Walker & CP Konea Sweep Idaho Futurity

By Julie Mankin

Just three months ago, Vauna Walker was obliterating the competition at futurities on a 4-year-old palomino colt named DTF Way Ta Fire. This spring, after she'd won more than $35,000 and the championship on him at the Diamonds and Dirt Futurity, she and her husband, Randy, sold him through Talmadge Green to one of Green's clients.

"I know they're going to take good care of him, but it was still really hard to hand that horse over to the haulers," said Walker. "He's been such a nice horse and he's so nice to be around."

When the yellow colt didn't jump right into the winner's circle at Fort Smith under Green, Walker pointed out that he was probably unaccustomed to Green's style. Not only that, but "it's pretty hard to just jump on a horse you don't know." Happily, she heard that Green placed third on him at a futurity in the Southeast just a few days ago.

Despite the champ changing hands, Walker has stayed at the top of the leaderboard like there's been no sale. She's still dominating, only now it's aboard Sheila Hill's 4-year-old sorrel filly, CP Konea. "Coco" worked well earlier this season in Arizona, and then was a little off her game in Texas in March, despite making the Diamonds and Dirt finals.

"She worked all right at Walla Walla and Pasco, but in the last month she has just come on awesome," Walker said. "It's been really fun with her. I can't complain; she's just running her little heart out."

In May, about the time of the sale of DTF Way Ta Fire, they went to the Southwestern Desert Classic Breeder's Futurity in Salina, Utah, where Coco won the first round (by six-tenths), won the second round and swept the average by a staggering full second. Her times also won the Open average, Senior 3D average and Breeder's Futurity average, giving Walker $4,886 (not including stallion incentives). The duo then placed second in the trials at Fort Smith and fourth in the finals (for $12,516) before once again winning every round at the Idaho Barrel Futurity in Caldwell, June 7-9.

"Coco is a funny little horse," Walker said. "When her anxiety's up and she knows she's about to run, she's afraid of every little mark on the pavement and every sign on the fence. But when she's headed to the first barrel, she doesn't see another thing. I haven't had that very often. She's been really a lot of fun."

Last year, the Idaho Futurity was held in August and Walker missed it due to a scheduling conflict. This time, the June date worked perfectly, and it's just four hours from her home in Pingree (near Blackfoot). In Caldwell, Coco won the first round by a full tenth with a 14.7; won the second round by another full tenth on a run of 14.8 and swept the average to earn $2,083.

"Cody Hyde, who broke and started this mare, was teasing me that I cheated," laughed Walker. "He said next time he's going to try it. At Caldwell, the gate is on the right side of the arena, so most people go in and move over to the left or circle. I knew this filly was really soft and easy to handle, so I basically ran her right through the gate with a little curve and she came right through that for me. I don't know if I would have tried that with every horse!"

Hill couldn't be in Caldwell for the big win. But when Walker called to tell her the news, she told Walker she'd been busy singing the state song. It's a bit of an inside joke.

"They give a really pretty trophy saddle with the state of Idaho on the stirrup fender, and she had told me a long time ago she really wanted one," said Walker. "Cody reminded me back then I'd made her promise never to talk to me about added money or prizes because it distracts me from what I need to think about!"

Anyway, Hill got her saddle, and she's also won plenty on her own at pro rodeos aboard Coco's full sister. She bought them both as fillies from Hyde. He and his wife, Paige, bred Crystal Cashanova to Dash Ta Fame to get the little sorrel superstar. Crystal Cashanova is by Sir Cashanova – a stallion by Dash For Cash out of a Tiny Charger daughter – and out of a dam that goes back to War Chant and Depth Charge.

"Cody later gave me Crystal Cashanova because she was old and

Segelke Looking for Repeat at CNFR

CASPER, Wyo. --- One year ago at the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR), a freshman from Northeastern Junior College dominated the women's event and captured the all-around championship. Hayden Segelke, from Snyder, Colo., competed in barrel racing and goat tying to win that title. She returned to school in Sterling, Colo., and qualified for this year's CNFR in those events again representing the Central Rocky Mountain Region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association (NIRA).

Riding her great horse Rascal, they stopped the clock in 14.36 seconds, earning a fifth place finish in the barrel racing. She then came back in the goat tying and tied for first in that event with a 6.2-second run. Her success in the Casper Events Center here so far has her in the driver's seat for the all-around championship again. Winning the first round of barrel racing was Southern Arkansas University's Leslie Jennings with a time of 14.14. Also at the top of the leaderboard in goat tying was Jessica Wood, from Sul Ross State University and Shelby Winchell from Chadron State College with 6.2 second runs.

Tarleton State University from Stephenville, Texas, is keeping up their reputation as being one of the toughest schools in the NIRA. Their tie-down roper Reese Riemer won the first round here with a 8.2-second run. Riemer was the 2012 Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Rookie of the Year. In the breakaway roping, Cadee Tew also from Tarleton had the fastest time at 2.1 seconds. Northeastern Junior College also got the win in the steer wrestling when David Hinman tied for first place in the steer wrestling. He and Jarek VanPetten from Western Oklahoma State University each had times of 4.0 seconds.

Last year's first round team roping winners are doing it again this year. Bryce Palmer and Jake Minor from Walla Walla Community College stopped the clock in 5.2 seconds. They were a full second faster than the men in second and third, Cody Kohleffel and Austin Santikos from Wharton Community College as well as Billy Bob Brown from Tarleton State University and Logan Medlin from Eastern New Mexico University who each had times of 6.2.

The second round of competition will be complete on Tuesday during slack. The first performance of the rodeo on Tuesday night is the start of the third round in all events.

PRCA Launches New Photo Website

The PRCA has launched a new website within www.prorodeo.com for members and fans to purchase rodeo images from PRCA photographers. If you missed buying your photo at a recent PRCA rodeo, you can search the website by event and purchase the photos directly from the site. This new tool allows PRCA photographers to reach a greater audience and now provides a place for fans to search for their favorite contestant and purchase one or multiple images. As the site is still in the beginning stages, please keep in mind that the list of rodeos posted is growing, so check back often. To learn more, visit prorodeophotos.com. ## Canadian Pro Rodeo is coming to your TV and computer screens

The Canadian Professional Rodeo Association is pleased to announce that it has entered into an agreement with Tanner Young Publishing Group, iLink Media Group, Edmonton Northlands, Edmonton Destination Hotels, Travel Alberta and Rogers Media Inc. to present webcast and television coverage of six Canadian Professional Rodeo events.

The program will feature a combination of webcasts and telecasts of a designated performance from each of the selected rodeos and will include live web streaming of the first five CFR performances and the national broadcast of the final CFR performance which will air LIVE on a national Rogers cable channel that is also available nationally on satellite. (Look for the live webcasts on www.rodeo-canada.com and www.cfr.ca.)

The schedule for the season broadcasts is as follows:

- Daines Ranch Rodeo - June 16
- Wainwright Stampede - June 23
- Ponoka Stampede - July 1
- Medicine Hat Stampede - July 26
- Strathmore Heritage Days Rodeo - Aug 5

The new webcast/telecast initiative promises to be an exciting step forward for Canadian rodeo as it brings the ground-pounding excitement of the sport into living rooms and onto television, computer and iPad screens from coast to coast. See www.rodeocanada.com or www.roadtothecfr.com for details.

needed special care," Walker said. "I made her comfortable and got two colts out of her by Platinum Bully, and then I gave her to Sierra Thomas, who also wanted an embryo."

Hill then purchased Walker's Platinum Bully/Crystal Cashanova 3-year-old and will have Walker run him at next year's futurities.

"He's quieter than the fillies but is a really nice colt," she said. The other full brother is just 2 and will be started this summer. Since Walker's only other 2013 futurity horse may also be sold soon, she's excited about riding her herd of exciting 3-year-olds, which include another Dash Ta Fame filly and a Darkelly colt. Sounds like bad news for the competition – and good news for interested buyers – next year, too.

Big Time at Nutralix Barrel Daze

The 2013 Nutralix Barrel Daze made it through the weekend with awesome weather. The previous rains didn't deter competitors from making the drive to the Cow Town to enjoy the 6th Annual event.

The $6,500 added barrel race drew competitors from Canada, ND, SD, WY and MT and paid out over $18,000 in prize money. The great team of the 'U' Barrel Racing Championships helped produce the event. Ross Wagner always adds a rodeo level of excitement. Joleen Cox, Billings, MT on Dr Three Ohs Flit won the Saturday race for $473. Miss Roxanne Ripley, Belle Fourche, SD on RR French Silk Pie showed up on Sunday and finished the weekend by running a 17.30 on the standard course to win the Open 4D, WPRA, and Senior races for $944.

The weekends Big winner was Kris Bartholomew, from Ismay, MT on CLG All the Money for $1370. Placing in a the Open and Senior throughout the weekend and winning the Copper Spring Ranch $1500 added Church race added to her checking account.

The Church service was inspiring, thank you to Pat Linger and Cody Ross. Beau Bandera was the recipient of $850 generously generated by the church race. The Saturday Youth was won by Canada's Kathleen Schmil on Cashback Babe. The Lee's Tire sponsored Futurity race was won by Gillette's Sue Fortner on Saturday and Broadus's Ashley Day on Sunday.

Over 90% of horses tested are low in three or four critical electrolyte minerals. A deficiency in calcium, magnesium, sodium or potassium affects anxiety, attitude, sensitivity to touch, recovery time and overall performance.

HHA
HorseHairAnalysis.com

Electrolyte minerals, copper, manganese, chromium, selenium and cobalt are all crucial to the function of muscles, tendons and ligaments. Inadequate nutrition may lead to recurring physical setbacks resulting in expensive treatment protocols (i.e. Bone Scan, IRAP, Shockwave, joint injections). The best way to improve abnormalities found with Horse Hair Analysis is through a corrective custom supplement.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you looked out and saw a lion lurking around your yard, barn and corrals, you'd take steps to get rid of it before it gave you major problems.

Well, you do whether you know it or not. God's Word in 1 Peter 5:8 warns us to "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour." Notice it doesn't say he is a roaring lion, only that he acts like one.

The devil is forever looking for ways to mess up your life because you're made in God's image. He can't get to God so he goes after you, a child of God. Jesus says in John 10:10 that the devil comes to steal, kill and destroy. But, He doesn't leave us defenseless. We have the most powerful weapons in the planet when we use the name of Jesus, quote Scripture and plead the blood of Jesus over our situation.

Jesus said He'd never leave us nor forsake us. (Hebrews 13:5) That's a pretty good assurance coming from the Creator of the universe and all things. Keep reading God's Word, pray every day and put on the full armor of God (Ephesians 6:11-17) so you'll be prepared to do battle and win over your enemy.

Our Commander and Chief is our living God. He provides for us and protects us. We should be proud to be a warrior in the army of the Lord!!
