McLeod & Slick By Design Win Big at Guymon Pioneer Days

By Tanya Randall

Michele McLeod and the talented stallion Slick By Design scored dual victories at Oklahoma pro rodeos this past weekend. They picked up $6,049 at the $7,500-added Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo and $990 at the $1,000-added Chisholm Trail Stampede in Duncan for total earnings of $7,039.

"We started at Guymon on Friday morning in slack," explained the barrel horse trainer from Whitesboro, Texas. "I was 91st out. He worked great. To me it felt like he couldn't get ahold of the ground underneath. He kind of slid by the first and slid by the second. I was just thrilled that he was that fast with a 17.44. So, I ended up third in the first go."

Afterwards, they left Guymon for Duncan, almost six hours away. "I was up Saturday night in the performance," said McLeod. "I watched slack, and Annesa (Self) was winning it and had a beautiful run. Going from a big pen to a small pen, I just wanted to go in there and make sure I didn't hit any barrels. He worked phenomenal."

McLeod overnights at Duncan and left at 4 a.m. for her second run at Guymon.

"I was first out that afternoon," she said. "All I thought of was just go turn three barrels. It was pretty tough. A .3 was winning it and a .5 was 10th place. I just wanted to be solid. He went in there and I turned the first barrel and he slid by it, and I thought 'oh no, this is not good.' He slid by the second barrel and all I thought was we're going to be so slow. I turned the third barrel and hustled him home and he was a 17.1. I couldn't believe it. That was the fastest time of the rodeo!"

Slick, a 6-year-old stallion by Brazilian-owned sire Designer Red out of Dreams Of Blue, a former barrel horse by Dream On Dancer, was purchased late last year by leading show horse trainers Charlie Cole and Jason Martin. The 2012 AQHA World Champion Jr Barrel Horse now stands at Cole and Martin's High Point Performance Horses in Pilot Point, Texas.

Cole and Martin sent Slick to McLeod in March after the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic with the intent of running him at pro rodeos. She ended up running him sooner than expected after she sold her current rodeo mount BB French Fooled Ya for her friend Cindy Smak.

"I was entered in Huntsville, and sold the horse I had planned to run," she explained. "I had him a week and took him to a Quarter horse show at Oklahoma City just to get a run on him. I was second or third up there against some pretty tough horses. I was shocked he was so easy to ride."

On their first pro rodeo run, McLeod and Slick placed at Huntsville and Graham. Their second foray, rodeo luck deserted them.

Next Generation Youth Team Being Assembled

If you are a young barrel racer that has a desire to learn and compete at a high level you may have what it takes to be a part of the Next Generation Youth Team. The focus of the Next Generation Youth Team is to develop young trainers/competitors, advance sportsmanship, share knowledge, and promote the sport of barrel racing. Youth must be under 17 years of age and have at least 2 years riding experience.

Team applicants should be willing and able to ride different horses, haul to various shows, have a desire to train barrel horses, have an open mind and a willing attitude. NO substantial wins required (raw talent with a good attitude will be accepted), however if they have win record they are encouraged to submit it. Must have parents support and permission to apply. Applicants must submit a completed team application, video of themselves running barrels, and submit a brief essay about why they want to be a part of the team with any details about their skills and interests they would like us to know about. Selection process will be completed as applicants compete at the 2013 Youth Summer Blast Barrel and Pole Event in Ardmore, OK, winning not required but sportsmanship is.

Youth selected to be on the Hallowe Ranch Next Generation Youth Team will receive monthly personal clinics with Sharin Hall. She will share knowledge about basic horsemanship, maintenance of a barrel horse, feeding programs, prospect selection and much more. This hands-on approach will give the selected team members unprecedented access to a training program that has produced multiple futurity/derby champions as well as several NFR qualifiers. FMI and a team application please email hallbarrevent@hotmail.com or call the event hotline @ 580-916-8617.

Dash Ta Vanila at Lazy E Ranch For Rehab

The Lazy E Ranch in Guthrie Oklahoma isn't just home to many of the world's top sires and mares from Quarter Horse racing. One of its newest residents is a star from a different racing world.

Talented barrel horse Dash Ta Vanila, by Dash Ta Fame out of the Frenchmans Guy mare SX Frenchman, is taking a break at the Lazy E Ranch to rehabilitate after double knee surgery, following her 2012 National Finals Rodeo performance.

Owned by Alan Woodbury of Dickinson, ND, and piloted by Nikki Steffes, the 8-year-old mare made her first appearance at the National Finals Rodeo in 2012 after winning the Fort Worth Stock Show earlier that year and sweeping the Pendleton Roundup in 2011.

After Dash Ta Vanila's 5th place finish in the average at the NFR in December, it was discovered she had chips in both knees. Surgery was performed, followed by several IRAP injections. The mare was then moved to Lazy E Ranch for rehabilitation.

She is currently undergoing a regimen of low-impact hydrotherapy utilizing the Lazy E Ranch's Aquatread underwater treadmill. During her stay, she has also been bred to legendary race sire Corona Cartel and is scheduled for an upcoming embryo flush.

According to Lazy E manager Butch Wise, "Hydrotherapy is a less traumatic means of exercise as compared to conventional conditioning. This provides a quicker return to normal conditioning and competition."

Because Lazy E is a premier facility providing breeding and embryo transfer services, top race and performance mares are afforded a spectrum of reproductive services while remaining in an optimum conditioning routine, under the direction of the ranch's Britton Collum.

Dash Ta Vanila owner Alan Woodbury said, "I'm up here in North Dakota, and I am very relaxed and comfortable knowing that Britton is swimming her and they are talking care of her. I just can't say enough good things about Lazy E."

For more information about Lazy E Ranch's rehabilitation or reproductive services, call 405-282-3437.

Then a disappointing BBR Finals left McLeod apprehensive about Guymon.

"I took him to Corpus Christi, Bryan, Longview, but just didn't have any good luck—just draw positions and ground—things like that, but he still worked good," she said. "I went to BBR last week and it wasn't what I wanted. I didn't ride him that good. I got back to the finals in the 1D, but it wasn't the runs that we could have made. So going into Guymon I was little nervous; I didn't have my confidence up. We went home and reevaluated and did some fine tuning. I just tried to get some better turns and at Guymon it worked out."

For now, McLeod will hit some of the Texas rodeos before running Slick at the Old Fort Days Super Derby, Memorial Weekend. Plus, Slick still has his breeding commitments.

"We're collecting on him constantly," she McLeod. "He's handling it all really well. I collected him Wednesday before I left for Guymon on Thursday. He gets collected on Monday and Wednesday and then off I go. He's a heck of a horse."

Beam & Mr JB Fire Fame Rocket to Stardom at Josey Reunion

By Tanya Randall

Professional barrel racer and trainer Janna Beam and Mr JB Fire Fame ("Bentley") blazed their way to the winner's circle at the 20th Annual Josey Reunion, held May 3-5 at R.E. and Martha Josey's picturesque ranch in Karnack, Texas.

After running a 16.3 and 16.4 in the qualifying rounds, they won the final round with a blistering 15.786.

"I was totally shocked," said Beam, Hallsville, Texas. "It's not that I didn't think he could do it, but I just didn't expect it. It was so smooth. I honestly don't know how to describe it. When I looked at the clock, I thought did the clock not work?"

Beam, 30, is no stranger to running fast times at Josey's. When she was 9, she ran a 15.720 to set an arena record at the Josey Jr World that held until Whitney Wells lowered the bar with Nate Shilabar ("Hotshot") in 2000.

"I've never run anything there since then that was faster than a .9," she recalled, noting even her great rodeo horse and AQHA World Champion Perks Advantage ("Willie") hadn't clocked that fast.

Beam was confident she could at least run a 16.0 if she got her first barrel right.

"At Josey's the first barrel is kind of tricky," she explained. "What he kept doing on his first runs was he kept trying to take a step out going to the left, so I felt like the whole way to the first barrel I was having to bring him to it and when I would get there I was too tight and he would take a step by and a step off. So in the Finals, I took him in the alley and stopped him and let him look around, and then I turned him around and made sure he was headed to exactly where he was supposed to be. I knew if I could get the first barrel the rest would be a piece of pie. His second barrel is always wicked. The third barrel, you just have to make sure he finishes it straight—which he usually does."

The Reunion victory was Beam's first at the Josey Ranch.

"I'd won a lot of rounds between the Junior World and Reunion but I'd never won the whole thing," she said. "When I was 9, I won the first two go's and that horse ducked on my third run. The next year I won the first round on that horse and he ducked in the second. It would always be something. I'd go from the very top to the very bottom. It was nice to finally win the whole thing."

Beam, the daughter of barrel horse trainer Paula Owens, went to a Josey clinic when she was 13 specifically to become eligible for the Reunion.

"My mom talked to R.E. and asked if I could bring a colt," she recalled. "I took a 4-year-old that my mom had paid $2,500 for. He was ducking the first barrel when she bought him. Mom had pretty much got him over it. I took him over there just for the experience, and I won the saddle at the end of the clinic. That was the first saddle I won and that was in 1997."

Beam followed in her mother's footsteps, becoming a barrel horse trainer, and that's how Bentley wound up in her barn this January.

Bred by Joe and Dee Braman's JB Quarter Horses, Bentley is by the legendary Fire Water Flit and out of the Dash Ta Fame-Sold Short mare Shorease Famous. He was trained by Kenna Squires and sold as a 3-year-old stallion at the first JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Sale to Gerald Williams of Daingerfield, Texas, for $50,000.

"He just needed some tweeking," Beam explained. "He just needed someone to remind him to pay attention to all the little details. He's just gotten better and better. You can't ask for much more."

With Willie still injured and a barn full of futurity hopefuls, Bentley got a lot of Beam's attention.

"When I got him all that I had were babies to ride and I knew I was going to be off Willie for a long time," she said. "I guess in a way I put all my time and effort into him. I had a feeling he was more than what he'd been. Even my mom was a little skeptical. He's not perfect yet, but none of them are, but overall he's easy to be around and he's quiet for a barrel horse. He's honest and he wants to do well."

Beam is thankful that the Williams sent Bentley when they did.

"Bentley's filled some pretty big shoes, not having Willie around," she said. "He hasn't filled them completely, but he's done a pretty good job. It's been nice to have him. He came at the right time for sure."

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Imagine yourself getting on an unbroken colt, one that had never been ridden, and riding down the street into a busy town. Now imagine big crowds of people lining the street, all cheering and waving tree branches and coats.

That might not have been so easy to do even on a well broke horse, but on a green colt, it would have been a remarkable achievement. Yet, that is just what Jesus did when he made His triumphant entry into Jerusalem a few days before His crucifixion. You can read all about it in Matthew 21, Mark 11 and Luke 19.

This is just one example that shows how Jesus is the Lord of everyone and He knows all about your animals, too. When you've made Jesus the Lord of your life, you're never alone, You have access to the King of kings through Jesus Christ whenever you need to talk to Him about your most secret thoughts, desires, and fears. He understands your concerns about finances, health and relationships. Talk to Him. That's what prayer is--simply talking to our heavenly Father.

Jesus said whatever we ask the Father in His name, He will do it for us. Read John 14:13-14, John 15:16 and John 16:23 to bolster up your faith and your prayer life.

Yes, Jesus is the Lord of all and the Helper to those who call upon Him no matter what their station in life. He died to give salvation to horse people, cowboys, farmers, ranchers, doctors, teachers and businessmen.

Don't waste another day. Get to know Jesus and spend time communicating with Him. That's the most important connection you can make in this world!
