Scott & Fallin For Fame Kick Start Summer Run

By Tanya Randall

Stuntwoman Ann Scott of Canyon Country, Calif., started off her summer run in fine fashion with a $3,936 victory at the $10,000-added, one-run Sisters Rodeo, held June 13-15 in Oregon.

"He did a really good job," said Scott of her 9-year old home-grown partner Fallin For Fame ("Buzz" as in Buzz Lightyear). "I couldn't really fault him anywhere. We came in through a side gate, and he had a good first barrel. His head came up a little coming home because he was looking at a bull rider standing on the fence."

Scott noted while some other contestants faced a little ground trouble, she and Buzz had no trouble.

"We were third out in a perf," she said. They were up Saturday afternoon. "It was a little drier when we ran so it wasn't as slick. We were towards the top of the ground and it was cool out. I couldn't have asked for better conditions. My horse worked great."

Scott raised Buzz, a gelded son of all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of Immunity, a Merridoc daughter that she leased from a friend. Like many of the Dash Ta Fames, Buzz is loaded with talent and personality, and sometimes takes a "to infinity and beyond" approach to life.

"He takes a lot of my time," she laughed. Scott hauls a 20-year-old Paint mare as a buddy to keep Buzz grounded.

This year the sky has been the limit for the duo, who claimed the California Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship in 2013. They currently among the Top 25 in the WPRA World Standings going into the lucrative summer run.

Scott, who is sponsored by Nicole Thompson Design, makers of Buzz's headstall and breast collar, and SAYiWON'T clothing, is out at the Reno Rodeo on June 25 and from there she'll trek to Greeley, Colo., Cody, Wyo., Livingston, Mont., Pikes Peak in Colorado Springs, Belle Fourche, S.D., Sheridan and Casper, Wyo., and whatever she can fit in between.

"I've got goosebumps just thinking about it," said Scott, who has doubled for the likes of Jennifer Garner in Alias and Courtney Cox in Scream 4 as well as other actresses in such popular shows at The Mentalist, CSI and Sons of Anarchy to name a few. "I've never made a Fourth of July run before. My dad (also a stuntman) always chose to work over the Fourth. The one year he was all entered up to go, he got a call at the last minute to work. Of course, he had family to care of too. I don't have any family responsibilities and I have the opportunity to go. I just hope I don't get a good offer to work at the last minute!"

Action underway at CNFR

Tyler Waltz from the University of Tennessee – Martin is a man on a mission, to win a National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association bareback riding championship.

Waltz competed in the first round of bareback riding at the Bulls Broncs and Breakaway performance of the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) on Sunday afternoon. Two performances were held in the Casper Events Center where the first round of bareback riding, breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding and bull riding were completed.

Waltz has qualified for the CNFR three times and each time has bettered his finish. His first appearance here was in 2011 when he finished in 11th place. He missed 2012, came back here in 2013 and finished in sixth place. Waltz received his bachelor's degree in agricultural business in June and this is his last opportunity to compete at the CNFR. He has got some momentum going with a round winning 82-point score.

Zeke Thurston, competing for Sheridan (Wyo.) College is also hoping to leave with his first collegiate title in saddle bronc riding. The sophomore and second generation bronc rider qualified last year finishing in 10th place. He won the first round with 81 points. Thurston who grew up in Big Valley, Alberta, is the son of Skeeter Thurston a many time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR) qualifier in the same event that has local ties. Skeeter Thurston attended Casper College and qualified for the CNFR when it was held in Bozeman, Mont.

In the breakaway roping, it was Central Arizona College's Cheyenne Sherwood who had the fast time of the day. Sherwood, a freshman, stopped the clock in 2/0 seconds for first place. She is a freshman who also has family ties to rodeo. Her uncle Matt Sherwood is a world champion team roper in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA). She has another uncle, Matt Shiozawa is a six-time NFR qualifier in tie-down roping.

There were six successful bull riders during Sunday's competition. Leader of the pack was Jared Parsonage, from Maple Creek, Saskatchewan, who just graduated with an associate's degree in science from Weatherford College in Texas. Parsonage is making the best of his first CNFR qualification with an 81-point score.

Right behind Parsonage is last year's reserve men's all-around champion, Joe Frost who has three qualifications for Panhandle State University in Goodwell, Okla. Frost had an 80-point ride here Sunday and will also be competing in steer wrestling. Sage Kimzey who was leading the national standings coming in finished third with a 79.5. Kimzey, who also currently leads the PRCA world standings was reserve champion bull rider here last year.

All of the competitors who qualify for the CNFR start on an even playing field. They will each compete in three rounds before the championship round which starts this Saturday. Their scores and times will be added together with the best twelve in each event advancing to Saturday night's rodeo.

The first round in women's barrel racing and goat tying as well as team roping, tie-down roping, and steer wrestling will be completed during slack Monday beginning at 7 a.m.

I am currently hauling futurity colts, derby horses, and competing in rodeos every weekend. Oxy Fluidity has become an essential part of my feeding program. I give 20 cc every week and 10 cc before I run on all my horses. It is very nice not to have to worry about your horses getting sore from injections because Oxy Fluidity is an oral paste. It is fast acting and provides so much relief for my horses when I know they are a little sore after a weekend of competing. I have seen such great results with this product I even take it myself!

Solid Performance for Lovendahl & Blazin Black Jet at Red Desert

By Tanya Randall

Blazin Black Jet (“Oprah”) stepped up to the plate for an ailing Ryan Lovendahl to win the $5,000-added Red Desert Classic, June 13-15 at the Sweetwater Events Complex in Rock Springs, Wyo. The 5-year-old daughter of National Finals Rodeo sire Blazin Jetolena out Canadian Champion Lady Perks, by WPRA World Champion sire Dash For Perks, turned in two solid runs to win the average and $3,092.

“Going up there in the condition I was in, I was pretty stoked to have that mare step up and run like she did,” said Lovendahl, who rides and trains for Jeff and Andrea Busby of Busby Quarter Horses in Brock, Texas. “She’d been coming on here lately. We thought her full sister would be the winner and I’m glad she’s stepped up and won one. There were a bunch of really tough horses there.”

On the Monday before the futurity, Lovendahl was injured while tuning on his nephews rope horse that had been jumping the barrier. Unfortunately, the disaster they were working to prevent happened.

“He jumped pretty high and the barrier ended up wrapping around his front leg and flipped him,” Lovendahl said. “The first thing to land on the ground was my face and the horse landed upside down on top of me. He was trying to get up and he was kicking me in the back of the head, tore my knee and shoulder. I thought he had broke my neck to be honest. We got to take a little ambulance ride. Luckily nothing was broken, and hopefully, I don’t have to have anything repaired in my shoulder or knee.

“I’m chalking it up to prayer. Honestly when I hit the ground I was way more hurt than I ended up being hurt. I was pretty lucky.”

Luckily, Oprah demonstrated her grasp of Lovendahl’s training program and made his job easy.

“She’s really a pretty solid, honest kind of mare,” he said. “I had told Andrea, ‘Man she’s feeling so solid, right now. She’s warming up like an open horse.’ Andrea said, ‘Oh sure, the first futurity that I don’t go to, you’re going to win it.’ KC said, ‘I’d be okay with that!’ and we all kind of laughed about it.”

At Rock Springs, Oprah placed third in the first go and fourth in the second to win the average.

“I hardly had to do anything to her warming up,” he said. “I just loped some circles and she felt really good so I just sent her in there asking her for everything she was worth. She just hung in there and made two super solid, consistent runs and was pretty easy to ride.

“Thankfully, Oprah did her job and I was just along for the ride.” He also noted that her owner Jeff is especially pleased since Oprah was his favorite from the time they purchased her as a yearling from her breeder Grant Little.

“When Jeff and Andrea went to Grant Little’s to look at horses, he said that Oprah was the one that kept coming up and loving on him and being so personable,” Lovendahl said. “So he’s always had a soft spot for her.”

RIDER: RYAN LOVENDAH; OWNER: BUSBY QUARTER HORSES; BREEDER: GRANT LITTLE

Lovendahl wanted to thank the Busbys as well as KC Groves for all their help and support.

“I have to give a shout to KC for always being there and helping me with the training end of things,” said Lovendahl—Groves also jump rode the Busby’s stallion Feature Attraction, a full brother to Andrea’s rodeo horse Shawne Feature, at Rock Springs. “I also have to give a big thank you to Jeff and Andrea Busby for supplying us with some really nice horses to ride and being so supportive. They’re awesome, awesome to ride for. We are excited; these are the first horses out of the program that we’ve been building. I feel like we’ve come up with some pretty nice colts this year. I think we would have had an even better year without the bad luck.”

Initially, Lovendahl figured the start of his 2015 futurity crop would be Oprah’s twin embryo—Blazin Black Beauty (“Betty”).

“We had high hopes for Betty,” he said. “She had been a half-second faster than Oprah and then she ended up sustaining an injury in exhibitions in her very first futurity so I haven’t got to compete on her. She’s going to be sidelined for a little while, so I’m glad that Oprah stepped up and won a futurity.”

Oprah, too, had to have little time off after sustaining a minor injury at the Arizona futurities, and didn’t really start her 2015 campaign until April in the Northwest. She placed at Walla Walla and Idaho Falls before Rock Springs. Next on the agenda is the inaugural Colorado Classic in Colorado Springs.

Red Desert Classic From Page 17

"Pretty much the same entries that were at Rock Springs are headed over there so it will be pretty tough," said Lovendahl. "This will be the first futurity that anyone has had to run outdoors on a standard pattern. It will be really fun to watch. I'm kind of excited because that's where my colts were trained and I know they'll like it outside. Obviously things could change when you get there and you never know with these babies."

Following Colorado Springs, Lovendahl is going to take a little break to travel to the rodeos with Andrea Busby before gathering the futurity horses back up to get ready for the lucrative fall futurities.

Despite the bad luck, Lovendahl is pretty pleased to be back in the futurity game after nearly a four year absence, and he has some very promising horses for the years to come.

"We've got a big breeding program in the works with some really stout bloodlines," he said. "This is a pretty fun way to start out – with a win and getting some money won."

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Summer is here and the fairs, rodeos, and barrel competitions are too numerous to count. Not all the contestants can win but their hopes are running high as they discuss their new horses, new training strategies and past performances.

A lot of factors determine the outcome of each competition but we can be sure on one thing—we can all win in the race of life which is the most important race we will ever run. Where we go when we leave this earth and where we will spend eternity takes precedence over the mundane decisions we are faced with every day. Some people seem to wallow in their difficulties and like to say if it weren't for bad luck, they'd have no luck at all!

Yet, God's Holy Word tells us we're "blessed in the city and blessed in the country" (Deuteronomy 28:3) and even though we will have troubles, God will see us through them all. If you've made Jesus the Lord of your life, He will never leave you nor forsake you.

The Bible teaches that "with faith, all things are possible to him who believes." Line up your thinking with what God says about you. Say what God says about you. Say that you're blessed and highly favored.

Even if you don't take first in the barrel competition, you can still be a winner in life. You can have peace, a heart full of joy, and sleep well at night if you turn your life over to Jesus, trust in Him, talk to Him and believe He'll work all things out. Keep your priorities straight and focus on things that are most important. You can live a happy, satisfied life and that makes you a winner!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
