Birthright: Shali Lord & Freckles Ta Fame Win Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Shali Lord and the talented stallion Freckles Ta Fame ("Can Man"), owned by Joe and Carla Spitz, got a hometown rodeo win at the Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo in Oklahoma.

"It was wonderful," said Lord, who now calls Lamar, Colo., home. "I'm from Texhoma and was born in Guymon. It makes it extra special that all my family was down there."

Lord pocketed $4,735 for placing fourth in the two rounds to win the average. Fellow NFR qualifier Sabrina Ketchem won the first round aboard Easz Six, while Cally Thomas won the second round aboard TRcashenbadger, a full brother to TR Dashing Badger ("Dolly") that took Jill Moody to two WPRA Reserve World Championships and two NFR Average titles.

The Pioneer Days Rodeo was progressive with all 161 contestants making their first runs in slack on Friday morning with the top 40 coming back to fill the performances.

"The ground was probably the best it's ever been at Guymon," Lord noted. "They had some rain on it at the beginning of the week, and the ground was really, really good. I think it stayed really consistent throughout slack. Can Man went in there and made an outstanding run on Friday. His run on Sunday was even better. I couldn't be happier. He worked good and stayed focused."

Can Man's owners, the Spitz, who also live in Lamar, were on hand to see Lord win the rodeo. They raised the 6-year-old stallion by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of Frenchmans Freckles, by the all-time leading living barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy. He was trained and futuritized by Ashley Schafer, who has recent wins at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic and Sand Cup futurities aboard the Spitz's KR Last Fling.

As fate would have it, Lord's husband Phy and the Spitz's son, Kyle, were longtime friends.

"They got to talking one day," said Lord. "I don't know how it really happened. It was just God's plan."

Lord started riding Can Man last summer.

"He hadn't been to any rodeos," she recalled. "I just took him to some of the circuit rodeos and got him outdoors. He worked really good, but hadn't quite figured out the run outside yet. He just wasn't firing yet. It took a couple a rodeos and he got it figured out. He just seems like he's getting better and better with the rodeo atmosphere. Nothing seems to bother him—the loud music and the atmosphere. I actually think it makes him a little more excited."

The well-mannered stallion has also been a joy to haul. In fact, most of the time, he's hauled with Lady La French, another horse owned by that Spitz that was trained and futuritized by Hallie Hanssen.

"He's wonderful," she said. "He's got a great disposition. He's really laid back and easy going. Nothing seems to bother him at all." Lord, a multiple Mountain State Circuit Finalist and former National Circuit Finals Champion, said she has no current travel plans until the summer.

"I'm going to look at the books and get a plan," said Lord, who also has a couple of her own horses that are working really well right now. "I don't have a plan yet, but I'll probably start out in June and enter over the Fourth (of July), and go from there."

With the birth of her son Slade, 3, Lord has focused on rodeos in the Mountain States Circuit in recent years.

"I've gone to Arizona in the winter, the jackpots around here and the circuit rodeos in the summer," she explained. "There are a lot of good rodeos in the summer here."

She did pick up some winter rodeos after Denver on her way to

AQHA 50 Year Breeders Honored

The American Quarter Horse Association will honor this year's 50-year breeders at a ceremony October 19 at the American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame & Museum in Amarillo.

Each year, AQHA honors breeders who have dedicated their livelihoods to maintaining the integrity of the American Quarter Horse. These horsemen and families see their biggest accomplishments and proudest moments in the horses they breed.

"It's our honor to recognize the breeders who are the backbone of AQHA," said AQHA Executive Vice President Craig Huffhines. "They have kept the tradition of the American Quarter Horse alive through their knowledge and dedication, and ensure that the success of the breed will continue for many generations to come."

This year, the honorees include 11 legacy award winners and 14 cumulative award winners. Legacy breeders are those who have registered at least one foal for 50 consecutive years. Cumulative breeders are those who have registered at least one foal for 50 years cumulatively.

50-Year Legacy Breeders

Ferd Good/Good Bros Cattle Co. of Belton, Missouri

J.E. Jumonville Jr. of Ventress, Louisiana

Jerry and Amanda Kaufmann of Buffalo, Wyoming

Ben L. McKinney of Cedar Valley, Utah

Joe D. Newell of Oskaloosa, Kansas

A.J. Eason Jr. - Ohooppee River Farm of Collins, Georgia

Sterling O. Roberts of Hillsboro, New Mexico

Mary H. Smith of Atlanta, Texas

Bernard and Nola Thornton of Opelousas, Louisiana

Claude F. and Mary Ann Wells of Anselmo, Nebraska

Tana Mahlstedt Canen/Mahlstedt Ranch Inc. of Circle, Montana

50-Year Cumulative Breeders

Max Alman of Pelahatchie, Mississippi

Thomas H. Bradbury of Byers, Colorado

F.W. Brown of Highlands, Texas

Margaret Chamberlain Hawkins of Arthur, Nebraska

Charles A. Hollis of Greenway, Arkansas

Tommy Houston of Bluff Dale, Texas

Jelmer E. Johnson of Torrington, Wyoming

Tom Maddux of North Platte, Nebraska

Dr. Gerald O'Conner of Ann Arbor, Michigan

Buzz and Connie Oliphant of Rowley, Iowa

Edward and Janet Stanton of Ontario, Oregon

L.L. Stokes of Big Lake, Texas

Fred and Clara Wilson of Newcastle, Wyoming

Lewis Sterrett/Miracle Mountain Ranch Missions Inc. of Spring Creek, Pennsylvania

Honorees ranged from people who have bred American Quarter Horses for reining, racing, cutting, ranch and rodeo. All have dedicated 50 years to taking their best and making it better.

Jim Thompson Concludes Radio Career

Longtime rodeo journalist and announcer Jim Thompson, 67, will conclude his "live" radio career with the May 29 airing of his Country Café of the Airwaves which is broadcast live in South Dakota, North Dakota, Nebraska, Wyoming, Montana and also on the Internet at www.livewithjt.com. Thompson started his broadcast career in the summer of 1965 at Brown Institute in Minneapolis, and for the past 20 years has owned Creative Broadcast Services in Spearfish, S.D. He served as president of the South Dakota Broadcasters for a year, has been president of the Chamber of Commerce in Watertown, S.D., and was elected to two terms in the South Dakota Senate, representing Watertown. Thompson has been honored by the Casey Tibbs South Dakota Rodeo Center in Fort Pierre, the South Dakota Sports Hall of Fame in Sioux Falls and the Black Hills Stock Show Hall of Fame in Rapid City. He was named the Justin Committeeman of the Year in 2008 and served as the announcer for the first three years of the National Circuit Finals Steer Roping (2010-12) in Torrington, Wyo., before retiring from ProRodeo in 2013 after 37 years. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

the American Semi-Finals Rodeo in Fort Worth.

"I went to a few," she said. "I placed at Rapid City and went to a few rodeos down in Texas. It was kind of tough luck at some of the rodeos I went to this winter, but it was good—good seasoning for him and the mare. They're both coming along really well. I feel like I'm ready to go; I want to go."

Ten years ago, it was her victory at Guymon aboard the iconic SX Docslider ("Slider"), now retired at 22, that helped send her to the National Finals Rodeo.

"I won Guymon one other time—ten years ago—when I made the Finals on Slider," she recalled. "It was pretty exciting. It's been 10 years. That's how I started on Slider. I didn't have high expectations; I just went as I won and it ended up working out."

It's possible things may work out again for her, given her fresh horses with the profitable summer rodeos ahead and a strong support team in her corner.

"It's just been so wonderful," she said, wanting to thank her husband and family for all their support as well as the Spitz's for allowing her to ride such nice horses. "I'm just so thankful to be able to ride their horses. They are very, very talented horses. I'm just so happy."

RODEO BIBLE CAMP

LESLIE WILLIS will be the barrel racing instructor at CSR's Rodeo Bible Camp, we are excited to announce. Willis and Championofthehouse (by Furyofthewind) won both the Southeastern Arena and Lucky Dog futurities this spring. Aboard Brookestone Forever she won the Southern Rebel Futurity and BBR Futurity Slot Race. Willis' many accomplishments in the barrel futurity world also include winning $200,000 on two horses over 4 days in December 2007.

Bible camp cost is $300, food and lodging included. Campers may sign up for more than one event at no additional cost. Enrollment forms are at CopperSpringRanch.com. Scholarships are also available, please send us a letter requesting assistance. Other events will include steer wrestling, team roping (heading & heeling), tie down roping, breakaway and goat tying.

Bercegeay & Running for a Title Blitz the Field at Josey Reunion

By Hope Sickler

Summit, Mississippi cowgirl, Blaise Bercegeay and her 10-year-old trusty steed Running for a Title ("Title") clocked an impressive 15.995 in the sudden death finals to secure the championship at the 22nd Annual Josey Reunion held May 1-3 at the Josey Ranch in Karnack, Texas.

If you would've asked 20-year-old Bercegeay if she thought she was going to walk away the winner that weekend, her answer might actually shock you.

"Our first run was a bit of a cluster," laughed Bercegeay. Bercegeay had to instill full trust into "Title" as her reins broke as they were speeding across the dirt to the second barrel.

"We had a great first barrel but then going across to the second barrel, my reins suddenly broke. I had to trust my horse at that point because I had no other option, and he didn't let me down. He turned the second and third barrel all by himself and still ended up clocking a 16.9 which was too slow to make it back in that bracket, but at that point, I was just thrilled that he took care of us. It definitely could've went worse."

After double checking to make sure her reins were secure, Bercegeay and "Title" made their second run in hopes of qualifying in one of the top 20 spots to make it back to the sudden death finals. In previous years, only 15 riders from each round were able to progress to the sudden death finals but this year they took 20 from round 1 and 20 from round 2.

"Our second run was better. He turned the first great again, but then going to the second barrel he spotted the shadow on the ground and spooked from it. We went to the fence and made a giant circle before I got him lined out to the third barrel. We were a 16.6 even with that huge bobble on second," explained Bercegeay.

With a few malfunctions in their first two runs, Bercegeay and "Title" finished the second bracket in the 20th position which progressed them to the finals on Sunday.

"We definitely saved our best run for last. We had a great first and second barrel and got a little tight on the third, which scared me, but it stayed standing and we hustled home. When I heard my time I was thrilled but I was first out in the finals and had to watch 39 other tough teams make the cloverleaf pattern before I knew if my time was going to be good enough for the win."

Bercegeay sat with her mother and her sister, who had come to watch her compete, to see where she and "Title" were going to end up.

"It was very nerve wrecking! When you have a field of that many amazing riders and horses, you are definitely not safe no matter how great of a run you make."

After the dust had settled and the competition drew to an end, Bercegeay came out on top and won the 22nd annual Josey Reunion.

"I was so excited and I still am. I won the Josey Jr. World when I was 9-years-old in 2004 and we have been coming to Josey's since 2002. It was a huge accomplishment for me and what made it even more special was that the Josey's found me "Title". This race is always a blast and such a production put on by the Josey's and their phenomenal crew of help," Bercegeay said.

Bercegeay pocketed a nice chunk of cash for her victory along with a Big Tex Cimmaron 3-Horse Gooseneck Trailer, a trophy Ty Mitchell Saddle, a beautiful belt buckle, a customized saddle rack and a bucket full of other goodies!

Bercegeay plans to hit the Professional Cowboys Association rodeos, which she's currently in the #1 position in the ladies barrel racing, the rest of this year, along with some bigger barrel races in hopes of having as much success and fun as she had at the 22nd Annual Josey Reunion.

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We are believing with you in faith that The Blessing is coming on you like a tidal wave, in unexpected ways and without delays!

As you know, we have been praying for rain in its season over our area. So, while I was barrel racing a few weeks ago and the wind was blowing and it was pouring rain and I was cold, I just couldn't complain. I kept my mouth lined up with our prayer and I kept giving God thanks while my teeth were chattering!

I heard a LOT of complaining that day. But when it was all said and done, I noticed a few things. First of all, the women in the top ten or so were prepared. Horses were fit and not too fresh that they bucked. They had proper rain gear. Saddles were dry. They had a plan and they stuck with it.

That's the way we should be with the Word of God. If you read Matthew 7:24-27, Jesus talks about building your house on the rock and when storms come, your house will stand. But if you don't do what He tells you to, when the storms come, your house will fall.

The winners that day had built a foundation with their horses that the rain couldn't wash away. It's the same thing in your Christian life. You and I are going to have storms, but if we have put the Word of God in us, when the storm has passed, all we will have is a clean house. If we are in the storm without the Word, we'll be doing a lot of remodeling when it's over! I'd rather not be the one who got dumped in the arena of life!

God loves you and so do we!
