Cheyenne Wimberley & Royal Blue Fame Get The Win In Woodward

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo qualifier Cheyenne Wimberley got her first pro rodeo win on her home-trained mount Royal Blue Fame ("Chewy") at the $7,000-added Woodward Elks Rodeo, June 10-13 in Oklahoma. The victory was worth $4,356.

"It was exciting," said the three-time NFR qualifier from Stephenville, Texas. "I was really proud of him."

Wimberley also praised the rodeo committee for having the rodeo. "I think these committees are working really hard to keep our western heritage alive," she said. "I know it hasn't been easy for them."

Wimberley and Chewy ran in slack on Tuesday morning, June 9, posting a 17.06. Their time held throughout the rodeo, although WPRA Rookie contender Paige Jones and High Cotton Lane came with 1/100th with a 17.07.

"I love him," she said. "He has a really unique style. He's very front-endy and likes pull with his front end through his turns. I can't take credit for training that. It's just him."

Bred by Dr. Steve Hurlbert, who also owns and bred Wimberley's winning mount Dash Ta Suz, Chewy, 6, is by leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Royal Blue Chew, Mr Eye Opener mare Eyes Are Blue. Wimberley got him as a 2-year-old and futurity him as a 4-year-old.

"He's been one of the hardest horses I've ever had to train," she admitted. "A lot of people would have given up on him, but I could just feel how talented he was when I was on him."

Chewy won a check at his first futurity in Edna going to the right barrel first, but some confidence issues forced her to switch him to a lefty that summer. He came back strong earning checks at the BFA World Championships.

With her rodeo schedule, Chewy didn't get to go very much as a 5-year-old. He did, however, win an AQHA Reserve World Championship in the junior barrels with Lance Graves.

"I had qualified Chewy and wasn't going to go," Wimberley ex-

As a 6-year-old, Wimberley started introducing Chewy to the rodeos and he's won money during all five of his appearances. He placed second at the pro rodeo in Los Fresnos, Texas, and drew checks at Belton, Texas, and Starkville, Mississippi. He also placed second at the amateur rodeo in Graham before winning Woodward.

"He's done super good at the rodeos," she said. "I haven't put him in a perf yet, but I'm not sure he's ready for a perf or not."

Wimberley, who used Woodward to move from 23rd to 16th in the WPRA World Standings with $17,920, spent the COVID shut-down selling real estate and getting her 3- and 4-year-olds caught up on their training. She's going to do her best to make her second straight NFR even though the current situation makes it difficult to make long term plans to achieve that goal.

Her tentative Fourth of July run includes Oakley, Utah, on July 1, Cody, Wyoming, on July 2 and possibly Killdeer, North Dakota, that night, Belle Fourche, South Dakota, on the morning of July 3 and the back-to-back rounds at Prescott, Arizona on July 4.

In other rodeo action over the weekend, Wenda Johnson moved from 13th in the WPRA World Standings to 8th with her $2,801 victory aboard Macgyver Moonflash at the Coleman PRCA Rodeo in Texas.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi continued to build her World Standings lead, placing second on Ima Famous Babe, at Coleman, earning $2,381.

Jill Wilson, Ivy Hurst and Dona Kay Rule continue to place steady to hold their respective spots in the standings.

The upcoming Fourth of July run—although a shadow of year's past—will definitely impact the standings as everyone hopes to maximize on the high-paying rodeos they're able to make. The Dakota rodeos are sure to be ones for the record books with record entries with rodeos like Belle Fourche drawing 285 entries and Mandan with more than 200.

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

Jessie Telford & Famous Cool Whip Hit the Jackpot at Idaho Equine Race For Cash

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jessie Telford of Caldwell, Idaho, had a busy but profitable weekend, winning the $7,500-added, 470-entry Idaho Equine Race For Cash, held June 13, for $4,269, aboard her homebred and trained gelding Famous Cool Whip.

"It was a pretty crazy weekend," said Telford, while waiting for her oldest daughter, Shawny, to compete in the short round, which she ended up winning, of the reined cowhorse at the Idaho High School Rodeo Finals.

Telford started out running in Thursday morning slack at the $2,000-added Pony Express Rodeo in Eagle Mountain, Utah. She and Cool Whip left tied for the lead with Amber Moore and CP Dark Moon, and ended up tied for second, behind Lake Mehalic and Kan Count On Fame's winning run in a performance. Telford and Moore each pocketed $1,147.

Friday found them in Homedale, Idaho, for the Idaho Equine Race For Cash. Her daughters were competing in the Jr NFR Qualifier on Friday and she and Cool Whip placed fourth in the Open that night for $389. After the Jr NFR Pole Bending qualifier on Saturday morning, they all ran in the $7,500-added that afternoon before driving to the Idaho High School Rodeo Finals.

"We had to be at Blackfoot, Idaho, at 7:30 Sunday morning, so we had to drive down Saturday night. We had the cowhorse long round was yesterday, short go today and the rest of the rodeo goes all week with the short go on Friday," she explained.

There is no rest for the weary, either.

Next week, Telford and her girls will run at the Burns Xtreme Million at Blackhawk Arena in Salina, Utah, on Monday and Tuesday. They'll head home to swap out horses for Telford's youngest daughter, Sierra, to compete at the Idaho Jr High Rodeo Finals. Telford's Fourth of July run starts after that.

"It's about a month all about the kids and then it's about week about me," Telford laughed.

While the COVID shutdown hampered her rodeo travels, it did allow her to devote her time to her young horses and children.

"There's no guilt," she chuckled. "As far as being a busy mom with two rodeo kids—that part's been phenomenal. I've been able to go to all of them and not feel like I'm missing out rodeo-wise. Same thing, if I were to be going to rodeos, I'd be feeling that guilt that you just can't get rid of... So, yeah, that's been great!"

Whip, now 9, didn't have a whole lot to do since his last run at Rodeo Houston. At the end of May, Telford did drop down to Cave Creek, Arizona, where she tied for fourth. While his sidekick Shu Fire is having embryos flushed, Whip has been developing some new skills, Telford says.

"My kids have been goat tying on him at the high school rodeos just to give him something else to do so he's not so bored," she said. It's an ironic job for a nearly 17 hand horse, but his long, smooth stride works great for a running dismount.

"For some reason, my littlest kid gets off on him really good," Telford explained. "She wanted to use him over the other horses. She actually ate dirt the first day using her sister's horse so after that she was like, 'That's it! I'm using Whip!' She's like, '(his stride is) so smooth, I hang forever!'"

While his newest job is pretty relaxing, Cool Whip and Shu Fire will have a busy Fourth of July, although maybe not as busy as it has been in the past.

"Tentatively, it looks like I'll try to do everything but Prescott," said Telford, who is 39th in the WPRA World Standing with $10,103. "It's pretty hard to fit that double-header in there when everything else in the Dakotas. I'll hit Bella Fourche on July 1, Cody in the morning of July 2 then Oakley that night, hopefully, July 3 will be Killdeer and then I'll try to do Mandan and Mobridge on the Fourth."

Given this silly season of rodeo cancellations and postponements, Telford says she plans to try to qualify for another NFR within reason.

"I would still like to make the Finals because there is so much money there," she said, "but I also have to be responsible. I won't drive all over for $1,000-added rodeos. It doesn't make sense for my horse or for me."

THE RUNDOWN w/Jessie Telford

Famous Cool Whip "Cool Whip", almost 17 hands, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Ed Wright Locked Lifter with a three-piece dogbone

HEADGEAR: Depends on the setup. "Super long runs to the first, like Cody or some of these coming up over the Fourth, he'll get the bonnet. Here lately, I haven't run him in anything."

SADDLE: Custom RooHide

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine polo wrap. "I double bell boot. I use the Classic Equine No Turn Bell Boots and then I use the old school orange rubber bell boots. The two times he's been lame for weeks were both from over reaches. It's not an over reach where it like cuts him; it's up on his actual heel bulb. It swells up like a giant golf ball on the top of his heel bulb. Knock on wood, since I've been double bell booting, I have not had that happen."

SHOEING: Glue-On Polyflex shoes on front; glue-on Kahn Forge Concave Hinds on rear (with two toe nails to prevent twisting). "He has very thin walls and has got a lot of hot nails in his life, so he's really sensitive to nails. Those Polyflex shoes also allow his heels to expand. I started using those about a year-and-a-half ago. It took about a year, but his foot size has expanded. He wears a size 2 now when he used to wear a 1. To me that's been the biggest benefit of all with Poly-Flex. His feet look bigger and healthier."

FEED: Nutrena Triumph

HAY: Homegrown alfalfa, grass mix, probably 75 percent alfalfa, 25 percent grass.

SUPPLEMENTS: Platinum Performance CJ. "In the middle of the summer when it's really hot, I'll start adding some Red Cell for the extra iron."

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: "Ice boots." "I try to ice his legs and front feet almost every time I'm done running him."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I ride a lot of ditch banks. The kids ride him a lot for me. They both like riding him and it gives him something else to do with no pressure. We all rope the hot heels and stuff like that on him. He's a pretty busy horse so boredom can be a problem for him."

MAKING COOL WHIP...

While horses like Famous Cool Whip are naturally gifted with their athleticism. It's up to their trainers to foster that gift and hopefully make a great horse in the process.

When asked to name one of the key ingredients in turning Whip into the winner he is today, Telford was quick to point to the futurities as part of the training and seasoning process.

"I believe the futurity system sets horses up to be great," she said. "You go somewhere for three or four days. They get to settle in. They get time runs all in one day and keep running in the same pen for two or three days in a row. To me it's the most calming way to get a young horse to go fast. You're not just taking them to different jackpots, unloading them from the trailer and running them an hour later. I'm a firm believer that it helps horses to go through the futurity program."

Cool Whip, a gelded son of Dash Ta Fame out of Had A Kanita, by Docs Rocky Top, was scheduled to be a 5-year-old futurity horse. However, Telford already had a 5-year-old, Playguns Fame, now a pro rodeo money earner for Barbara Johnson, ready to futurity, so Whip got to go a season earlier.

"I just decided that Cool Whip needed to step up because it's a lot of hauling for one horse and I didn't have another 4-year-old to haul with him the next year," she explained. "So, it made it a lot more economical for me to run two of mine at all the futurities that year."

The futurity regimen helped make Cool Whip. Although green at the earlier futurities in January, he had caught up to the other colt by March.

"He was way green, but just being able to let them chill out a couple days before you run and get comfortable and confident with the arena and ground it sets those greener horses up for more success than not doing that," she said.

The Final Jud Little Horse Sale

On June 13, 2020 at the Jud Little Ranch in Ardmore, OK the final offering of the very best barrel horse genetics created by the late Jud Little passed through the sale ring. The ranch was teeming with activity as many wanted a chance at these elite genetics. 120 horses of all ages with some of the most potent rodeo and futurity pedigrees went to new homes to begin their own legacy.

The marquee offering of the Jud Little Ranch Horse Sale was the $2.3 million dollar sire JL Dash Ta Heaven. The 15 yr old son of the All Time Leading $24 Million Barrel Horse Sire, Dash Ta Fame, was out of the WPRA World Champion mare, Dynas Plain Special.

Dynas Plain Special won the world in 2003 with Janae (Ward) Massey and was a mare few will ever forget if they remember those blazing runs at the NFR that year.

JL Dash Ta Heaven came from royal bloodlines but also lived up and surpassed all the expectations. He won futurities, derbies, rodeos, set numerous arena records then went on to qualify to the NFR himself.

His first crops of colts proved themselves right away and also went on to win futurities, derbies and rodeos as well. With Hell On The Red being his first NFR qualifier.

The Whitmire Ranch purchased this top sire for $1.75 million, a record in the world of barrel racing. He will continue his stud career for them standing at Cinder Lakes Ranch.

The other sires offered included AQHA Reserve World Jr Heading Champion, Fiestas Dynasty. The beautiful grey 9 yr old son of FDD Dynasty and out of the blue hen Reserve WPRA World Champion, Firewater Fiesta. Also offered was One Frosty Corona, the striking 11 yr old son of Corona Cartel out of NFR round winning mare Frosty Feelins. The 15 yr old NFR Qualifier and Congress Champion, Chicados Cash, by Cash Not Credit and out of Chicado Flame was also offered.

Anyone familiar with the Little breeding program knew how important the mare power was to his breeding program. Some of the amazing mare power offered included: Nicky Brick House, CFR Round Winner & NFR qualifier; Frosty Feelins, NFR round winner out of the same dam as JL Dash Ta Heaven, Dynas Plain Special; Smooth My Credit; another NFR Qualifier; NFR Qualifier Flitin Firin Cash; NFR Qualifier Sign Of Passion; multiple Futurity champion Return Of The Bully; and also included Frenchmans Lana, the dam of futurity & derby standout, JL Jamaican Me Rich and is a full sister to SX Frenchmans Vanila. That is just a few of the mares that demonstrate the star power in the broodmare band sold.

Some of the younger mares carrying the iconic Jud Little brand and his genetics that were still ready for the arena or the breeding shed included; Ms Carrie Lou, a beautiful daughter of All Time Leading Race Horse sire First Down Dash out of NFR Round winner Frosty Feelins. Ms Carrie Lou already had a prorodeo win record. Another big time performer offered was A Valiant Nicky, the very striking daughter of NFR Sire & leading race sire, Valiant Hero and out of the CFR Round winner and NFR Qualifier Nicky Brick House. Showered In Kisses, a 4 yr old roan filly on track for the futurities by JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of the IFR champion & AQHA World Champion Amateur Barrel Horse, Dinkys Purple Rain, also caught the crowds attention.

The sale offered everything from weanlings, yearlings, 2 yr olds, 3 yr olds on up, all bred from NFR and futurity winning stock on both sides of their pedigree. The bidding was brisk throughout the sale as people knew this would be the last offering of these outstanding barrel horse genetics available to the public. Jud Little spent over 20 years developing all the pedigrees of these impressive horses offered and now they will take his brand out in the world and carry on his legacy for years to come.

Busy Weekend of Rodeos

By Ann Bleiker, WPRO

While not a normal second week of June rodeo schedule that we are all used to, it was the busiest weekend of rodeo since everything came to a screeching halt in March. A total of five PRCA/WPRO rodeos were contested over the weekend from Utah, to Texas, to Oklahoma and Arkansas. Contestants across the country were excited and thankful to have a few places to travel to.

The Woodward (Oklahoma) Elks Rodeo kicked off the weekend run of rodeos starting with slack on June 9 and WPRO members had the opportunity to compete in both barrel racing and breakaway roping. Three-time Wrangler NFR barrel racer Cheyenne Wimberley set the bar high in early action stopping the clock in 17.06 seconds. It wasn't until the final performance that her time would be tested with Paige Jones stopping the clock in 17.07 seconds. Brittany Diaz rounded out the top 3 with a time of 17.12 seconds. Wimberley qualified for the 2019 Wrangler NFR after having first qualified in 1997 and 1998. She added $4,335 to her 2020 world standings.

Fans in Woodward got to experience women's breakaway roping at their rodeo for the first time with WPRO World Champion Lari Dee Guy taking home the inaugural title in a time of 3.0 seconds. Guy of Abilene, Texas, competed on the final night and brought her A-game showing everyone how good women's breakaway roping can be. Randi Holliday had held the lead with a 3.2-second run through the majority of the event until Guy backed into the box and roped her calf on Saturday night. Guy added $2,677 to her standings while Holliday pocketed $2,327.

The Mesquite (Texas) Championship Series continued for a second consecutive week with Amber Crawford winning the breakaway roping in a time of 2.2 seconds. Martha Angelone and Brandy Gilbert tied for second in a time of 2.5 seconds. Finishing atop the barrel racing leaderboard in Mesquite this weekend was Jill Wilson in a time of 15.42 seconds with Maci Ray hot on her heels in a time of 15.43 seconds.

Wenda Johnson took advantage of the rodeo in Coleman, Texas, winning the barrel racing in a time of 16.31 seconds to outdistance two-time world champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, who finished with a 16.51 second run. Johnson added $2,801, while Pozzi Tonozzi added $2,381 bringing her 2020 total to $67,144 at just 13 rodeos.

Utah got back in the rodeo mix for 2020 with the Pony Express Rodeo in Eagle Mountain and Lake Mehalic made it count winning the barrel race in a time of 15.70 seconds. Four-time Wrangler NFR qualifier Amberleigh Moore and 2018 Wrangler NFR qualifier Jessica Telford tied for second in a time of 15.76.

The State of Arkansas also joined the State of Utah kicking open the chutes for the first time since March in Ash Flat. Lacinda Rose led the pack finishing with a 16.36, while Lindsey Nixon took second in a time of 16.45. WPRO World Champion Fallon Taylor finished fourth in a time of 16.51.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We had an intruder in our house last night! Something woke me up at 3:30 A.M. I leaped out of bed and headed for the kitchen! It was a weird noise...but it had stopped. I stood there thinking I must have dreamed it. BUT NO! There it was again!

I ran back to the bedroom and woke Mike up. He leaped out of bed and I clung to the back of him all the way to the kitchen...four steps. The noise was coming from the back of the refrigerator. We decided together it was a mouse in a trap. Whew! Mike was all for leaving it till morning. I was, "DON'T LET IT GET AWAY"! So, here's the funny part.

Mike went back into the bedroom and put on his shirt...then he put on his pants...then his socks... then to the back porch and got his muck shoes... then two brooms to reach the mouse...30 minutes later we pulled the frig. out and...IT HAD GOTTEN AWAY!!!

THREE set mousetraps later, we are back in bed and I got the giggles! Why in the world do you need to get fully dressed to get a mouse out of a trap???? I honestly don't know. But from my vantage point on top of a chair it seemed ridiculous! So. What does this have to do with the Lord? Nothing. But laughter works like a medicine, so here's your dose for the week! God bless you with funny things in life!
