Wonder If Im Lucky & Heidi Gunderson Shine at Ruby Buckle, Wins Derby & Open

By Tanya Randall

Wonder If Im Lucky (“Casey”) and Heidi Gunderson continued on their hot streak with a $42,384 effort at the Ruby Buckle Central, held April 25-May 3 in the Lazy E Arena at Guthrie, Oklahoma.

“It was a great race,” said Gunderson, who hails from Murdock, Minnesota. “I just love incentive money. When you have a good weekend at those kinds of events—the Buckles, Royal Crown, Breeders Challenge—it has literally changed our game. How many times can you leave events winning $50,000, $100,000? That’s what the incentives are doing. It’s just phenomenal!”

Gunderson and Casey, who is owned by Shannon Kulseth of Purcell, Oklahoma, topped the 421-entry, $175,000 Derby for $24,564 ($19,650 to the owner, and $2,457 a piece for the breeder and stallion owner). He also topped the 1,275-entry, $600,000 Open for $17,820 ($13,176 to the owner, and $2,322 each, for the breeder and stallion owner).

Casey, a 5-year-old gelding, and was bred by Stephanie Langford-Cleveland of Bristow, Oklahoma. Kulseth purchased the gelding, by $900,000 sire Lucky Wonder Horse out of Langford-Cleveland’s PC Mr Sun Peppy, Docs Superstar Bar mare, TS Sunnys Superstar, as a long yearling at the 2022 OKC Futurity Sale. Under Gunderson’s guidance, Casey was the 2025 EquiStat Leading Futurity Horse and has since run out more than $400,000.

During her three-week stay in the Oklahoma City area, Gunderson and Casey won $63,000. They won $12,183 for The American Rodeo Central Regional Championship On April 18. The following weekend, the pair collected $8,867 after finishing fifth at the BBR World Finals on April 26.

Having just run at the BBR Finals on Sunday, Gunderson opted to let Casey rest rather than driving to Lazy E in hopes of getting an exhibition later that day. After driving up Monday morning, Casey made a business run, clocking a 16.941 to place eighth in the first round of the Derby.

“The first run, I felt like we stepped off the first barrel but the rest of it was really, really nice,” she said. “A 16.9 on a Standard, most times is very fast, and I knew that it would be superfast there the rest of the week. I knew we were going to have to be faster than that and I knew he could be.”

Her husband Mark, who started Casey under saddle, asked her how fast she thought Casey could be on his next run.

“In the back of my mind, I knew he could run a 6, but being conservative, I said, he’d run a .7,” she said.

Casey clocked a 16.693, the fastest run of the event, to win the round for both the Derby and later Open.

“When he turned the third, I knew it was fast, fast,” she said. “I fist pumped. There were just so many emotions. He went down south and just dominated every run and has just not let up. We’re so proud of him. I know the horse has the ability, but God just rose him up to another level, so much so that I can’t turn away from how present God was in the runs we’ve made the past three weeks. There’s just no other explanation.

Even though the plan is rodeo more—Gunderson is 40th in the WPRA World Standings and she’s got the Calgary Qualifier in Canada penciled in for June—she said wins like those make it hard to want to go out on the road.

“It makes it really hard to want to run the wheels off your ruck,

100 rodeos to try to do it. No. 1, I can't do it financially, and No. 2, I don't want to! I don't like to drive that much!"

Gunderson even opted to turn out of the rodeos she'd entered during Ruby Buckle.

"I'm going to do what's best for him," she said. "That's all there is to it. He doesn't owe us a single thing. This horse will run if I ask him to, but I want to be fair to him too. He will just keep going, so I have to make the decision for our team about what's best for him.

"I'm just going to try to be the best steward of him that I can, to make sure that he's happy and healthy."

The Ruby Buckle was their last stop before heading home for a short break until The American Rodeo, May 22-23 in Arlington, Texas, where they're eligible for the $2 million Contender Bonus.

"He's just so fun," she said. "We're just excited for the opportunities that God keeps putting in front of us. We're just going to enjoy it because every run is just so special."

Brittany Tonozzi Blazzin The Way to Ruby Buckle Central Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Blazzin The Way (“Fireball”) captured their second futurity championship at the Ruby Buckle Central, held April 25-May 3 in the Lazy E Arena at Guthrie, Oklahoma.

The victory in the 397-entry, $280,000 Futurity added $32,750 to the 5-year-old stallion’s career earnings. He also picked up $1,632 for splitting 12/13th in 1D aggregate of the $600,000 Open and $240 from the first go of the Owner/Rider for total earnings of $34,622.

“It’s great to have these types of places to go for that kind of money,” said Tonozzi, who noted that Fireball will be a Pink and Riata Buckle stallion next year. “It’s nice to be a part of such a great event.”

Tonozzi and Fireball won the opening round of the futurity with nearly flawless 16.956.

“He actually kind of stumbled around the first a tad,” Tonozzi recalled. “It made him kind of elevate and I was ‘Oh gosh! We’ve gotta get you over for the second!’”

“He’s such a cool animal. He just loves to run barrels and that makes it so fun. He wants to help you and wants to win for you. Anyone who runs barrels knows how hard that is to come by.” They secured the championship with a sixth place effort of 17.023 in the 2nd Round.

“I didn’t hustle him enough to the second and get him far enough in the hole and he kind of elevated,” she said. “He turned such a good first barrel I was like, ‘Don’t mess this up!’ Then I just kind of sat on him instead of driving him up in the hole. Horses tend to get short there. It’s a tough pattern being a Standard with the barrels on the fence. It’s the ultimate tough setup for a futurity horse.”

Fireball, who won the Elite Luck of the Draw Futurity and took second at the Lonestar Shootout Futurity, has a limited futurity schedule compared to many of his contemporaries. Breeding duties prevented him being ready to run as a 4-year-old futurity horse, and they’ve limited his competition this spring to some extent.

He was at the breeding farm until Wednesday before the Ruby Buckle started. In the four days before heading to Guthrie, Tonozzi’s husband Garrett roped on the stallion, and she took him through the barrels twice.

“He’s just that kind of horse,” said Tonozzi, who splits her time between Lampasas, Texas, and her summer rodeo base in Monument, Colorado.

The royally bred stallion is by 12.6 million dollar sire Blazin Jetolena out of Tonozzi’s late great mare Ima Famous Babe (“Katniss”), who earned $445,281 with multiple aged event wins and National Finals Rodeo qualifications before her untimely passing. Katniss was the second richest daughter of Dash Ta Fame—her stablemate KissKiss BangBang is No 1—and out of 1.6 million dollar producer Streakin Six Babe, by Streakin Six.

Fireball is the second Ruby Buckle Central Champion descending from Streakin Six Babe. Tonozzi won the 2023 event on Tres Chasin Babe PZ, a Tres Seis mare out of Babe On The Chase, a daughter of Chasin Firewater out of Streakin Six Babe.

“He has more of the Blazin Jetolena-type style,” said the three-time WPRA World Champion Barrel Racer. “He’s very efficient in and out of a turn. Katniss had a very extreme Dash Ta Fame style. I feel like I got the best of both worlds. I got efficiency. I got a well-balanced horse. I got a fast horse. He checks all the boxes.”

That, and he’s good-minded enough, Tonozzi can’t wait to watch her daughter Tinley on him one day. But first, he’ll gain a little more experience with her. Tonozzi, who is currently in the Top 30 in the WPRA World Standings, plans to introduce Fireball to the pro rodeos this summer with some runs in slack. Her husband will also rope on him at the Royal Crown in August before she gets a turn on him for the barrels there.

Saaul Good For Hometown Favorite Hailey Krahenbuhl at American West Regional

By Tanya Randall

The Las Vegas crowd went wild when their hometown barrel racer Hailey Krahenbuhl and her talented gelding Saaul Good (“Sully”) topped The American West Regional, held April 30-May 2 at the South Point Casino.

“It’s just been my dream to win the Regional there because it is my hometown,” said the 20-year-old from the Vegas suburb of Henderson.

Krahenbuhl earned $12,200 and the right to compete for the $2 million bonus at The American Rodeo, May 22-23 in Arlington, Texas, having come through the Contender Tournament.

Unfortunately, her Regional experience didn’t start out well with a tipped second barrel in the first round of two qualifying rounds. The top 10 on two advanced to Saturday’s Finals, with the five fastest runners of the night qualifying for Arlington.

“I was very disappointed,” she said. “I was the first person to buy into the Redemption Round.”

Krahenbuhl and Sully won the 22-entry Redemption Round with a 15.260.

“I just knew I had to go clean and I knew he could make it,” she said. “I had to fight for my life to go clean.”

In the finals, the pair were the third team to run and took the lead with a 15.014, the fastest run of the event. Although it left her with a stressful wait through 11 more runners, Krahenbuhl and Sully wouldn’t be caught.

“I got a feeling in my head, I don’t know why, that I was going to win it,” she said. “I was really, really nervous all day up until I got on my horse to start warming up. Then I really wasn’t nervous. I just had this gut feeling that something’s going to work out. I just really tried not to think about anything too much. I’m like, ‘I’m going to go out there, try the best I can and see if it works out, and I guess it did!’”

Now Krahenbuhl will return to the rodeo where Sully first caught her eye.

Bred by Webb Ranch, Sully is by 2.8 million dollar barrel sire Winners Version and out of Wild Frenchlady, by Frenchmans Guy. Kelsey Treharne purchased the gelding as yearling through Webb Ranch’s Breeders Dynasty Sale for $13,000. A few months later, Treharne sold Sully as an unbroke 2-year-old to Benette Little, who put the gelding in training with Dale Long.

Under Long’s tutelage, Sully ran out more than $88,000 as a futurity horse. The following spring, the young gelding made a gallant showing at The American Rodeo despite the lack of experience with the intense atmosphere.

“I remember seeing him run at The American,” said Krahenbuhl. “I just thought to myself, ‘Wow! What would it be like to own a horse like that?’”

She’d get her chance a month later.

“We went to Texas to try a group of horses that I had found,” she said. “One of those horses was another horse that Dale had for sale. My dad called him and asked if he had anything better, and he was like, ‘Well, yeah...’ and my dad asked if he’d sell him. When I found out who it was I was just in shock. I’m like, ‘I’m cancelling every horse that we’re trying today, and we’re are going to try THIS horse!’”

The fit was instant.

“I knew right from the moment that I sat on him,” she said. “I just got a feeling that we have to take him home.”

Krahenbuhl and her twin sister Peyton were introduced to horses by her cousins, who reside in Utah. Their grandmother Terri Menzies fostered their interest by paying for riding lessons. Both girls started competing in the English show world of hunters and jumpers. Krahenbuhl dabbled with barrel racing early in her teen years but then an accident shook her confidence over jumps and she switched events for good.

“In November 2019, I was actually paralyzed in a show jumping accident,” she said. “The way I landed I couldn’t feel my legs for about eight hours. That scared me a lot and I just couldn’t come back from the mental aspect of it. That’s when I decided to just do barrels full time.”

Now, her goal is to qualify for the National Finals Rodeo. She and Sully will spend the summer gaining experience at the professional rodeos so she can rodeo full time in 2027.

Skylar Nicholas and The Dream Crusher Go 1-2 at Money & Beaches for $17K

By Julie Mankin

Skylar Nicholas, a home-schooled 18-year-old, was already winning Bizzy Bee's massive three-day Money & Beaches Open barrel race with $10,000 added in Hamilton, Texas. Then she decided to leave her home northeast of Austin and go back Sunday for one more run.

On Friday, she and The Dream Crusher ("Crush") – a home-raised 6-year-old that her mom Lisa Nicholas trained – had left home in the wee hours of the morning for Hamilton. They'd clocked a 15.114 that was still atop not only the Open 4D but also the Derby and Youth High Stakes sidepots. In that first run, Nicholas said Crush was a tad short at the first barrel. She finds the Hamilton approach a little tricky.

Then on Sunday, Crush "took off from the back 40," but she pushed him all the way into that first hole. Their blistering 15.079 won the High Stakes for $3,535, won the Open for $3,827, won the League of Legends for $2,700, won the Derby for $1,080, won the Youth High Stakes for $847 and won the Youth for $884.

"That was one of his best runs ever," said Nicholas. "He also had the fastest time at the Grand Prix."

And Friday's run? Well, it hung on for second in the Open, Derby and Youth High Stakes for another cool $4,598. Nicholas' take in Hamilton on Crush was $17,471.

"I've been in this since I was born," said Skylar, who trains barrel horses alongside her mom and whose father works in wireless-communications sales. "I'm super grateful to have gotten that opportunity."

In Hamilton, the teenager also ran Crush's 5-year-old sister, clocking a respectable 15.5. Skylar didn't love Crush when he was a 3-year-old and said he's still a brat, loaded with personality. He loves to buck in the warm-up pen, she said. But so did his mama.

While Crush is by the Dash Ta Fame son Makin Ya Famous, he's out of Lisa's great mare Stoli My Guy, by Traffic Guy out of the Stoli daughter Sixes Future. Lisa, who was raised in Wichita Falls, had a lot of success on Stoli My Guy that included breaking a 25-year-old record at the Jim Norick Coliseum. Her daughter ran the mare, also.

"It's special to have run both mama and son," said Skylar. "They have very different styles – on the mare you'd just kick all the way and pray you'd be clean, but he's more free-running."

Lisa stayed patient with Crush, then turned him over to Skylar late in November of his 4-year-old year.

"She never gave up on him," said Skylar. "She can feel the littlest things, and she knows when horses are going to be winners. She worked her magic."

Skylar is getting ready to haul Crush to the Texas High School Finals Rodeo next month, and she's already enrolled at Tarleton State University this fall, where she'll study to become a nurse. There's no doubt Nicholas will terrorize barrel racers at the college rodeos, but she has no plans to become a WPRA member. Her heart, she said, is in staying close to home and training futurity horses.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

But thank God we can repent (turn around and go the other way)! God is good. He wants us to win.

We just need to be obedient to the Word He brings to our hearts. Here we go!!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

If you've ever had a problem, you have needed a solution. And it can be quite embarrassing when in the past, you have found that solution and then let it slip. Groan!

I don't know about you, but I write in the margins of my Bible. It's pretty high-lighted. When I see something that speaks to me, I've even been known to cross out a name and put my name in there.

Like in Luke 10:41, where Jesus is saying, "Martha, Martha, you are troubled...". Martha wanted Jesus to get after Mary for listening to Him instead of helping her with the WORK! I crossed off "Martha, Martha" and wrote in "Sherry, Sherry". Ouch!

In I Pet. 3:8, it instructs us to be tenderhearted. In the margin I wrote, "Sherry, you need to practice this!" Sherry doesn't always listen. Sherry can let things slip.

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR FACEBOOK LIVE STREAMED BIBLE STUDY!

TUESDAYS @ 7:20 PM
