Joy Wargo & Chasin Tres Cans Capitalize at Colorado Classic

By Tanya Randall

Joy Wargo guided Sarah Pauels' Chasin Tres Cans to nearly $50,000 in earnings at the Colorado Classic, held June 10-13 in Montrose.

Wargo and "Chase" topped the 141-entry, $97,500-added Colorado Classic Stallion Incentive Futurity for $17,755 and the 161-entry, $10,000-added DePaolo Equine Concepts Open Futurity for $7,582.

They also won the $2,500-added Highlands Financial Slot Race for $5,999, Saturday's $2,000-added Tuxon Ranch Open for $1,566 and Saturday's $4,000-added Colorado Classic Stallion Incentive Open for $1,617. Their total Colorado Classic earnings sans outside incentives or sidepots was $34,579.

The pair also topped the 1- and 2D of the Gold Rush Open Incentive for $5,561.40 and duplicated that feat in the Breeders Challenge Open Bonus for $4,433. They won the Future Fortunes Open 1D Bonus for $2,080 and collected $2,680 from the Xtreme Million sidepot for an unofficial event total of $49,333.

"He's been right there all along," Wargo said of the 4-year-old stallion. "He'll place in the top handful, at least one run everywhere we go. Then things haven't lined up right, and they lined up this

THE RUNDOWN w/Joy Wargo

Chasin Tres Cans ("Chase") 2022 Bay Stallion, 15.3-16 h., 1,250 lbs.

BIT: Schoenberg weighted rebar O-ring; School with a Schoenberg long shank Casey with a square bar lifesaver mouth

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: Schneider Performance Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy on all four

SHOEING: Rims all the way. Shod by Trent Wargo.

FEED: Heritage Professional

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: EquiBoss Chelator Mineral, NutraBac pH

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Bodywork by Lynzie Lindstrom at Montrose, Dale Snyder and Mark Stewart at home

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I probably ride him six days a week. He can be kind of a handful, not broncy or anything, but there's just a lot there. I only ride a horse 10-15 minutes, but it's more like a HIT (High Intensity Training) workout. We get to the point and get done. He lopes quite a few circles. We do a lot of counter cantering on him just to make sure he'll pick up and move away from the turn if I need to help him. I do a lot of that especially because he runs in an O-ring and I don't have any leverage to help him. So, we make sure he's really light, responsive and soft. He's really easy to keep light. I will lope through the barrels two or three days when we have an event coming up, usually once or twice per day and that's about it."

week!"

Wargo and Chase were seventh in the first go of both futurities with a 15.421.

"It was bottom of the ground," noted Wargo, who trains in Collinsville, Texas. "He did work good, but he pulled on me a little on the back sides."

Wargo admitted she was a little frustrated with Chase and called to make a veterinary appointment for him as soon as she got home to make sure he didn't have a reason to be naughty. However, she knew she needed to get him responding as well as she could for his second run.

"I didn't change anything in my slow work on the barrels," she explained. "I did all that the same, but I just kind of drug on him a little bit and expected him to be a little quicker to come to my hand and just be more respectful. It took all of two minutes to make that adjustment. I spun him around a couple of times each direction and then did it again right before we ran and that was it. He was ready to go."

They won the second round with the fastest run of the entire event, a 14.912.

"I think that's part of the stud thing," Wargo continued. "They get to pulling on you a little. If I don't have to handle him, he's quick on the backside of the second barrel. But I think he's starting to run a little harder and then I have to help him a little bit sometimes."

Bred by Triple U Quarter Horses, Chase is by 12.5 million dollar sire Tres Seis out of champion performer and producer VF Chasin Cans, by Eddie Stinson. Pauels sent Chase to Wargo in the summer of his second year.

“Sarah called and asked if I would take a couple of horses,” recalled Wargo. “Honestly, I was going to tell her no. I don’t really like studs much and I was pretty full. Then she told me what they were. When she told me how Chase was bred, I was like, ‘Oh wait a minute! I should probably try that one!’”

Aside from some minor antics, Chase has trained well.

“He’s always moved really well,” said Wargo. “He’s broke. He feels great when you ride him around. We had him loping the barrels good by the end of the year and then started hauling him in January. About the middle of his third year, I was pretty sure we wanted to slot race him. By September, he was clocking fast enough to be in the top handful at a couple of the big races.”

Chase was seventh in the BFA Super Stakes on his debut run. He’d placed near the top in rounds at several futurities but started to turn the corner on the finishing in the average this spring.

“He’s placed at Texarkana (Showdown), won some money at Elite and Select Stallion Stakes. Almost everywhere we’ve been, he’s picked up a check. We knew he had it. It was just a matter of it all coming together on the right day. And he picked a good place for it all to come together.”

BACK ON TRACK

Normally, two weeks in Montrose, Colorado, constitute a working vacation for most barrel horse trainers. Unfortunately, Joy Wargo missed out on the cool mountain attractions when she injured her back.

“I had one of my colts buck pretty good with me the first few days that we were up there,” Wargo explained. “Then my second run at Run At The Rose on Chase, he pulled on me just right and it hurt my back. I spent all week trying to get fixed.”

Thankfully Lynnzie Lindstrom and Nicole Mays were able to help. “They saved me because I couldn’t get out of bed Monday morning,” Wargo said. “It was rough.”

Lindstrom, who does body work on Wargo’s horses, worked on her as well, but she also pulled out all the stops by getting her in with a therapist that used to work on her husband when he played professional baseball.

“I don’t know how she managed to get me in, but she saw me Monday for two hours, Tuesday for two hours, and Friday after I ran she worked on me for another three hours. I feel amazing. Those two pretty much saved me. God was looking out for me last week. That’s for sure.”

Kissmybuttgoodbye, Taylor Langdon Top Colorado Classic Stallion Incentive Maturity

By Tanya Randall

Ardmore, Oklahoma, barrel racer Taylor Langdon capped off a stellar two-weeks in Montrose, Colorado with a Colorado Classic Stallion Incentive Maturity Championship aboard her homegrown stallion Kissmybuttgoodbye (“Strutter”). Langdon won the Derby aboard her homebred Hes Got The Sting at the Run At The Rose Derby the prior weekend.

“It was very good,” Langdon said, “very, very good.”

The two horses earned Langdon $31,790—not including incentives—during their stay in Montrose.

Strutter, who earned the reserve derby championship at the Run At The Rose, earned $8,903 for winning the 103-entry, $30,000 added Stallion Incentive Maturity and $5,324 for taking the reserve championship in the 121-entry, $7,500-added MVP Open Maturity at the Colorado Classic. He picked up $2,065 in open carryovers for total Colorado Classic earnings of $16,292.

“He just makes the same run every time,” said Langdon. “He’s so solid. I can’t brag about him enough. He tries so hard. He gives you everything he has every run.”

Strutter, who is by The Goodbye Lane, is out of Langdon’s multiple pro rodeo winning mare Vegas Firefighter, a daughter of Ima Firefighter out of a Dashin Is Easy, Sixarun mare.

“He is her first colt to go to the arena,” noted Langdon. “It’s what you hope for, but it doesn’t always work out that way. So for him to come out and do what he’s done... His futurity year he won over $100,000. This year, he’s just bigger and better. He’s more confident. He’s just everything he was but more.”

Stutter was started under saddle by Langdon's significant other, Ty Wallace.

"Ty started him from the ground up," she said. "He's done everything with him. We've roped calves on him. He heads on him. We try to do a little bit of everything on them just to make them better horses and keep their mind clear."

Langdon said she feels a lot of Vegas in Strutter.

"He feels so much like her with the way he works," she said. "Every time you ran Vegas down the alley she gave you everything she had. That's how Strutter is. He's got her heart, and then the way he turns... It's kind of an eerie feeling how much he feels like her."

Skeeter, a 6-year-old Feel The Sting gelding, out of Luna Epica, a daughter of Epic Leader and Mulberry Canyon Moon, went through the same process as Strutter, except he was started under saddle by Dean and Jessie Dormann.

Langdon campaigned both horses last year, earning $230,000 at the futurities alone.

"They were kind of our first out of the box," she said. "Ty and I had both rodeoed. When we decided to stick with our breeding program and prove it, we just put our heads down and went to work. That's what we stuck with. It's been a long, long process, but man, it has been so much fun."

Langdon, who flirted with a National Finals Rodeo qualification with Strutter's dam, has a rodeo plan for her two stars in the future.

"My plan was to derby them this year since it's their first year," she said. "Next year, I would like to start going to some rodeos on them, just kind of get their feet wet and let them see the process."

$23K+ Haul For Ryann Pedone & One Slick Czar at Bonus Race World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Leading rider Ryann Pedone collected $28,688 at the Bonus Race World Finals, held Jun 9-14 in Shawnee, Oklahoma.

"I've got to give a huge shout out to Renea Bolling and her whole team," said Pedone. "The Bonus Finals is so family oriented. She has activities every night for the family. They have breakaway and poles. It's so very well run with the way she has it all flow together. The ground was excellent. She had a lot of prizes and a lot of chances at money to be run. It's just an amazing race."

The talented black stallion One Slick Czar ("Tracer") was the biggest winner for the Thackerville, Oklahoma-based trainer. He topped both the high-stakes Ultimate Bonus and Succeed Bonus Race for total earnings of $23,239.

Pedone purchased Tracer in the summer of his sixth year from his breeders Jeff and Whitney Robinson through Jimmy and Jamie Cagle, who had trained and campaigned the stallion, by 12.5 million dollar sire Slick By Design out of BFA Juvenile Champion Dashin Czar, by Tres Seis.

"I've loved him ever since the first time I'd seen him run," said Pedone. "I saw him run with Jimmy Cagle at Perry (for the Jingle Bell Classic). I just loved him because he tried so hard every time, and I thought he was a really cool, little stud."

Although Pedone has owned him nearly two years, she's only got to run him a limited amount due to two separate injuries due to competition conditions.

"In 24 months, he's been on stall rest about 14-15 months," she said. "It wasn't anything structural, no soft tissue or anything like that. It was just tough luck."

Pedone said Tracer is coming back sharp. "His first runs back were at the Ruby Buckle," she said. "He worked really good there. He ran a 16.9 and 17.0 but drug barrels. He's just really sharp now. It took a few runs to get back. I've taken him to four pro rodeos, and he's placed at all four. Then he did great at the Bonus Finals. He's been working really good."

At Shawnee, Pedone used the Open Race as a warmup run to the Bonus Race and its Ultimate Bonus sidepot.

"I like to run my horses at least once in the Open, just to get in the pen, and then run twice in the Bonus," Pedone noted.

She and Tracer topped Thursday's section of the Open and finished seventh overall with a 15.186.

In the Bonus, they clocked a 15.026 on their first run, which placed 11th overall.

"It was a good run," Pedone said. "It was bottom of the ground, but when I watched that run, I thought if I rode a little better, he could be two, maybe three-tenths faster."

They got a little bit more than three-tenths faster with a 14.707.

"I rode him really good that last run," she said. "I knew Red Man Jones still had to run and that Tres Of Heroine that Alana (James) rides for Robin Weaver had to run. After Tres of Heroine ran a .7 too, I was like, 'OK, it was a legit, super perfect run!'"

Tracer's career earnings, which QData had listed at $192,080, should be over $215,000, thanks to the Bonus Race World Finals.

"I feel like as long as he stays sound, he'll stay on a streak," Pedone said. "We're really happy with how sound he is right now."

Pedone is currently headed out west for a few pro rodeos before the Ruby Buckle in South Jordan, Utah.

"I've got Pleasant Grove, Elko, Vernal and Reno, so we're going to see how it goes," said Pedone. "He'll run at most of those. If he does well, I might let him rest and not run him at Ruby in the Derby.”

Pedone is also excited to get more babies on the ground by Tracer. He currently has three on the ground now out of really nice mares. The Cagles have one out of their good open mare Libby On The Label. Pedone has one out of Black Rosalita, the dam of her pro rodeo winner Thirty Six Roses, and Chad Beus bred Dash Ta Royal Sissy, a Dash Ta Fame daughter of Royal Sissy Irish, dam of DM Sissy Hayday.

“All the babies have been beautiful and very correct,” Pedone said. “Genetics wise, he’s a pretty full outcross. He’s by Slick By Design and Slick was remarkable. (Tracer’s) dam was one of my favorites early on. She was one of the first Tres Seis (to run). To me, he looks like a miniature Tres Seis if you step back and look at him.”

Pedone said Trace has the “war horse” mentality that was so evident in Slick By Design and his entire sire line back to On The Money Red.

“Every time he goes up the alleyway, he just gives me everything he can. He literally is a weapon. I don’t think I’ve ever been on a horse with as big a heart and try as him...and I’ve rode some nice studs. He just really loves his job. He’s one of the coolest horses that I’ve ever sat on.”

Moeykens Dominates Sisters For $10K

By Julie Mankin

It's been difficult to outrun Carlee Otero in the WPRA of late, but Montana's Tayla Moeykens accomplished it at the summer's first big kick-off pro rodeo on her big 8-year-old gelding KN Fame's Best Yet ("Yeti").

Running second out in slack on a cool 40-degree morning to kick off the Sisters Rodeo, June 11-14, in Oregon, Moeykens clocked a 17.18. It held up through all the perfs and bested Otero's and Steely Steiner's 17.2s. The win added a cool $9,785 to Moeykens' bank account and put her over $50,000 on the season for a top-10 ranking (Kassie Mowry still has nearly a $50,000 lead on the pack).

"We try to just go do our job every time," said Moeykens, 24, of Three Forks. "Sisters has a side gate, so I took my time coming across to make sure I was lined up and he was ready. The committee there is amazing – they really do appreciate the contestants and do everything they can to make our lives easier. Plus, it's peaceful and quiet and beautiful up there in the trees. It's just one of those really nice rodeos. My mom placed there once, too."

About the only other one-run rodeo with as much dough added is Hermiston – which she and Yeti also won last year with an arena-record 16.81.

"He's all business when I run him," she said of Yeti. "But outside of that, he's the biggest goofball. He's either got things in his mouth or licking the trailer or using his lip to try to get you to come closer. He also has a side that if you make him mad, you'll pay."

Yeti is by Dash Ta Fame and out of Kenny Nichols' mare KN Fabulous N Khaki. Like the fabulous palomino NFR mare KN Fab's Gift Of Fame ("J Lo") that was out of a Dash Ta Fame daughter, Yeti's dam is by Frenchman's Fabulous but was out of Nichols' half-Thoroughbred mare Robbin Dobbins.

The Cody Hyde-trained Yeti came to Moeykens' family as a futurity horse. He was still just 5 when he won the first of two back-to-back reserve national championships for Moeykens at the CNFR (Moeykens had won it outright in 2021 on her mare). That's a tiny pen in Casper, Wyoming's Ford Center, and the pen at Sisters is large. It doesn't seem to matter to Yeti, who also placed second at Cheyenne last year.

"What I love about my boys is they adapt so well," said Moeykens of the big-strided 16.1-hand Yeti and her other 13-year-old gelding, JM PocketsDoubleDash ("Lizard"), on which she won Pendleton. "They might have certain arenas they like better, but I can put them in any arena and trust them to give me their best. We're not too picky."

Moeykens planned to run Yeti at Reno, plus had in her trailer a 10-year-old Fury Of The Wind daughter to season. During the Fourth of July run, Moeykens plans to ride Yeti, Lizard and at her circuit rodeos, 20-year-old Dash Of Blue Sky.

"They are each a piece of my team that help us get wherever we need to be," said Moeykens. "I don't peg any of them as my 1 or 2 or 3 horse."

She added that her father Rick, is a big help in driving for her around his job at a local talc mine. Plus, he's her equine massage therapist and farrier. Tayla's mother, Deena, is the one who trained Lizard and who chooses all Tayla's horses.

"She has an eye for them," Tayla said with a smile. "Some of the ones I've picked out have kind of flopped. We don't talk about that!"

All three of Tayla's good horses, however, had to stay home from Las Vegas during the girl's first-ever NFR qualification last year as the 10th-ranked barrel racer.

"Last year at the NFR, I was on young horses," said Moeykens, who borrowed Katelyn Scott's backup horse Heaven Sent Fame, and ran two others borrowed from Montana friends. "It was about just taking it one hour at a time down there and giving those young horses a good experience."

THE RUNDOWN w/Tayla Moeykens

KN Fame's Best Yet, "Yeti"

BIT: medium-shanked two-piece Sherry Cervi (now switched to a draw gag)

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine wool

LEG GEAR: polo wraps on all four

SHOEING: light rims on all four

FEED: Mixture of Triple Crown and alfalfa pellets

HAY: grass-alfalfa mix from Twin Bridges

SUPPLEMENTS: salt and Platinum Performance's Healthy Weight flax oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: cold laser, magnets, red light, ice and compression therapies, massage by Rick Moeykens

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Mom mostly works him! She's better at keeping him calm. We just walk and trot through and make sure he's turning sharp and leaving flat.

SPONSORS: Solid in the Saddle, Delicious Horse Treats, Big Sky Precision, MK Rodeo Journals, Bex Sunglasses, Durasole

THANK YOUS: Our friends and family back home; my sponsors for their continued support. Their comments mean a lot to us.

But she's pretty sure both Yeti and Lizard will love the little yellow pen in Las Vegas. Her goal is to land in the Top 15 again this year, and she plans to keep pecking away at it.

"I'm just keeping the same mindset I always have," Moeykens said. "We can't focus on the outcome, but just take it one rodeo at a time and do the best we can. Our best is always good enough."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

This week... brotherly kindness! I saved this story for this week cuz I know there will be some SERIOUS eye rolling going on. This is your first test. When I rode my horses in the arena last week, I didn't put the barrels up...or the poles. The arena was EMPTY. I didn't think that would be a problem either. But it was!

Did you know that you almost can't ride in certain parts of the arena if the barrels aren't in there? And did you know that that is VERY scary? I didn't either! THESE HORSES AREN'T COLTS! Hattie kept looking and looking and looking for the barrels! Mighty thought there were monsters in every corner. Lesson learned!

I have to quit doing things the same way I always do them. It's the same with what we know about God. Many people believe what Granny says, or what their church says. But we all need to believe what the BIBLE says.

I could have sworn that "cleanliness is next to Godliness" was in the Bible. It is not! And many many many other things.

Challenge yourself to KNOW what the Bible says about all your beliefs. If you think that there are degrees of sin, where is that in the Bible? It's one of the things I found out I was wrong about.

I want to KNOW God and His Word, so if I am questioned, my response won't be, "I'm sure Granny said the Bible said the church said." I KNOW what God said. You will NEVER be deceived if YOU know!
