ages, the camp provides a wholesome environment for this Western family-style sport. However, prizes will only be awarded to those 18 and under.

CSR rodeo bible camp has an exciting mix of rodeo-oriented training by highly regarded clinicians plus it offers a chance for hours of fellowship with positive-minded mentors. Curriculum includes motivational teaching and positive practice instructions that give participants the tools to win inside and outside the arena. The cost is $300 with food and lodging included, additional family members are $150. Campers may sign up for another event at no additional cost. Scholarships are available, please send a letter requesting assistance. This is a promotional graphic for 'The Competitor News'. It features a large, stylized red letter 'C' with a white outline, set against a dark background with a subtle pattern. The text 'THE NEWS' is written in white, with 'THE' above the 'C' and 'NEWS' below it. Below this, it says 'the official paper of' in a smaller font, followed by 'BRNAD' in large, bold, red letters with a white outline. A horizontal line of barbed wire separates this from the list of events below. The events listed are: 'PRCA Columbia River Circuit', 'California Professional Cowboy's Northern Rodeo • Northwest Pro Rodeo', 'Oregon &amp; Washington High School Rodeo', 'NW JR Rodeo • Caribou Trail JR Rodeo', 'Cayuse JR Rodeo • NW Youth Rodeo', 'Eastern Washington JR Rodeo', and 'University of Great Falls College Rodeo'. At the bottom, the website 'www.yourcompetitornews.com' is listed in white. Below that, the text reads 'THE COMPETITOR NEWS reaching 99% of rodeo households in the Northwest + MT + CA + Canada &amp; more' and 'all the rodeo &amp; barrel racing news you could ever need &amp; more'.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you live in the northern part of the US, then you'll know we are happy to see summer get here! People in the north get through the winter and then when days get longer, we spend all the daylight hours making up for all those cold, short days. We cram in all the fun outside we can, as well as continue with the work. We enjoy kids activities, rodeo, barrel racing, team roping, yard work, lambing, calving, foaling, haying and everything else we can't do in the winter.

But there are some dangers in living like this. From experience I can tell you that in the summer, people just get too busy for God. And when that happens, we'll take back our own lordship. We'll slowly start calling our own shots again. We'll pick up old habits, old friends, old sayings. It's almost like we become "bi-Christian". Like being bi-sexual, we can go either way. We can go for God or we can go back to our old way of doing things. But friends, there are no blessings attached to doing things the worlds way. When we received Jesus as our Lord and savior, the Bible says in 2 Cor. 5:17 we became a new creation and old things have passed away. I love being brand new!

This summer, take Jesus everywhere you go! Take time to go to church and hear His Word. God is a "now" God and He will show you how to stay in the blessing flow no matter what's going on in the world! You'll be glad you did!
