Tinzy Grant & Skylar Alves Top Sherry Cervi Youth Championships

By Tanya Randall

Tinzy Grant's first trophy saddle was a Martin Stingray from winning the junior division average at the Sherry Cervi Youth Championships, held May 28-30 at the Diamond Bar Arena in Ceres, California. Decorated California high school competitor Skylar Alves claimed the senior division championship and reserve title.

For 12-year-old Tinzy, it was her first trip to the SCYC, and was "totally surprised" by winning the saddle. Her mom, Sarah, called it "an amazing thing."

"We definitely didn't go thinking we were going to win the saddle," Sarah said. "It was her first saddle and for her to win it at an event like that with Sherry running it was a big blessing for your first one."

"She's definitely always right there, but to be able to win one with all the tough competitors that were at Sherry's was a big deal. It was really exciting. Her horse is feel good and working really well right now."

Stacy Coulthard helped pair Tinzy with French Fire Belle ("Hottie"), a 13-year-old Paint mare, two years ago. The granddaughter of Frenchmans Guy through her sire Cute French Guy, out of the paint Fire Water Flit mare Flashy Firewater, came from Kelsey Mauro.

"She's super sweet and she runs good every time," said Tinzy, who grew up riding. Her parents are team ropers and her father Clayton is a former National Finals Rodeo qualifier. "She's always going to try her best."

Tinzy, who wants to be a professional barrel racer when she grows up like her idol Sherry Cervi, said she loved that there were so many awards for everyone.

"Sherry was super nice and it was so much fun there," she said. "I'm glad I got to compete."

Her next big trip will be to Des Moines, Iowa, for the National Jr High Finals Rodeo.

She wanted to thank her parents, Clayton and Sarah, Stacy for helping her find and ride Hottie, Mauro for her support and being her and Hottie's biggest cheerleader and God, saying "Without Him, it wouldn't be possible."

Senior champion Skylar Alves has been attending the SCYC for the past seven years. Last year, she ended up the reserve champion. "I was really hoping this year I would finally pull through. It was exciting. It was hoped (for), but not expected," said the 16-year-old rising senior from Camarillo, California.

Alves rode JR Finally Famous to the championship. The 11-year-old Famous Bugs mare, out of Dusty Jazzy Dancer, by Touchdown Dancer, came from her breeder Katie Pascoe and her mother Sherrie Jones.

"I got her about three or so years ago," said Alves. She had only had the mare a year, when Finally stuck her back leg through a fence and tore her tendon sheath. Her recovery was complicated by seizures caused by misadministered medication. "We have such a connection from her nine month recovery. I think it's made us better together. I'm really blessed to be on her."

Alves and Finally, who was named SCYC Horse With The Most Heart in 2019, swept the rounds winning the first in 17.424 and the second with a 17.321.

She was also second in the aggregate on her mom's horse Nic N Shine ("Nicolette"). The 16-year-old daughter of Nic It In The Bud out of Shining N Seattle, by Shining Spark, came from former NFR qualifier Jerri Mann. Skylar gets to ride the mare at most of the bigger races.

"She's been amazing for me," said Skylar, who followed her mom into the arena at 3. "She's a very dramatic mare, which makes us not always get along. If I give her compliments and cookies all day, she'll try her hardest and we love her for it."

Skylar was actually winning the aggregate on Nicolette before she ran Finally in the second round. She said she actually felt more pressure running her second horse.

"I knew I was leading it, but a few of my friends were left to run and they were really fast," she said. "I would have been really sad to have done good all weekend and then at the very end have someone beat me because I hit a barrel or was too slow. It was more pressure."

The daughter of Vic and Darleen Alves is planning on a career in communication and has college visits scheduled from coast to coast this summer. The former National High School Rodeo Finalist is hoping for a return trip this year after next week's California State Finals.

She wanted to thank her parents for their support, Cervi for producing the event and Pasco and Jones for selling her Finally.

Super Fan & Super Horses

Sherry Cervi's extra effort to bring a large event to the West Coast didn't go unnoticed.

Junior Champion Tinzy Grant's parents Clayton and Sarah were impressed with their first trip to the event.

"Sherry Cervi has always been an idol in the barrel racing world," said Sarah. "She just had a pulse on everyone that was there, from working the gate to knowing the stories of the kids and horses that were there. I think we were all in tears at times during the weekend, from the inspirational talk in the beginning to the people that she recognized at the end. It was really a great all-around feeling event."

Senior Champion Skylar Alves said Cervi was her favorite part of the event.

"My favorite thing is Sherry, how caring she is to put on all these races for us and making it equal pay so everyone feels special," she said. "She also does all the announcements at the end and we get to learn about all these amazing people and horses. I think that's really special."

One of those special moments was the honoring of Georgia Stepp. A resident of nearby Merced, California, Stepp has attended every Sherry Cervi Youth Championship held in Ceres since 2008. Stepp, who will turn 99 in two short months, doesn't have any connections to any contestant but just enjoys watching the young riders.

Cervi honored her Youth Championship Super Fan in the arena and asked her to share some words of wisdom with the contestants to which she replied, "Enjoy life and take the good with the bad and just enjoy it."

The four-time WPRA World Champion also honored the great horses of her past by awarding Horse With The Most Heart awards within the two divisions of her race.

The junior horse honored was 26-year-old Straight Poco ("Twitch"). The gelding had been with the Swaner family for 18 years. Slightly ornery and prone to running off, the gelding eventually made a steady riding horse. However, his bond with young Sally was more than enough to make up for his naughty past. The former runaway was fine with walking through Sally's first patterns. Later Twitch willingly picked up the pace to win and carried 10-year-old Sally to her first trophy saddle with a Junior 4D win at this year's SCYC.

Kill-pen survivor Star was named the Senior Horse With The Most Heart. Purchased for a mere $200 five years ago, Star was given to Bradyn Bronkowski when she was 14. Health issues had left Bronkowski wheelchair bound, but she was still able to work with Star. The mare became sensitive to Bronkowski's seizures and would stop and alert her family before they occurred. Sadly, Bronkowski passed away just over a year ago.

Bronkowski's mother called the Chowchilla 4H and asked if there was another girl deserving of Star. The mare was paired with Kalissa James. Together they carried flags and competed in gymkhana until Kalissa wanted to try her hand at jackpot barrel racing. They made their first entry the Friday of the SCYC and won their first check.

"They call Star 'the magical unicorn,'" said Cervi, "and I think she is."

PREPARE TO WIN with TY & STEVI HILLMAN

Choosing to act with courage is a choice. Being courageous means you are afraid to do something but choose to do it anyway.

If you want to do something you have never done, you will need to choose to be courageous because you will be afraid, or at least, you will feel uncertain. This fear is a natural response to protect yourself and to keep you safe.

While never taking any chances may keep you alive, it doesn't help you explore your potential or expand your capacity.

I believe God designed us all for a specific purpose, and in living that purpose out, we will be uncomfortable at times... extremely uncomfortable at other times. That's why God commands us to be courageous (Joshua 1:7)... because to do what he asks us to do and to fulfill our potential, we will feel fear, uncertainty, and be tempted to play it safe rather than trust Him.

It takes courage to go against natural instinct to play it safe and step out in faith and trust God when you feel like he is asking you to do something you are afraid to try.

However, the more you choose to be courageous, the easier it becomes because you learn to embrace uncertainty and you get to experience the exhilarating feeling of God providing a way for you.

Sometimes, you achieve the result you desired. Sometimes, you may not get the result you desired, but you will see that He will cause things to work out for your good (Romans 8:28).

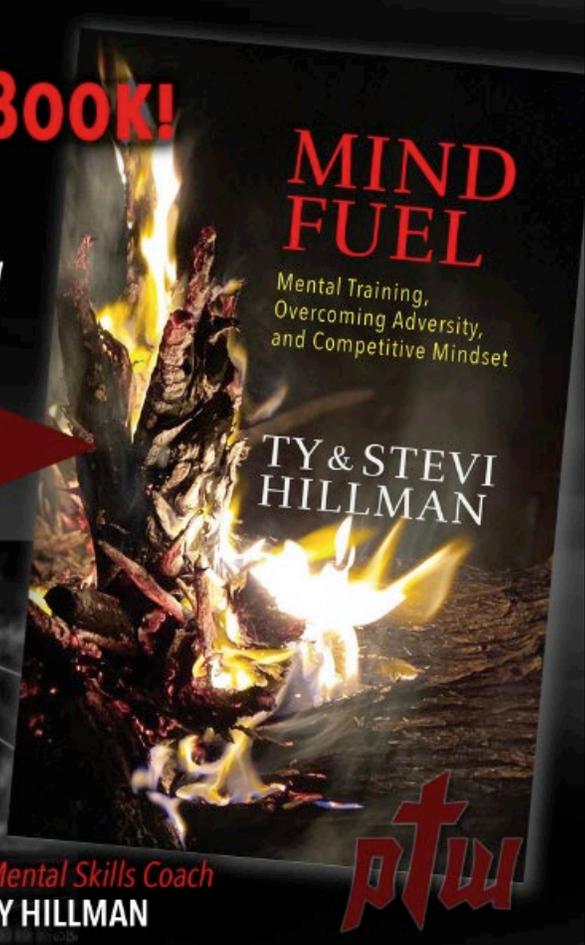

The more you do this, the more your faith grows and the more you trust God to do what he says he will do... But, it all starts with your decision to be courageous.

Today, choose to be courageous!

Breeder's Spotlight - Continuing A Legacy

by Tanya Randall

Barb Westover of Egan, South Dakota, isn't big on the spotlight. She'd rather the spotlight belong to the horses she's raised. She's like her mother, Frances Loiseau, in that regard.

"She was a remarkable woman," Westover said of her mother, who forever changed the barrel racing industry with her breeding program. "She named the first Frenchman horses because the Loiseau name is French. I can remember saying to her at a futurity, 'Do you know how famous you are? It's Frenchmans this and Frenchmans that.' She said, 'I'm not famous. The horses are.'"

Lately, it's been Westover's horses turn to take the spotlight. Horses from Westover's breeding program, a continuation of her mothers, has dominated two of the marquee aged events of 2021.

Westover's program has produced Ms French Walla Walla, the Ruby Buckle Guthrie Futurity and Open Champion, and French Streaktovegas, sire of Old Fort Days Futurity and Derby Champions M R Smashed N Vegas and M R Repete Pete.

As with her mother's great Hall Of Fame mare, Casey's Ladylove, Westover's favorite horse to ride at shows as child—"In the four-horse relay, I was always last because she was so fast, she'd always catch up!"—her program started with a cornerstone mare—PC Frenchmans Flirt, whom she got from her mother as a weanling.

Flirt was a product of her mother's partnership with Pat Cowan, which is why she bears the PC initials before her name. The 1992 mare was by Sun Frost and out of Frenchman's Lady, by Laughing Boy, a son of Lightning Bar. Frenchman's Lady, of course, was out of Casey's Ladylove.

"We really didn't know what we had when we started," Westover chuckled. "I had Renee Kenney started her and we went to a few futurities with her. We did good but only went to a couple. After we got done with those futurities, I brought her home and started riding her."

Westover rodeoed and jackpotted on the mare for several years and didn't breed her until she was 15. Brian Fulton was a family friend, and when she saw a picture of the new stud he bought, A Streak Of Fling, she knew she found her sire.

"The first and only was A Streak Of Fling," said Westover, who added she flushed the mare so she could keep running her. "The first two were French Streakofbling and Frenchmans Streaker. My goal was to keep one and sell one to help pay for the breeding bill." French Streakofbling, known as Flirty or Bling, was sent to another family acquaintance for training, Hallie (Melvin) Hanssen.

"That was the first experience we had with the futurities," she explained. "My goal was to send her to Hallie to get her going so I could go to the barrel races. I had no idea that I was going big time. Hallie would call me and tell me how good she was doing. One day she called me and said, 'Barb, we need to enter her in the Fizz Bomb.' I remember telling her specifically, 'Hallie, I'm not that big of a player. I don't think so.' She said, 'No Barb, you need to enter this horse.' So, we late entered her and she won $3,000. In that day that was a lot and it went on from there. She rodeoed on Flirty for a year and did really well on her, then I got her back and went to some things on her."

Flirty end up being a multiple futurity finalist and won close to $20,000 at aged events.

The first national superstar from the A Streak Of Fling, PC Frenchmans Flirt cross was 2007 foal French Streaktovegas, who won five futurities as a 5-year-old futurity horse before winning the BFA Derby that same year. A multiple pro rodeo winner with several different riders, French Streaktovegas had a breakthrough year as a sire of multiple futurity winners in 2020 before his untimely death last fall.

The late stallion French Streaktorodeo was from the 2008 crop. He was an aged event champion, Canadian pro rodeo money earner and American qualifier. Sadly, he too, is gone.

Westover said there were 11 foals from the A Streak Of Fling, PC Frenchmans Flirt cross, with two passing on as young horses. There was never any thought of trying another stallion on the mare.

Breeder's Spotlight

This week we are rolling out a new feature we will include from time to time; highlighting the people who put countless hours in planning the perfect breedings and raising colts; the breeders, with a Breeder's Spotlight. We started out with the Barb Westover, the breeder of the Ruby Buckle Futurity & Open winner, Ms French Wallawalla, and her most recent impact on the industry was the sire French Streaktovegas she bred who sired both the Old Fort Days Futurity & Super Derby Champion. French Streaktovegas also sired 3 of the Top 7 in the Old Fort Days Futurity!

"I thought, 'No, this is working, and they were in demand,'" she said. "They're nice horses, but they're not toys. They are serious horses. They have a mission to do their job."

In addition to Flirt, who still rules the place at 29—"She's beautiful. She still looks like she's 10 or 12"—Westover also has the 10-year-old mare French Streakin Izzy, a multiple futurity finalist with aged event earnings of more than $20,000, and the stallion French Streakin Jess, the Greg Olson Memorial Slot Race Champion and multiple futurity finalist with earnings of nearly $50,000 as a 5-year-old. All were trained and campaigned by the Hanssens.

"It was Lee and Hallie's vision for us to be where we are today. We bred the mares and chose the stud, but it was their vision to go big time like we are today. We owe so much to them. It's not just a partnership anymore. We're family."

Westover has been crossing her A Streak Of Fling, PC Frenchmans Flirt daughters on the Hanssen's late stallion, The Kandyman. Just recently, Izzy and Flirty dropped fillies by the son of Tres Seis and Famous Silk Panties.

On the other side of the equation, French Streakin Jess was a futurity champion sire with his freshman crop and a multiple futurity finalist sire through his sophomore class.

She said she's just been "in awe" of the accomplishments of the horses from her program.

"I cannot express the feeling I have for all their success," Westover said. "I kept saying to myself, 'Mom would be so happy'...but she knows. I keep saying that to my siblings, 'Wouldn't Mom be happy?'"

If it is possible,
as far as it
depends on you,
live at peace
with everyone.

Jimmie Munroe Officially Takes Over the Reins as WPRA President

Beginning today, May 27th, Jimmie Munroe officially starts her Women's Professional Rodeo Association Presidency following the WPRA Special Election.

This is a familiar spot for Munroe having served the WPRA in this position twice before. Her first WPRA President term was from 1978-1993 and then again from 2011 to 2012. Munroe takes over the position left vacant by Doreen Wintermute, who retired early the end of March.

"It will truly be an honor and privilege to once again serve our entire membership as your WPRA President," said Munroe upon hearing the final results of the special election. "Now is the time to come together so that we can move our sport into the bright future that I know lies ahead."

Munroe brings a wealth of knowledge, history and respect to the position. During her previous terms as president she led the association in acquiring equal prize money, obtained national sponsors and advanced the use of electric timers and better arena conditions.

A true all-around cowgirl, Munroe competed in barrel racing, breakaway roping, and goat tying. A Texas native-born in Waco and currently residing in Valley Mills, she entered her first horse show at three, her first rodeo at ten, and had a rodeo career that included three WPRA world titles (barrels, all-around, tie-down roping-all in 1975), 11 trips to the National Finals Rodeo on three different horses, a two-time NIRA National Champion Barrel Racer and an NIRA National Champion All-Around Cowgirl. She graduated from Sam Houston State University with a bachelor's degree in education in which she has used not only as a leader of the Association but in conducting horsemanship and barrel racing clinics worldwide, including Australia, Brazil, Canada and of course the United States.

In 1980, she married Dan O. "Bud" Munroe a 12-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier and 1986 saddle bronc riding world champion. The couple has one daughter, Tassie Munroe.

In 1990, Munroe was named the Coca-Cola "Woman of the Year in Professional Rodeo," in 1996 was awarded the Tad Lucas Award by the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum, in 1999 was named the Pioneer Woman of the WPRA and in 2008 was named a Distinguished Alumni of Sam Houston State University. She has been inducted into the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame (1992), the Texas Rodeo Cowboy Hall of Fame (1997), the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame (2003), in 2016 was inducted with her husband in the National Cowboy Hall of Fame and in 2019 she joined her husband, who was inducted in 2007, into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

You can't get much done in life
if you only work on the days when you feel good.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Matthew 6:33 instructs us to seek FIRST the kingdom of God, and ALL these things will be added unto you. If you are needing something and it hasn't come to you yet, it would be a good idea to pray over this scripture and check yourself to be sure you are seeking HIM first and not the THINGS.

When we ask Jesus to be our Lord, we are giving Him the right to be our boss. Yet, it is so easy to keep doing the same thing, the same way, and trying to get a different result. We asked Him to be our Lord, so He does the leading.

If He's Lord, we need to get up in the morning and ask HIM what we're doing today. However, we often go about 'our' business. Then we end up spending a lot of time asking Him to fix 'our' plan.

It would be so much better if we get His direction, do it, and walk in the Blessing it brings when we are obedient to HIS will. Turning our life and plans over to Jesus, who gave HIS LIFE for us, should be a no brainer! If we do, we will want for nothing! Let's seek Him first!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
