Blissful Version for Lora Nichols at Colorado Classic Futurity, Wins $40K

By Tanya Randall

Greg Olson Memorial Futurity Champions Lora Nichols and Blissful Version swept the futurities at the 12th Annual Colorado Classic, held June 12-14 in Montrose.

Nichols and “Buddy” topped the $100,000-added, 127-entry Colorado Classic Stallion Incentive Futurity for $21,602 and the $10,000-added, 154-entry DePaolo Equine Concepts Open Futurity for an additional $9,106. They also won $3,453 for second in the High Stakes, $3,467 for the Stallion Incentive Open and $1,980 in the Open to all races for a grand total of $39,608.

“Wow! It’s kind of overwhelming!” said Nichols, a mother of three young adults with her husband Nick. “I was moved to tears so many times last weekend, the way that my kids are always calling, texting and cheering me on. They want it for me just as bad as I wanted it for them. How they’re so proud of me for just going.”

Nichols, who splits her time between Arizona in the winter and Wyoming in the summer, spent most of her spring focused on her daughter Kloe’s last year of high school rodeo. She missed the Run At The Rose Futurity the weekend prior due to the Wyoming High School Rodeo Finals, but it was worth it to watch her daughter claim the state championship.

Buddy had only one futurity between the Northwest run in early April and the Colorado Classic, the Yeti Classic at the end of May.

“I had been riding him,” she said, “but I hadn’t been running barrels on him at all. He did good at the Yeti. Coming into this, I was hoping that he was in good enough shape and the break wasn’t too long. He did kind of need one. He came back strong.”

Nichols said this weekend was a little bit different for them as Buddy sometimes spooks a little at the first barrel, which causes them to be a little slower in the first round. This time, he put two wicked runs together. They were third in the first round with a 15.138 and won the second round with a 15.060.

He was kind of being a dork in the time onlies, just looking in the barrels,” she said. “I thought, ‘Oh no! Don’t you do it!’ At the Yeti Classic, he spooked at something and got up the pen like something was going to grab him on the backside. Then he blitzed a second run. That’s kind of how he’s done a little bit here and there all year, which has cost me from winning a lot more. I thought I’m going to send him hard and hope that he pays attention and not spook. He didn’t spook so I just need to send him harder on his next run I guess!”

Bred by Richard family’s A&C Racing & Roping, Buddy, 5, is by 1.8 million dollar barrel horse sire Winners Version out of the multiple stakes placed Brookstone Bay mare Blissful Bay. Nichols got him as a 2-year-old.

“The Richards pasture a bunch of cattle with us,” she explained. “Chad (Richard) was like, ‘You have to have a Winners Version.’ I said, ‘Ok. You have to pick him out.’ We actually traded cow pasture for this horse.”

Going into last summer, Nichols had too many prospects, so she thought she’d list them all and keep what didn’t sell. Buddy was on the list.

“I had a friend that said she would take him,” she admitted. “We had made the deal late summer but hadn’t exchanged any money. I said, ‘When we get to Arizona, we can catch up.’ Well, he started said. "I was like, Dang! That's not bad for letting him pick his speed going through. Every time I went somewhere, he just got better and better."

Buddy was the reserve champion at the MVP Futurity and then won the Greg Olson. He was third at the Royal Crown in Buckeye before taking reserve at the Glen Wood Memorial. He was second again at the Sand Cup Futurity before his worst finish—sixth in the average—at the Valley Girls Barrel Daze.

"He's placed at every single futurity that I've went to in the Top 10," she said.

Their consistency has largely been accomplished by focusing the process rather than the result.

"My whole goal this year, especially with working with the Richards—is about completing the process," Nichols explained. "As soon as I was done on Saturday, I texted Chad and said, 'I completed the process.' It's not worrying about what time is winning, or anything like that. I'm worried about going out there and doing my thing, and the outcome takes care of itself."

"It really works. You don't get worried about trying to be faster. You just have to do your thing. Even my daughter when she won state, she led it all year long. It was the same thing. Let's just go make our run and complete our process and the results will take care of themselves."

Nichols grew up in a family of horsemen. Her dad, uncle and grandfather raced chariots, and they always had nice horses. She started running barrels when she was in the sixth grade. She went to a Marlene Eddleman McRae clinic with a little sorrel mare that had been overlooked for all the roans her family had raised.

"I took her to the clinic and less than two months later I went to winning everything—high school, college, and the same thing for the girl I sold her too," Nichols recalled. "I actually got to take my girls to see her a couple of years ago. She was almost 40 years old. To be able to go and put your hands back on one that special..."

She puts Buddy in the same category. With an empty nest on the horizon, she's glad she didn't sell Buddy.

"I would have been happy for them, but you know what, it's perfect timing. God knows what you need, when you need it," she said. "Like I said before, it's overwhelming at times. For him to do what he did and the timing of it all... It's not like I've got all these little kids at home, and I have to make a choice of what I'm going to do. I don't have to sell him so that's a huge blessing. I had a goal of winning $50,000 on him and I'm just short of a $100- on him right now. It's pretty amazing."

Brittany Tonozzi Banks $36K at Colorado Classic and Circuit Rodeos

By Julie Mankin

A year after Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi shattered WPRA earnings records in 2023 en route to her third world title, she didn't even make the '24 NFR for lack of horses. But this year's shaping up different. The Texas powerhouse isn't just ranked second in the world, having already earned over $93,000, but she has a big enough margin to stay home more, now. That means she's racking up paychecks at futurities and derbies – including winning both open and incentive maturities at the Colorado Classic on June 12-14 in Montrose, Colo. Aboard six horses in multiple races, she earned $32,241 in Montrose. And on her way there, that Thursday, she hit slack at two rodeos and won first and second for an additional $3,949.

"I didn't even enter Reno," said Pozzi Tonozzi, content to hang out with her family at their summer home in Monument, Colo., entering circuit rodeos and working young horses. "I love the Colorado Classic – I've won so much money there over the years! To be able to go for just two days and run on really good ground for that kind of money, there aren't very many places like that."

She won the lion's share on Pete Carr's big grey gelding Sir Epic, by JL Sirocco out of the Epic Leader/Streakin Six mare So Very Epic. On the 7-year-old trained by Kassie Mowry, Pozzi-Tonozzi won the Ute Mountain Round-Up in Cortez by almost three-tenths for $2,209.

Then, in Montrose, the pair smoked runs of 15.1 and 15.2 to win both the Colorado Classic Incentive Futurity (with $100,000 added) and the $10,000-added DePaolo Equine Concepts Open Futurity, which drew 154 horses. Together with what those same runs earned in the Open, The Money Barrel 2D, and the Stallion Incentive, Sir Epic's weekend total came to $26,600.

"Pete called me last year right after I got home from Caldwell, when Maybelline was still in the hospital with pneumonia, and asked if I wanted to take Sir Epic and season him for Morgan (Bagnell – his stepdaughter) and see what I could get done," she recalled. "He was my saving grace at the time, because I didn't even have anything to ride at the circuit finals."

They won $18,353 at Rodeo Austin, and it's safe to say Sir Epic is basically finished indoors, but Pozzi-Tonozzi said they're still working on things in outdoor arenas.

"You can lope him and he's so light in the bridle, but as soon as you head toward that alley, he gets stiff as a board and it's kind of like pulling on a fence post," she said. "Then he just turns the barrels! I've never had a horse feel so strong and then just melt and turn."

On the way to Montrose, the other rodeo she hit was the San Juan Stampede in Monticello, Utah, where she placed second for $1,740 on Bobby – Tamara Walker's 11-year-old Australian gelding that carried Pozzi Tonozzi to third at RodeoHouston for $28,250 this spring. He's by Seconds Ta Fame and out of the great Australian barrel mare Savas Miss Kayaotoc. In Montrose, she also placed fifth and sixth in the Colorado Classic maturities on JL Roc Lost A Sock to earn $5,599.

He's also by JL Sirocco and out of the Thoroughbred mare Reddy To Rebound, who goes way back to Raise A Native. In addition, Tonozzi made good runs on her 6-year-old mare Babe On The Prowl, a full sister to her great mare Katniss (by Dash Ta Fame out of Streakin Six Babe).

She ran three futurity horses, also, and placed ninth on her 4-year-old mare My Kisses Are Lucky, by Lucky Wonder Horse out of her great mare Mona (Kisskiss Bangbang). "Lucky" is easy to ride and will likely eventually go to her daughter. In fact, the talk of the town has been 8-year-old Tinlee Tonozzi's success of late. It continued in Montrose when she again outran some of her mother's times en route to not only placing second in the Open

"Jenna Beaver called me just a couple of weeks before we left Texas and said she had this horse that was 19 and didn't need to be on the road, but would be really good with a kid," Pozzi Tonozzi recalled. "And ... boom. Tinlee's kicking everybody's butts on him." The gelding, cow-bred Smart Lil Spade, has been to pro rodeos and was a winner for Jennifer Arnold and Max Chouest even before Beaver. Early this summer, Brittany and her husband, Garrett, were hauling Tinlee to Steamboat every weekend for the peewee barrel race and to the weekly youth rodeo near their home. Plus, Tinlee may run at some CPRA rodeos this summer.

“She ran some really fast times at Hamilton, and it’s been a thing for a little while now – her outrunning me,” Brittany said. “She’s always telling me about it, too. She gets the competitiveness from both sides!”

As for Pozzi Tonozzi, she’s about to hit the rodeo trail with Sir and Bobby in the trailer, along with Babe On The Prowl, for some seasoning.

“My goal is always to get to the NFR,” she said. “I’m pretty close to that one. It’s nice to have a cushion. I’m enjoying my time in Colorado, riding my colts. It’s a nice change from the hustle and bustle.”

$28,872 Bonus Race World Finals for Kylee Scribner-Fischer & Firewater Cartel

By Tanya Randall

Former WPRA Rookie of the Year Kylee Scribner-Fischer and her arena record setting gelding Firewater Cartel (“BB”) set the pace in two races to leave the Succeed Bonus Race Finals, held June 9-15 in Shawnee, Oklahoma, with $28,872 for two runs.

“It’s such a good race and they run it so well,” said Scribner-Fischer, who won $13,000 during her first trip to the event last year. “That staff is amazing to work with. It’s a really great race.”

Scribner-Fischer and BB won the titular race for $6,695 and the high-stakes, limited entry Ultimate Bonus for $14,893 with a 14.763. They also picked up 2D money in the Bonus and Ultimate Bonus as well as some day money.

“I was figuring (BB’s) earnings after winning this, and he’s now at $356,000,” she noted.

Scribner-Fischer made her runs on Thursday and Friday. Their second run was the pacesetter.

“He made a really nice first run,” she said. “He was a 15.3,” a 15.326 to be exact. “We had a really pretty run but took a step off the second and went a step deep at the third.”

Their second run put .155 on the field of more than 1600 runners in the Bonus.

“I think we just came back ready to run the second run,” Scribner-Fischer laughed. She hadn’t run the gelding much the past few months. “I’ve only ran him once in the last four weeks. I think we were just a little rusty that first run back at Shawnee. The second run we were ready to go!”

The Bellevue, Texas-based barrel racer and trainer partnered with BB in his fourth year. She purchased him from his breeder Larry Pritchard. The gelding, by Firewater Frost out of DNA Awesome Chrystal, by SC Chiseled In Stone, was trained by Pritchard’s wife Holly.

Scribner-Fischer, who hyphenated her surname last October when she added her husband Cole’s name, caught national attention with an arena record performance at the 2020 WPRA World Finals. They won the Rookie title the following year but changed course shortly after.

“He did really well on the (rodeo) circuit,” she explained. “He was Top 20 two years in a row. It’s not the fact that he couldn’t compete at the rodeos. The miles and runs that I was putting on my horse wasn’t justified in the payout and the bad ground that I was running on. Some of those rodeos have great ground and try really hard to make things right, but when I can go four hours from the house and win right under $29,000 for two runs? You honestly can’t beat that! The fact that we have opportunity now in barrel racing—we didn’t always have that option a few years ago—now that we do, you can’t beat it.

Her goal is to take him to events where she can win the most for his runs. Thankfully, there are more opportunities available outside of rodeos and the major incentives.

“He’s not derby eligible anymore,” she said. “I’ve been taking him to the slot races. He’s in a few incentives, like Triple Crown 100, Legends of the South, Diamond Classic and Future Fortunes. Three of those have slot races or big main events. I take him to those. He won $8,000 at Legends of the South Slot Race in December. I really save him for that kind of stuff—where you only make one or two runs and have a chance at winning big money.”

She’s grateful for those opportunities.

“I think it’s been a game-changer for our industry. Even a horse like him that’s not in big incentives, there’s still a lot of money out there for grabs.”

Arena Record For Madison Camozzi & Little Red Rosie at Sisters Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

In the Friday night performance of the $15,000-added Sisters Rodeo, held June 12-15 in Oregon, Madison Camozzi blitzed through the barrel pattern on Kay Palmer's 8-year-old mare Little Red Rosie to break Katie Jo Halbert and Miz Milania's 17.19 arena record from 2023 by a full tenth. Camozzi and Rosie's 17.09 held for a $7,099 victory.

"We were tight," said the recent college graduate from Petaluma, California. "I try to not run her a lot. I like her a little bit fresher. She felt amazing there. Every run is just barrel by barrel. When she goes to turn, she's turning."

Riding Palmer's mare was actually a last minute decision. She was planning on riding her own 8-year-old gelding Six Moons Flaming ("Rowdy").

"I looked at the arena, and it looked more of Rosie's setup," said Camozzi. "I watched the perf the night before on the Cowboy Channel, and it looked like the ground was going to hold so I think I want to run Rosie. It worked out pretty good."

It wasn't until the next morning that she realized the significance of making that amazing run on Friday. A year to the day earlier, she lost her good mare Designed By Scarlett ("Celine") to a fractured pelvis.

Losing Celine is what put her on course to ride Rosie.

"When I originally lost my mare last year, Kay messaged me," she explained. "She knew I was looking. I got Rosie to run, and I ran her for a little bit. It just wasn't a great time in my life. It actually was one of the hardest points in my life. It ended up not working out."

Although they were very successful at the start, even setting an arena record on their second run together, the loss of Celine and her plans to rodeo more left her in a mental fog.

"I just wasn't in the right headspace," said Camozzi, who followed her mother and older sister into the sport. "I just thought it would be best that Kay had her back. I didn't want to waste anybody's time. I don't know if I realized at the time that I wasn't in the best headspace from losing my mare and getting over that loss."

Camozzi spent more time with her family until Rowdy came along later that year. Ironically, it was a second chance pairing. After high school, Camozzi was looking for a horse and Kyle Jack McEntire had told her mother about Rowdy, who was trained and campaigned by Kylie West. Although they didn't go look at him then, when she lost Celine last year, they were able to purchase Rowdy from Ilyssa Riley through Jana Bean.

"It was meant to be for him to come to my barn," she said. "It wasn't the right time but then it ended up being the right time later on."

Then this spring, Palmer offered her Rosie again.

"She told me that she was pregnant, and she wanted Rosie to go to Red Bluff," Camozzi said. "I thought that was an amazing opportunity."

She was still undecided until she ran Rosie in the C-N Maturity. They tipped a barrel but were a 16.8 on a WPRA Standard Pattern. "After that run, I was like, I do want to take her to Red Bluff!" said Camozzi, who won the first round and placed in the aggregate at Red Bluff along with Santa Maria and Logandale. "It's been great ever since. It's been a blessing to have her."

Camozzi said she takes each run with Rosie, barrel by barrel. "She's definitely more challenging," she said. "I feel we've developed a good understanding of each other and a good bond. She knows her job and I'm learning how to help and what the right setups for her to succeed."

Camozzi started her weekend run, making a placing run on Rowdy at the $10,000-added Eagle Rodeo in Idaho on Thursday. On Friday night, she ran at Sisters. Saturday afternoon, she had a big challenge in Livermore, California, where Celine was injured the year before. She tipped a barrel but got through the run.

"It wasn't easy," she said. "I actually hadn't planned on entering it but after talking to Kay, Rosie had won it two years ago. That was kind of the start of Rosie rodeoing with Kay. They had won Livermore, and she thought she'd better go to make the circuit finals."

On Sunday, Camozzi received her agricultural communications degree from Cal-Poly, where she was a two-time College National Finals Rodeo qualifier.

Now, she's planning on making the rodeo run she was denied last year. This week, she's got Fallon and Elko, Nevada and Santa Ynez, California, with Rowdy. Rosie won't run again until the Reno Rodeo the following week.

"My parents are really supportive," she said. "They've allowed me to have this opportunity to go rodeo, and I'm very grateful for that."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We never let the basics slip. We learn more. We practice the Word.

It's a process that will serve us well, in everything we do, but none more important than knowing what God says and how to apply it to our daily life.

Practicing His Word will make us winners in all we set our hands to!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

If a person wants to better themselves in anything, you must continue to learn. And practice! I'm thankful I know more in barrel racing now than what I knew years ago. Which was pretty much nothing! LOL! I also know, there's much, much more.

I was listening to a man on Western Sports Roundup talk about steer wrestling. Not exactly my event, but I was so impressed by his knowledge of just what it takes to accomplish the feat of dogging and hazing. I didn't have a clue it encompassed so many factors. But he knew. He talked about his shaky beginning and the mistakes he made, to his eventual NFR championship, more than one.

It's that way with the Word of God. How do we get from being babes in the Word to full on warriors? 2 Tim. 3:14 tells us in part to, continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, and those things will make you wise. We grow in God.

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR FACEBOOK LIVE STREAMED BIBLE STUDY!
