Segelke & Rascal Top Beef Empire Days

By Tanya Randall

The full slate of summer rodeos is well underway with multiple high-paying rodeos available across the country. Paxton Segelke and HPQ Smokin Rascal picked up the largest check offered this past weekend when they topped the $4,600-added Beef Empire Days, June 5-7, in Garden City, Kansas.

Segelke, Synder, Colo., collected $2,438 of the $12,192 total purse for her run of 17.06 in the rodeo's first performance on Thursday night.

"I couldn't fault it anywhere," said Segelke, 20, of her run. "Rascal has been working outstanding here lately. It was pretty fun."

She originally drew fourth position, but with turnouts, moved up to second on the ground. Thanks to all the rain the night before and proper planning by the rodeo committee, the footing was safe and fast.

"It had rained quite a bit before slack the night before, but that committee worked the ground really well," she said. "They had gone in and flattened it so the rain would just run off it. They did a great job there."

Though more common in Kansas and Oklahoma, twisters wrought havoc on rodeos in New Mexico and Colorado. Contestants were forced to outrun tornados at Clovis, New Mexico, and Elizabeth, Colo.

Segelke and her sister Hayden, 21, were right in the middle of it at the $2,300-added Elizabeth Stampede, June 7-8. Segelke was out in the Sunday performance that got evacuated and postponed due to extreme weather.

"They evacuated everyone about 12:30," she explained. "There was no option of staying. They kicked everyone out and postponed the rodeo about three hours. It was supposed to start at 2 and it didn't start until 5. They just told everyone to head south, so that's what we did. We went on a county road south until the pavement ended and stopped and hung out for a while. It was entertaining for sure, but we were all safe."

They returned to an arena of standing water.

"Everyone was going in there safety-ing up, and I was so far back I couldn't really see," she explained. "My sister Hayden was up there, she was like 'it's good, just go for it.' I had told myself that I'd just coast him through, but Rascal doesn't have a 'coast.' It's all or nothing, every single time. I just let him do his deal on the first. When he inhaled his first, I was like this stuff is fine and I just went for it."

Segelke finished third, earning $1,351 of the $8,923 total purse. C.J. Vondette of Rifle, Colo., topped the rodeo for $1,891 and currently leads Segelke in the Mountain States Circuit Standings.

Even though she just went to these two rodeos over the past weekend, Segelke plans on having a busy summer, concentrating on the bigger rodeos in her circuit and few outside of it.

"I'm going pretty hard," said Segelke, who will return to her marketing studies at Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, Colo., in the fall.

While her sister Hayden will be competing at the College National Finals Rodeo in Casper, Wyo., in the goat tying, Paxton will be running barrels at the Reno Rodeo with Rascal.

By Una Frio Cerveza, the late Dash Ta Fame, Twaynas Dash stallion the Segelke family owned, Rascal is out of WPRA Divisional Tour Finals Champion Miss Smokin Annie, by Fols Smoke. The 8-year-old gelding has had a storied career, carrying Christy Loflin at the 2012 National Finals Rodeo, helping Jane Melby wrap up her 2013 NFR qualification and earning checks for 2013 NFR qualifier Shada Brazile at the 2014 winter rodeos.

"Rascal belongs to mom Vickie," said Segelke, who wanted to thank her family for their support and Dr. Joe Strickland for keeping Rascal sound. "Hayden had him and broke him and trained him

The Top 10 in The American Qualifier at this event move on to the Semi-Finals.

Tonalist tarnishes California Chrome's bid for crown

Heavily favored California Chrome was defeated at Belmont Park in his bid for the Triple Crown. But the race's real loser turned out to be the colt's co-owner Steve Coburn, who held forth in a post race interview about the unfairness of the Triple Crown venue, proving that his Dumb Ass Racing Partnership is well named.

Meanwhile Robert Evans, owner of Tonalist, winner, at 11-1 by a head over Commissioner, recalled, when asked, the reaction of his father, Thomas Mellon Evans, when Pleasant Colony, owned by the elder Evans lost the 1981 Belmont Stakes, after wins in the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness Stakes.

"He was very quiet for a long time," said Evans.

California Chrome, who seemed a well-positioned fourth on the outside in the stretch, was unable to muster a winning surge and tied for fourth, 1½ lengths back, in a deadheat with Wicked Strong. Medal Count finished third by a length.

"He's fine," Espinoza told Donna Brothers, after he the race. "He just didn't have it in him today."

Tonalist and Commissioner last raced and finished one-two in the Peter Pan Stakes at Belmont Park on May 10. The Belmont was Tonalist's third win and fourth start in 2014 and broke California Chrome's six-win streak. The Belmont was California Chrome's sixth start in 2014.

Tonalist, trained by Christophe Clement and ridden by Joel Rosario, 29, who won the 2013 Kentucky Derby aboard Orb, is out of a daughter of Pleasant Colony and sired by Tapit, who commands a $150,000 stud fee at Gainesway Farm in Lexington, Ky.

and everything. She ran him last fall at the college rodeos. Hayden likes to train colts. That's her passion. He needed to go so she gave him to me to run. She just wants to see her horses do well and I'm trying to do that for her.

"He's a family horse for sure."

I am currently hauling futurity colts, derby horses, and competing in rodeos every weekend. Oxy Fluidity has become an essential part of my feeding program. I give 20 cc every week and 10 cc before I run on all my horses. It is very nice not to have to worry about your horses getting sore from injections because Oxy Fluidity is an oral paste. It is fast acting and provides so much relief for my horses when I know they are a little sore after a weekend of competing. I have seen such great results with this product I even take it myself!

Kali Jo Parker & Tuneful Sweep Idaho Barrel Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kali Jo Parker and her talented 5-year-old mare Tuneful (“Bonet”) have been extremely tough to beat at the Intermountain West futurities.

“If we keep the barrels up, she tends to win the futurity,” laughed Parker, a professional barrel racer and trainer from Wendell, Idaho. Together the duo have swept the Salty Dash Futurity, set an arena record en route to the Eastern Idaho Futurity Championship, won the Magic Valley Futurity and just this past weekend, swept the $3,500-added Idaho Barrel Futurity, held June 6-7 in Nampa.

“The first run I actually lost my stirrup on the first barrel and didn’t have it the whole entire run, so I just hoped I didn’t fall off,” she said. “(Sunday) she made really flawless run. She tried really hard for me. She feels pretty solid for being a baby.”

Their weekend was worth $3,336.

Bred and raced by Ed Allred, Bonet (pronounced Bo-NAY) lit the board three of her seven starts at Los Alamitos, but never broke her maiden. She was purchased by Carl Cottle, who put some time on the mare before handing her over to his granddaughter Cassidy Quinn. Cody Hyde and Buffy Walchli also trained on the mare before Cottle sent her to Parker in January.

“She had a good foundation on her when I got her,” noted Parker, who is sponsored by Silver Lining Herbs and Stan and Colette Born’s ShuFly Arena in Gooding, Idaho. “They wanted me to finish her out and futurity her. They wanted to sell her, and of course, I ended up buying her because I kinda liked her.”

Bonet is by Bono Jazz, a son of Jazzing Hi, by Merridoc. She is out of Thinking Dash, a daughter of Pritzi Dash, who sired several nice barrel horses for Danyelle Campbell, including Pritzi Maker that helped her make her last National Finals Rodeo appearance. Thinking Dash is out of a Chicks Beduino, Shawne Bug mare.

In addition to their futurity championships, Bonet and Parker have go-round victories at the Valley Girls Barrel Daze, Utah Futurity and Southwest Desert Classic. They tipped in the second go of each event.

“She doesn’t do anything bad,” said Parker. “She just hips them leaving. She just tries really hard.”

Parker has no big plans for Bonet until this fall, saying she wanted to plan for the long-run.

"I chose to not to go the Red Desert Classic," she said. "I'm going to run her in a slot race this weekend at the Dash For Dollars in Ogden. After that I plan on laying low with her for a little bit. I might run her at a few slacks this summer. I don't want to do too much with her at the rodeos because I don't want to take her confidence away from her. You never know what kind of ground you're going to get and I want to keep her liking it.

"So far this fall, I've paid into the Fizz Bomb and Barrel Of Gold. I might go to Copper Spring. People have been telling me I need to go to Jud Little's and the JB Futurity, so I've been thinking about that."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We appreciate you and pray God bless you above all you can ask or think! I don't know about you, but if you meditate that last phrase, it is awesome! I can ask or think a lot of things and none of them are small. So if Eph. 3:20 tells us God is able to do "exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think" then we need to focus on that! We certainly aren't going to lack.

I'm sure that the phrase "all hell broke loose" is familiar to most of us. Many of us have even said it! And early on in my life, I experienced quite a bit of it. It was just the way life was. I EXPECTED all hell to break loose. And when I read the "Murphy's Law" deal it was so funny and I agreed with it. Dumb, dumb, dumb! But I didn't know then what I know now. As time has gone by and I have spent more time in the Bible, I have learned from Matt. 12:35 that "a good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things". So I started replacing the garbage with the Word and EUREKA, good things are happening!

I knew I had finally turned the corner headed the right way when I was listening to a praise report from a friend at The Barn a few weeks ago. He shared that he had gotten laid off from his job only to have God replace it with a better one immediately! And when he finished, God said to me.....ALL HEAVEN BROKE LOOSE OVER HIS LIFE! It thrilled me from my head to my feet! Now THAT'S WHAT I'M TALKING ABOUT!! Friends, God wants all heaven breaking loose over us, all the time! We need to expect it! Agree with Eph. 3:20! If you are tempted to walk in hell breaking loose over your life, just kick the devil out and agree with God! And receive more than you can ask or think!
