Stockton & Zevi Shot The Moon Score in Guymon

By Tanya Randall

For whatever reason, Alicia Stockton's Zevi Shot The Moon ("Junior") loves Henry C. Hitch arena, home of the Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo. The 12-year-old gelding followed up a third-place finish in 2013 with a victory at the 80th annual rodeo, held May 2-4.

"He likes that place," said Stockton, a Ballston Spa, N.Y., transplant now residing in Stephenville, Texas. "They put on a great rodeo. They try really hard and the people are really nice. It's definitely been good to me every time I've been there."

Guymon, a WPRA Tour Rodeo with points counting toward limited entry rodeo qualifications, offered $7,500 in added money for a two-run and average format and was open to all cards and permits. All contestants made their first runs in slack on Friday morning May 2 with the top 40 advancing to the four performances.

Stockton and Junior's 17.43 tied for the first go win with Shelby Herrmann and TS Doc San Lena. Although she originally drew up on Sunday, Stockton traded to a performance on Saturday, but she had to wait until Sunday to see how she finished in the second round and average.

In the last performance, Ivy Hurst and Holy Exclusive Leo set a reported arena record of 17.06 to win the round, which put Stockton tying with Toni Harden, who clocked a 17.18 aboard Kelly Yates' Fiesta Del Rey.

All totaled, the Guymon Championship awarded Stockton $5,438 of the $28,320 total purse.

"My runs really weren't that pretty," laughed the 24-year-old who is sponsored by Bayou West Pads and Triple Crown Feeds. "His first barrel was a little better on his second run and he blew off the third on both runs. Honestly, on my first run I didn't even think I would make it back until they called out my time. I was a little amazed. The second run felt the same way. Honestly with how he clocked on his run on Friday, I just went with it. I didn't think he'd run a .1. I thought it would at least be good enough to place in the average. He did good."

Bred by Rhonda Opalka, Fort Johnson, N.Y., Junior is by Lunar Shot, a son of leading barrel horse sire Marthas Six Moons out of a Streakin Six, Dash For Cash mare, and out of Ginin Zevi, by Zevi (TB). Stockton's dad Roger traded a horse for Junior, then just a yearling, and his full brother. They sold the full brother and kept Junior, who was trained by Stockton's mother Jody.

"I went to (the International Youth Finals Rodeo) on him and high school rodeoed a little on him when he was young," said Stockton, who spent her winters high school rodeoing in Florida before coming to Texas to attend college. "I brought him out here one year to college rodeo, but he didn't really do much. I guess he's

Trainers Named for Ultimate X Showdown

The second rendition of the Ultimate X Showdown, a competition that pairs barrel racing trainers from across the United States with Thoroughbred horses freshly retired from the racetrack, has released the names of the finalists for this year's competition. A 100-day test of horse training skill and racehorse acumen that culminates in a "showdown" on September 5, 2014, the Ultimate X Showdown was conceived by the founder of the non-profit organization, Dreaming of Three, after she learned that many off-track Thoroughbreds of small stature (under 16 hands) often have a harder time being placed when their racing careers are over.

"Our mission is to increase the marketability of the off the track Thoroughbred in the western events, namely the speed events like barrel racing," said Jacqueline. "Most of these smaller horses aren't desirable for the traditional Thoroughbred disciplines like jumping or dressage, but they are perfect for what we want to do. We want to showcase their abilities in this competition and show the world that they can compete toe to toe with any other breed."

This year's competition drew 47 applications from 21 states and Canada. Five judges reviewed written applications, riding video and overall horsemanship to determine the final cut of 15 trainers. The selected trainers are:

Lacey Tomasik – 2013 Champion, Pennsylvania
Jandee Smart – California
Sara Tharp – Montana
Kelly Kelley – Illinois
Doug Kerstetter – Pennsylvania
Mike Rogers - Missouri
Nicole Valeri – Pennsylvania
Guy White - Virginia
Penny Baker – Ohio
Samantha Dilworth – British Columbia, Canada
Jimbo Albritton – Florida
Nikki Egyd – California
Lindsay Jensen – Minnesota
Leisha Griffith – North Carolina
Decotah Jackson -Texas

Trainers will have until May 28 to select their off-track Thoroughbred with the competition officially beginning on May 28. During the following 100 days, their progress in turning their ex-racehorse mounts into finely tuned barrel racing competitors will be closely followed via blogs, social media, and the Ultimate X Showdown website. The final event, held at the Simmons Equestrian Center in Negley, Ohio, will consist of two segments; a judged free style portion and a timed barrel race.

"A horse will give everything as long as you know when they are giving," said selected trainer Jimbo Albritton from Florida. "The Ultimate X Showdown is giving me a chance to give back to horses in general. It is the least I can do as a trainer to show my appreciation to the animals that have given me everything, and have had such an impact on my life"

More information about the event can be found at <http://www.ultimatexshowdown.com/>

5-Time Canadian Champ Back in the Winners Circle

It was seven years after winning her fourth Canadian barrel racing championship that Deb Guelly captured her fifth title. Now seven years later, she's taken the first step in bringing home a sixth buckle.

"Barrel racing can be very humbling," admitted Guelly on Sunday afternoon, shortly after winning the Spring Classic Rodeo in Camrose, Alta. "I've had a lot of downs the last few years."

It was the second win of the weekend for Canadian Pro Rodeo's all-time leading money winner in the barrel racing. She also grabbed the first place cheque at the Kananaskis Pro Rodeo in Coleman, Alta. The victories were worth $3,731 – more than her entire C.P.R.A. earnings in 2012, the year in which her streak of twenty consecutive CFR qualifications was snapped, and over a third of her 2013 total.

"When you don't win for a long time, you're, like, can I still do this? But I know he can do it."

"He" is 9 year-old, Scooter, Guelly's potential next great barrel horse with bloodlines back to Buck and Reiner, the mounts she used to win her five Canadian championships. In fact, Scooter carries an even deeper connection to Guelly's 23-year pro rodeo career.

"His mother is Flashy, the first horse I had when I turned pro. She's a sister of Buck. And he's out of Reiner's dad."

said. "I've had him right at a year now. I won a little bit on him rodeoing last summer. He did OK. Then he got hurt."

Stockton started back on Junior at Odessa this winter. Things were looking promising when Junior started falling off about mid-February.

"I guess with the weather being so crazy, he got a little bit sick," she said. "I thought he had something weird but I couldn't really put my finger on it. I went to Tucson and those rodeos, and it wasn't good for us at all. When we got home I had some tests run on him and he came back with a little bit of a lower lung infection. Instead of two weeks, I gave him six weeks off."

Guymon was just her second weekend of rodeos back on Junior. Now she hopes the gelding stays strong for the hard summer run.

Stockton, who usually hauls with multiple NFR qualifier Kaley Bass, said she, Bass and NFR arena record holder Taylor Jacobs are trying to work out their summer plans.

"(We) are trying to figure out how we can have two rigs and two horses a piece and travel together," she said. "We're going to go pretty hard because we're all behind. We haven't made a definite plan yet. For sure, I'm going to stay and go the circuit rodeos for the next month and half and try and make the circuit finals, then try to go Reno and play it by ear from there."

Bercegeay & Easily Smashed Toast Triumph at Josey Reunion

By Tanya Randall

Blaise Bercegeay, the newly crowned Josey Reunion 1D Champion, had a little bit of home-arena advantage at the 21st Annual event, May 2-4. The $5,000-added race that's open to all former Josey students is held at the picturesque ranch of legendary instructors R.E. and Martha Josey near Karnack, Texas.

Bercegeay picked up the title aboard Easily Smashed Toast ("Smash"), a 13-year-old gelding that she purchased from Martha Josey last August.

"He's such a good guy," Bercegeay said of Toast To Dash gelding out of Easy Lady Jane, by Easily Smashed Toast. "He's the sweetest thing. He's easy to get along with."

After barely catching the first barrel on a scorching first run on Friday, Bercegeay and Smash topped their next two runs, including the all-important clean-slate Finals on Sunday.

"The second go, I was last on the ground after a big pack," she recalled. "He still did good we won the second round. I didn't have as a great of a run Sunday as I did Saturday, but I guess he was running. The louder everybody hollers the faster he goes and everybody gets excited with the Finals."

They collected $2,801.86 of the $60,040 total purse, generated by nearly 470 entries.

Even though Bercegeay won the junior division of the 2004 Josey Jr World, the Reunion victory was extra special because she won the trailer, courtesy of longtime Josey sponsor Big Tex Trailers.

"(2004) was the first year they stopped giving trailers to the juniors and the seniors," she explained. "They gave the trailer to whoever won the most money, so this is the first time I've ever won a trailer out here."

Bercegeay also ran her 9-year-old gelding Runnin For A Title.

"I got sixth on him the first day and I got a barrel on him Saturday," she said. "He had a really good run on Sunday and ran a 16.3, but I just didn't fall in the places anywhere; I was in the bottom of the 1D."

At 19, Bercegeay is preparing for her second to last appearance at the 33rd Annual Josey Jr World, which is scheduled for May 7-10 at the ranch. She also has a full summer filled with rodeos and major barrel races, like the All American Youth and the Mega.

"I've been running in the PCA rodeos," she said. She and Smash finished reserve champions in the predominant open, amateur rodeo association in the southeast last year. "We were holding the top spot until we came here. These two weekends they have four rodeos a weekend, so we missed all of those."

Bercedegeay wanted to thank her veterinarians Dr. Charles Kleinfelder and Dr. Greg Ford, farrier Ray Wilson and hauling partner Sarah Wilson for all their support. She wanted to give an extra special thanks to her grandmother Elaine Boyd and Martha Josey for giving her the opportunity to own Smash.

I am currently hauling futurity colts, derby horses, and competing in rodeos every weekend. Oxy Fluidity has become an essential part of my feeding program. I give 20 cc every week and 10 cc before I run on all my horses. It is very nice not to have to worry about your horses getting sore from injections because Oxy Fluidity is an oral paste. It is fast acting and provides so much relief for my horses when I know they are a little sore after a weekend of competing. I have seen such great results with this product I even take it myself!

JJK Series Finals Open 4D (BBI Futurity & Derby Sidepots, Saturday & Sunday)

THE KING'S ARENA, GREAT FALLS, MONTANA

SEPTEMBER 13-14, 2014 • ☎ 406.240.0986

BARREL BREEDERS INCENTIVE was formed to help promote our stallions as well as the sport of barrel racing. We are stallion owners who want to give the customer and barrel racing enthusiast an added incentive to breed to our stallions and purchase horses from us. BBI added money is generated from the annual stallion nomination fees. It is then added to selected barrel racing events in Montana each year as a sidepot to these events. Only 4 through 7 year old horses sired by currently nominated BBI stallions or the nominated stallion himself, if he is of this age, are eligible to win this added money—80% of each BBI event pot. The other 20% is paid out to the stallion owners.

LISTED ARE 2014 BBI STALLIONS SO FAR, ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS UNTIL JUNE 1.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The fog was so thick I couldn't see the barn from the house but I knew it was there. That made me think that's how some people are about God; they want to deny His existence because they are like Doubting Thomas in the Bible who had to see before he could believe.

When you see a foot print in the mud, you know someone walked there. God's footprints and His handiwork are surrounding us and still some refuse to believe.

Remember the joke about the little boy who got scared in the night and asked one of his parents to sleep with him. They told him not to be afraid as God was with him. To this he replied, "But, I want someone with skin on!"

Many times the Bible tells us to believe. In John 20:29 Jesus told Thomas he believed because he had seen Jesus and the scars of His crucifixion but He also said, "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

I could go on and on about the miracles I've seen, the hearings and the answers to prayer. I know Jesus is alive and He's the same yesterday, today, and forever. He's ready, willing and able to help us through all our difficulties in this life and then to welcome us into eternity.

Don't let any of the modern age skeptics ridicule your faith. Mark 9:23 tells us, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes." If you've been born again by making Jesus your Lord and Savior, you have nothing to fear in this world no matter how dire the news is.

So don't get confused by the fog and clamor of this world. God's right there with you. As they say today, "God's got your back!" It's a good thing to pray Proverbs 3:5-6 often which says, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths."

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
