A Championship Title for Kelly Gerber and DHR Whatta Money Man at Bonus Race Finals

By Tanya Randall

Kelly Gerber and DHR Whatta Money Man (“Dinero”) claimed the a $6,112 1D Championship at the Bonus Race Finals, held June 8-11 at the Lancaster Events Center in Lincoln, Neb.

“We’ve been reserve or third at so many big races, but we’ve finally got our big title,” said Gerber. The duo from Fairbury, Ill., were also second at last year’s Bonus Race Finals.

On their first run on Saturday, Gerber and Dinero turned in a 16.183, which ended up placing eighth for an additional $2,401.

“I didn’t run in the Open, so I could focus on the Bonus,” noted Gerber. “My first run, he blew off the third, so my goal on Sunday was to improve that barrel. On Sunday, he crowded the first and I had to hold him off of it and I thought there was no way he could recover from that. His second and third were really tight, really nice. I watched the clock all the way off the third barrel. I was shocked at the time.”

Their 16.064 had to withstand 100 more runners. After loading her trailer for the nine-hour trip home, Gerber returned to watch the last 20 runs.

“I’ve been beat before by the last two or three horses,” she admitted. “I thought if I ended up in the top five, I’d be happy because he did so well.”

Bred by Delvin and Sheryl Buhr, Dinero is by Oh Whatta Boy out of the On The Money Red mare Me And Red Money. The 11-year-old gelding was purchased from the Buhrs by Wayne Rule at the 2008 BFA Sale.

Gerber’s father Russ Ficklin had started the gelding on the pattern. When Gerber stepped on him in the summer of his third year, she knew she had to have him.

“I realized real quick that he had a lot of potential,” she said. “I knew I wanted to buy him and I finally got him bought in January of his 5-year-old year.”

As a futurity horse, Dinero mostly ran at the larger 4D races, but finished the year as a BFA World Championship Futurity Finalist and earned Gerber—then Ficklin—the Future Fortunes Rookie Championship for first-time BFA contestants riding a Future Fortunes horse.

Since then, a lot has happened in Gerber’s life—“I got married, moved, had a baby, changed jobs,” explained Gerber, who was a speech therapist for 12 years before getting her real estate license after the birth of her daughter 3-year-old daughter, Josey. “He got big chunks of time off, but he continued to go and place.”

In late 2014, Dinero suffered a stress fracture in his hock and

NFR Qualifier, Sheza Smooth Flight, laid to rest

Last Monday, June 5, Pamela Capper had to say goodbye to her great 2016 NFR Qualifying mare, Sheza Smooth Flight. Better known as Jesse, Sheza Smooth Flight was a daughter of Dinner Flight out of Lady Lasmooth the Smooth Move mare. The pair was dynamite, winning the Columbia River Circuit and qualifying to the RNCFR 5 years in a row from 2011-2015 and were just about unbeatable in the Northwest. In 2016 the pair made a bigger circle and qualified for their 1st NFR where they won a whopping $84,461. Below is a post from Pamela Capper - Barrel Racer's page:

"A person doesn't know what each day may bring or the path the Lord has planned for our lives.

Last Monday, I had to make the tough decision to say goodbye to my beloved Jesse. The veterinarians diagnosed she was bleeding internally. All efforts were made to stop it, but surgery would not have been successful.

Jesse was such a large part of our family. When Jesse was born, I knew she was going to be great. Barrel racing came naturally to her and she loved competing. Jesse always did her best, despite what pain may have been bothering her. She had the heart of a champion, and took me to heights I would have never imagined.

Thanks to her, I got the opportunity to travel to rodeos all over this beautiful country we live in. Jesse excelled at both big outdoor arenas as well as smaller indoor pens. Not many horses are equally good at both, so I was very blessed. She was an amazing athlete & her and I shared a bond that was indescribable.

Jesse was taken from our family too soon, but I thank God that I was able to get her home to rest in peace in the place she was born. Jesse forever changed my life for the better."

Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this Pamela.... Jesse was truly a special talent.

AQHA Medication Ban Held For Review

The Association and Executive Committee are committed to the welfare of the horse.

While the American Quarter Horse Association recognizes the therapeutic benefits of the drug furosemide, commonly known as Lasix, to help mitigate the occurrence of exercise-induced pulmonary hemorrhage (EIPH) in racehorses, the AQHA Executive Committee recently asked the AQHA Animal Welfare Commission to review the proposed prohibition of Lasix for show horses, set to be effective as of January 1, 2018.

Balancing the use of therapeutic medication for the welfare of the horse in different types of competition, such as racing and showing, while minimizing or eliminating performance-enhancing properties of medication compounds has been a challenge in the equine industry.

Lasix has been endorsed by several equine groups and the American Association of Equine Practitioners to lessen the occurrence of EIPH in racehorses. Consistent with such groups, AQHA opposed the latest version of the newly introduced Horseracing Integrity Act of 2017, which would eliminate all race-day medications, including Lasix in racehorses.

The Association and Executive Committee are committed to the welfare of the horse and look forward to receiving additional input from the AQHA Animal Welfare Commission regarding the proposed prohibition of Lasix across all disciplines of show horses, including whether disciplines that may have a higher incidence of EIPH warrant different Lasix policies.

In the interim, the current rule change will be held for review, and the final decision of the Executive Committee regarding Lasix usage in show horses will be announced on AQHA.com after the investigation is concluded.

was before. I was a disaster that year.”

Dinero’s career has largely been regulated to the larger 4Ds, although Gerber would like to take the gelding to more rodeos. “He’s basically run his whole life inside at the big races,” she said. “He’s not seasoned outside. I’ve just stuck to places that I know he’ll excel.”

Dinero is going to get a little break while Gerber takes on her 4-year-old Whos Fame to some of the closer futurities in her area. Dinero will go when there’s a bigger open race included.

“He’s a very special horse to me,” she said. “He’s so powerful. He’s honest. He might not always win, but he always places. He’s consistent. His times are always so close together. He has a big heart and a crazy personality. He’s a very special horse to my dad too; he thinks of him as his own.”

Gerber wanted to thank her parents, Russ and Judy for their love and support, her husband Will, who makes it possible for her to go to the larger races, as well as Dinero’s veterinarian and farrier.

Jacie Etbauer & Whistles Spirit Set Pace in Bonus Race Finals Open

By Tanya Randall

Jacie Etbauer of Edmond, Okla., and Whistles Spirit topped the $10,000-added Open at the Bonus Race Finals, held June 8-11 at the Lancaster Events Center in Lincoln, Neb. The 18-year-old and her trio of home-bred and trained horses left with $4,089 after making 11 runs on the weekend.

All three of her horses carry the blood of her family's late stallion No Whistle, a grandson of the Thoroughbred Noholme out of a Tonto Bars Gill daughter.

Open race winner Spirit, a 14-year-old mare, is out of Luci Belle Lee, a daughter of Skip Light Lee out of a daughter of Mighty Deck, that her parents purchased from their neighbors. She's the more challenging of the three to run.

"You don't have to kick her super hard, but she's push-style. She's definitely not a free-runner," said Etbauer.

She and Spirit placed 16th in the 1D on their first run of 14.068 in the Open and won it on their second with a 13.813 for total earnings of $2,721.

"She just went out there and worked," she added. "She ran harder on her second run. She just worked a perfect pattern."

Etbauer placed 11th in the 1D in Open on the mare's three-quarter brother Sizzle Whistle for $676. Sizzle, a 10-year-old gelding, is by the No Whistle son Whistle At The Babes, a half-brother to Canadian Pro Rodeo Champion Lady Perks, out of Luci Belle Lee.

Her third horse was I Be Whistlin ("Farrah"), who placed 19th in the 1D in the Bonus Race. Farrah, a 9-year-old mare, is by Whistle At The Babes out of Chanceys Whisper, by Vanzi Cherry Heels.

"She's actually my dad and Treg's heel horse," laughed Etbauer. "I had to get permission to bring her. Usually we don't get to take her too many places."

Etbauer, who was homeschooled, completed her studies this year and is taking a year off from educational activities to figure out her future path. In the meantime, she has colts to break and rodeos and jackpots to attend. The rookie cardholder in the WPRA will go to a few rodeos in the Prairie Circuit.

Simple Solutions, Scientifically Proven®

"East Texas heat and humidity is brutal, especially during the summer months. That is why I keep Firewater on the rocks and my horses in training on Summer Games Electrolyte year around to replace minerals lost in sweat and to encourage drinking."

—Robyn Herring, WPRR barrel racer and owner of the million-dollar sire Firewater on the rocks

CHALLENGE:

- Competing in hot, humid climates
- Dehydration
- Lack of stamina in hot weather
- Non-sweater
- Poor drinker when shipping or competing
- Prone to tying-up

SOLUTION:

Summer Games® Electrolyte

Summer Games
research-proven formula:

- Encourages drinking
- Maintains energy levels and reduces muscle fatigue
- Replenishes key electrolytes and trace minerals
- Supports electrolyte balance, reducing the risk of dehydration, non-sweating and tying-up

Magnificent Melby Takes Sisters by Storm

By Hope Sickler

Sisters, Oregon celebrated their 77th Annual Sisters Rodeo this past weekend and the rodeo championship there is still just as illustrious as it was on the day it was established in 1940. It was the era when life still moved at an enjoyable pace and wasn't as complicated as it is today. Amateur and professional cowboys wore homemade cloth squares hand painted with numbers pinned to their backs and patiently waited for their chosen event. The cowboy driven small-town rodeo offered purses of $500 which was, at that time, equal to the purses in Cheyenne and Pendleton, and because of that, the cowboys tagged Sisters Rodeo "The Biggest Little Show in the World."

77 years later the Sisters Rodeo is going stronger than ever and is considered one of the must-attend-rodeos on any cowboy and cowgirl's bucket list. One thing that makes Sisters Rodeo so special is that the rodeo is an all-volunteer production, a tradition that has not changed over the years.

The women's barrel race has always been a fan favorite and this year it was former NFR qualifier Jane Melby who left the small, quaint town with top honors. Melby rode new mount, Perks Pazazz, to victory, and if you are a Melby fan, you will see some very distinct resemblance in the new mare compared to her former NFR dance partners.

"I had someone tell me once that anyone can make the NFR but if you can make it three different times on three different horses, you are a cowgirl," explained Melby. "That always stood out in the back of my mind and my inside joke to myself was if I could find another black horse, I would make the NFR again."

You see, Melby's first two horses she made the NFR on were both black; RC Back In Black and First Down Perk. In the middle of March, good friend Nicole Monroe sent a text to Melby saying she had found the next perfect black horse to add to her loaded arsenal.

"Cayla happened to be on her way to Montgomery, Alabama for the rodeo, which made it very convenient for us to look at the mare and decide if she would be a fit. Long story short, she was the perfect fit," laughed Melby.

The 7-year-old daughter of Dash For Perks was a standout horse with Mendy Williams and was still winning under the guidance of Nicole Love when Melby got word of the talented mare.

Melby first traveled to Sisters in 2002 and had luck there back in 2011 on RC Back In Black where they finished second. Having entered in the slack this year, Melby prayed that she would draw in the beginning of slack. Her prayers were answered and she drew 3rd out on the ground.

"I was so happy when I got my callback. The rodeo is generally won in a performance due to the ground having more moisture and staying firm, so when I found out I had drawn good I was ecstatic!" Melby and Perks Pazazz lit the arena up with a smokin' fast time of 17.39 and when the announcer called out Melby's time, she had a little déjà vu.

"Perks let me handle her perfectly. I had a super-fast first barrel, we tripped going into the second barrel which made me ride hard to have that perfect third barrel, and she nailed it. When I heard my time, I felt like I had another RC Back In Black underneath me. It was a great feeling," Melby said.

Sisters starts the summer run for her and this year most of the horses that Melby will be riding do not have any rodeo experience, which most know can be very challenging at times.

"Everything can be a challenge with unseasoned rodeo horses from eating, teaching them how to rest, roll, etc. The trailer has to become their barn and my house."

Melby carries everything she thinks she could possibly need in her house on wheels, just in case of an emergency.

"I am a pack-rat and it takes me days to make sure that I have everything. I watch my horses very closely to figure out what they like and what makes them comfortable. Any issues that can be prevented, you don't have to fix later," explained Melby.

When Melby made the NFR a few years ago, she had $30-40,000 won by now, which she does not have at this current time. However, that is not stopping Melby from giving it a go.

"Cayla and I were reading an article that said that Stevi Hillman had $15,000 won at Reno time last year. I have $16,000 won as of right now so my plans are to follow Stevi's plan and make the finals. I will be traveling with my daughter Cayla off and on and I also have a driver, Belinda Wheeler, thanks to Dufur Quarter Horses. So, we will see what the rest of the year brings, but I am hopeful!"

Headin' For Home

“Classic” by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We appreciate you and pray God bless you above all you can ask or think! I don't know about you, but if you meditate that last phrase, it is awesome! I can ask or think a lot of things and none of them are small. So if Eph. 3:20 tells us God is able to do “exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think”.. then we need to focus on that! We certainly aren't going to lack.

I'm sure that the phrase “all hell broke loose” is familiar to most of us. Many of us have even said it! And early on in my life, I experienced quite a bit of it. It was just the way life was. I EXPECTED all hell to break loose. And when I read the “Murphy's Law” deal it was so funny and I agreed with it. Dumb, dumb, dumb! But I didn't know then what I know now. As time has gone by and I have spent more time in the Bible, I have learned from Matt. 12:35 that “a good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things”. So I started replacing the garbage with the Word and EUREKA, good things are happening!

I knew I had finally turned the corner headed the right way when

I was listening to a praise report from a friend at The Barn a few weeks ago. He shared that he had gotten laid off from his job only to have God replace it with a better one immediately! And when he finished, God said to me...ALL HEAVEN BROKE LOOSE OVER HIS LIFE! It thrilled me from my head to my feet! Now THAT'S WHAT I'M TALKING ABOUT!! Friends, God wants all heaven breaking loose over us, all the time! We need to expect it! Agree with Eph. 3:20! If you are tempted to walk in hell breaking loose over your life, just kick the devil out and agree with God! And receive more than you can ask or think!
