Emotional Win For Dona Kay Rule & High Valor at Guymon Pioneer Days

By Tanya Randall

Four-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Dona Kay Rule and her Horse of the Year High Valor jumped in the WPRA's Top 15 with a $6,982 victory at the $8,500-added Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo, held May 3-5 in the Oklahoma panhandle.

The win was the pair's first since cutting their 2023 season short due to complications from a fall—Valor's first ever—at the third barrel during their second run at the Calgary Stampede. Although they won $15,000 in the ensuing weeks post fall and were in position to make a fifth NFR, Rule knew something wasn't right with Valor and headed home after Ellensburg, Washington, Labor Day weekend.

"I'm glad I stopped at the vet first because he stayed there six weeks and then we did rehab at home after that for five months," said Rule. "That fall created a lot of injuries that needed time."

Valor stayed in the care of Amy J Burns, DVM, in Pierce, Colorado, until he was ready for Rule to take over his recovery. Once home, Rule took advantage of the countryside at her home in Minco, Oklahoma, to rehabilitate Valor.

"At my house, I've got several acres and this tremendous hill that I can walk up and walk down," she explained. "I have the luxury of that available to me. There's hardly anything in the rehab world that can compare to good old fashioned walking around a mountain."

The initial 20 minutes of hand-walking a day built to trotting and loping up the hill his last 30 days of conditioning. While Rule had hoped that Valor would be ready in time for Fort Worth, the 15-year-old gelding made his first runs back since September at the San Antonio Rodeo.

They picked up $4,500 in San Antonio, $7,750 in Houston and got their biggest payday of the year—$10,711—at San Angelo before winning Guymon.

FAVORITE BITS

The 15 yr old son of Valiant Hero, High Valor, is a 4 time NFR Qualifier and according to QStallion was the earner of $788,150 as of their latest reporting; so with his Guymon earnings he will be pushing $800k in earnings! Valiant Hero is the sire of $1.36 Million in Barrel Earners and the sire of over $30 million in race earners.

Rule said her runs in Guymon were "pretty darn fun." She noted that the switch from morning slack to an evening one seemed to be a positive one, although there was some realistic concern for it being an "all-nighter" for all as everyone makes their first run in slack with the top 48 times advancing the performance and the remaining field getting their second run an hour after the first round is complete.

"Honestly, I believe the slack in the evening made the ground better," she said. "In the morning, it always changed from run one to 180 dramatically. With the evening slack, even though the guys working had to stay up late, I think the ground was tremendous."

She believed in the ground enough to send Valor hard on his first run—the only sub-17 of the entire rodeo.

"I felt very strongly that I could send him in there and let him work without having to hold him, fix him or place him," she noted. After winning the first round, Rule and Valor's next run was at the Pioneer Days Rodeo in Clovis, New Mexico. The ground was a little too firm for Valor's liking and the weather wasn't to Rule's.

"Golly it was cold!" she chuckled. "The wind was blowing—35 or 40—and it was cold, probably 45, maybe 50 outside. Gosh it was cold, and there wasn't really anywhere to get away from it. We were all frozen. It was a struggle."

She headed back to Guymon for her second run, which was in the final performance on Sunday afternoon. They clocked a 17.25, but Rule was still worried she'd left a little too much room to be caught for the win in the average.

"I wasn't happy with my run," she said, recalling the ride back to her trailer. "I wished I had done A and B. I was thinking that through my head when I heard the announcer say that I won it. I just bawled. I put my hand over my eyes and just choked down. It was just something! It was just a gift, such an appreciated gift!"

Rule has a couple of circuit rodeos coming up before the summer run. She said how hard she goes ultimately depends on Valor.

"I just have to see where he's at," she said. "He's 15 this year, so I'm going to have to be pretty selective. I'd like to make the NFR one more time, but we'll see. I'm 66 years old, I either need to get on it or get over it. Time is of the essence. I need to go and enjoy what I've worked for my whole life and let the chips fall where they may."

Chelsea Moore & CD Gold Mate Shine At Yellow Rose Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Chelsea Moore and her family-raised gelding CD Gold Mate (“Franklin”) captured their second straight futurity title at the Yellow Rose Barrel Race, held May 3-5 in Claresholm, Alberta. The victory in the $15,000-added Futurity was worth $8,388.

“I’m a little bit in awe of him,” said Moore, a trainer and professional barrel racer from Three Hill, Alberta. “I swear this horse is a unicorn!”

Franklin turned in one of the fastest runs of the event to win the second round and take the average after placing fourth in the first.

Moore said the gelding got “a little strong” on her in the alley on her first run, which affected her approach to the first barrel.

“I hadn’t really decided if I wanted to roll him around the corner or come more straight shot,” she recalled. “He kind of took a step to the right coming out of the alley and got a little strong on me to the first on the first round and it took his approach away and he kind of had to step around the backside a little bit farther. I took him in the time onlies the next morning and tried to soften him up and keep him up the middle of the pen a little more. He didn’t take that approach away from me in the second round and he had a snappier backside (of the first).”

Franklin, 5, is a product of her family’s passion for horses. He is by Blackgold Jack, a son of Dash Ta Fame out of an Easy Rumbo mare, that belongs to her mother Annette Moore. His dam is the 2011 Canadian Supreme Cutting Maturity Open Champion CD Lilly Mate, a daughter of CD Lights out of a Smart Mate daughter, that belonged to her grandfather Garry Franklin Moore.

“My grandpa showed cutting horses as long as I could remember,” Moore said. “He was showing her, and she got hurt. He asked if I wanted to partner with him if he bred her to Jack, and I was like, ‘Absolutely!’”

Unfortunately, Moore’s grandfather passed before Franklin was started under saddle.

“He had really big plans for him,” she continued. “He wanted him started by a cutter and I kind of put it off. He was so little as a 2-year-old, and we don’t futurity until they’re 5, so I really didn’t want him broke at 2.”

Moore, who was pregnant with her second son at the time, did eventually hold to her grandfather’s wishes when she finally had him started as a 3- coming 4-year-old by Doug Reinhardt and his daughter Emma, who started him on the pattern.

After her son was born, Moore spent the summer ranching on the gelding and roping the dummy. It wasn’t until after the National Finals Rodeo in December—her significant other Tanner Milan owns the PRCA Dogging Horse of the Year Eds Famous Bar—that she thought she should get Franklin’s barrel racing career in motion.

“We got home from the NFR, and I thought, ‘This horse is in a lot of incentives. I probably should get him going!’” she chuckled. “He was loping the pattern the first of December. I think I entered him in his first jackpot when I got home from Vegas and just cruised him through. Then it was Christmas and New Years and all those things in life happen. He’s made 13 runs on the clock, so to say he was easy and took to it naturally—100 percent!”

Franklin also won his first futurity, the Spring Fling, earlier after improving nearly a second between his first and second runs.

“He was a little colt-y the first run and he came back and won the second round by eight full tenths of a second and won the average,” she said. “I knew he was special, but that second round of that futurity I was like, ‘Wow!’”

Franklin is also extra special because of his connections to her family’s background with both cutting and barrel horses.

BIT: Kerry Kelley Magnum with the bumpy mouthpiece with a leather curb

SADDLE: Cowboy Classic

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever

LEG GEAR: Cactus

SHOEING: Rims on all four for the ground at Claresholm; shod by Moore

FEED: Oats — HAY: Grass hay with pasture access

SUPPLEMENTS: Equinety, DMG

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: XLR8 products, BEMER, cold water spa in the form of snowmelt in the creek

CONDITIONING/TRAINING: Long trotting in the stubble fields

SPONSORS: XLR8, Zesterra by Pro Earth Animal Health, Cor Vet Services and Double X Equine

SPECIAL THANKS: Tanner Milan for handling their two sons—both under the age of 3—while she rides and competes. “He’s been being super dad these past few weeks,” she said. “I told him that I just needed to get through these few weekends with these colts before he goes rodeoing. He’s still rodeoing up here. He had to take the boys with him to the last three rodeos. He’s one in a million. He’s the best dad in the world and I wouldn’t be able to do this with out him doing what he does.”

“I grew up on cow horses and cutters,” Moore explained. “I showed cutters in high school. A lot of people asked me this weekend—both of the Jack’s that I won money on this weekend are out of cow-bred mares—they were like, ‘Oh that must be the magic cross on him!’ I said, ‘I don’t necessarily think that.’ He crosses very well on running horses. He’s got a lot of winners out there on running mares. I just personally like riding a cow horse. I fit a cow horse style. That cross with Dash Ta Fame is honest and turny. It really fits me. It’s come full circle with him.”

Taylor Manning Cashes In at Yellow Rose Derby with Little Sexcee Cowboy & A French Nick

By Tanya Randall

2022 Canadian Champion Barrel Racer Taylor Manning is having a great spring. Not only does she currently have the lead in the early Canadian Pro Rodeo standings, the 20-year-old from Edson, Alberta, has been cashing in at the aged events in Canada and the United States.

Her Maple Leaf Circuit Finals Champion Little Sexcee Cowboy (“Archie”) has been the star of her trailer, winning the $15,000-added Yellow Rose Derby, held May 3-5 in Claresholm, Alberta. She and Archie collected $9,839 for the Derby win plus $2,432 for second in the $3,000-added Open.

Manning and Archie were second in the first round of the Derby with a 15.891, an arena record until she ran her second horse.

“He’s a very strong, big-strided horse,” Manning said of Archie, the Guys Casanova Cowboy gelding, out of the Merridoc mare JC Simply Sexcee, that she purchased from his breeders Grant and Rayel Little as a weanling. “His first run felt very smooth. It was actually very fun. It just felt really smooth and easy.”

Then she set the arena record with a 15.885 on 6-year-old A French Nick (“Ozona”) to win the first round of the derby and take the open victory for $5,923.

In the second round, she was out on Ozona first and tipped the second barrel on the As Good As Nick Gets, Frenchmans Guy gelding.

“He would have been a 15.70,” Manning lamented. “The worst part is I hit it with my foot! I need to do more stretching for a better leg lift!”

She said her second run on Archie was good, but her timing might have been a little off.

“The second day, I might have been a little bit wider on Archie,” she said. “I might have had it in my head not to knock!”

All totaled, Manning won $18,194 at the Yellow Rose not including additional incentive money.

“I’m really happy with both of them,” said Manning. “Right now in Canada, we have a bunch of indoor rodeos, so it’s been perfect to run Archie (her tiny indoor specialist). Ozona’s been working really nice too.”

Manning also ran her talented mare Bringin The Bling, who was injured much of last year. That injury forced her to turn to Archie for her CNFR qualification. This year, she’s likely to have all three horses on her trailer.

Ozona, the least rodeo seasoned of the bunch, got two pro rodeos wins—Buckeye and Yuma—while Manning was in Arizona for the winter. Archie, meanwhile, has been on a heater in Canada, winning Coleman and Taber, Alberta. He also placed in Drayton Valley before running at Claresholm.

“I’m pretty lucky,” said Manning. “I’m pretty excited for the year. Hopefully, everyone can stay happy and healthy, and we can go have fun.”

THE RUNDOWN w/ Taylor Manning

Little Sexcee Cowboy (“Archie”) 15.3, 1,100-1,200 lbs

BIT: Carol Goostree long shank — HEADGEAR: Leather tiedown

SADDLE: Rylee Racer

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine BioFit

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine boots on front, Classic Equine polos on rear

SHOEING: Eventers on front, rims on rear

FEED: Buckeye Nutrition and beet pulp — HAY: Alfa Tec alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Magnesium from Mad Barn, Equilytes from Vetline Equine, Race Today, Canpresso oil, Equi-Pulmin

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER, Acuscope therapy from Jill Vandergust, Revita Vet cap, Katie Munn for chiropractic, osteopath care, nebulizer treatments. Veterinary care from Beckwith Vet and Energy Equine CONDITIONING/TRAINING: Keeping him soft. “He’s a stiffer style so I do a lot of roundpen-ing and slow work.” Since she’s staying in Claresholm to run Archie at Royal Crown Canada this weekend, she’s plans on doing her slow work while riding in draw reins to keep him soft since she doesn’t have a round pen available.

SPONSORS: Vault Construction, Back On Track Canada, Frontier Western Shop, Vetline Equine Canada, RenoVo Amnion Solutions, Zesterra by Pro Earth Animal Health, B Equine Essentials, Anchor C Performance Horses

Final Roster Announced for 2024 Womens Rodeo World Championship

In anticipation of the upcoming 2024 Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC), the world's richest women's only rodeo, taking place from May 13-18 across the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, the organization has released the final list of 172 female rodeo athletes who will be competing in the event.

The WRWC is the largest event purse in the history of women's rodeo. It will pay out $750,000 in 2024 while crowning World Champions in both the Pro and Challenger classifications in the following disciplines: team roping (heading and heeling), breakaway roping and barrel racing.

The fifth edition of the WRWC will begin inside the historic Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth from May 13-16, with the Championship Round to be held on May 18 inside AT&T Stadium, home of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, in nearby Arlington. The Championship Round, taking place alongside the 2024 PBR World Finals - Championship, will crown a WRWC event champion in each discipline, with the victors earning the lion's share of the historic $750,000 purse.

The roster is highlighted by 2023 All-Around Cowgirl, Martha Angelone (Stephenville, Texas). Angelone earned the ultimate cowgirl accolade last season by accumulating WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) leaderboard points, then putting an exclamation point on the world all-around race with an impressive showing at the 2023 WRWC. With more than $270,000 in WCRA earnings alone, Angelone is one of the winningest cowgirls in the event's history. In 2023, she won $89,400 and has a shot at another $120,000 in 2024, as she could strike in both the breakaway and team roping.

Angelone has won three WRWC titles so far. She won the first championship in 2022 in an intense breakaway roping competition, which is considered one of the most ferocious battles in WRWC history, twice invoking the tie-breaker decision en route to the title. In 2023, she won two more titles, riding supreme in both the team roping (heading) and claiming her second title as the world all-around champion.

Angelone will be joined by two-time WRWC Champion Jackie Crawford (Stephenville, Texas) in the team roping. In 2023 the duo had fans inside the historic Cowtown Coliseum on the edge of their seat as they were second to run, earning a remarkable 7.08-second time. Crawford earned nearly $63,000 in the week.

The roster will also showcase Kelsie Domer (Stephenville, Texas). In 2023, Domer's grit and determination were evident before the Texas resident even stepped foot inside Cowtown Coliseum, giving birth to her daughter Oaklynn just a few months prior.

Domer advanced to the 2023 WRWC by earning one of the two coveted berths via the Last Chance Qualifier (LCQ), Domer earned first-place in the LCQ by a slim one-hundredth of a second.

She continued to make waves throughout the event, continuing to turn heads as she advanced to the Championship Round. Backing into the box last, only needing to make a clean run fewer than 4.47 seconds, Domer delivered a groundbreaking performance, as the string broke away from her saddle horn at an impressive 2.16-second time. Domer was presented her event championship check with her daughter, walking away from the event with $61,000.

Cheyenne Wimberly (Stephenville, Texas) will again headline the 2024 WRWC roster in barrel racing. After two arena records were broken, barrel racing was a shootout for the $60,000 event champion in 2023. After making her WRWC debut as an event alternate on the pro leaderboard, Wimberly's jaw-dropping 13.105 push through the Cowtown Coliseum course propelled her to the top, earning her the title of 2023 WRWC barrel racing event champion.

In addition to the 172 qualified athletes from the W24 leaderboard and Qualifier Series Generic Qualifications, cowgirls from around the nation will compete at APHA's (American Paint Horse Associations) Cowgirl Gathering May 9 - 12 in Fort Worth, Texas. Cowgirl Gathering will serve as WRWC's Last Chance Qualifier and give up to 64 athletes the opportunity to earn a qualification to the richest week of women's rodeo. All athletes competing at the Cowgirl Gathering can enter the WRWC Last Chance Qualifier in the NextGen Rodeo App.

Each WRWC event champion will earn a minimum $60,000, while the All-Around Champion will collect a $20,000 bonus. The WRWC is a culmination of a year-long race of women's rodeo events worldwide.

Fans will be able to watch the action daily on Cowgirl Channel, Cowboy Channel,

Cinch Playoffs & Battle For Governors Cup Scheduled

Cinch Playoffs and the Battle for the Governor's Cup is the culmination of the most prestigious event series - the Playoff Series - on PRCA's regular season trail.

The PRCA, the State of South Dakota, Experience Sioux Falls and Cinch bring you the richest rodeo in South Dakota history, the Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup, Sept. 26-28, at the Denny Sanford PREMIER Center.

The Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup provides one last opportunity for ProRodeo athletes to punch their tickets to the National Finals Rodeo.

Happening the last week of the rodeo season, the Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup will once again include the top four from each event from the Cinch Playoffs in Puyallup, Wash., which takes place Sept. 5-8, and the top eight out of the Playoff Series standings.

The Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup will pay out more than $1.3 million in three days.

In 2023, the inaugural event was a fight to the finish and one last shot for contestants to make the National Finals Rodeo.

Rorey Lemmel, the general manager of the Cinch Playoffs, knows how important the Sioux Falls rodeo is to contestants.

"The Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup changed how you have to rodeo," Lemmel said.

"Prior to Sioux Falls, you were safe in a Top 15 spot in September, now you can come back from the top 100 and still get into the NFR. No one is safe to get to Las Vegas until the Governor's Cup has its say."

Once again fans will see the best in ProRodeo compete in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing, bull riding, and breakaway roping at the Denny Sanford PREMIER Center. Sept. 26-28. Get your tickets now at cinchplayoffs.com or by visiting ticketmaster.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever heard the term, 'heroes of the faith'? Hebrews 11 talks about men and women who proved their 'over and above' faith. Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah and others are listed there.

It made me think that you and I could be heroes of the faith in this generation. Do you have heroes? Is there someone, or lots of someone's that you look up to? That you respect?

How about this. I believe that there are people that look up to you that you don't even know. Maybe they admire your classy attitude or your willingness to help. It could be your horsemanship. Do they admire your good sportsmanship, your attitude, your excellence. Maybe they overheard you in a conversation and admired you for saying nice things about a fellow competitor. Maybe they want to be like you...

I hope that's all of us. None of us are perfect for sure. But we do represent Jesus. We should take that very seriously. This week, let's consider what we put on Facebook. What we say. How we act when things don't go as planned.

Let's let our light shine in adversity. Be a hero.
