KL Touch Of Heaven & Kassie Mowry Collect $51,345 at $1 Million Ruby Buckle Guthrie

By Tanya Randall

Leading futurity rider Kassie Mowry collected nearly $90,000 at the $1 million Ruby Buckle, held April 25-30 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma. The Dublin, Texas, based trainer's highest earner was Patriot Futurity Champion KL Touch Of Heaven ("Dove"), who won $41,188 en route to the Futurity Championship, and picked up $10,157 after finishing fifth in the Open aggregate for total earnings of $51,345.

Mowry also placed fourth in the Futurity on Sir Epic, owned by Dave and Lori Zabel, and sixth Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis"), owned by her significant other Michael Boone. Sir collected $22,505 for his connections, while Jarvis earned $11,164.

Including the $4,591 she won for placing ninth in the Open aboard her gelding CP He Will Be Epic, Mowry collected $89,605.

"I was super grateful to be there and have the opportunity to play," said Mowry. "I haven't always had a Pink or Ruby Buckle horse. I was really grateful for the opportunity. It's a very well ran race. Everyone was really nice and helpful."

Mowry's week started out well with Dove placing sixth in the first round of the Futurity with a 17.273 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

"My first run I was 10th out in the second drag," she explained. "I felt like I rode him pretty conservative and kind of tested the ground and tried to get a feel for how he was going to be. I thought he did really good. It was just a good solid run. He kind of had a little bobble at the third, but I was really happy with him overall."

However, a spring thunderstorm literally rained on her parade in the second round. Stalled in the tent stalls, Mowry awoke on Thursday morning to find her horses standing in water, her tack soaked and Dove extremely stressed.

"He was so wound up," she said. "The wind was blowing really, really hard.... He was stirred up and really didn't settle down the whole rest of the day."

Although with the reverse draw, Mowry had Dove to run at the very end. She knew what she needed to do to win, but with Dove's mental state, she didn't know what to expect.

"I was going to do a walk through in the warmup pen. I walked to the third barrel and he went to pick up a trot or a lope and I was like no, we're walking. As soon as I took a hold of him, he reared and lounged in the air! I literally left the arena because I knew there was no reasoning with him at the moment. I knew he was so amped up and on edge. I didn't want to pick a fight with him. I just told myself it could go either way, trust the training. Your owner (Mowry) is not going to be mad if it doesn't work out!"

Mowry owns Dove.

"I told Michael, 'He's either going to run really hard because he's so amped up or he could not make the pattern because he's climbing the walls!' He walked in the arena really calm. When he broke, he was running really hard and I just tried to stay out of his way. He seemed like he was on a mission and I was just going to let him do it. It was his choice that day because I didn't have any choices from the minute I saw him that morning. He was just kind of in a mood." Dove turned in the fastest time of the Futurity, a 16.925, to win the second round, and take the lead in the super tight aggregate by less than a tenth of a second.

"Dove is normally super lazy," she said. "Like you can barely keep him in a lope. For him, that was so out of character. It was unexpected. He's talented. The training is there. I'm not completely surprised he could pull that off but under those circumstances I am a little surprised he did it that day."

She said she didn't fear Dove falling apart because she knew the circumstances that were causing him to act that way.

"I was sure glad he channeled it in the right direction," Mowry said. "There wasn't anything I could do to change much. He just had it on his mind. I was glad it worked out.”

Mowry has a busy month ahead. At the time of this interview, she was getting ready to leave for the Lucky Dog Futurity in Memphis, Tennessee, with its Breeders Challenge qualifier. She had to take broodmares to the veterinarian on Tuesday morning before she could leave that afternoon. After Memphis, she has the Royal Crown in Waco, Texas, and then the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

She wanted to thank Boone for all his help during the event, especially for handling the soaked stall crisis.

“He pretty much did it all,” she said. “I couldn’t have made it through it without him. He makes it easy for me to focus on what I need to get done. If he hadn’t been there I probably would have walked out of my trailer that morning and had a meltdown!”

Karma Connection

Dove was bred and raised by Mowry’s longtime friend and collaborator Karma Loftin. By leading barrel horse sire JL Dash Ta Heaven, Dove is out of Loftin’s champion producer Junior Country Girl, by Deep Note Jr.

Loftin said Dove is more like Country Girl than any of her other offspring.

“He has her style,” she said. “I’ve had people call me from back home (in Mississippi) and say that’s got to be Country Girl. That looks just like her. I’m just so proud of him for her.”

Loftin first saw Country Girl as a 3-year-old. She knew she wanted the mare, but she wasn’t for sale at the time.

“I told people a long time ago that she’s the greatest mare that you’ve never heard of in Mississippi,” she said. “The first time I saw her she was a 3-year-old. They were exhibiting her. They had the stakes on the open stakes. They 300 or 400 in the open and she would have outrun the open horses. She just had a style about her that you couldn’t train into one. She was just a natural.”

It wasn’t until the mare’s competitive career was over that Loftin was able to get her bought.

“I had walked by her stall somewhere and told her she’d be mine one day,” she chuckled. “When they were done running her, I thought, ‘Well, I’ll call him and see if he’ll sell her now.’ I’d have given more and he’d have took less. We were both happy.”

Under Loftin’s management, Country Girl became a million dollar producer with champions by many different stallions including NFR qualifier Firewatermakemehappy, by Firewaterontherocks and futurity champion Grace Master, by Perks Master. She also had numerous futurity finalists including Mandalay Bay, My Epic Moment, Back The Blue, all by Epic Leader, and Classic Confederate, by Confederate Leader.

Loftin said Dove is her ideal horse. Although she had hoped to keep him a stallion, his temperament made castration the only option if he was to have a performance career.

“It was the right thing to do because now he’s been able to prove himself and Country Girl,” she said. “I wish he could have been a stallion and done what he’s done...that would have been the only way it would have worked for me. But it wasn’t going to work that way, he wasn’t going to do that with his mind on the mares.”

Loftin also raised Sir Epic, mentioned above, and So Very Heavenly, who placed 11th in the Futurity. Both horses are owned by the Zabels, but Dustin Angelle is aboard So Very Heavenly. Sir by JL Sirocco and So Very Heavenly is by JL Dash Ta Heaven. Both are out of So Very Epic, by Epic Leader out of the champion producing Streakin Six mare Streakin Sider.

“She is a full sister to So Epic,” Loftin explained of the mare now owned by Kristen Williams. “She got hurt when she was a baby and still on her momma’s side. She was crippled and that ended any thought of her having a career, which broke our hearts. She is a big, beautiful mare. Her two colts that did well up there are her first two colts.”

Loftin also had Jazzin Jetolena, a Blazin Jetolena gelding out of the Hemp Meyers mare Charmin Miss Meyers, place in the open aggregate.

All totaled, her horses won $83,196 at the Ruby Buckle and $8,220 was her share.

A one-woman show, Loftin has only had two foal crops with five foals. Some years she’d had one, other times it’s two or three, but never more. She said the key has been knowing her mares and what they needed to be successful producers.

“If I had gone to Heritage or somewhere and bought a mare... I don’t know that mare,” she said. “It’s like I knew my mares and knew what they needed. I was scared to venture out into something that I didn’t know.”

Loftin said she’s grateful to Kassie and Dustin for their hard work with the horses she’s bred.

“I’m just so happy with what I got,” she said. “I’m so glad I got to prove Country Girl. That’s been my goal for years to show everyone what she could have been and not make me look a fool when I said how great she was. Streaker is just icing on the cake, what she gave me and is still doing.”

Sabra O'Quinn & Slicks Lil Amigo Nab $25,595 With Ruby Buckle Open Title

By Tanya Randall

Sabra O'Quinn and her 8-year-old gelding Slicks Lil Amigo topped the $650,000 guaranteed Open at the $1 Million Ruby Buckle, held April 25-30 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Their victory was worth $25,595 with $5,120 of that total going to Charlie Cole and Jason Martin as Amigo's breeders and owners of his sire Slick By Design.

"It was good to win first," laughed O'Quinn. "Good job, Amigo!"

O'Quinn had purchased the gelding for her longtime friends Melody Mixon and her daughter Deanna Pietsch last year. Sadly, Mixon passed away late last year.

"She was a dear friend," said O'Quinn. "A high-five to her."

O'Quinn had started riding Amigo for Mixon and Pietsch as a 3-year-old. Under her saddle, he became one of Slick By Design's first superstars. The multiple aged event finalist and pro rodeo winner has earnings close to the $250,000 mark.

"I love him," said O'Quinn of the gelding out of the Bully Bullion mare Bough Chicka Wowwow. "When I originally got that horse he had issues. I spent so much time with him. He's super sensitive, which those kinds of horses really work for me. There's just an emotional attachment besides the fact that he's so talented. He's so fun to run. He's not easy though. I've got to be on my A-game because he has so much acceleration leaving a turn."

O'Quinn relocated to Bozeman, Montana, a year ago to manage Brian and Lindsay Stock's Montana ranch, the former Copper Spring Ranch spread. Setting up the new operation has demanded much of her time, so neither Amigo nor her futurity colt, Fame For Ransom ("Hansom"), owned by the Stocks, had many runs before Ruby.

"Honestly, he's a little fat," she chuckled at Amigo. "I didn't feel like I was 100 percent prepared to be frankly honest. I just tried to ride him like I always have."

They won the first round of the Open with a 16.951 on a WPR Standard Pattern.

"The first round he was a little short going across the pen so I kind of had to set up the second barrel," she said. "He was going to drag it over it. He still clocked a 16.9 on a Standard, which is awesome."

The second round, O'Quinn, a multiple Southeastern Circuit Champion, was focusing on making another smooth, solid run for the aggregate, and placed 10th in the round.

"He was hauling tail," she said. "Going into the third barrel he stuck a hind leg and you can see in the video that he almost went totally down in the hind end. He tries so hard and is so quick footed, he jumped up and still ran a 17.02. There's no telling what he could have run."

"He just stayed honest and made two nice runs. He hadn't run on a Standard since Pink Buckle last year. I'm super proud of him."

O'Quinn also placed in the second round of the Futurity and in the Open 2D aggregate with Hansom for $2,219.

"He's going to be so fun," she said of the 4-year-old by Carrizzo out of the Streakin Jewel mare Graces Lil Jewel. "He hasn't had many runs. I was so proud of him."

On their first run in the Futurity, O'Quinn was feeling a little under the weather so she did her best to "stay in the buggy." They were a 17.741 on their first run but came back with a 17.343 on their second.

"I thought he did pretty good," she said. "He turned the first barrel and turned the second barrel. I felt my legs trembling after I turned the second barrel and I did not let go of the saddle horn going to the third. So, he kind of blew off the third barrel because I

Presley Smith & Smooth Movin Guy Win Inaugural Cowboy Channel's Rookie Roundup

By Tanya Randall

Presley Smith will go down in the record books as the first barrel racing champion of the Cowboy Channel's Rookie Roundup, presented by Resistol, long standing sponsor of the coveted Rookie of the Year title.

The inaugural event, held April 29-30 at the historic Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas, took the Top 15 Rookies in the professional rodeo standings to compete for $11,278 in each event. Smith and her 8-year-old gelding Smooth Movin Guy ("Jerry McGuire") collected $3,656 for their championship and jumped to second in the Resistol Rookie standings with $15,556. They're currently ranked in the Top 50 of the WPRA World Standings with $11,901 as the Rookie Roundup doesn't count toward the World Standings.

"I really enjoyed it," said Smith, who also wanted to thank her parents Rick and Christi. "They made it a really big deal for us. They worked really hard to make us feel important. I would definitely encourage others to go."

The 20-year-old barrel racer from Denham Springs, Louisiana, was a little hesitant at first because she hadn't had much success in the tight confines of Cowtown Coliseum.

"I've never had clean runs there ever," she admitted. The one time she'd run Jerry there, she'd taken plus five too. "I was just thinking, 'I'm going to get around the barrels this weekend. I just told myself to ride him around his turns to the backside so he could snap back and be smooth. He doesn't ever look like he's running very fast, but that's usually when he is.'"

In the first round, all 15 contestants ran for one of eight spots in the Semifinals performance the next afternoon. Smith and Jerry finished just two-hundredths behind fellow Louisiana barrel racer Hannah Forsythe of Natchitoches and her horse Semi Automatic, 14.05 to 14.03.

"The first run I felt like was a good smooth run," said Smith. "My reins at the second barrel went over his head half way so the whole way to the third I was trying to get my reins back over his head."

The next day in the Semifinals, the two ladies were just six hundredths apart with Forsythe getting the win and Smith taking second, 13.82 to 13.88.

"The second run I just wanted to have another smooth run. It was just the same thing—watch him on the backside because he comes back so hard and so powerful. He did really good."

The Top 4 from the Semifinals made a second run later in the performance. Having never experienced that situation before, Smith chose to let Jerry relax in the holding pen rather than taking him all the way back to the trailer. She took his boots off and offered water before making a second run just an hour later.

"The third run is a bit of a blur," she said of her victorious 13.82 in the sudden death Final. "He snapped super hard around the first. I thought I've got to ride him to the backside of the second and third really hard; he's really going to snap around because he's 'on!' I guess I just went into adrenalin mode.

"I'm really proud of him. He got faster each run and it's not like he started with a bad run. He was just super consistent. I'm really grateful for that."

Smith's path to barrel racing success started when she begged,

"When I was 2, I made my dad promise me that he'd buy me a horse," she laughed. Her dad was sitting with her in the truck at the time of the interview too. "He said when I was 8, I could have a horse. I turned 8 and was like, 'Where's my horse?' My Christmas present that year was local riding lessons. I had been riding for eight months, and two weeks before my birthday, when I turned nine, I said, 'Look if you buy me a horse now, you didn't lie to me.'" Ironically, her champion horse is one that she didn't want her parents to buy.

Bred by Bill and Deb Myers, Jerry is by their late stallion A Smooth Guy and out of Full A Irish Whiskey, by Paddys Irish Whiskey. He's a three-quarter sibling to Sabra O'Quinn's champion Bring It On Guys.

Tami Semas purchased Jerry through the Myers Prospect Sale and had him started. Dustin Angelle finished him out and successfully campaigned him at the aged events.

"My mom bought him from Tami as a 3-year-old," she explained. "Dustin had called my mom and said he knew of a really nice 3-year-old and wanted to know if we would be interested in having a futurity horse. She just heard the word 'Buckskin,' and said 'Sure!' They didn't tell me that he had bought him."

Smith had actually ridden in the truck with Angelle to go pick up Jerry but still didn't know that he was hers. Dustin had told her that he belonged to some clients that wanted to keep the sale private, but he also kept asking Smith what she thought of the gelding.

"They finally told me right before he ran in the Juvenile," she said. "I was pretty mad. I told them it was going to be an epic fail. We didn't do futurity horses and we had no business trying! So, we joked that he was my mom's horse even though she doesn't ride and is scared of them. She just likes that they're pretty."

Jerry and Angelle had a successful aged event campaign, highlighted by the 2018 Old Fort Days Futurity Reserve Championship.

"Every time he did well during his futurity year, Mom would laugh and say, 'Ha Ha. My horse did good!'" Smith chuckled.

Even though he was doing well, Smith was trying to sell him at every turn.

"I thought he would be too small for me and I probably wouldn't get along with him," she said. "After Dustin had derbied him a little bit, my mom said we needed to decide what we were doing with this horse. I went and rode him a couple of times and didn't like him. My mom just always had this attachment to this horse and she decided to send him to Molly Childers. She thought if she could get him rodeo seasoned that I would give him another chance. I've always liked the rodeos more than the big barrel races"

When her good horse suffered a career-ending injury, she thought about quitting barrel racing all together, but everyone convinced her to give Jerry a try.

"I rode him for about two weeks at the house," she said. "My dad asked if I was ever going to take him anywhere. I won the first

WCRA Announces Improved Division Youth Rodeo

Based on increased participation and demand from Youth Rodeo Athletes, WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) announced major improvements to the existing DY (Division Youth) platform including a first of its kind new World Title Race for Youth Rodeo - in multiple age classifications.

- Junior Leaderboard (Ages 19 and under)
- Youth Leaderboard (Age 13-15)

WCRA also announced the DY expansion will include roughstock disciplines (Bareback, Saddle Bronc and Bull Riding) in the Junior class.

In addition, Ladies Goat Tying and Ladies Pole Bending disciplines have been added in both age classifications and will be a part of the improved qualification system.

"Participation in our DY platform is at an all-time high", said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "We launched DY in Timed-Event disciplines only because of the volume. As a retired Bareback Rider, I could not be more excited about the addition of roughstock disciplines to DY. The Youth athletes are the future of this sport and we are now in business to support and develop them across all disciplines."

Another major enhancement to DY includes multiple Divisions of competition in the VRQ - much like WCRA's Open level of competition (DY1 - DY5).

According to Mote, historically all DY nominations were $25 and the same points were offered whether you won your local jackpot or the legendary IFYR (International Finals Youth Rodeo). Now, youth athletes will have a chance to nominate those local jackpots at a lower price point of $15.00 and receive a lower point scale at DY5. Whereas an event such as the IFYR and NHSRA Finals with higher payouts, greater athlete participation and competition, will be a DY1 offering significantly more points towards the 2023 DY World Title.

"After four years of building qualification platforms, we've taken the most successful elements of the Triple Crown of Rodeo and the Women's Rodeo World Championships and combined them into the new and improved DY", added Mote. "This is poised to be our most successful effort yet".

In July 2023, at the Lazy E the DY Championship event will guarantee over $200,000 in added money. This championship event will be a culmination of rodeo events worldwide creating a new first of its kind, open to the world, Youth World Title race.

DY Athletes will have two opportunities to earn a position to the Championship event with no entry fees:

- The Top 16 on the DY23 Leaderboard (by age classification, by discipline)
- Generic Qualification from a DY Qualifier Series event.

DY Qualifier Series (DYQS) are a group of events held prior to the July 2023 Championship where athletes who nominate and place in the top spot in their respected discipline at the DY Qualifier Series event will earn a generic qualification with no entry fees to the 2023 Championship.

The first DYQS will be held in conjunction with Future Stars Calf Roping May 26-30 in Glen Rose, TX. A list of confirmed 2022-23 DY Qualifier Series events can be found HERE.

Athletes can qualify by nominating their rodeo efforts and earning points for the WCRA DY23 leaderboard. Nominations will open on May 2 and close on June, 25, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. Athletes can learn how to nominate and earn points at dy.rodeo.

Utah Days of '47 Young Guns Rodeo Returns This July

The Utah Days of '47 Rodeo is excited to announce that the Young Guns Rodeo will once again be a featured event during its annual rodeo this July.

Come watch tomorrow's world champion cowboys and cowgirls as they compete for a share of $54,000 in prize money at the Utah Days of '47 Young Guns Rodeo. Kids from the ages of 6-18 will be competing in bareback riding, team roping, saddle bronc riding, breakaway roping, barrel racing, mini/junior bull riding and new for 2022, goat tying.

"The Utah Days of '47 Young Guns rodeo is one of the largest youth rodeos in the State of Utah boasting over $50,000 in prize money," said Tommy Joe Lucia, Utah Days of '47 Rodeo General Manager. "We are honored to make this investment in tomorrow's leaders and into the future of our sport. Come out and cheer on these young athletes."

All qualifying round action will be contested at the Oakley (UT) Recreational Complex in Kamus, UT July 20-23, and is free and open to the public. Each day, the top two in each discipline and age category will advance on to participate in a head-to-head competition held that evening in Salt Lake City at the Utah State Fairpark Days of '47 Arena as part of the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo's preshow festivities. Entries are accepted on a first come, first serve basis and are limited to 15 per event per day in the timed events and 15 per event in the roughstock events. Entries are currently open online at <https://ctrodeo-idaho.weebly.com/utah-days-of-47-young-guns-rodeo.html>. Individuals may enter once per day with daily payouts of $1,000 in each category. Books close and fees are due NO LATER than July 1, 2022. The 6-13 age group for goat tying, breakaway roping and barrel racing are open to both boys and girls but the 14-18 age group in those three events are girls only.

"We had a great turnout for the Young Guns event in 2021 and are looking for an even bigger and better event this year," said Cameron Tuckett, owner and operator of CT Rodeo and producer of the Utah Days of '47 Young Guns Rodeo. "We are excited to add goat tying to the list of featured events this year, and with a total payout of $54,000, the young cowboys and cowgirls won't want to miss this great opportunity. We can't thank our Days of '47 partners enough for investing in the next generation of rodeo stars."

The overall champion (highest score over the course of the four days) in each age category (not including the pee wee age group) in the bareback and saddle bronc riding competition will earn a GOLDEN TICKET to the Junior Roughstock World Finals in Las Vegas during the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in December. Meaning that four individuals (rookie, junior, senior and novice) have a chance to earn an automatic berth to Las Vegas in bareback and saddle bronc riding through the Utah Days of '47 Young Guns Rodeo.

In addition, the top two scored individuals (over the course of the four days) in the pee wee division in bareback, saddle bronc and bull riding will advance to the Junior Roughstock Association Finals in Wickenburg, AZ. The same holds true for the top two Rookie, Junior, Senior and Novice bull riders.

For those kids that aren't quite ready for the bucking horses and bulls, the Young Guns Rodeo will also feature mutton busting. There will be at least three sections each evening at the Days of '47 Arena as part of the pre-rodeo entertainment beginning at 4:30 p.m. Always a crowd favorite, the mutton busting gives the younger kids an opportunity to "Get Their Cowboy On." Mutton busting participants must weigh less than 55 pounds and be between the ages of 3 and 6 years old. No exceptions. Entries are on a first come, first serve basis and are free to sign-up at <https://utahdaysof47rodeo.com/mutton-busting>. Tickets to that night's rodeo are required for participation and entry to the arena.

Tickets for the world's only Gold Medal Rodeo are on sale now and range in price from $14 to $29. Tickets can be purchased through AXS tickets - online at <https://www.axs.com/series/14522/2022-utah-days-of-47-rodeo-tickets> or by phone at 800-888-8499.

Gates to the Utah State Fairpark open at 4:30 pm daily (July 20-23, 25) and fans are encouraged to come early to enjoy the historical exhibits, commercial exhibitors, great food, carnival rides, and preshow activities including the showdown round of the Young Guns Rodeo. While many activities on the grounds are free, events held in the Days of '47 Arena do require a rodeo ticket for admission. HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We survived the crazy blizzard last week and are finally shoveled out. But all the drifts aren't gone yet. Which led to the most beautiful, weird sight of lightning reflecting off the snow just a few days later! Can't say I've ever seen that! Lightning on snow! My mind couldn't get around it.

That is NOT how things go. Reminds me of when I went to Phoenix, AZ the first time to see my brother. Day temps were 110 degrees. We all loaded up to go to an evening softball game. But I had forgotten my jacket so I jumped back out and ran and got it. My brother was looking at me like I was an idiot! He said, "Sher, you aren't going to need that." Ya right. We got to the game, it was pitch dark and my Wyoming mind kept telling me it was going to get cool pretty soon, good thing I had my jacket! The temperature went all the way down to 95 degrees!!!! No jacket required. But my EXPERIENCE told me that after dark it cools down.

We do that with the Word of God a lot. Our experience tells us one thing, the Bible will tell us another. Which are we going to pick? My friends, no matter how we feel about things, let's put God's Word first and receive the blessings He has for us. If your problems look bigger than God, then you aren't spending enough time with Him. Your experience will lie to you and you'll run and get your jacket!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
