Combs and Skeeter Repeat as College National Finals Champions

By Tanya Randall

"It's such a blessing," said Liz Combs of her second straight College National Finals Rodeo Barrel Racing Championship. "I never dreamed of winning it the first time. God has really taken care of me and given me some amazing opportunities the last couple of years. I'm just so blessed."

Combs, a senior Animal Science major at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas, won the first go and finals en route to her second championship. Her strategy in the first round was the same philosophy that put her in the WPRA World Standings—just go for it.

"My first run, we went for it," said Combs of her 10-year-old homegrown hero Bogies Lil Skeeter. "I was really surprised. He kind of blew the first barrel pretty bad and we still won the round. The second round, I slowed him a bit to the first so he would see it and then the next two runs I pushed him hard again."

An eye infection over the 2010 Christmas holidays left Skeeter with a small blind spot in his right eye. Combs said it usually doesn't affect him.

"Sometimes I'll notice him being a little different if the first barrel is a little hard to see," she said. "He just has a small scar where they treated the eye. Unless it's kind of shadowy, he's usually fine."

Skeeter, a gelded son of multiple Columbia River Circuit Champion and National Finals Rodeo average finalist Bogie Biankus, is out of Street Royal, a racehorse by the Thoroughbred Street Royal. Street Royal was given to Combs and her older sister Shelly by a neighbor.

As the oldest sibling, Shelly got first pick on which stud to breed the mare. Since she was already successfully competing on a Juno Dat Cash out of the mare, the Dash For Cash son was the obvious choice. Unfortunately, the foal had to be put down.

"I got to pick second," said Combs, who also finished ninth at the CNFR in the goat tying. "My parents really influenced me to pick Bogie Biankus. I was only 12 and didn't know a whole lot about those things."

Ever since Skeeter was born, every other year Street Royal has been bred back to Bogie Biankus.

"He's got three full siblings and one on the way," said Combs, who hails from Eltopia, Wash. "My sister has a 7-year-old. He's won some races and then not clocked so well. He's just inconsistent yet. He's clocked a 16.9 on a (WPRA) standard. It's just taking him a little longer to develop."

Combs said her sister also has a 4-year-old filly that was supposed to be hers. But she didn't have the time to commit to another horse with her school and rodeo schedule.

"My sister's roping breakaway on her and starting to take her

AQHA Announces Health Requirements for 2012 Shows

All horses entering the grounds of a 2012 American Quarter Horse Association world championship show must have current (30-day) original health certificates, as well as original negative Coggins tests dated within the last 12 months of the show. This includes horses that originate from the state where the show is being held. The results on health certificates and Coggins papers should indicate the horse's registered name.

Horses affected by or having been exposed to any contagious disease during the 30 days preceding the world championship show will be excluded from the grounds.

All horses (whether entered or not) and livestock that enter the grounds are subject to examination by AQHA officials/designated representatives and/or state officials (collectively "officials") for determining whether such animals are, have been infected/exposed, or are likely to be infected with an infectious or contagious disease. If after such examination, such officials have reason to believe that an animal's health condition places other animals at risk, such officials, at their sole discretion, may quarantine such animal (and others that may have been infected/exposed) or, if appropriate, require that such animals be transported off the grounds.

AQHA is not requiring a negative blood test for equine piroplasmiasis for the 2012 AQHA world championship shows. Should this change, health requirements by show will be announced at:

2012 Built Ford Tough AQHYA World Championship Show, August 3-11 in Oklahoma City – www.aqha.com/youthworld
2012 Adequan Select World Championship Show, August 24-September 1 in Amarillo – www.aqha.com/selectworld

2012 AQHA World Championship Shows, November 2-17 in Oklahoma City – www.aqha.com/worldshow

In addition to AQHA's health requirements, owners should consult the health requirements of the state(s) through which their horse is traveling. A list of veterinary services area offices from across the United States can be found at www.aphis.usda.gov.

pattern. Thanks to his success in the barrel pen, Skeeter's time in the roping box is rather limited.

Following the CNFR, Combs headed south to the Reno Rodeo before starting a limited Fourth of July run. The CNFR forced her to miss many of the lucrative Canadian rodeos, so she chose to stay in the States rather than cross the border for the few remaining events. Instead, she'll hit Pleasant Grove, Utah, before heading home for St. Paul, Molalla and Eugene, Ore.

"A good friend of mine got engaged a year ago," laughed Combs. "She picked June 30 for her wedding and I'm the maid of honor. It kind of messed up my Fourth of July."

Afterwards, Combs will pick right back up on the rodeo trail. She'd like to thank ProCom wizard Ann Thompson entering for her. "She's really helped me out," said Combs, who is sponsored by Bayou West Pads and Silver Lining Herbs. "Entering right is really hard. Knowing when to enter at which rodeo is really important."

Combs plans on making a run for the WNFR. How the remainder of the rodeo season goes will dictate whether she finishes her last semester of college education this fall or in the spring.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's nice to go out and find your horses waiting for you at the gate or the barn door and not have to go tramping around the pasture looking for them. It's nice, too, when you call or whistle and they come on the trot.

Well, did you know God is waiting at the door of your heart and you don't have to go searching for Him to catch Him?

Jesus said in revelation 3:20, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him..." God said in Hebrew 13:5 that He would never leave us nor forsake us. It's comforting to know that the Creator of the universe and Savior of the world cares for the smallest detail of our lives and He hears our cries for help when we are lonely, afraid, sick or in need. He never fails to help us but He will not intrude in our lives unless invited.

Scripture tells us that God is good, a refuge in times of trouble.

He cares for those who trust in Him. Jesus said in Matthew 28:20 that He would be with us always, even to the end of the world so we have nothing to fear if we've made Him our Lord and Savior.

All things are possible with God but remember Hebrew 11 tells us it is impossible to please God without faith but He rewards those who look to Him. The next time you see your horses waiting by the corral for you, remember that God is just waiting for you, too, to bless you!
