Smoke N Sunshine & Kathy Korell-Rach Set Pace at Bonus Race Finals

By Tanya Randall

Kathy Korell-Rach and her family-raised superstar Smoke N Sunshine captured the second major championship in less than two months with a $6,329 championship at the Bonus Race Finals in Lincoln, Neb. The psychologist from Loveland, Colo., also placed twice in the 1D with Tell Me Im Smoke N ("Telly") for total earnings of $10,285.

"It's such a monumental thing for me," said Korell-Rach in a trembling voice. "I know other people have won back-to-back big things, but for little me, it's a huge accomplishment. I think about everything that led to me having her—having great mares and then having everything fall apart and then having her show up because no one wanted her. I really do believe—know—that God was clearing my plate so I could pay attention to her. I don't know that I would have had the success that we've had if those other mares had still been running tough. I'm very thankful that God has the sight that I don't because I went from being really devastated two years to this and not having words to express how grateful I am."

Both Shine, 6, and Telly, 9, are products of her parents Gerald and Iva Korrell's breeding program in Riverton, Wyo. They are both by Smoke N Sparks. Shine is out of Runaway Frenchgirl, by Frenchmans Guy, and Telly is out of Tell Me Im Dreaming, by Bully Bullion. Incidentally, Shine's 5-year-old full sister Smoke N Win, owned and ridden by Timmi Ward, won reserve at the Dash For Dollars Futurity in Ogden, Utah, this weekend as well.

Korell-Rach said both her mares are a testament to her family's program and their stallion. She added that her father has no plans to freeze semen so when Smoke N Sparks is gone there will be no more.

Korell-Rach, who just ran in the Bonus Race on Saturday and Sunday, ran Telly first.

"She ran a .58 and I was super happy with that," she said of her run on Saturday. "I was just really impressed. At the time that she ran she was tied for second and third and I was kind of in shock. I knew that she was good, but she wasn't quite at that level yet."

Shine followed with a spectacular run. "I knew that she was making a run," she said. "She meant business. First was super close. Second was the closest barrel I've ever had in my life. I thought I'm going to safety up and make sure we leave the third up because I knew she was going to have a fast time. We had a little bobble on third because I held her an extra stride, but it ended up being a $6,000 decision."

"On Sunday, her time had still held through the end of the runs on Saturday, so I thought well, I'm just going to go for broke and let her turn as tight as she wants and we clipped first. That's just how it goes. That was maybe not the best decision on my part, but it was worth it to take the chance."

Telly improved on her second run to capture both 12th and 6th place checks.

"Out of two horses and four runs, I got three 1D checks out of 1600 entries," she said. "I'm pretty happy."

Shine had only made two runs since her BBR World Finals Championship at the end of April. After failing to draw checks on two runs Memorial Weekend, Korell-Rach took Shine to Dr. Joe Strickland for some maintenance.

"He fixed her," Korell-Rach laughed.

Ever gracious, Korell-Rach wanted to thank Strickland, along with her farrier Jason Collins, her chiropractor Dr. Dave McClain, her husband Gabriel and her parents as well as sponsors Forco, EZ Groomer and TL Copper Designs.

Texas 4-H Receives More Than A Million Dollars

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo awarded 70 Texas 4-H members with $1.26 million in scholarships during the Texas 4-H Roundup in College Station, Texas, Thursday, June 9. Texas 4-H selected the students, who will each receive a Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo $18,000, four-year scholarship.

“Texas 4-H prepares students to be mindful of agriculture and to know the importance of education, and they’ll carry these values with them, regardless of their future endeavors,” said Joel Cowley, Show president and CEO. “That makes this scholarship program a special tradition for both organizations.”

Texas 4-H is one of the Show’s oldest scholarship programs, with the first scholarship awarded in 1957. Since then, Texas 4-H members have received more than 2,270 scholarships from the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

The 70 scholarships awarded at the 2016 Roundup represent just a portion of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo’s 2016 educational commitment of nearly $26 million to scholarships, research, endowments, calf scramble participants, junior show exhibitors, School Art participants and other educational programs.

These scholars will have another opportunity in their college careers to receive additional financial support through the Show’s Achievement Scholarship Program. The program allows college students currently receiving Show scholarships to apply for an additional $4,000 per semester, for up to four semesters of their junior and senior years of undergraduate studies. The Achievement Scholarships allow each student the possibility of receiving a maximum of $34,000 in scholarships from the Show.

For more information on the Show’s educational support, visit rodeohouston.com/AboutUs/EducationalSupport.

Former PRCA Bull Rider Catches Thief

Robert Borba, a former PRCA bull rider, put his cowboy skills to good use last week when he roped a would-be bike thief. Borba, 28, was outside a Walmart in Eagle Point, Ore., when he heard cries for help coming from a woman whose bike was being stolen. Borba quickly got his horse, Long John, out of the trailer he was hauling and grabbed a rope. Borba lassoed the man around the legs and when he dropped, Borba dragged him to one end of the parking lot, where he held the thief until police arrived. “I use a rope every day, that’s how I make my living,” Borba said. “If it catches cattle pretty good, it catches a bandit pretty good.” Courtesy of www.ProRodeo.com

She also appreciated the support of her fellow barrel racers.

"I've been really taken aback by the support I've received from other barrel racers," she said. "To have other people be genuinely happy for me is a really special thing."

Next on tap for Korell-Rach is the Colorado Classic Derby for Shine and then she has the qualifier for the Colorado Springs pro rodeo and the Greeley Independence Stampede.

Pro Rodeo Hat Trick for Emily Miller & Namgis D 35

By Tanya Randall

Recent dental hygiene graduate Emily Miller of Weatherford, Okla., won three and placed at one of the six pro rodeos she entered over the second weekend of June, picking up $7,463.77.

She and her 6-year-old gelding Namgis D 35 ("Pipewrench") won Garden City, Kansas, for $2,080.59, Ponca City, Okla., for $1,448.91 and Gladewater, Texas, for $2,057.66. They also placed third Weatherford, Texas, for an additional $1,876.61.

"We started at Garden City, which is my hometown rodeo, in slack Thursday morning," said Miller, who is currently $301 behind Mary Burger for the Prairie Circuit lead. "I know Garden City like the back of my hand. I've been in that arena 1,000 times, but unfortunately it's been a tough rodeo for me. I had never won a check there. It was such a relief to get something done there in front of my family and friends."

Thursday evening, Miller and Pipewrench ran in the performance at Ponca City.

"He was awesome," she said. "His run at Garden City was great and it clocked better on a (WPRA) Standard (Pattern) than at Ponca. But at Ponca, he clocked a .38 that Thursday night and the closest thing to him that night was an .85, and that included the runs in slack after. That might have been my favorite run of the whole trip. It was really fun. He was flawless that night."

Pipewrench's next run was Saturday morning slack in Weatherford, Texas.

"I honestly wasn't going to run him," she said. "I was last on the ground, but I had four people tell me that he could handle it. I went ahead and ran him. He handled the ground really good. I know that committee tries really hard. I know that Jana Bean was toward the bottom too and that was first and third, so that says something right there."

They ran again that night to win Gladewater.

"He had Friday off, but he had two runs Thursday and two runs Saturday," she said. "He was a busy boy."

At Cleburne and Coleman, Texas, she ran Money Is N Firewater ("Benny"), a 5-year-old gelding that she got in on trade when she sold Rare Bugs Alive.

"He made respectable runs at both places," she said of Benny. "I think he would have placed at Cleburne, but he tipped. No money on him, but those were his first two rodeo outs, so I was really pleased with him.”

Last July, Miller’s two older rodeo horses went down with injuries so she was facing turnout fines for her upcoming rodeos. She took a chance and asked Kylie (Ward) Weast if she would consider leasing Namgis D 15 (“Wolfie”) to her for the pro rodeo at Woodward, Okla.

“I really just needed one more good check to be in good at the (Prairie) Circuit Finals,” said Miller. “My horses were going to be out until Elk City, which was Labor Day weekend. (Kylie) said she wouldn’t lease Wolfie, but she had a couple of 5-year-olds of Stan’s (Sigman—their breeder and owner) they were trying to sell.”

Miller ended up bringing home Pipewrench, who just happens to be Wolfie’s full brother. Both horses are by Bucks Hancock Dude out of Central Station, a First Down Dash, Merridoc mare.

Pipewrench’s first pro rodeo with Miller was Abilene, Kansas.

“He didn’t have the big record that his brother did, but he was very solid,” said Miller. “He was very, very well-trained. He was easy for me to jump on. I just got on him and treated him like an open horse.

“The first rodeo I won on him was Sidney, Iowa, and the first barrel is 100-something feet off the fence. When he went out there and won that, I thought, ‘Alright, we have a rodeo horse!’ I’m really looking forward to running him at Cheyenne. I’ve been really blessed to ride some good horses, but there is something that’s pretty special about him. He makes my job very, very easy.”

Now that she’s finished with school, Miller plans on rodeoing until August before starting her non-horse career.

“I’m going to go for a little while,” said Miller. “I’m not going to haul the wheels off of Pipewrench. I’m going to go as much as I can over the summer, but I don’t know how much I’ll be able to go after Dodge City and that whole run at the beginning, middle of August.”

She’s entered in North Platte, Neb., this weekend, and has a few rodeos to make on circle trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., that includes Springdale, Ark., Pecos, Texas, and Santa Fe, N.M.

“I’m jumping in with Ari-Anna Flynn and we’re going to try to hit the Dakotas, Cody (Wyo.) and stuff,” said Miller, who wanted to thank the Youree-Ward family for making Pipewrench, her parents Tom and Margaret Miller and her hauling partner for the weekend Dusta Kimzey. “I’m just taking it one run at a time and enjoying every minute of it.”

Jud Little-breeds dominate Kissimmee

Mary Walker, the 2012 WPRA World Champion from Ennis, Texas, and Benette Little, a three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Ardmore, Okla., took the top two spots at the Wrangler Champions Challenge in Kissimmee, Fla. Both ladies were riding horses bred by Little’s famed husband Jud.

Walker was riding A Frosty Please ("Bojangles") to the $4,284 victory.

"He did so good," said Walker. "I'm so proud of him. I was really excited. I had left him home because I needed him in Kissimmee. Bryon has been riding him every day keeping him in shape. Abby Penson, she's such a great person, she hauled him out to Kissimmee for me."

Walker's world champion Perculatin ("Latte") stayed out west. In fact, she placed on the gelding at Cedar City and Delta, Utah, before flying to Florida. Now she's tasked with getting Bojangles a ride out west to join Latte in Reno.

Bojangles, a 6-year-old gelding is by Little's homebred stallion Bug In My Frosty out of Dash Ta Please, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame who is a full-sister to the late leading barrel horse sire Famous JR. Walker purchased the gelding sight-unseen as a 3-year-old out of Little's 2013 Production Sale on the advice of her friend Billy Phriss, who had been riding the colt.

"I left him with him for another couple of months to get him really broke and then I brought him home and tinkered with him," said Walker. "I left him last year with Stacey Gates, Paul Humphreys' sister, and told her just haul him to every rodeo you can get him to. She brought him to me at Cheyenne and I ran him there in the Cinch Shootout. Most of the time he's just been in the trailer babysitting Latte."

Walker said she feels a little badly for Bojangles because he's capable of so much more than babysitter duty.

"He's a good guy," she said. "He hauls great and great to be around. He's really easy. I probably should run him some more, but it's really hard when Latte is standing there."

Walker is currently sixth in the WPRC World Standings with $44,395. She flies into Salt Lake City on Saturday to make the rodeo at Pleasant Grove, Utah. She picked up Belt, Mont., on Sunday before heading down to Reno for her run on Tuesday.

Benette Little was riding Ms Carrie Lou, who is named after her late mother-in-law. The 8-year-old mare is a daughter of legendary racehorse and sire First Down Dash out of NFR go-round winner Frosty Feelins, a daughter of Sun Frost out of Little's great mare Dynas Plain Special, who carried Janae Ward Massey to the 2003 WPRC World Championship.

Little is currently 20th in the WPRC World Standings with $27,424.86.

Moore, Telford double dip

Amber Moore of Salem, Wash., and Jesse Telford of Caldwell, Idaho, also picked up multiple pro rodeo wins over the weekend.

Moore and her tough mare CP Dark Moon ("Paige") entered just two rodeos over the weekend in her Columbia River Circuit and won both of them. She won Union, Ore., out of Friday night slack for $1,237.69, and then delighted the Saturday night crowd in Sisters, Ore., for a $4,316.48 victory.

The $5,554 weekend moved Moore to 48th in the WPRC World Standings, but she's still not ready to jump on the NFR road schedule. She and Paige, a 7-year-old daughter of Dark Kelly out of SRQH

News Highs, by On A High, will take this weekend off before heading down to the Reno Rodeo on June 22.

Barrel horse trainer Jesse Telford's been seasoning her 2015 futurity star Famous Cool Whip. She won two of the three Wilderness Circuit rodeos she entered over the weekend.

Telford and Cool Whip, a 5-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding out of Had A Kinata, by Docs Rocky Top, won Castle Dale, Utah, out of Thursday night slack, for $1,276.19 and won Delta, Utah, out of Saturday morning slack for $1,327.51. The duo hit a barrel in Cedar City, Utah.

Like Moore, Telford is off this next weekend. She left Sunday morning for Paso Robles, Calif., where her husband Jake, the 2015 National Reined Cow Horse Association's Snaffle Bit Futurity Champion, is competing in the NRCHA Derby. Telford's next rodeo is Reno on the 23rd.

She said she's already passed her original goal for the rodeo season with her young mount, so she's currently reevaluating. She added that making the Wilderness Circuit Finals with a chance to go the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo "would be awesome!"

MICHELE MCLEOD TRUSTS EQUINE 7 PRODUCTS

"I maintain all my horses on Oxy Fluidity for their joints. For pre-race I use Oxy Silver and Oxy 02 or Oxy Zen. I love how the horses run and recover without sacrificing their fire! I even give Oxy 02 in the trailer when hauling—it's been wonderful in preventing lung problems and keeping my horses fresh on the road!"

Amazing Turnout for Awesome Cause at Lynda Ottun Memorial

Lynda Ottun Memorial Barrel Race
May 28-30, 2016, Billings, MT

The 12th Annual Lynda Ottun Memorial Barrel Race was held on May 28, 29 and 30, 2016 in Billings, Montana at Miller's Horse Palace. The event is the annual fundraiser for the Lynda Ottun Memorial Association which has set up a crisis fund to help rodeo and ranching families in our community who are facing needs varying from injuries to illnesses. The event was a success with a great time had by all with a variety of events going on from a silent auction, spaghetti dinner, Calcutta, and dog races to the Contestant Social put on by Miller's Horse Palace. The hospitality of the Miller's is second to none.

The main event, of course, was the barrel race. Saturday's Open 1D was won by Heather Knerr on Dashing French Charm with a 14.153. The 2D was won by Alta Williams, the 3D by Isabelle Heiken, and the 4D by Nikole Joseph. The Saturday WPRM Permit Race was won by Callie Wollenberg on Pinc Peppys. Sunday's Open 1D was won by Paige Moore on HC Doc Berts Money with the fast time of the weekend of a 13.826.

Winning the 2D was Megan McGinley, the 3D was Laurie Johnson on Lily and the 4D was Laurie Johnson again on Skeeter. An Average was paid on Saturday and Sunday. The Open 1D Average was won by Heather Knerr on Dashing French Charm. The 2D average was won by Danna Willis, the 3D by Lori Vance and the 4D by Lisa Hamilton.

We had a $2000 Added Church Race with the only entry fee being attending Cowboy Church. The turnout was amazing. Winners were Paige Moore in the 1D, Megan McGinley in the 2D, Laurie Johnson in the 3D and Jen Fernandez in the 4D. Sunday night's excitement also included the awarding of the Target Race saddle and other awards.

Contestant's paid an extra $10 for the chance to be in the running for these awards, which was won by the runner with the closest times of the two days. This year the Target Race saddle was won by Leslee Kruger with a difference of 0.008. Also placing were Ellen Allemand, Payton Sorenson, Bella Fossum, Heather Knerr, Ellie Nicholson, Jen Fernandez and Katie Allen with times ranging from .008 to .049 apart. Monday's Barrel Race is a fun, unique event in that it is a Team Race. Individuals run at the money and the pre-entries are placed on teams that compete for the awards.

This year the winning team won $1500 gift certificates to Connolly's Saddlery for Trophy Saddles. Awards were given to the top 11 teams. It is a great time as everyone cheers for their teammates and the Calcutta buyers are cheering for their teams. The top team this year was Una Ford, Amber Pulst, Anna Getten and Vanessa Hardy. The girls were all excited but Holly Cowell, their Calcutta buyer was even more excited. The Open 1D was won by Paige Moore again with a 13.945, the 2D by Becky Kobielusz, the 3D by Maria Schillinger, and the 4D by Jamie Riley.

There are so many sponsors who make this event possible each and every year. The contestants who support us year after year are also so appreciated. By far the best part of the event was the tears in the eyes of one of our fellow racers who we were honored to help out after a recent barrel racing accident. It is each of these opportunities to pay it forward in the memory of a great lady that make it all worthwhile.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you haven't noticed, I like to use life experiences (or lack of) to illustrate points that help me see things from a different perspective. The old "forest for the trees" analogy. I'll rephrase that. GOD uses those things to show me ways to change my thinking on all sorts of subjects. LOL!

In Psalm 46:10, it says "Be still and know that I am God". And Isaiah 40:28-31 says in part, "those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength". Many, many, many (seriously) times, I find myself looking for answers in "doing something". If I don't get answers that I pray for right away, I'll start looking and pushing and asking and driving. Never gets me anywhere, but waiting on anything or anyone is a problem for me. And guess what? It's tiring.

So the next time you tie that young horse up, and he starts halter bumping, back and forth, back and forth or begins digging that hole to China, see yourself NOT doing the same thing!!! Be still, be patient and wait on God. He will direct your path and you will not exhaust yourself doing fruitless and unnecessary tasks! Enjoy your week!
